As previously announced in a notice to the market issued by Companhia Brasileira de Distribuição (the “Company”) on December 18, 2016 and furnished on a Form 6-K with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) on the same date, Cnova N.V. (“Cnova”) engaged legal advisors and external forensic accountants to perform a review of issues at Cnova’s Brazilian subsidiary (“Cnova Brazil”). The Company consolidates the financial information of Cnova.

On February 24, 2016, the Company timely issued its financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2015 (the “2015 Financial Statements”) with the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission (Comissão de Valores Mobiliários). In addition, the Company has substantially completed its annual report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2015 (the “GPA 2015 Form 20-F”). However, on April 12, 2016, Cnova announced that it would be unable to file its annual report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2015 (the “Cnova 2015 Form 20-F”) within the prescribed time period due to the ongoing internal review at Cnova Brazil. The filing of the GPA 2015 Form 20-F is expected to occur promptly after the Cnova 2015 Form 20-F is filed.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 12b-25 contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Exchange Act regarding the Company’s expectation that it requires additional time to file the GPA 2015 Form 20-F. Such forward-looking statements, in some cases, may be identified by words like “anticipate,” “assume,” “believe,” “continue,” “could,” “estimate,” “expect,” “intend,” “may,” “plan,” “potential,” “predict,” “project,” “future,” “will,” “seek” and similar terms. The forward-looking statements contained in this press release are based on management’s current expectations, which are subject to uncertainty, risks and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict and many of which are outside of the Company’s control. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including, among other things, the discovery of additional information relevant to the Cnova Brazil internal review, the timing of the conclusions concerning matters relating to the Cnova Brazil internal review, the timing of information required for the Company to consolidate Cnova in its financial statements, the timing and conclusion of the audit of the Company’s 2015 financial statements by its independent registered public accounting firm, Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Auditores Independentes, and the risk that the completion and filing of the GPA 2015 Form 20-F will take longer than expected. Except as required by law, the Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise.
