Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

MMA Financial, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of the registrant, entered into an employment agreement with each of Gary A. Montesana and Charles M. Pinckney. The terms of these agreements are substantially similar for each of Mr. Montesana and Mr. Pinckney and are described below.

Each of the employment agreements has a term of three years ending on December 31, 2008 and provide for an initial base salary of $325,000, which will increase by $15,000 on each of January 1, 2007 and 2008. Each of the agreements provides that: (a) for the 2006 bonus year, the executive is eligible to receive incentive compensation of up to $275,000, $425,000 or $575,000 for the registrant meeting its threshold, target or superior performance goals, respectively, (b) for the 2007 bonus year, the executive is eligible to receive incentive compensation of up to $285,000, $460,000 or $610,000 for the registrant meeting its threshold, target or superior performance goals, respectively, and (c) for the 2008 bonus year, the executive is eligible to receive incentive compensation of up to $295,000, $460,000 or $645,000 for the registrant meeting its threshold, target or superior performance goals, respectively. Incentive compensation may take the form of cash and equity or equity-based awards.

Each of the employment agreements also contains the following terms and conditions:

- We may terminate the agreement for "cause," which includes the executive's gross negligence, intentional misconduct, conviction of a serious crime, breach of certain non-competition restrictions or breach of the duty of loyalty. "Cause" also includes certain violations of the law and certain failures by the executive to perform services reasonably requested of the executive by our chief executive officer or chief operating officer. If we terminate the agreement for cause or the executive terminates the agreement for any reason, the executive will receive his or her base salary up through the date of termination but no portion of any incentive compensation for the fiscal year. If we terminate the agreement without cause or if the executive becomes disabled, the executive is entitled to receive his or her base salary through the date of termination plus a proportionate share of the incentive compensation that the executive would have earned for that year. Upon termination of the agreement by us without cause, by the executive for "good reason" (e.g., reduction of compensation or diminution of duties) or upon the executive's death or disability, any outstanding equity awards will become fully vested.
- We will make severance payments equal to the greater of twelve months' base salary or the total base salary the executive would have received during the remaining term of the agreement if: (a) we terminate the agreement without cause; (b) the executive terminates the agreement for good reason; or (c) the executive becomes disabled. The agreements provide for a death benefit equal to two years' base salary in the event of the executive's death.
- In addition to any severance payments, if the executive's employment agreement is terminated by us for any reason or by the executive for good reason within 18 months of a "change in control" (as defined in the agreement) the executive will receive payments equal to three years' base salary and three times the executive's maximum incentive compensation for the year and any equity awards will become fully vested.
- Each executive officer, for a twelve-month period following termination of his or her employment, has agreed not to compete with the company or divulge confidential company information.
- Each agreement requires us to indemnify the executive from any and all liability for acts or omissions of the executive performed in the course of the executive's employment, provided that such acts or omissions do not constitute (a) criminal conduct, (b) willful misconduct or (c) a fraud upon, or a breach of the executive's duty of loyalty to, the company.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.

(d) Exhibits
