(e) Retention Agreement with Executive Vice President, Secretary and General Counsel

On August 3, 2011, Erie Indemnity Company (the "Registrant") entered into an Executive Retention Agreement with James J. Tanous, Executive Vice President, Secretary and General Counsel of the Registrant and each of its subsidiaries and related companies (the "Retention Agreement"). The Retention Agreement provides for the retention of Mr. Tanous' services through January 31, 2013 (the "Retention Period"), thereby providing sufficient time for an orderly transition of Mr. Tanous' responsibilities upon his anticipated retirement in early 2013.

The Retention Agreement provides that if Mr. Tanous is employed in good standing with the Registrant throughout the Retention Period, and retires at the end of the Retention Period, he will receive a lump sum payment, less applicable taxes, of $750,000 on August 1, 2013. In addition, he will be eligible for payment for any unused vacation time, unused sick time, incentive compensation and employee benefits as provided for in accordance with each plan's documents and the Registrant's policies.

The Retention Agreement provides for a release by Mr. Tanous of any claims he might have against the Registrant and its officers, directors and related persons; customary confidentiality provisions; a six month non-compete agreement beginning the date of his retirement; as well as an agreement by Mr. Tanous to cooperate with the Registrant if his assistance is needed during the six months following his retirement in connection with matters that arose while he was employed by the Registrant.

The foregoing summary does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference the Retention Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Report.
