PART III

NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Guaranty Financial Group Inc. (the "Company") is filing this Notification of Late Filing on Form 12b-25 with respect to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008 (the "Form 10-K"). The Company is unable, without unreasonable effort and expense, to timely file the Form 10-K because the Company has not completed its financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008. The Company is continuing to analyze and to discuss with its independent registered public accountants the appropriate valuation for balance sheet purposes of its mortgage-backed securities portfolio, including the extent of other than temporary impairment of this portfolio. The outcome of this analysis could affect, among other things, the adequacy of the Company's capital and the extent to which additional capital will be appropriate. The Company is also discussing the extent, and potential terms and conditions, of required new capital with its board of directors and its principal stockholders, as well as with government authorities. The Company currently expects to file the Form 10-K no later than the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date.

PART IV

OTHER INFORMATION

(1) Name and telephone number of person to contact in regard to this notification

Scott A. Almy
(Name)

(214)
(Area Code)

360-1932
(Telephone Number)

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If the answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

The Company expects to report a loss of $444 million, or a loss of $8.84 per diluted share, for the year ended December 31, 2008, compared to earnings of $78 million, or $2.20 per diluted share, for the year ended December 31, 2007. Depending on the outcome of the Company's continuing review of the appropriate valuation for balance sheet purposes of its mortgage-backed securities portfolio, including the extent of other than temporary impairment of this portfolio, the loss actually reported by the Company could be higher.

Note: Certain matters discussed in this Form 12b-25 may constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements are identified by their use of terms and phrases such as "believe," "anticipate," "could," "estimate," "likely," "intent," "may," "plan," "project," "expect," and similar expressions, including references to assumptions or our plans and goals. Readers should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. These statements reflect management's views with respect to events as of the date of the forward-looking statement and are subject to risks and uncertainties. Guaranty's actual results or performance may differ materially from those suggested, expressed, or implied by forward-looking statements due to a wide range of factors including, but not limited to: general economic, market, or business conditions; demand for new housing; competitive actions by other companies; changes in laws or regulations and actions or restrictions of regulatory agencies; deposit attrition, customer loss, or revenue loss in the ordinary course of business; cost or difficulties related to becoming a stand-alone public company; the inability to realize elements of our strategic plans; changes in the interest rate environment that expand or reduce margins or adversely affect critical estimates and projected returns on investments; unfavorable changes in economic conditions affecting housing markets, credit markets, real estate values and oil and gas prices and changes in market and/or general economic conditions, either nationally or regionally, that are less favorable than expected; natural disasters in primary market areas that may result in prolonged business disruption or materially impair the value of collateral securing loans; assumptions
