ITEM 7.01. REGULATION FD DISCLOSURE

On November 21, 2005, the Company issued a press release to report that that the Orange County, California trial judge presiding over the previously reported lawsuit, entitled Miller vs. Collectors Universe, Inc. had informed the parties that he intends to render his final ruling on the issue of damages on

Edgar Filing: COLLECTORS UNIVERSE INC - Form 8-K

December 1, 2005 and that the judge also had issued a "tentative ruling" indicating his current intention as to how he will rule on December 1, 2005. That tentative ruling was included, in its entirety, in the press release.

In that press release, the Company reported that the judge had stated, in his tentative ruling, that he was not willing to render a judgment of $10 million against the Company, as requested by plaintiff, because the judge believes that such an award would be excessive. The Company also stated that it continues to believe that it will not incur any material liability in the Miller case. However, the Company also reported that the judge's tentative ruling indicates that there continue to be a number of relatively novel legal issues involved in this case and that, as a result, it is not possible to predict, with certainty, what the ultimate outcome of this case will be.

The foregoing description of the contents of the press release is qualified by reference to that press release, in its entirety, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and which, by this reference, is incorporated in full into this report.

In accordance with General Instruction B.2 of Form 8-K, the information in this Current Report on Form 8-K, including Exhibit 99.1, is being furnished and shall not be deemed "filed" for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that Section, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.
