11.- Approval of the Investment and Financing Policy for the year 2006 (according to Law D.L. 3500)

According to Article 32 bis of the Company's Bylaws and Article 119 of Law D.L 3500, shareholders must approve the investment and financing policy for the year 2006.

The Company's Investment and Financing Strategy (the Investment Strategy) for the year 2006 contemplates investments which are intended to satisfy the demand of new clients through the use of installed capacity, considering the existing regulatory framework and ensuring an adequate return for the Company. The investment strategy 2006 also contemplates all investment needed to offer television and Contents services, as well as, transaction service and other services related to information system and outsourcing prospects. Furthermore, the Investment Strategy contemplates the provision of new services demanded by corporate customers, and maintenance of the current quality standards of service.

Investment in the creation of and/or participation in domestic or international companies may not exceed 25% of total equity, as defined in the last quarterly consolidated balance sheet according to Chilean GAAP.

The Company will focus on analyzing alternatives aimed at improving the corporate financial structure through new financings and renegotiations of current terms and conditions. In addition, the maximum level of indebtedness that may be incurred by the Company may not exceed a ratio of total debt-to-equity of 1.6 times.

Under the terms of the Investment Strategy, management may not enter into agreements with creditors that restrict the distribution of dividends without the approval of the shareholders at a General or Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting. Management is also prohibited from entering into, outside the ordinary course of business, any agreement with creditors pledging Company assets or granting guarantees for the debts of unaffiliated third-parties without prior shareholder approval, except for purchase-money financings secured by liens on the assets being purchased.

The Investment Strategy also restricts the disposition of assets or property rights which are defined as essential for the Company's ongoing business, including all networks, switches, equipment, property and easements required for telephone installations and operations, and which are backed by their respective license decrees. Such assets may, however, be modified or replaced for reasons of technical or economic obsolescence. Furthermore, the Company has also declared as essential assets 51% of the capital stocks of Telefónica Mundo S.A and Telefónica Empresas CTC Chile S.A., and the assets required to operate said companies, whether under direct ownership or under lease by Compañía de Telecomunicaciones de Chile S.A., and protected under the respective licensing decrees, as well as assets that have been modified or replaced due to technical or economic obsolescence. The Company may not dispose of assets declared essential to its operations without previous approval at an Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting.

For additional information on this item, a direct translation of the Company's Investment and Financing Strategy, as defined by the Board of Directors, will be made available on the Company's website at www.telefonicodechile.cl.
