Emerging growth company

If an emerging growth company, indicate by check mark if the registrant has elected not to use the extended transition period for complying with any new or revised financial accounting standards provided pursuant to Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act.

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On November 12, 2018, James E. Harris resigned from his position as Executive Vice President, Business Transformation and Business Services of Coca-Cola Bottling Co. Consolidated (the Company) and all positions and offices he held with the Company's subsidiaries and affiliates, each effective as of the close of business on December 30, 2018 (the Separation Date), to pursue other opportunities.

In connection with his resignation, Mr. Harris and the Company entered into a Consulting and Separation Agreement and Release (the Agreement) on November 12, 2018, to assist in the transition of his duties and to provide such other services to the Company as may be requested from time to time by the Company, in both cases, during the Transition Term (as defined below). The Agreement provides that Mr. Harris will continue to be employed by the Company from November 12, 2018, the date of execution of the Agreement (the Execution Date), through the Separation Date (the Transition Term). The Agreement also provides that, during the Transition Term, the Company shall continue to pay and provide Mr. Harris his annual base salary and benefits, all as in effect immediately prior to the Execution Date. Further, pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, Mr. Harris is entitled to receive no later than March 15, 2019 (i) the annual bonus earned under the Company's 2018 Annual Bonus Plan and (ii) the long-term award earned under the Company's 2016-2018 Long-Term Performance Plan.

The Agreement also provides that, during the period from the Separation Date through March 31, 2019 (the Consulting Term), Mr. Harris shall be available to provide certain advisory and consulting services to the Company. Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, any services provided by Mr. Harris during the Consulting Term shall be provided as an independent contractor of the Company and not as an employee.

In consideration for Mr. Harris' comprehensive release of claims against the Company and its affiliates and his covenants set forth in the Agreement regarding continuing cooperation, non-disparagement, non-competition (during the Separation Payment Term (as defined below) and for six months thereafter), non-interference with any of the Company's relationships with its existing or potential employees, suppliers or customers (during the Separation Payment Term and for six months thereafter), and nondisclosure of the Company's confidential information, Mr. Harris will be entitled to receive (i) monthly payments of $92,256.94 for 18 months (the Separation Payment Term), commencing as of the first calendar month following the expiration of the Transition Term, and (ii) a portion of the awards under the Company's 2017-2019 and 2018-2020 Long-Term Performance Plans, prorated for the portion of the performance periods of Mr. Harris' employment through the Separation Date, such prorated awards to be paid to Mr. Harris on the same date as awards for such performance periods are paid to other Company executives (collectively, the Separation Benefits). Under the terms of the Agreement, the Company's obligation to provide Mr. Harris the Separation Benefits is conditioned on Mr. Harris being in substantial compliance with the material terms of the Agreement as of the dates of the payments. Under the terms of the Agreement, Mr. Harris may revoke the Agreement for a period of seven days after the Execution Date. The Agreement will not become effective or enforceable until the seven-day revocation period has ended.

The foregoing description of the terms and conditions of the Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
