INFORTE CORP.
PROXY STATEMENT FOR 2003 STOCKHOLDERS ANNUAL MEETING
APRIL 30, 2003

INFORMATION CONCERNING SOLICITATION AND VOTING

General

The enclosed proxy is solicited on behalf of the board of directors of Inforte Corp. for use related to its 2003 stockholders annual meeting to be held on April 30, 2003 at 9:30 a.m. central daylight time, or at any adjournments or postponements thereof, for the purpose set forth in this proxy statement and in the accompanying notice of stockholders annual meeting. The meeting will be held completely on an electronic basis. To access the live webcast of the meeting go to www.inforte.com at least 30 minutes prior to the meeting start time to register. Inforte's telephone number is (312) 540-0900.

These proxy solicitation materials were mailed or delivered electronically on or about March 22, 2003 to all stockholders entitled to vote.

RECORD DATE; OUTSTANDING SHARES

Stockholders of record at the close of business on March 5, 2003 (the record date) are entitled to receive notice of and vote during the meeting. On the record date, 10,854,347 shares of Inforte's common stock, $0.001 par value, were issued and outstanding and held by 3,213 stockholders.

REVOCABILITY OF PROXIES

Stockholders may change their vote by revoking a proxy prior to the close of voting in one of four ways:

1. Deliver written notice to Inforte's corporate secretary that you are revoking your proxy;
2. Submit another proxy with a later date;
3. Submit another proxy by telephone or internet after you have provided an earlier proxy; or
4. Fax your completed proxy to (312) 332-9207 during the meeting.

VOTING AND SOLICITATION

Every stockholder of record on the record date is entitled, for each share held, to one vote on each proposal or item that comes before the meeting. Stockholders will not be allowed to cumulate their votes in the election of directors.

Inforte will bear the cost of soliciting proxies. Inforte may reimburse expenses incurred by brokerage firms and other persons representing beneficial owners of shares in forwarding solicitation material to beneficial owners. Proxies may be solicited by certain Inforte directors, officers and regular employees, without additional compensation, personally, by internet, by telephone or by fax.

QUORUM; ABSENTATIONS; BROKER NON-VOTES

Votes cast by proxy or via fax during the meeting will be tabulated by the inspector of elections with the assistance of Inforte's transfer agent. The inspector will also determine whether or not a quorum is present. In general, Delaware law provides that a quorum consists of a majority of shares which are entitled to vote and which are present or represented by proxy at the meeting. Except in certain specific circumstances, the affirmative vote of a majority of shares present in person or represented by proxy at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present is required under Delaware law for approval of proposals presented to stockholders. Since Inforte's meeting is entirely electronic, the affirmative vote will be determined by a majority of shares represented by proxy.

The inspector will treat shares that are voted WITHHELD or ABSTAIN as being present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum but will not treat these as votes in favor of or opposed to the matter submitted to the stockholders for a vote. All proxies will be voted as directed. Any proxy which is returned using the form of proxy enclosed and which is not marked as to a particular item will be voted for the election of the one class II director and three class III directors, for the ratification of the appointment of the designated independent auditors, and as the proxy holders deem advisable, on other matters that may properly come before the meeting, as the case may be, with respect to the items not marked.

If a broker indicates on the enclosed proxy or its substitute that it does not have discretionary authority as to certain shares to vote on a particular matter, those shares will not be considered as present with respect to that matter. Inforte believes that the tabulation procedures to be followed by the inspector are consistent with the Delaware statutory requirements concerning voting of shares and determination of a quorum.

SELECTING CANDIDATES TO SERVE ON THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Nominating Committee recommends nominees to serve as directors for the next year. The board of directors is soliciting proxies to elect these individuals. Except for Philip S. Bligh, the candidates currently nominated for the board of directors have been determined to be independent under applicable NASDAQ rules defining director independence. To recommend an individual for board membership, please write to the corporate secretary at Inforte's executive offices. If you intend to nominate a candidate for director at an annual meeting, you must give Inforte written notice. Such notice must be received by the corporate secretary at Inforte's executive offices no later than 120 days in advance of the first anniversary date of the mailing of Inforte's proxy statement released to stockholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting of stockholders. For the 2004 annual meeting, such notice must be received by no later than November 23, 2003.

DEADLINE FOR RECEIPT OF STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

Stockholder proposals which are intended to be presented at Inforte's 2004 annual meeting must be received by Inforte's corporate secretary no later than November 23, 2003 in order to be included in the proxy statement and form of proxy for that meeting. Stockholder proposals which are not to be included in Inforte's proxy statement for the 2004 annual meeting will be considered untimely if not received by November 23, 2003, and the persons named as proxies solicited by Inforte's board of directors for the 2004 annual meeting may exercise discretionary voting power with respect to any such proposal not submitted by that deadline.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REGARDING EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee has the exclusive authority to establish the level of salary payable to Inforte's chief executive officer and certain other executive officers. The committee is also responsible for administration of the incentive compensation plan and the employee stock purchase plan and for approving the individual bonus programs for the chief executive officer and certain other executive officers. Prior to Inforte's initial public offering on February 17, 2000, Inforte's board of directors made all decisions concerning officer compensation. The Committee is comprised solely of three non-employee directors, Messrs. Bundy, Kurzweil and Ries.

COMPENSATION PHILOSOPHY

The Committee's principal objective is to align executive compensation with long-term stockholder value. To achieve that objective, executive compensation has various components. One component is base salary, which is set below the median for similar positions at comparable companies. The second component is cash bonuses, which are linked to performance targets that relate to stockholder value, such as revenue and operating margin.

Stock options further align long-term executive performance and stockholder interests. Stock option grants are recommended by the employee directors to the Committee for approval. The Committee reviews recommended grants on various factors, including the executive's responsibilities, the executive's past, present and expected contributions to Inforte and the executive's current stock and option holdings. Historically, Inforte has placed a greater emphasis on equity ownership over cash compensation for executives.

CEO COMPENSATION

Philip S. Bligh's base salary and bonus for 2002 was set by Inforte's board of directors significantly below the median for similar positions at comparable companies. The Committee has set Mr. Bligh's 2003 base salary again at below market rates. Mr. Bligh's bonus for 2002 was based on quantitative corporate factors such as quarterly revenue and operating margin.

CEO AND EXECUTIVE OFFICER BONUS

The CEO and executive bonus plan is a quarterly plan based on company goals, such as revenue and operating margin, plus a qualitative assessment of the executive's performance. The program is designed to award below target or no payment when Inforte does not achieve threshold levels of performance for items such as revenue and operating margin and to pay above target amounts if target performance levels are exceeded.

Compliance with Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m)

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, generally disallows a federal income tax deduction to public companies for certain compensation in excess of $1 million paid to a corporation's chief executive officer or any of its four other most highly compensated executive officers. Qualifying performance-based compensation will not be subject to the deduction limit if certain requirements are met. Inforte has structured its stock incentive plans to qualify income received upon the exercise of stock options granted under those plans as performance-based compensation. The Committee intends to review the potential effects of Section 162(m) periodically and in the future may decide to structure additional portions of Inforte's compensation program in a manner designed to permit unlimited deductibility for federal income tax purposes.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Audit Committee is composed of three outside directors who are independent, as defined by NASDAQ National Market listing standards.

Management is responsible for Inforte's internal controls and financial reporting process. The independent auditors are responsible for performing an independent audit of Inforte's financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and issuing a report to Inforte's stockholders and board of directors on the results of this audit. The committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes. The committee's functions are defined by an audit committee charter adopted by the board of directors.

The Committee has met and held discussions with management and Ernst & Young LLP, Inforte's independent auditors. These meetings included sessions at which management was not present. The Committee discussed with Ernst & Young the results of its examination of Inforte's financial statements, its evaluation of Inforte's internal controls, and its assessment of the overall quality of Inforte's financial controls. Management represented to the Committee that Inforte's consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The Committee reviewed and discussed the financial statements with management and Ernst & Young. The Committee also discussed with Ernst & Young matters related to the financial reporting process required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing

Edgar Filing: INFORTE CORP - Form DEF 14A

Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees).

Ernst & Young also provided to the Committee the written disclosures and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and the Committee reviewed with Ernst & Young that firm's independence.

Based on the Committee's discussions with management and Ernst & Young, the Committee's review of the representations of management, and the report of Ernst & Young to the Committee, the Committee recommended that the board of directors include the audited financial statements in Inforte's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002. The Committee and the Board also have recommended for stockholder approval the retention of Ernst & Young as independent auditors for fiscal year 2003.

PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The following graph compares Inforte's stock price performance against the total stock price performance of the NASDAQ National Market and the Russell 2000 Index for the periods indicated. Inforte does not believe that there is a representative published industry or line-of-business index or a representative industry peer group of public companies against which to measure Inforte's stock price performance. Therefore, under SEC regulations, Inforte has selected the Russell 2000 Index, an index of companies with similar market capitalization to Inforte, to use as a representative peer group. The graph presents the year-end value of a $100 investment on February 17, 2000 in Inforte common stock at the $32.00 initial offering price and in each of the NASDAQ National Market and the Russell 2000 Index and assumes the reinvestment of dividends, if any.

INFORTE CORP.

Adopted January 30, 2003

Organization

There shall be a committee of the Board of Directors (the Board) of Inforte Corp., a Delaware corporation (the Company), known as the Audit Committee (the Committee). This Charter governs the operations of the Committee. The Charter will be reviewed and reassessed by the Committee and will be approved by the Board, at least annually. The Committee shall be appointed by the Board and shall be solely comprised of at least three directors, each of whom shall satisfy the requirements of independence for audit committee members, as set forth in the applicable rules and regulations of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (NASD), Section 10A(m)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC). All Committee members will be financially literate and at least one member will have accounting or related financial expertise and, if so required by applicable NASDAQ rules and regulations, be an audit committee financial expert, all in compliance with NASDAQ audit committee composition requirements. The members of the Committee shall be elected by the Board at an annual organizational meeting of the Board or serve until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified. Unless a Chair is elected by the full Board the members of the Committee may designate a Chair by majority vote of the full Committee membership.

Statement of Policy

The Committee will provide assistance to the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities to the stockholders relating to the Company's financial statements and the financial reporting process, the systems of internal accounting and financial controls, the internal audit function, the annual independent audit of the Company's financial statements, and the legal compliance and ethics programs established by management and the Board. In so doing, it is the responsibility of the Committee to maintain free and open communication between the Committee, the independent auditors, the internal auditors and management of the Company. In discharging its oversight role, the Committee is empowered to investigate any matter brought to its attention with full access to all books, records, facilities, and personnel of the Company and the power to retain, and to determine funding for, outside counsel and other advisors for this purpose.

Responsibilities and Processes

The primary responsibility of the Committee is to oversee the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board and report the results of its activities to the Board. Management is responsible for preparing the Company's financial statements, and the independent auditors are responsible for auditing those financial statements. The Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of the independent auditors (including resolution of disagreements between management and the independent auditors regarding financial reporting) for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or related work. The independent auditors shall report directly to the Committee.

Absent unusual circumstances, the Committee shall meet at least four times annually. Special meetings shall be held as circumstances require as determined by the Chair of the Audit Committee or by any two other members of the Committee. The Committee may request any officer or employee of the Company or the Company's outside counsel or independent auditors to attend a meeting of the Committee or to meet with any members of, or consultants to, the Committee.

With respect to Committee meetings, a majority of the Committee members holding office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The Committee shall take action by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Committee members present at a duly held meeting. A conference among Committee members by any means of communications through which the members may simultaneously hear each other during the conference shall constitute a committee meeting if the number of members participating in the conference would be sufficient to constitute a quorum at a meeting.

The following shall be the principal recurring processes of the Committee in carrying out its oversight responsibilities. The processes are set forth as a guide with the understanding that the Committee may supplement them as appropriate.

- The Committee shall have sole authority to, and shall, appoint, determine funding for, oversee, and, when appropriate, replace the Company's independent auditors.
- The Committee shall meet and discuss with the internal auditors and the independent auditors their overall scope and plans for their audits of the Company, including the adequacy of staffing and compensation.
- The Committee shall meet and discuss with management, the internal auditors, and the independent auditors the adequacy and effectiveness of the accounting and financial controls of the Company, including the Company's system to monitor and manage business risk, and legal and ethical compliance programs.
- The Committee shall meet with the internal auditors and the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their audit examinations of the Company. The Committee shall review the Company's interim financial statements with management and the independent auditors prior to the filing of the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. The Committee shall discuss the results of the quarterly review and any other matters required to be communicated to the Committee by the independent auditors under generally accepted auditing standards. The Chair of the Committee may represent the entire Committee for the purpose of this review.
- The Committee shall review with management and the independent auditors the financial statements to be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K (or the annual report to stockholders if distributed prior to the filing of Form 10-K), including their judgment about the quality, not just the acceptability, of accounting principals, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of the disclosures in the financial statements. The Committee shall discuss the results of the annual audit and any other matters required to be communicated to the Committee by the independent auditors under generally accepted auditing standards.
- The Committee shall publish the report required by the rules of the SEC to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement.
- The Committee shall approve, in advance, the engagement of the independent auditors for any permissible non-audit services and the fees therefor (taking into consideration whether the provision of such services is compatible with maintaining the independence of the independent auditors).
- The Committee shall obtain from the independent auditors on at least an annual basis a formal written statement delineating all relationships between the independent auditors and the Company. The Committee shall discuss with the independent auditors relationships and services that in the view of the Committee may affect auditor objectivity or independence. If the Committee is not satisfied with the auditors' assurances of independence, the Committee shall take appropriate action to ensure the independence of the independent auditors.

- The Committee shall establish procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, and the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of the Company of concerns regarding questionable accounting or audit matters.
 - The Committee shall review and approve all related party transactions as that term shall be used in the applicable NASDAQ rules and regulations.

Edgar Filing: INFORTE CORP - Form DEF 14A

While the Committee has the responsibilities and powers set forth in this Charter, it is not the duty of the Committee to plan or conduct audits or to determine that the Company's financial statements are complete and accurate and are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, which are the responsibility of management and the independent auditors.
