HAMILTON, Bermuda - Maiden Holdings, Ltd. (NASDAQ: MHL) (“Maiden” or “the Company”) today reported third quarter 2013 net operating earnings⁽¹⁾ of $22.7 million, or $0.31 per diluted common share compared with $19.5 million, or $0.27 per diluted common share in the third quarter of 2012. Net income attributable to Maiden common shareholders totaled $21.9 million, or $0.30 per diluted common share in the third quarter of 2013, which were essentially the same net income and per common share results for the third quarter of 2012.

Commenting on the Company's earnings, Art Raschbaum, Chief Executive Officer of Maiden, said: “In the third quarter of 2013, as with the previous two quarters, we continued to see favorable trends across our key core business metrics. In addition to delivering an annualized operating return on common equity of 11.1%, we improved year-on-year underwriting performance, lowered expense relativities, and increased our active client count. While the operating environment remains competitive, our clients continue to benefit from improving primary rate levels. Our issuance of convertible mandatory preference shares at the beginning of the fourth quarter is supportive of the growth we are seeing and demonstrates our belief in Maiden’s strong business prospects.”
