Edgar Filing: CHINA PETROLEUM & CHEMICAL CORP - Form 6-K

During preparation for its listing overseas, Sinopec Corp. and the Sinopec Group Company entered into a number of agreements in 2000 to govern and manage the Continuing Connected Transactions between them. These agreements include the Mutual Supply Agreement, the Community Services Agreement, the Land Use Rights Leasing Agreement, the Properties Leasing Agreement, the Intellectual Property Licence Agreements, the Agency Agreement and the SPI Fund Document. On 11 June 2001, as a result of the acquisition of Sinopec National Star Petroleum Company, additional Continuing Connected Transactions were contemplated and a continuing connected transactions adjustment agreement was entered into between Sinopec Corp. and Sinopec Group Company under which the terms of the Mutual Supply Agreement, the Community Services Agreement, the Agency Agreement, the Land Use Rights Leasing Agreement and the Properties Leasing Agreement were amended.

Besides, due to Sinopec Corp.'s business expansion, the Company leased additional land with an area of approximately 50,000,000 square metres from the Sinopec Group. As such, Sinopec Corp. and the Sinopec Group Company entered into the Land Use Rights Leasing (Additional) Agreement on 22 August 2003. The annual rental was approximately RMB273 million. The agreement provides that the terms of the Land Use Rights Leasing Agreement shall be applicable to such lease. A waiver was then obtained by Sinopec Corp. from the Hong Kong Stock Exchange from strict compliance with the relevant requirements of the HK Listing Rules in respect of such connected transactions for an indefinite period. Please refer to the announcement of Sinopec Corp. dated 25 August 2003. As a result of the amendments to the HK Listing Rules in March 2004, the transactions under the Land Use Rights Leasing (Addition) Agreement, as the relevant percentage ratios of the size tests (other than the profits test) fall below 0.1%, are exempted from reporting, announcement and independent shareholders' approval requirements under rule 14A.33 of the HK Listing Rules.

In addition, on 31 October 2004, as a result of the acquisition of the petrochemical, catalyst and gas station assets and the disposal of the downhole operation assets, Sinopec Corp. and the Sinopec Group Company entered into an adjustment agreement supplementing the Land Use Rights Leasing Agreement and Properties Leasing Agreement, and announced the increased cap for the transactions under the Land Use Rights Leasing Agreement in an announcement dated 1 November 2004.

Moreover, in respect of the Continuing Connected Transactions commencing from 1 January 2007, Sinopec Corp. and the Sinopec Group Company have entered into the Continuing Connected Transactions Supplemental Agreement on 31 March 2006, in which adjustments were made to the terms of certain agreements regarding Continuing Connected Transactions. Set out below are the summaries of the Continuing Connected Transactions Agreements (as adjusted) and the transactions contemplated thereunder:

With the approval of the Ministry of Finance, the Sinopec Group Company has established the SPI Fund. The SPI Fund currently provides insurance cover on a consolidated basis on certain assets used in the operations of the Company.

After the receipt by Sinopec Group Company of the premium from Sinopec Corp., the Sinopec Group Company will refund 20% of the paid premium to Sinopec Corp. if Sinopec Corp. pays the semi-annual premium on time according to the SPI Fund Document ("Refund"). The Refund would equal to 17% of the paid premium if Sinopec Corp. fails to pay the semi-annual premium on time. The Refund shall be used by Sinopec Corp. in dealing with accidents and potential risks and safety measures, in safety education and training, in preventing major accidents and potential risks, and as rewards to units and individuals who have made a special contribution to safety production.

The rent may be reviewed once a year and any revised rent shall not be higher than the prevailing market rent. Property taxes and land use fees in relation to the properties shall be borne by the Sinopec Group.

The properties are leased by the Sinopec Group to the Company for a term of 20 years commencing from 1 January 2000.

Sinopec Corp. and the Sinopec Group Company entered into the Intellectual Property Licence Agreements on 3 June 2000. Each of the Intellectual Property Licence Agreements is for a term of 10 years commencing from 1 January 2000.

While the above intellectual property rights are granted to the Company at no cost, Sinopec Corp. shall, before 31 December of each year, pay to the Sinopec Group Company all such expenses which Sinopec Group Company has paid in the relevant year according to the relevant laws and regulations for maintaining the validity of the relevant trademarks, patents and computer software.

As Sinopec Corp. has completed the acquisition of principal ethylene production business from the Sinopec Group, selling ethylene products of the Sinopec Group as agent is no longer required. 1.3 Estimated cap amounts of the Continuing Connected Transactions

Sinopec Corp. estimates the annual caps for the applicable Continuing Connection Transactions for the years 2007 to 2009 to be as follows:

Major Continuing Connected Transactions

- (1) Annual revenues under the Mutual Supply Agreement: The products and services sold by the Company to the Sinopec Group under the Mutual Supply Agreement principally consist of raw materials and petrochemical products such as crude oil, natural gas, refined oil products and petrochemical products. Over the past three years, international prices of raw materials such as crude oil have experienced significant fluctuation. The price of crude oil increased from over US$20 per barrel three years ago to the highest of over US$70 per barrel.

The annual revenues received by the Company in respect of products and services provided to the Sinopec Group under the Mutual Supply

Edgar Filing: CHINA PETROLEUM & CHEMICAL CORP - Form 6-K

Agreement from 2003 to 2005 were RMB32.134 billion, RMB42.771 billion and RMB58.579 billion, respectively, representing 7.16%, 6.92% and 7.12%, respectively, of the total operating revenues of Sinopec Corp. in the relevant period.

Taking into account historical figures for the past three years and material uncertainties such as possible price fluctuation in raw materials and products such as crude oil, natural gas, refined oil products and petrochemical products in the next three years, possible changes in price control over refined oil products by the Chinese government and possible increase in the volume of procurement of crude oil by Sinopec Corp. for refineries of Sinopec Group Company, and in view of the revenues which might be generated by the Company through the provision of products and services to the Sinopec Group under the Mutual Supply Agreement, Sinopec Corp. is of the view that flexibility should be built into the cap for such transactions. The Company expects that the annual revenue which may be generated under the Mutual Supply Agreement can be maintained within 14% of the Company's total operating revenues for the years 2007 to 2009. In view of the historical acceptance of maintaining the cap at 14% of the total operating revenues by the Independent Shareholders and the market, Sinopec Corp. proposes that the cap for the revenues which may be generated from the the provision of products and services under the Mutual Supply Agreement for the years 2007 to 2009 shall be determined taking into account a percentage of the total operating revenues of the relevant year. However, in order to offer further protection to the Independent Shareholders and in view of the requirement of expressing the cap in monetary sums under the HK Listing Rules, Sinopec Corp. will comply with the cap in absolute monetary terms as set out below.

The proposed caps for the transactions regarding the provision of products and services by Sinopec Corp. under the Mutual Supply Agreement are as follows:

- o 2007 - RMB131 billion
- o 2008 - RMB134.1 billion
- o 2009 - RMB136.2 billion

- (2) Annual expenditures of the Company under the Mutual Supply Agreement: The product and services bought by the Company from the Sinopec Group under the Mutual Supply Agreement principally consist of certain ancillary raw materials and services required by the major operating business of Sinopec Corp.

The annual expenditures in respect of products and services bought by Sinopec Corp. from the Sinopec Group under the Mutual Supply Agreement from 2003 to 2005 were RMB55.656 billion, RMB61.086 billion and RMB75.486 billion, respectively, representing 13.57%, 10.97% and 9.86%, respectively, of the total operating expenses of Sinopec Corp. in the relevant period.

Taking into account historical figures for the past three years and material uncertainties such as possible price fluctuation in raw materials and products in the next three years, possible changes in price control over refined oil products by the Chinese government, possible increase of production volume of Sinopec Group Company's refineries and possible increase of Sinopec Corp's oil from PSC, and in view of the necessity of purchasing products and services from the Sinopec Group under the Mutual Supply Agreement for Sinopec

Corp.'s continued operation, Sinopec Corp. is of the view that flexibility should be built into the caps for such transactions. The Company expects that the cap for the Mutual Supply Agreement can be maintained within 18% of the Company's total operating expenses for the years 2007 to 2009. In view of the historical acceptance of fixing the caps at 18% of the total operating expenses by the Independent Shareholders and the market, Sinopec Corp. proposes that the cap for the purchase of products and services under the Mutual Supply Agreement for the years 2007 to 2009 shall be determined taking into account a percentage of the total operating expenses of the relevant year. However, in order to offer further protection to the Independent Shareholders and in view of the requirement of expressing the cap in monetary sums under the HK Listing Rules, Sinopec Corp. will comply with the cap in absolute monetary terms set out below. The proposed caps for the purchase of products and services by Sinopec Corp. under the Mutual Supply Agreement are as follows:

- o 2007 - RMB147.6 billion
- o 2008 - RMB148.7 billion
- o 2009 - RMB152.8 billion

Non-Major Continuing Connected Transactions

- (3) The total amount of deposits under the Mutual Supply Agreement: The average amount of deposits of the Company with the Sinopec Group's financial institutions under the Mutual Supply Agreement from 2003 to 2005 were RMB4.039 billion, RMB2.791 billion and RMB2.605 billion, respectively, representing 0.91%, 0.45% and 0.32%, respectively, of Sinopec Corp.'s total operating revenues of the relevant year.

Sinopec Corp. is of the view that the Sinopec Group's financial institutions can generally offer more favourable terms and interest rates as compared to other financial institutions or banks. As such, Sinopec Corp. is of the view that provided the potential risks associated can be contained, depositing with the Sinopec Group's financial institutions on an continuing basis will bring commercial advantages and better returns to Sinopec Corp. and its shareholders as a whole. Taking into account historical figures, estimated cash flow situation of Sinopec Corp. in the future and the historical acceptance of fixing the caps at 2.5% of the total operating revenues by the Independent Shareholders and the market, Sinopec Corp. proposes that the average month-end balance of deposits with, and total amount of interest revenues from, the Sinopec Group's financial institutions under the Mutual Supply Agreement for the years 2007 to 2009 shall be determined taking into account a percentage of the total operating revenues of the relevant year. However, in order to offer further protection for the Independent Shareholders and in view of the requirement of expressing the cap in monetary sums under the HK Listing Rules, Sinopec Corp. will comply with the cap in absolute monetary terms set out below. The proposed cap for the transactions regarding the deposits with the Sinopec Group's financial institutions under the Mutual Supply Agreement are as follows:

- o 2007 - RMB5.5 billion
- o 2008 - RMB5.5 billion

Edgar Filing: CHINA PETROLEUM & CHEMICAL CORP - Form 6-K

o 2009 - RMB5.5 billion

- (4) Land Use Rights Leasing Agreement: At present, the Company leases land use rights from the Sinopec Group under two agreements, namely the Land Use Rights Leasing Agreement and the Land Use Rights Leasing (Addition) Agreement. As the nature of these transactions are identical, Sinopec Corp. will combine the two into one category and, through amendments to the agreements, the Land Use Rights Leasing Agreement will also govern the transactions under the Land Use Rights Leasing (Addition) Agreement and the Land Use Rights Leasing (Addition) Agreement will be terminated. In 2005, the annual rent payable by the Company under the Land Use Rights Leasing Agreement (after the combination) was RMB2.557 billion. According to the Land Use Rights Leasing Agreement, the Sinopec Group Company may adjust the rent once every three years.

Due to a substantial increase in land values in China as a result of the growing economy, rapid governmental policies reforms which restrict the use of state-owned land without payment, the level of rent paid by Sinopec Corp. at present is below market levels. After negotiations between Sinopec Corp. and Sinopec Group Company, as the continue use of the relevant land is crucial to the ongoing operation of the Company, Sinopec Corp. and Sinopec Group Company have agreed that the rent level for 2006 should be brought closer to market levels. To ensure that the rent payable by Sinopec Corp. for 2006 will remain to be on normal commercial terms, a PRC qualified property valuer, Beijing Zhongdi Real Estate Appraisal Co. Ltd, was appointed to value the adjusted rent and it has concluded that it is lower than market level of RMB11.31 per square meter which was determined using average land prices. Accordingly, Sinopec Corp. proposes that the cap for 2006 shall be adjusted to RMB3.3 billion. Also taking into account possible payment of additional rent as a result of potential business expansion, Sinopec Corp. estimates that the total annual rent payable under the Land Use Rights Leasing Agreement (including the rent previously included under the Land Use Rights Leasing (Addition) Agreement), and in respect of the land leased by the Sinopec Group to the subsidiaries of Sinopec Corp., will be RMB3.5 billion for each year from 2007 to 2009. The revised rent has been considered by a PRC qualified property valuer to be lower than the market value.

- (5) Community Services Agreement: The fees paid under the Community Services Agreement from 2003 to 2005 were RMB1.783 billion, RMB1.74 billion and RMB1.79 billion, respectively. Taking into account historical figures and possible increase in the costs of raw material and labour, Sinopec Corp. proposes that the annual cap for the Community Services Agreement from 2007 to 2009 shall be RMB2 billion, respectively.
- (6) SPI Fund Document: The premium paid under the SPI Fund Document from 2003 to 2005 were RMB762 million, RMB876 million and RMB 999 million, respectively. Taking into account historical figures and possible expansion of Sinopec Corp.'s operations, it is proposes that the annual cap for the SPI Fund Document from 2007 to 2009 shall be RMB1.25 billion, RMB1.4 billion and RMB1.55 billion, respectively.
- (7) Properties Leasing Agreement: The annual rent paid under the Properties Leasing Agreement from 2003 to 2005 were RMB567 million, RMB567 million and RMB568 million, respectively. Taking into account historical figures, Sinopec Corp. proposes to maintain an annual cap of RMB730 million for the rent payable under the Properties Leasing

Agreement.

Exempted Continuing Connected Transactions

- (8) Intellectual Property Licence Agreements: Based on historical figures, Sinopec Corp. estimates that the annual fee payable by the Company to the Sinopec Group under the Intellectual Property License Agreements will not exceed 0.1% of each of the percentage ratios (other than the profit ratio). As such, the relevant transactions will be exempt from reporting, announcement and independent shareholders' approval requirements pursuant to the exemption for de minimis transactions under rule 14A.33 of the HK Listing Rules.

1.4 The HK Listing Rules Requirements

Pursuant to rule 14A.34 of the HK Listing Rules, the annual amount of each of the transactions under 1.3(3) to (7) above (i.e. the Non-Major Continuing Connected Transactions) are less than 2.5% the percentage ratios (other than the profit ratio), and as such, the transactions in (4) to (7) above will be exempted from the independent shareholders approval requirement pursuant to rule 14A.34, and the transaction in (3) above will be exempted from independent shareholders' approval requirement pursuant to rule 14A.66, of the HK Listing Rules. Sinopec Corp. will still be subject to reporting and announcement requirements under Chapter 14A of the HK Listing Rules.

The transactions under 1.3(1) to (2) above (i.e. Major Continuing Connected Transactions) will be subject to the reporting, announcement and independent shareholders approval requirements in accordance with rule 14A.35 of the HK Listing Rules.

Sinopec Corp. will convene an general meeting for the Independent Shareholders to consider the approval of the Agreement Amendments, Major Continuing Connected Transactions, at the request of the Shanghai Stock Exchange, the Non-Major Continuing Connected Transactions and the caps for the Major Continuing Connected Transactions at the same time. Sinopec Group Company and its associates will abstain from voting at the General Meeting in respect of the ordinary resolution to approve the above matters. The notice of the General Meeting, and the circular providing other information regarding the Continuing Connected Transactions and containing the advice of an independent financial adviser to the independent Directors in relation to the matters set out in section 3 below and the recommendation from the independent Directors, will be dispatched to the shareholders shortly. As the General Meeting will also be the annual general meeting of Sinopec Corp. for 2005, Sinopec Corp. believes more shareholders would be encouraged to participate at the meeting and would minimise administrative costs of Sinopec Corp. and avoid the inconvenience of convening a separate general meeting. Sinopec Corp. believes that information contained in this announcement and to be contained in the circular will be sufficient for Independent Shareholders to make an informed decision.

2. REASONS FOR THE CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS
