Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On January 16, 2007, Royal Gold entered into an agreement with a private individual to acquire a royalty interest on the Pascua Lama project for $20.5 million. The Pascua Lama project is located on the border between Argentina and Chile and is owned by Barrick Gold Corporation ( Barrick ). The project is not currently in production and Barrick is targeting production in calendar 2010, subject to the receipt of certain permits. The acquisition is subject to customary due diligence and is expected to close in early March 2007.

The royalty to be acquired is a sliding-scale net smelter return royalty, ranging from 0.16% to 1.08% based upon the average price of gold during a quarter, and is applicable to all gold production from an area of interest in Chile. The acquisition will also include a 0.216% fixed-rate copper royalty that applies to 100% of the copper reserves in Chile but does not take effect until after January 1, 2017.

This Current Report contains certain forward looking statements. Readers are cautioned not to put undue reliance on forward-looking statements and are referred to Royal Gold's Cautionary Safe Harbor Statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 contained in the press release filed herewith as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated into Item 8.01 by reference.

Item 8.01 Other Events
