On July 8, 2013, the Company and Mr. Jay Williams, who serves as the Company's Vice President of Marketing, entered into an employment agreement (the Williams Employment Agreement). The Williams Employment Agreement provides that the Company will employ Mr. Williams on an at-will basis, for a term that begins on the effective date and continues until the second (2nd) anniversary of the effective date. The Williams Employment Agreement will automatically renew for additional one-year terms unless either party provides 180 days written notice of such party's intent to terminate Mr. Williams' employment or unless the Company terminates Mr. Williams' employment for "cause" as such term is defined in the Williams Employment Agreement. Pursuant to the Williams Employment Agreement, Mr. Williams will receive an annual base salary of $200,000. In addition, the Williams Employment Agreement provides that Mr. Williams (1) is eligible to receive annual cash bonuses at the discretion of the Board of Directors of the Company, based on achievement of performance goals to be established by the Company's executive management team and the Board, and (2) is eligible to participate in other benefits generally available to senior executives of the Company, including equity compensation plans. The Williams Employment Agreement also provides that the Company shall negotiate and enter into a restricted stock agreement with Mr. Williams no later than 180 days following the effective date of the Williams Employment Agreement. The number of shares of common stock to be issued to Mr. Williams pursuant to the restricted stock agreement shall be at the discretion of the Company, but shall have a fair value of no less than ten percent of Mr. Williams' base salary on the date of issuance and shall vest on the anniversary of the effective date of the restricted stock agreement.

The Williams Employment Agreement provides that upon the termination of Mr. Williams' employment, he will refrain from soliciting any employee and certain former employees of the Company for two years following the termination of Mr. Williams' employment, unless such employee has not been employed by the Company for more than one year.
