NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Unaudited)

NOTE 1. DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Description of Business

John Bean Technologies Corporation and its majority-owned consolidated subsidiaries (“JBT” or “we”) provide global technology solutions for the food processing and air transportation industries. We design, manufacture, test and service technologically sophisticated systems and products for customers through our JBT FoodTech and JBT AeroTech segments. We have manufacturing operations worldwide and are strategically located to facilitate delivery of our products and services to our customers.

Basis of Presentation

The preceding condensed consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2013, which has been derived from audited financial statements, and unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements, together with the notes thereto (the “statements”), of JBT have been prepared pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. As permitted under those rules, certain notes and other financial information that are normally required by accounting principles generally accepted in the U. S. have been condensed or omitted. Therefore, these statements should be read in conjunction with the audited annual consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013.

In the opinion of management, the statements reflect all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring adjustments) necessary for a fair presentation of our financial condition and operating results as of and for the periods presented. Revenue, expenses, assets and liabilities can vary during each quarter of the year. Therefore, the results and trends in these statements may not be representative of those for the full year or any future period.

Use of estimates

Preparation of financial statements that follow accounting principles generally accepted in the U.S. requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and notes. Actual amounts could differ from these estimates.

NOTE 4. ACCUMULATED OTHER COMPREHENSIVE INCOME (LOSS)

Accumulated other comprehensive income or loss (“AOCI”) represents the cumulative balance of other comprehensive income, net of tax, as of the balance sheet date. For JBT, AOCI is primarily composed of adjustments related to pension and other postretirement benefit plans and foreign currency translation adjustments. Changes in the AOCI balances for the three months ended June 30, 2014 by component are shown in the following table:

	Pension and Other Postretirement Benefits		Foreign Currency Translation		Total

NOTE 6. DERIVATIVE FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK MANAGEMENTDerivative Financial Instruments

We hold derivative financial instruments for the purpose of hedging foreign currency risks for certain identifiable and anticipated transactions.

We manufacture and sell our products in a number of countries throughout the world and, as a result, are exposed to movements in foreign currency exchange rates. Our major foreign currency exposures involve the markets in Western Europe, South America and Asia. Many of our sales and purchase contracts are written contemplating this risk and therefore contain embedded derivatives, which we take into consideration as part of our risk management policy. The purpose of our foreign currency hedging activities is to manage the economic impact of exchange rate volatility associated with anticipated foreign currency purchases and sales made in the normal course of business. We primarily utilize forward foreign exchange contracts with maturities of less than 2 years. We do not apply hedge accounting for these forward foreign exchange contracts. As of June 30, 2014, we held forward foreign exchange contracts with an aggregate notional value of $385.4 million.

The following table presents the fair value of foreign currency derivatives included within the condensed consolidated balance sheets:

	As of June 30, 2014		As of December 31, 2013
	Derivative Assets	Derivative Liabilities	Derivative Assets	Derivative Liabilities
(In millions)
Other current assets / liabilities	$3.7	$ 2.9	$5.8	$ 3.0
Other assets / liabilities	2.4	0.1	2.6	0.6
Total	$6.1	$ 3.0	$8.4	$ 3.6

Refer to Note 7. Fair Value of Financial Instruments, for a description of how the values of the above financial instruments are determined.

A master netting arrangement allows counterparties to net settle amounts owed to each other as a result of separate offsetting derivative transactions. We enter into master netting arrangements with our counterparties when possible in order to mitigate credit risk in derivative transactions by permitting us to net settle for transactions with the same counterparty. However, we do not net settle with such counterparties. As a result, we present our derivatives at gross fair values in the condensed consolidated balance sheets. As of June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, information related to these offsetting arrangements was as follows:

Credit Risk

By their nature, financial instruments involve risk including credit risk for non-performance by counterparties. Financial instruments that potentially subject us to credit risk primarily consist of trade receivables and derivative contracts. We manage the credit risk on financial instruments by transacting only with financially secure counterparties, requiring credit approvals and credit limits, and monitoring counterparties' financial condition. Our maximum exposure to credit loss in the event of non-performance by the counterparty is limited to the amount drawn and outstanding on the financial instrument. Allowances for the losses are established based on collectability assessments.

NOTE 7. FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The fair value framework requires the categorization of assets and liabilities measured at fair value into three levels based upon the assumptions (inputs) used to price the assets or liabilities. Level 1 provides the most reliable measure of fair value, whereas Level 3 generally requires significant management judgment. The three levels are defined as follows:

Level 1: Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities.

- Level 2: Observable inputs other than those included in Level 1. For example, quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets or quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in inactive markets.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs reflecting management's own assumptions about the inputs used in pricing the asset or liability.

Financial assets and financial liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis are as follows:

(In millions)	As of June 30, 2014				As of December 31, 2013
	Total	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Assets:
Investments	$12.2	$12.2	$ -	$ -	$11.9	$11.9	$ -	$ -
Derivatives	$6.1	-	6.1	-	$8.4	-	8.4	-
Total assets	$18.3	$12.2	$6.1	$ -	$20.3	$11.9	$8.4	$ -
Liabilities:
Derivatives	$3.0	$-	$3.0	$ -	$3.6	$-	$3.6	$ -

Investments represent securities held in a trust for the non-qualified deferred compensation plan. Investments are classified as trading securities and are valued based on quoted prices in active markets for identical assets that we have the ability to access. Investments are reported in other assets on the condensed consolidated balance sheets. Investments include an unrealized gain of $0.3 million as of June 30, 2014 and an unrealized gain of $0.5 million as of December 31, 2013.

We use the income approach to measure the fair value of derivative instruments on a recurring basis. This approach calculates the present value of the future cash flow by measuring the change between the derivative contract rate and the published market indicative currency rate, multiplied by the contract notional values, and applying an appropriate discount rate as well as a factor of credit risk.

The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables and payables, as well as financial instruments included in other current assets and other current liabilities, approximate fair values because of their short-term maturities.

The carrying values and the estimated fair values of our debt financial instruments are summarized in the table below:

(In millions)	As of June 30, 2014		As of December 31, 2013
	Carrying	Estimated	Carrying	Estimated
	Value	Fair Value	Value	Fair Value
Senior unsecured notes due July 31, 2015	$75.0	$ 79.5	$75.0	$ 80.7
Revolving credit facility, expires November 30, 2017	60.3	60.3	16.5	16.5
Brazilian loan due August 20, 2014	2.0	2.0	4.0	4.0
Brazilian loan due April 15, 2016	3.3	3.0	3.4	2.9
Foreign credit facilities	0.6	0.6	1.0	1.0
Other	-	-	0.5	0.5

There is no active or observable market for our fixed rate borrowings, which include our senior unsecured notes and our Brazilian loans. Therefore, the estimated fair values of the notes and the Brazilian loans are based on discounted cash flows using current interest rates available for debt with similar terms and remaining maturities. The estimates of the all-in interest rate for discounting the notes and the loans are based on a broker quote for notes and loans with similar terms. We do not have a rate adjustment for risk profile changes, covenant issues or credit rating changes, therefore the broker quote is deemed to be the closest approximation of current market rates. The carrying values of the remaining borrowings approximate their fair values due to their variable interest rates.

NOTE 8. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

We are involved in legal proceedings arising in the ordinary course of business. Although the results of litigation cannot be predicted with certainty, we do not believe that the resolution of the proceedings that we are involved in, either individually or taken as a whole, will have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations or financial condition.

We have assumed liabilities related to specified legal proceedings arising from our business prior to our 2008 spin-off from FMC Technologies, Inc. As a result, although FMC Technologies, Inc. will in many cases remain the named defendant, we will manage the litigation and indemnify FMC Technologies, Inc. for costs, expenses and judgments arising from such litigation. We do not believe that any existing litigation we have assumed will have a material effect on our business, results of operations or financial condition.

Guarantees and Product Warranties

In the ordinary course of business with customers, vendors and others, we issue standby letters of credit, performance bonds, surety bonds and other guarantees. These financial instruments, which totaled approximately $91.7 million at June 30, 2014, represent guarantees of our future performance. We also have provided approximately $6.2 million of bank guarantees and letters of credit to secure a portion of our existing financial obligations. The majority of these financial instruments expire within two years; we expect to replace them through the issuance of new or the extension of existing letters of credit and surety bonds.

In some instances, we guarantee our customers' financing arrangements. We are responsible for payment of any unpaid amounts but will receive indemnification from third parties for between sixty and ninety-five percent of the contract values. As of June 30, 2014, the gross value of such arrangements was $15.4 million, of which our net exposure under such guarantees is $2.2 million. However, we generally retain recourse to the equipment sold.

We provide warranties of various lengths and terms to certain of our customers based on standard terms and conditions and negotiated agreements. We provide for the estimated cost of warranties at the time revenue is recognized for products where reliable, historical experience of warranty claims and costs exists. We also provide a warranty liability when additional specific obligations are identified. The warranty obligation reflected in other current liabilities in the condensed consolidated balance sheets is based on historical experience by product and considers failure rates and the related costs in correcting a product failure. Warranty cost and accrual information is as follows:

	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended

NOTE 10. RESTRUCTURING

Restructuring costs primarily consist of employee separation benefits under our existing severance programs, foreign statutory termination benefits, certain one-time termination benefits, contract termination costs, asset impairment charges and other costs that are associated with restructuring actions. Restructuring charges are determined based on estimates prepared at the time the restructuring actions were approved by the management and also include amounts recognized as incurred.

During the fourth quarter of 2013, we implemented a restructuring plan that included management changes both in the U.S. and in non-U.S. subsidiaries. We incurred severance costs of $1.6 million in connection with this plan in the fourth quarter of 2013. We expect to complete the plan within 2014.

In the first quarter of 2014, we implemented a plan to optimize the overall JBT cost structure on a global basis. The initiatives under this plan include streamlining operations, consolidating certain facilities and enhancing the Company's general and administrative infrastructure. The total estimated cost in connection with this plan is in the range of $12 million to $13 million. Payments required under this plan are expected to be made during the remainder of 2014 and 2015.

Additional information regarding the restructuring activities is presented in the tables below:

NOTE 11. SUBSEQUENT EVENT

In July 2014, we acquired the stock of ICS Solutions, a subdivision of Stork Food & Dairy Systems. ICS Solutions, located in Amsterdam, The Netherlands and Gainesville, GA (U.S.A.), is a worldwide leader in the engineering, installation and servicing of high-capacity food preservation equipment. This acquisition will enable us to provide a complete range of high-capacity, in-container sterilization solutions to our customers in the growing global beverage, dairy and canning industries.

The purchase price was €25.8 million (approximately $35 million) before customary post-closing adjustments. We funded this acquisition with cash on hand as well as borrowings against our revolving line of credit. On June 30, 2014, we deposited €35 million (approximately $48 million) in a notary account as required by the purchase agreement. This notary account was for the funding of the acquisition which includes payment for the purchase price, customary post-closing working capital adjustments and cash acquired. The acquisition will be accounted for as a business combination in accordance with U.S. GAAP. We will record assets acquired (both tangible and intangible) and liabilities assumed at their respective fair value. We are in the process of completing the fair value assessment and accounting for this acquisition.

Total revenue increased $20.7 million in the second quarter of 2014 compared to the same period in 2013. Equipment revenue increased $26.4 million, which was attributable to higher equipment sales in both FoodTech and AeroTech.

Operating income increased by $3.7 million, or 25%, compared to the same period in 2013 as a result of the following items:

Gross profit increased by $9.2 million. Higher sales volume contributed approximately $5 million to the increase. Profit margin expansion accounted for approximately $4 million of the increase, which was mainly attributable to the benefits of cost reduction and strategic pricing initiatives implemented since the beginning of 2014.

Selling, general and administrative expense increased by $4.4 million compared to the same period in 2013. We incurred incremental costs of $1.1 million related to management succession and $1.0 million related to strategy and pricing consulting services. The remaining increase of $2.8 million was mainly driven by higher general business spending and increased selling related expenses consistent with higher revenue. These increases were offset in part by lower long-term incentive compensation costs of approximately $0.5 million.

We continued our plan to optimize the overall JBT cost structure on a global basis. The initiatives under this plan include streamlining operations, consolidating certain facilities and enhancing our general and administrative infrastructure. The total estimated cost of this plan is in the range of $12 million to $13 million with $10.2 million recorded in the first quarter of 2014. We incurred additional restructuring costs related to this plan of $1.0 million in the second quarter of 2014. We anticipate incurring up to $2 million of additional restructuring costs by the end of 2014.

Interest income remained relatively flat in the second quarter of 2014 compared to the same period in 2013. Interest expense decreased slightly due to lower borrowing costs in the second quarter of 2014 compared to the same period in 2013.

Income tax expense in the second quarter of 2014 reflected an expected effective income tax rate for the full year of 32.8%, which is consistent with our 2013 full year rate. As of the second quarter of 2014, the effective tax rate does not reflect a tax benefit related to the U.S. research and development tax credit, which expired as of December 31, 2013 and has not been reenacted into law.

Segment operating profit is defined as total segment revenue less segment operating expenses. The following items have been excluded in computing segment operating profit: corporate staff expense, foreign currency-related gains and losses, LIFO provisions, restructuring costs, certain employee benefit expenses, interest income and expense and income taxes.

JBT FoodTech

JBT FoodTech's revenue increased by $11.4 million in the second quarter of 2014 compared to the same period in 2013. The increase was driven by $15.6 million in higher equipment sales in the Freezing and Cooking product lines in Asia Pacific, North America and Europe. The increase was partly offset by decreased aftermarket revenue which was mainly due to timing of the completion of certain projects. Aftermarket revenue for three months ended June 30, 2014 increased 12% sequentially from the first quarter of 2014.

JBT FoodTech's operating profit increased by $2.2 million in the second quarter of 2014 compared to the same period in 2013 resulting in an increase in operating margin from 13.1% to 13.5%. Higher sales volume contributed $3.6 million of higher profit. Margin expansion resulted in $1.7 million of higher profit. This was driven by higher equipment margins, which were mainly attributable to favorable project mix, and strategic pricing initiatives that resulted in higher parts margins as well as favorable cost performance. These increases were partly offset by higher general business spending and increased selling costs consistent with higher revenue.

JBT AeroTech

JBT AeroTech's revenue increased by $8.2 million in the second quarter of 2014 compared to the same period in 2013. The increase was driven by $13.8 million in higher gate equipment sales primarily as a result of converting higher backlog of Jetway® passenger boarding bridges and pre-conditioned air equipment. These increases were partly reduced by $4.1 million in lower sales of ground support equipment to air carrier customers. The remaining sales decline is mainly due to lower revenue from Airport Service maintenance contracts.

JBT AeroTech's operating profit increased by $2.8 million in the second quarter of 2014 compared to the same period in 2013 resulting in an increase in operating margins from 3.6% to 7.0%. Higher sales volume accounted for $1.3 million of the improvement. Gross profit margins increased by 270 basis points, primarily as the result of favorable product mix and the benefit of leveraging fixed costs, which accounted for the majority of the remaining of profit improvement.

Corporate Items

Corporate expense increased by $0.3 million in the second quarter of 2014 compared to the same period in 2013. The increase was primarily driven by $1.1 million of higher costs related to our management succession plan and $1.0 million in strategy and pricing consulting expenses. These increases were partly offset by $0.5 million in lower incentive compensation expenses and $1.2 million in lower foreign currency losses.

Total revenue increased $33.0 million, or $35.0 million in constant currency, in the six months ended June 30, 2014 compared to the same period in 2013. Equipment revenue increased $36.0 million primarily attributable to higher sales from FoodTech. Aftermarket sales contributed $1.8 million of increased revenue from both FoodTech and AeroTech. These increases were partly offset by decreased service revenue.

Operating income decreased by $8.1 million in the six months ended June 30, 2014 compared to the same period in 2013 as a result of the following items:

Gross profit increased by $10.9 million. Higher volume contributed $9.3 million to the increase. Improved gross profit margin added $2.6 million to the increase which was driven primarily by favorable project mix and the benefits of strategic pricing initiatives. These increases were partly offset by the impact of unfavorable foreign currency translation.

Selling, general and administrative expense increased by $7.1 million compared to the same period in 2013. We incurred $2.6 million of costs related to our management succession and $1.9 million in higher costs related to strategy and pricing consulting services in the first half of 2014. The remaining increase of approximately $4 million was mainly driven by higher general business spending and increased selling related costs consistent with higher revenue. These increases were offset in part by lower long-term incentive compensation costs of $1.5 million.

We continued our plan to optimize the overall JBT cost structure on a global basis. The initiatives under this plan include streamlining operations, consolidating certain facilities and enhancing our general and administrative infrastructure. The total estimated cost of this plan is in the range of $12 million to $13 million. We recorded a total of $11.2 million of restructuring expense in the six months ended June 30, 2014. We anticipate incurring up to $2 million of additional restructuring costs by the end of 2014.

Other income, net decreased by $0.4 million primarily due to the absence of gain from disposal of assets recognized in the same period in 2013.

Income tax expense in the six months ended June 30, 2014 reflected an expected effective income tax rate for the full year of 32.8% and is consistent with our full year 2013 tax rate. During the first quarter of 2014, we incurred $0.4 million in tax expense to reflect an uncertain tax position. As of the second quarter of 2014, the effective tax rate does not reflect a tax benefit related to the U.S. research and development tax credit, which expired as of December 31, 2013 and has not been reenacted into law.

The following items have been excluded in computing segment operating profit: corporate staff expense, foreign currency-related gains and losses, LIFO provisions, restructuring costs, certain employee benefit expenses, interest income and expense and income taxes.

JBT FoodTech

JBT FoodTech's revenue increased by $34.9 million in the six months ended June 30, 2014 compared to the same period in 2013. The increase was mainly driven by $36.6 million in higher equipment sales. The major contributor to the increased equipment sales was the Freezing and Cooking business where sales increased by $22.4 million, primarily due to growth in Asia and North America.

JBT FoodTech's operating profit increased by $5.7 million in the six months ended June 30, 2014 compared to the same period in 2013, resulting in an increase in operating margin from 10.6% to 11.3%. This margin expansion was primarily driven by higher volume, favorable project mix and strategic pricing initiatives. These increases were partly offset by higher general business spending and increased selling related costs consistent with higher revenue.

JBT AeroTech

JBT AeroTech's revenue in the six months ended June 30, 2014 was consistent with the same period in 2013. Sales of gate equipment improved $9.2 million as a result of converting higher backlog of Jetway® passenger boarding bridge and pre-conditioned air equipment. Sales of ground support equipment declined $7.7 million from the prior year period driven by a reduction in sales to air carrier customers partly offset by higher revenues from other customers. The remaining $1.5 million sales decline is mainly due to lower revenues from maintenance contracts in our Airport Services business unit.

JBT AeroTech operating profit increased by $1.0 million during the six months ended June 30, 2014 compared to the same period in 2013, which resulted in an operating margin improvement from 4.8% to 5.6%. The improvement was primarily the result of higher gross profit which was mainly due to favorable product mix in both the gate equipment and ground support equipment product lines.

Corporate Items

Corporate expense increased by $3.6 million in the six months ended June 30, 2014 compared to the same period in 2013. The increase was primarily driven by higher costs related to our management succession plan of $2.6 million, and $1.9 million in strategy and pricing consulting expenses. These increases were partly offset by lower incentive compensation costs of $1.5 million.

Inbound Orders and Order Backlog

Inbound orders represent the estimated sales value of confirmed customer orders received during the reporting period. Inbound orders were as follows:

(In millions)	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended
	June 30, 2014	June 30, 2013	June 30, 2014	June 30, 2013
JBT FoodTech	$138.2	$162.9	$298.7	$330.9
JBT AeroTech	71.2	88.1	171.6	149.1
Other and intercompany eliminations	(0.2)	(1.3)	(0.2)	1.8
Total inbound orders	$209.2	$249.7	$470.1	$481.8

JBT FoodTech inbound orders for the three months ended June 30, 2014 decreased compared to the same period in 2013. The decrease was primarily attributable to order delays in Automated Systems and longer negotiation cycle for our Canning and Fruit & Juice projects.

JBT AeroTech inbound orders for the three months ended June 30, 2014 decreased compared to the same period in 2013. The decrease was mainly attributable to timing of Jetway® passenger boarding bridge orders which were received earlier in the year.

Order backlog is calculated as the estimated sales value of unfilled, confirmed customer orders at the reporting date.

Order Backlog

(In millions)	June 30, 2014	December 31, 2013	June 30, 2013
JBT FoodTech	$203.3	$ 213.7	$226.1
JBT AeroTech	197.7	162.8	126.2
Total order backlog	$401.0	$ 376.5	$352.3

Order backlog in our JBT FoodTech segment at June 30, 2014 decreased compared to December 31, 2013, mainly as the result of lower ordering activities from Freezing and Cooking products in Asia.

Order backlog in our JBT AeroTech segment at June 30, 2014 increased compared to December 31, 2013, primarily driven by increased demand from global airports and seasonal build of deicer orders.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our primary sources of liquidity are cash provided by operating activities of our U.S. and foreign operations and borrowings from our credit facility. Our liquidity as of June 30, 2014, or cash plus borrowings capacity was $188.8 million. The cash flows generated by our operations and the credit facility have historically been sufficient to satisfy our working capital needs, research and development activities, capital expenditures, pension contributions, dividends, authorized share repurchases, acquisitions and other financing requirements. We are not aware of any circumstances that are likely to result in our required liquidity increasing or decreasing materially in the near-term.

At June 30, 2014, we held €35 million (approximately $48 million) in a notary account for the purpose of an acquisition that took place in July 2014.

As of June 30, 2014, we had $63.7 million of cash and cash equivalents, $38.3 million of which was held by our foreign subsidiaries. Although these funds are considered permanently invested in our foreign subsidiaries, we are not presently aware of any restrictions on the repatriation of these funds. We maintain significant operations outside of the U.S., and many of our uses of cash for working capital, capital expenditures and business acquisition arise in these foreign geographies. If these funds were needed to fund our operations or satisfy obligations in the U.S., they could be repatriated and their repatriation into the U.S. could cause us to incur additional U.S. income taxes and foreign withholding taxes. Any additional taxes could be offset, in part or in whole, by foreign tax credits. The amount of such taxes and application of tax credits would be dependent on the income tax laws and other circumstances at the time any of these amounts were repatriated.

As noted above, funds held outside of the U.S. are considered permanently invested in our non-U.S. subsidiaries. At times, these foreign subsidiaries have cash balances that exceed their immediate working capital or other cash needs. In these circumstances, the foreign subsidiaries may loan funds to the U.S. parent company on a temporary basis; the U.S. parent company has in the past and may in the future use the proceeds of these temporary intercompany loans to reduce outstanding borrowings under our committed credit facilities. By using available non-U.S. cash to repay our debt on a short-term basis, we can optimize our leverage ratio, which has the effect of both lowering the rate we pay on certain of our borrowings and lowering our interest costs.

Under Internal Revenue Service (IRS) guidance, no incremental tax liability is incurred on the proceeds of these loans as long as each individual loan has a term of 30 days or less and all such loans from each subsidiary is outstanding for a total of less than 60 days during the year. The amount outstanding subject to this IRS guidance at June 30, 2014 was $74.6 million. During 2014, each such loan was outstanding for less than 30 days, and all such loans were outstanding for less than 60 days in the aggregate. The U.S. parent used the proceeds of these intercompany loans to reduce outstanding borrowings under our 5-year credit facility. We may choose to access such funds again in the future to the extent they are available and can be transferred without significant cost, and use them on a temporary basis to repay outstanding borrowings or for other corporate purposes, but intend to do so only as allowed under this IRS guidance.

Cash Flows

Cash flows for the six months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013 were as follows:

(In millions)	2014	2013
Cash provided by continuing operating activities	$20.3	$30.5
Cash required by investing activities	(17.7)	(12.9)
Cash provided (required) by financing activities	33.4	(92.9)
Net cash required by discontinued operations	(0.3)	(0.7)
Effect of foreign exchange rate changes on cash and cash equivalents	(1.4)	(2.0)
Increase (decrease) in cash and cash equivalents	$34.3	$(78.0)

Cash provided by continuing operating activities during the six months ended June 30, 2014 was $20.3 million, representing a $10.2 million decrease compared to 2013. The change in operating cash flows was primarily attributable to the lower level of advanced payments received during the six months ended June 30, 2014 as compared to the six months ended June 30, 2013. We received fewer large value orders, which tend to require higher advanced payments, during the first six months of 2014 compared to same period in 2013. We expect to contribute approximately $14 million to our U.S. qualified pension plan as well as other pension and postretirement benefit plans during the rest of 2014. We also expect to make cash payments of approximately $8 million under our restructuring plan during the remainder of 2014.

Cash required by investing activities during the six months ended June 30, 2014 was $17.7 million, an increase of $4.8 million compared to the same period in 2013. The increase was due to acquisition spending of $1.7 million that occurred during the first quarter of 2014, coupled with higher capital expenditures. Much of our capital spending supports the maintenance and upgrading of our installed base of leased equipment. We anticipate spending a total of approximately $19 million on construction of a new JBT FoodTech plant in Lakeland, Florida to replace the existing plant in the same area. We spent approximately $7 million on this project in 2013. We spent an additional $4 million on the project during the first six months of 2014, and expect to spend approximately $7 million in the remainder of 2014 and $1 million in 2015 to complete this project.

Cash provided by financing activities during the six months ended June 30, 2014 was $33.4 million compared to cash required of $92.9 million in the same period in 2013. The change in financing cash flow was primarily driven by borrowing against our 5-year revolving credit facility to provide the funding required for an acquisition that closed in July 2014.

Financing Arrangements

We have a $300 million 5-year revolving credit facility that expires on November 30, 2017. Borrowings under the credit facility bear interest, at our option, at LIBOR or an alternative base rate, which is the greater of JPMorgan Chase, N.A.'s Prime Rate, the Federal Funds Rate plus 50 basis points, and LIBOR plus 1%, plus a margin dependent on our leverage ratio. We are required to make periodic interest payments on the borrowed amounts and pay an annual facility fee ranging from 15.0 to 27.5 basis points, depending on our leverage ratio. As of June 30, 2014, we had $60.3 million drawn on the credit facility.

We have $75 million of 6.66% senior unsecured notes outstanding. The senior unsecured notes are due on July 31, 2015 and require us to make semiannual interest payments. We are currently evaluating our alternatives with regard to satisfying this obligation in 2015, including borrowing under our existing revolving credit facility, entering into a new fixed rate facility, and other alternatives.

Our Brazilian subsidiary entered into two loans during 2013. The first loan was a $4.0 million loan with an annual interest cost of 5.5% that had a first installment payment of $2.0 million which was made on February 21, 2014, and requires a second installment payment that is due at maturity on August 20, 2014. The second loan was a Brazilian real denominated loan with an outstanding balance of Br7.2 million (approximately $3.3 million) as of June 30, 2014 and bears an annual interest rate of 5.5%. The first principal payment on this loan was made on May 15, 2014, with equal monthly payments continuing for 24 months thereafter.

We have several credit facilities in China and India under which we have drawn $0.6 million and have $12.2 million of additional available funds as of June 30, 2014.

Our credit agreement and notes include restrictive covenants that, if not met, could lead to a renegotiation of our credit lines, a requirement to repay our borrowings and/or a significant increase in our cost of financing. At June 30, 2014, we were in compliance with all covenants of our contractual obligations.

We expect to remain in compliance with all restrictive covenants in the foreseeable future. However, there can be no assurance that continued or increased volatility in global economic conditions will not impair our ability to meet our restrictive covenants, or that we will continue to be able to access the capital and credit markets on terms acceptable to us or at all.

Outlook

For the full year, we anticipate revenue growth to be in the mid-single digit range. We expect total segment operating profit in 2014 to improve slightly relative to 2013. However we expect full-year corporate expenses to be greater than 2013 due to higher setup costs associated with our U.S. back-office consolidation initiative and additional costs associated with business acquisition activities. For the full year 2014, we project adjusted diluted earnings per share to be in the range of $1.45 - $1.55. On a GAAP basis, diluted earnings per share is expected to be in the range of $0.95 - $1.05.

A review of interim financial information consists principally of applying analytical procedures and making inquiries of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our reviews, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the condensed consolidated financial statements referred to above for them to be in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

We have previously audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the consolidated balance sheet of John Bean Technologies Corporation and subsidiaries as of December 31, 2013, and the related consolidated statements of income, comprehensive income, changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended (not presented herein); and in our report dated March 6, 2014, we expressed an unqualified opinion on those consolidated financial statements.
