On June 19, 2006, Diversified Holdings I., (“DHI”) a subsidiary of Nexia Holdings, Inc. (“Nexia”) signed a Consultancy Service Engagement Contract (“Agreement”) with Conceptual Management Limited (hereafter the “Conceptual”) to perform investor relations services for Diversified Financial Resources Corporation (“DVFN”). The agreement provides that Conceptual will profile DVFN on one or more of its websites, assist in news dissemination for DVFN’s products and services, publish a profile of DVFN and provide investor relations services to provide corporate visibility and brand awareness for DVFN. The term of the Agreement is for six months.

DHI has agreed to transfer to Conceptual twelve million five hundred thousand (12,500,000) freely tradeable shares of DVFN, these shares were received by DHI as settlement of a prior debt of DVFN owed to DHI. DHI holds not less than five million shares of the common stock of DVFN and may sell some or all of those shares during the period during which Conceptual provides its services. DHI and or Nexia may also acquire shares during the same period of time. Conceptual’s services may cause the stock price of DVFN to increase, in which event DHI would receive an additional benefit when it sells the shares it holds in DVFN. Additionally, DHI’s sales of DVFN shares may have a negative effect on the market price of DVFN’s common stock.
