CALCULATION OF REGISTRATION FEE

Title of Each Class of Securities to be Registered	Amount to be Registered(1)	Proposed	Proposed	Amount of Registration Fee(3)
		Maximum Offering Price per Unit	Maximum Aggregate Offering Price(2)
Common stock, $1.00 par value per share	3,112,612 shares	Not applicable	$112,122,337	$12,995

(1) The maximum number of shares of Bryn Mawr Bank Corporation common stock estimated to be issuable upon the completion of the proposed merger of Royal Bancshares of Pennsylvania, Inc. with and into Bryn Mawr Bank Corporation, pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of January 30, 2017, between Bryn Mawr Bank Corporation and Royal Bancshares of Pennsylvania, Inc. (the “merger agreement”). This number is equal to the sum of (a) the product of (i) the sum of 27,913,024 outstanding shares of Royal Bancshares of Pennsylvania, Inc. Class A common stock (“Class A Stock”), 25,000 shares of Class A Stock restricted stock, and 215,139 shares of Class A Stock underlying outstanding option awards; multiplied by (ii) the exchange ratio of 0.1025 shares of Bryn Mawr Bank Corporation common stock for each share of Class A Stock; plus (b) the product of (i) 1,924,629, the number of outstanding shares of Royal Bancshares of Pennsylvania, Inc. Class B common stock (“Class B Stock”) and (ii) the exchange ratio of 0.1179 shares of Bryn Mawr Bank Corporation common stock for each share of Class B Stock.

(2) Estimated solely for the purpose of calculating the registration fee required by Section 6(b) of the Securities Act and computed pursuant to Rules 457(f)(1), 457(f)(2) and 457(c) under the Securities Act. Pursuant to Rule 457(f)(1) under the Securities Act, the proposed maximum aggregate offering price of the registrant’s shares of common stock was calculated in accordance with Rule 457(c) under the Securities Act based upon (i) the market value of the shares of Class A Stock to be cancelled in the merger as follows: the product of (a) 28,153,163, the estimated maximum possible number of shares of Class A Stock which may be cancelled and exchanged in the proposed merger, and (b) $3.865, the average of the high and low prices for a share of Royal Bancshares of Pennsylvania, Inc. Class A common stock reported on NASDAQ on March 27, 2017, plus (ii) the market value of the shares of Royal Bancshares of Pennsylvania Class B common stock to be cancelled and exchanged for the registrant's shares of common stock in connection with the proposed merger as follows: the product of (x) 1,924,629, the estimated maximum possible number of shares of Royal Bancshares of Pennsylvania, Inc. Class B common stock which may be cancelled and exchanged in the proposed merger, and (y) $1.72, the book value for a share of Royal Bancshares of Pennsylvania, Inc. Class B common stock on December 31, 2016.

(3) Determined in accordance with Section 6(b) of the Securities Act at a rate equal to $115.90 per $1,000,000 of the proposed maximum offering price.

The Registrant hereby amends this Registration Statement on such date or dates as may be necessary to delay its effective date until the Registrant shall file a further amendment which specifically states that this Registration Statement shall thereafter become effective in accordance with Section 8(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 or until the Registration Statement shall become effective on such date as the Commission, acting pursuant to said Section 8(a), may determine.

The information in this proxy statement/prospectus is not complete and may be changed. Bryn Mawr Bank Corporation may not issue the shares of its common stock to be issued in connection with the merger described in this proxy statement/prospectus until the registration statement it filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission becomes effective. This proxy statement/prospectus is not an offer to sell these securities and it is not soliciting an offer to buy these securities nor shall there be any sale of these securities in any state where the offer or sale is not permitted.

PRELIMINARY - Subject to completion, dated MARCH 28, 2017

MERGER PROPOSED – YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Dear Royal Bancshares of Pennsylvania, Inc. Shareholders:

On January 30, 2017, Bryn Mawr Bank Corporation, or BMBC, and Royal Bancshares of Pennsylvania, Inc., or RBPI, entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “merger agreement”) that provides for the acquisition of RBPI by BMBC. This acquisition will take place by merging RBPI with and into BMBC, with BMBC being the surviving corporation (the “merger”).

If the merger is completed, RBPI will cease to exist as a separate corporation and RBPI shareholders will no longer own common shares of RBPI. The merger will cause each outstanding share of RBPI Class A common stock (the “RBPI Class A Stock”) to automatically convert into the right to receive merger consideration from BMBC consisting of 0.1025 shares of BMBC common stock and cash in lieu of any fractional shares of BMBC common stock, and the merger will cause each outstanding share of RBPI Class B common stock (the “RBPI Class B Stock”) to automatically convert into the right to receive merger consideration from BMBC consisting of 0.1179 shares of BMBC common stock and cash in lieu of any fractional shares of BMBC common stock. Based on the number of shares of RBPI common stock that were outstanding or reserved for issuance pursuant to various convertible securities and outstanding awards under equity-based compensation plans as of _____, 2017, BMBC estimates that it will need to issue, or reserve for issuance, approximately 3,112,612 shares of its common stock in the aggregate to pay the merger consideration under the merger agreement. After completion of the merger, it is expected that RBPI shareholders will, as a group, own approximately 15.5% of BMBC, which percentage excludes the right to receive BMBC common stock under outstanding RBPI warrants that will continue after the closing of the merger pursuant to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement.

The proxy statement/prospectus of which this letter is a part contains important information about the special meeting of RBPI shareholders, the merger, the documents related to the merger and other related matters. Please carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including “Risk Factors,” beginning on page 16, for a discussion of the risks relating to the proposed merger. You also can obtain information about BMBC and RBPI from the documents that each has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Each of the boards of directors of BMBC and RBPI has unanimously approved the merger and the merger agreement. However, BMBC and RBPI cannot complete the merger, and the merger consideration cannot be paid by BMBC, unless RBPI shareholders approve the adoption of the merger agreement and the merger.

At the RBPI special meeting, RBPI shareholders will be asked to vote on (1) a proposal to approve the adoption of the merger agreement and the merger, (2) a proposal to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation that will or may be paid to RBPI’s named executive officers that is based on or otherwise relates to the merger, and (3) a proposal to approve one or more adjournments of the RBPI special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of approval of adoption of the merger agreement and the merger. RBPI’s entire board of directors unanimously determined that the merger agreement and the transactions described in the merger agreement, including the merger, are advisable and in the best interests of RBPI and its shareholders, and unanimously recommends that RBPI shareholders vote “FOR” approval of the adoption of the merger agreement and the merger, “FOR” the approval, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, of the compensation that will or may be paid to RBPI’s named executive officers that is based on or otherwise relates to the merger, and “FOR” approval of one or more adjournments of the RBPI special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of adoption of the merger agreement and the merger.

Table of Contents

Please be aware that, although the number of shares of BMBC common stock that RBPI shareholders will receive is fixed, the market value of the merger consideration will fluctuate with the market price of BMBC common stock and will not be known at the time of the RBPI special meeting. Based on the closing price of BMBC common stock on NASDAQ Stock Market, LLC, or NASDAQ, on January 30, 2017, the last trading day before public announcement of the merger, the 0.1025 exchange ratio represented approximately $4.14 in value for each share of RBPI Class A Stock and the 0.1179 exchange ratio represented approximately $4.76 in value for each share of RBPI Class B Stock. Based on the closing price of BMBC common stock on NASDAQ on _____, 2017, the last practical trading day before the distribution of this proxy statement/prospectus, the 0.1025 exchange ratio represented approximately $ _____ in value for each share of RBPI Class A Stock and the 0.1179 exchange ratio represented approximately $ _____ in value for each share of RBPI Class B Stock. We urge you to obtain current market quotations for BMBC common stock (trading symbol “BMTC”) and RBPI Class A Stock (trading symbol “RBPAA”). RBPI’s board of directors is entitled, under certain circumstances, to terminate the merger agreement based on a decline in the market price of BMBC common stock since the date one day prior to the date of the merger agreement and a comparison of such decline to any decline in the ABA NASDAQ Community Bank Index. See the section entitled “The Merger Agreement -- Termination of the Merger Agreement” beginning on page 85 of the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus.

Again, we encourage every RBPI shareholder to vote. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, please take the time to vote your shares in accordance with the instructions contained in this proxy statement/prospectus.

We look forward to seeing you at the special meeting and to the future, successful merger of the banking institutions.

Sincerely,

F. Kevin Tylus

President and Chief Executive Officer

Royal Bancshares of Pennsylvania, Inc.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of the BMBC common stock to be issued pursuant to this proxy statement/prospectus or determined if this proxy statement/prospectus is accurate or adequate. NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

TO BE HELD

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a special meeting of shareholders of Royal Bancshares of Pennsylvania, Inc. will be held at _____, Eastern Time, on _____, at _____, to consider and vote upon the following matters:

1. Approval of the adoption of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of January 30, 2017, between Bryn Mawr Bank Corporation and Royal Bancshares of Pennsylvania, Inc., which we refer to as the "merger agreement." Pursuant to the merger agreement, RBPI will merge with and into BMBC, and thereafter Royal Bank America, a Pennsylvania-chartered bank and wholly owned subsidiary of RBPI, will be merged into The Bryn Mawr Trust Company, a Pennsylvania-chartered bank and wholly owned subsidiary of BMBC, as more fully described in the attached proxy statement/prospectus, and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger;
2. Approval by an advisory (non-binding) vote, of certain compensation arrangements in connection with the proposed merger for RBPI's named executive officers; and
3. Approval of one or more adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in the event that there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve and adopt the agreement and plan of merger.

The board of directors of RBPI has carefully considered the terms of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the agreement and believes that the proposed merger is in the best interests of RBPI. The entire board of directors of RBPI has unanimously approved adoption of the merger agreement and the merger and unanimously recommends that shareholders vote “FOR” approval and adoption of the merger agreement and merger, “FOR” the proposal to approve the merger-related executive compensation, and “FOR” the proposal to approve adjournment of the special meeting if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger agreement.

Your affirmative vote, which is recommended by the Board of Directors, is very important to us, whether or not you will be attending the special meeting or voting by other means. You may submit your proxy using the Internet, using a toll free telephone number or by completing, signing and dating the enclosed proxy card and returning it in the enclosed prepaid envelope. To the extent you are present at the special meeting and desire to vote in person, you may do so by following the instructions for in-person voting described in the attached proxy statement/prospectus.

RBPI’s board of directors has fixed the close of business on _____ as the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. You are entitled to notice of and to vote your shares of common stock at our special meeting only if our records show that you owned the shares on the record date.

BY ORDER OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS,

/s/ Lisa Lockowitz

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

The following are some questions that you may have about the merger and the RBPI special meeting and brief answers to those questions. We urge you to read carefully the remainder of this proxy statement/prospectus because the information in this section does not provide all of the information that might be important to you. Additional important information about BMBC, RBPI and the proposed merger is also contained in the documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. See “Where You Can Find More Information.”

Q. What is the merger?

A. BMBC and RBPI have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, or the merger agreement, that provides for the merger of RBPI and BMBC. The purpose of the merger is to combine the businesses and operations of RBPI with those of BMBC. In the merger, RBPI will be merged with and into BMBC, the separate corporate existence of RBPI will cease, and BMBC will be the surviving corporation. If the merger is completed, all shares of RBPI common stock will be cancelled. In exchange for cancellation of all shares of RBPI common stock, BMBC is offering to pay RBPI shareholders merger consideration consisting of 0.1025 shares of BMBC common stock for each share of RBPI Class A Stock, 0.1179 shares of BMBC common stock for each share of RBPI Class B Stock, and cash in lieu of any fractional shares of BMBC common stock. The merger agreement also contains the other terms of the merger and the conditions which must be satisfied to complete the merger. See “The Merger Agreement” for a summary of the merger agreement. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A.

In addition, BMBC and RBPI agreed that their bank subsidiaries should merge with each other. Immediately after the merger between BMBC and RBPI is completed, Royal Bank America (“Royal Bank”), the bank subsidiary of RBPI, will merge with and into Bryn Mawr Trust Company (“BMT”), the bank subsidiary of BMBC. As a result of this bank merger, the separate corporate existence of Royal Bank will cease, and BMT will continue as the surviving bank.

The merger between BMBC and RBPI cannot be completed unless, among other things, RBPI shareholders approve the adoption of the merger agreement and the merger.

Q. Why am I receiving this document?

A. The RBPI board of directors is using this document as a proxy statement to solicit the proxies of the shareholders of RBPI, for use at the special meeting to be held by RBPI. The RBPI board of directors has called a special meeting of RBPI shareholders in order to obtain their approval of the adoption of the merger agreement and the merger and related matters.

This document also is a prospectus of BMBC pursuant to which BMBC is offering shares of its common stock to RBPI shareholders in connection with the merger.

This proxy statement/prospectus contains important information about the merger, the merger agreement, the special meeting and other related matters. You should read this proxy statement/prospectus carefully. The enclosed materials allow you to vote your shares by proxy without attending the special meeting. Your vote is important, and we encourage you to submit your proxy as soon as possible.

Q. What will holders of RBPI common stock receive in the merger?

Holdings of RBPI common stock will be entitled to receive merger consideration consisting of shares of BMBC common stock. Upon completion of the merger of RBPI with and into BMBC, each share of RBPI Class A Stock and RBPI Class B Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to that time, will be converted into the right to receive 0.1025 shares of BMBC common stock and 0.1179 shares of BMBC common stock, respectively. BMBC will pay cash in lieu of issuing fractional shares of BMBC common stock.

Q. What will BMBC shareholders receive in the merger?

A. Upon completion of the merger of RBPI with and into BMBC, BMBC shareholders will not receive any merger consideration and will continue to hold the shares of BMBC common stock that they currently hold.

Q. What is the value of the merger consideration that RBPI shareholders will receive?

A. Although the number of shares of BMBC common stock being offered to RBPI shareholders as merger consideration is fixed, the value of the merger consideration will fluctuate between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and the date on which the merger is completed, based upon the market value of a share of BMBC common stock. The market price of BMBC common stock may change at any time. Consequently, the total dollar value of the BMBC common stock that RBPI shareholders receive upon completion of the merger may be significantly higher or lower than its value as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Based on the closing stock price of BMBC common stock on NASDAQ on January 30, 2017, the last trading day before public announcement of the merger, of $40.35, and the exchange ratio of 0.1025 for RBPI Class A Stock and 0.1179 for RBPI Class B Stock, the value of the per share merger consideration would be $4.14 for each share of RBPI Class A Stock and $4.76 for each share of RBPI Class B Stock. Based on BMBC's estimate that the maximum number of shares of BMBC common stock issuable in the merger is 3,112,612 shares, the aggregate value of the merger consideration payable to RBPI shareholders would be approximately $125.6 million.

Using the closing stock price of BMBC common stock on NASDAQ on _____, the latest practical date before the mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus, of $ _____, and the exchange ratio of 0.1025 for RBPI Class A Stock and 0.1179 for RBPI Class B Stock, the value of the per share merger consideration would be $ _____ for each share of RBPI Class A Stock and $ _____ for each share of RBPI Class B Stock. Based on BMBC's estimate that the maximum number of shares of BMBC common stock issuable in the merger is 3,112,612 shares, the aggregate value of the merger consideration payable to RBPI shareholders would be approximately $ _____.

The maximum number of shares of BMBC common stock issuable in the merger was determined by aggregating the number of shares of RBPI Class A Stock and RBPI Class B Stock outstanding and the number reserved for issuance under outstanding awards pursuant to RBPI's various equity plans.

We urge you to obtain current market quotations for BMBC common stock and RBPI Class A Stock. We can provide no assurance as to future prices of BMBC common stock or RBPI Class A Stock. Any fluctuation in the market price of BMBC common stock after the date of this proxy statement/prospectus will change the value of the shares of BMBC common stock that RBPI shareholders will receive.

Q. What happens if a RBPI shareholder is eligible to receive a fraction of a share of BMBC common stock as part of the per share merger consideration?

A. If the aggregate number of shares of BMBC common stock that a RBPI shareholder is entitled to receive as part of the merger consideration includes a fraction of a share of BMBC common stock, the shareholder will receive cash in lieu of that fractional share. See the section entitled "The Merger Agreement -- Treatment of RBPI Common Stock" beginning on page 69 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q. What will holders of RBPI stock options, restricted stock awards, or warrants receive in the merger?

A. Stock Option Awards. Immediately prior to the closing of the merger, all rights with respect to unexercised and outstanding RBPI stock options will be cancelled by RBPI in exchange for a cash payment equal to the positive difference, if any, between $4.19 and the corresponding exercise price of such RBPI stock option.

Restricted Stock Awards. Upon completion of the merger, each outstanding RBPI restricted stock award will become fully vested and will be converted into the right to receive, without interest, BMBC common stock at the applicable exchange ratio for each share of RBPI common stock subject to the award and cash in lieu of any fractional shares of BMBC common stock.

Warrants. Upon completion of the merger, all RBPI warrants which are outstanding and unexercised shall become fully vested and exercisable and be converted, in their entirety, automatically into fully vested and exercisable warrants to purchase shares of BMBC common stock (the “Continuing Warrants”) in an amount and at an exercise price determined as follows: (i) the number of shares of BMBC common stock to be subject to the Continuing Warrants shall be equal to the product of the number of shares of RBPI common stock subject to the RBPI warrants, and the applicable exchange ratio; with fractional shares of BMBC common stock resulting from such multiplication being rounded down to the nearest share; and (ii) the exercise price per share of BMBC common stock under the Continuing Warrants shall be equal to the exercise price per share of RBPI common stock under the RBPI warrants, as applicable, divided by the applicable exchange ratio, with the quotient rounded up to the nearest cent. The duration and other terms of the Continuing Warrants shall be the same as the RBPI warrants, except all references to RBPI shall instead be references to BMBC.

Q. What will happen to RBPI as a result of the merger?

A. If the merger is completed, RBPI will be merged with and into BMBC, with BMBC surviving the merger as the surviving corporation. Following the merger, RBPI will cease to exist by operation of law and will no longer be a publicly held company. RBPI shareholders will no longer own an interest in RBPI. Following the merger, RBPI common stock will be delisted from NASDAQ and deregistered under the Exchange Act.

Q. What equity stake will RBPI shareholders hold in BMBC immediately following the merger?

Based on the number of issued and outstanding shares of BMBC common stock and RBPI common stock as of _____, 2017, and based on the exchange ratio of 0.1025 for RBPI Class A Stock and 0.1179 for RBPI Class B Stock, without giving effect to any shares of BMBC common stock held by RBPI shareholders prior to the merger, holders of shares of RBPI common stock as of immediately prior to the completion of the merger will hold, A. in the aggregate, approximately _____ % of the shares of BMBC common stock that are issued and outstanding immediately following the completion of the merger, which percentage excludes the right to receive BMBC common stock under the outstanding RBPI warrants that will continue after the closing of the merger pursuant to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement.

Q. When will the merger be completed?

If RBPI shareholders approve adoption of the merger agreement and the merger, the parties currently expect the merger will be completed during the third quarter of 2017. Neither RBPI nor BMBC can predict, however, the A. actual date on which the merger will be completed because it is subject to factors beyond each company's control, including whether or when the required regulatory approvals will be received. See "The Merger -- Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger and the Bank Merger" beginning on page 64.

Q. What am I being asked to vote on?

A. RBPI shareholders are being asked to vote on the following proposals:

(1) To approve the adoption of the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to this document, and the merger (we refer to this proposal as the "RBPI merger proposal");

To approve, by an advisory (non-binding) vote, certain compensation arrangements in connection with the proposed merger for RBPI's named executive officers, as discussed under the section titled "The Merger – Interests of RBPI's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 60 (we refer to this proposal as the "RBPI compensation proposal"); and

To approve one or more adjournments of the RBPI special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit (3) additional proxies in the event that there are not sufficient votes at the time of the RBPI special meeting to approve the RBPI merger proposal (we refer to this proposal as the "RBPI adjournment proposal").

RBPI will transact no other business at the RBPI special meeting, except for business properly brought before the RBPI special meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

The merger cannot be completed unless the RBPI merger proposal is approved by the RBPI shareholders.

Q. How does the RBPI board of directors recommend that RBPI shareholders vote at their special meeting?

A. The RBPI board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote “FOR” the RBPI merger proposal, “FOR” the RBPI compensation proposal, and “FOR” the RBPI adjournment proposal.

Q. Did the RBPI board of directors receive an opinion from a financial advisor with respect to the merger?

Yes. On January 30, 2017, Sandler O’Neill & Partners, L.P. delivered its written opinion to the RBPI board of directors that, as of the date of the opinion, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, limitations, qualifications and other matters set forth therein, the Class A exchange ratio and Class B exchange ratio provided for in the merger agreement were fair to the holders of RBPI Class A Stock and RBPI Class B Stock, respectively, from a financial point of view. The full text of Sandler O’Neill’s opinion is attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O’Neill in rendering its opinion. RBPI shareholders are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the proposed merger.

Q. When and where will the special meeting be held?

A. The RBPI special meeting will be held at _____ on _____, at _____ Eastern Time.

Q. What is the record date for the RBPI special meeting?

A. The record date for the RBPI special meeting is _____.

Q. What do I need to do now?

A. You should first carefully read this proxy statement/prospectus, including the appendices and the documents that BMBC and RBPI incorporate by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. See “Where You Can Find More Information” on page 104 of this proxy statement/prospectus for information about documents incorporated by reference. After you have decided how you wish to vote your shares, please vote your shares promptly so that your shares are represented and voted at your special meeting. Deadlines for voting through the Internet or by telephone and other information about voting may be found in the enclosed proxy card instructions.

Q. How do I vote?

A. If you are a shareholder of record of RBPI as of _____, 2017, which is referred to as the RBPI record date, you may vote your shares of common stock of RBPI on the matters presented at the special meeting by any of the following methods:

via the Internet – visit the website shown on your proxy card to vote via the Internet;

by telephone – call the toll-free number shown on your proxy card to vote by telephone; or by mail – sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card in the accompanying prepaid reply envelope to vote by mail; or in person – attend the special meeting and cast your vote there.

If you hold your shares in “street name” through a bank or broker, please refer to the instructions provided by your bank or broker regarding how to vote your shares. Please note that if your shares are held in “street name” and you wish to vote in person at the special meeting, you must obtain a “legal proxy” from your bank or broker.

Q. If my shares of RBPI common stock are held in "street name" by my bank or broker, will my bank or broker automatically vote my shares of common stock for me?

A. No. If your shares are held in an account at a broker, bank or other nominee holder of record (i.e., in “street name”), you must instruct the broker, bank or other nominee holder of record on how to vote your shares. Your broker, bank or other nominee holder of record will vote your shares only if you provide instructions on how to vote using the voting instruction form sent to you by your broker, bank or other nominee holder of record with this proxy statement/prospectus. Brokers, banks and other nominee holders of record who hold shares of common stock in “street name” typically have the authority to vote in their discretion on “routine” proposals when they have not received instructions on how to vote from the beneficial owner. However, brokers, banks and other nominee holders of record that are members of the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”) or NASDAQ are not allowed to exercise their voting discretion on matters that are “non-routine” without specific instructions on how to vote from the beneficial owner. Under the current rules of NASDAQ and the NYSE, each of the proposals to be considered at the RBPI special meeting is considered non-routine. Therefore brokers, banks and other nominee holders of record do not have discretionary authority to vote on any of the proposals that RBPI shareholders are being asked to consider.

The term “broker non-votes” refers to shares held by a broker, bank or other nominee holder of record that are present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting, but with respect to which (1) the broker, bank or other nominee holder of record is not instructed by the beneficial owner of such shares on how to vote on a particular proposal and (2) the broker does not have discretionary voting power on such proposal. Because all of the proposals being considered at the RBPI special meeting are non-routine, if shareholders do not provide instructions to their brokers, banks or nominees, but such broker, bank or nominee is present at the special meeting in person or submits a valid proxy card, the shares represented will be broker non-votes.

Q. What is the quorum requirement for the RBPI special meeting?

A. The presence, in person or by proxy of shareholders entitled to cast a majority of the votes that are entitled to be cast is necessary to constitute a quorum at the RBPI special meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes (if any) will be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum for all matters voted on at the RBPI special meeting.

Q. What vote is required to approve each proposal at the RBPI special meeting?

RBPI merger proposal. The RBPI merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the total votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all the outstanding shares of RBPI common stock in order to be approved. A. If you mark “ABSTAIN” on your proxy card, fail to submit a proxy card, fail to vote in person at the RBPI special meeting or fail to instruct your bank or broker how to vote with respect to this proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote “AGAINST” the RBPI merger proposal.

Table of Contents

RBPI compensation proposal and RBPI adjournment proposal. The RBPI compensation proposal and the RBPI adjournment proposal each require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the meeting in order to be approved. If you mark “ABSTAIN” on your proxy card, fail to submit a proxy card, fail to vote in person or by proxy at the RBPI special meeting or fail to instruct your bank or broker how to vote with respect to one of these proposals, your shares will not be included in determining the total number of votes cast on these proposals and will have no effect on these proposals. The vote on the RBPI compensation proposal is only advisory and will not be binding on RBPI or the combined company that results from the merger.

Q.Are there any voting agreements in place with existing shareholders of RBPI?

A. Yes. In connection with the merger agreement, certain individuals, solely in their capacities as RBPI shareholders, entered into voting agreements with BMBC. In the voting agreements, each of these shareholders agreed to vote all shares of RBPI common stock that they own of record or beneficially, and that they subsequently acquire, in favor of approval of the adoption of the merger agreement and the merger. The RBPI Class B Stock is entitled to ten (10) votes per share on all matters submitted to shareholders. As of January 30, 2017, there were 5,954,810 shares of RBPI Class A Stock and 1,362,717 shares of RBPI Class B Stock subject to the voting agreements (excluding options), which represented approximately 41.5% of the outstanding voting power of RBPI common stock as of that date.

Q.What does it mean if I get more than one set of voting materials?

A. It means you have multiple accounts at the transfer agent and/or with brokers. Please sign and return all proxy cards to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

Q.What if I do not specify how I want to vote my shares on my proxy card?

A. If you sign and return your proxy or voting instruction card without indicating how to vote on any particular proposal, the common stock represented by your proxy will be voted as recommended by the RBPI board of directors with respect to that proposal, as applicable.

Q.May I change my vote after I have voted?

A. Yes. You may change your vote or revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted at the RBPI special meeting. To change your vote, you must return a new signed and completed proxy card bearing a later date by mail, or vote on a later date by Internet or telephone, according to the instructions on your proxy card. To revoke your proxy, you must send written notice of revocation to the corporate secretary of RBPI, as applicable. The presence at the special meeting of any shareholder who previously gave a proxy will not revoke that proxy unless the shareholder delivers his or her ballot in person at the special meeting or delivers a written revocation to the corporate secretary before the proxy is voted at the meeting. If you hold your shares in street name, you should follow the instructions of your bank or broker regarding the revocation of proxies. The mailing address of RBPI’s corporate secretary is: Corporate Secretary, Royal Bancshares of Pennsylvania, Inc., One Bala Plaza, Suite 522, 231 St. Asaph’s Road, Bala Cynwyd, PA 19004.

Q.If I am a RBPI shareholder, should I send in my RBPI stock certificates now?

No. Please do not send in your RBPI stock certificates with your proxy. After the merger is completed, BMBC's
A. exchange agent will send you instructions for exchanging your RBPI stock certificates for the merger consideration. See "The Merger Agreement -- Exchange and Payment Procedures" beginning on page 71.

Q.What should RBPI shareholders do if they hold their shares of RBPI common stock in book-entry form?

You are not required to take any special additional actions if your shares of RBPI common stock are held in
A. book-entry form. After the completion of the merger, shares of RBPI common stock held in book-entry form automatically will be exchanged for the merger consideration, including shares of BMBC common stock in book-entry form and any cash to be paid in exchange for fractional shares in the merger.

Q.Whom should I contact if I cannot locate my RBPI stock certificates?

If you are unable to locate your original RBPI stock certificate(s), you should contact Broadridge Corporate Issuer
A. Solutions, Inc., RBPI's transfer agent, 2 Journal Square Plaza, Jersey City, NJ 07306; telephone number (201) 714-3970.

Q. What are the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to RBPI shareholders?

A. Holders of RBPI common stock are not expected to recognize any gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes on the exchange of shares of RBPI common stock for shares of BMBC common stock in the merger, except with respect to any cash received instead of fractional shares of BMBC common stock and those holders of RBPI Class B Stock who exercise their dissenters' rights. The obligations of BMBC and RBPI to complete the merger are subject to, among other conditions described in this proxy statement/prospectus, the receipt by each of BMBC and RBPI of the opinion of its counsel to the effect that the merger will be treated as a transaction that qualifies as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (which we refer to as the "Code").

You should read the section of this proxy statement/prospectus entitled "U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger" beginning on page 91 for a more complete discussion of the federal income tax consequences of the merger. Tax matters can be complicated and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on your particular situation. You should consult your tax advisor to determine the tax consequences of the merger to you.

Q. Why are RBPI shareholders being asked to cast an advisory (non-binding) vote to approve the compensation payable to certain RBPI officers in connection with the merger?

A. Under SEC rules, RBPI is required to seek an advisory (non-binding) vote with respect to compensation that will or may be paid by RBPI to its named executive officers in connection with the completion of the merger.

Q. What will happen if RBPI shareholders do not approve the RBPI compensation proposal at the special meeting?

A. Approval of the compensation that will or may be paid to the named executive officers of RBPI in connection with the merger is not a prerequisite to completion of the merger. The vote with respect to the compensation that will or may be paid to named executive officers in the merger is an advisory vote and will not be binding on RBPI (or the combined company that results from the merger) regardless of whether the merger is approved. The compensation to be paid to RBPI's named executive officers in connection with the merger, as described in Proposal 2, is contractually required, and it may be paid regardless of the outcome of the advisory vote.

Q. What happens if the merger is not completed?

A. If the merger is not completed, RBPI shareholders will not receive any shares of BMBC common stock, cash or any other consideration in exchange for their shares. In addition, RBPI will remain an independent public company and its voting common stock will continue to be listed and traded on NASDAQ.

Q. Are RBPI shareholders entitled to dissenters' rights or appraisal rights?

A.

Holders of RBPI Class B Stock are entitled to dissenters' rights as granted by Pennsylvania law. Holders of RBPI Class A Stock are not entitled to dissenters' rights under Pennsylvania law. For further information, see "The Merger -- RBPI Shareholders Dissenters' Rights or Appraisal Rights."

Q. Which state is BMBC incorporated in?

A. BMBC is a corporation incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania.

Q. Who can answer my questions about the merger and the special meeting?

If you have additional questions about the merger or the special meeting, need assistance with submitting your proxy or would like to request additional copies of this document or the enclosed proxy card, you should contact Michael Thompson, Chief Financial Officer of RBPI, at 610-677-2216.

SUMMARY

This summary provides a brief overview of key aspects of the merger and the merger agreement; the RBPI special meeting; and the proposed common stock issuance by BMBC in the merger. This summary contains the information that RBPI and BMBC considered to be most significant. We encourage you to read carefully this entire proxy statement/prospectus and its appendices, as well as information incorporated into this proxy statement/prospectus, in order to understand the merger and the proposed common stock issuance by BMBC more fully. For information on how to obtain, free of charge, copies of documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, see “Where You Can Find More Information” on page 104. Each item in this summary refers to the page of this proxy statement/prospectus on which the subject is discussed in more detail.

All references in this proxy statement/prospectus to “RBPI” refer to Royal Bancshares of Pennsylvania, Inc. and, unless the context otherwise requires, to its subsidiaries; all references in this proxy statement/prospectus to “BMBC” refer to Bryn Mawr Bank Corporation and, unless the context otherwise requires, to its subsidiaries; and unless otherwise indicated or as the context otherwise requires, all references in this proxy statement/prospectus to “we,” “us,” and “our” refer to RBPI and BMBC, collectively.

The Parties to the Merger

Bryn Mawr Bank Corporation (Page 39)

BMBC is a Pennsylvania corporation incorporated in 1986 and registered as a bank holding company under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended (the “BHCA”). BMBC is supervised by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the “Federal Reserve Board”). BMBC is the sole shareholder of The Bryn Mawr Trust Company, a Pennsylvania chartered bank (“BMT”). As of December 31, 2016, BMBC had consolidated total assets of $3.4 billion, deposits of $2.6 billion and shareholders’ equity of $381.1 million.

The principal trading market for BMBC common stock (NASDAQ: BMTX) is NASDAQ. The principal executive offices of BMBC are located at 801 Lancaster Avenue, Bryn Mawr, PA 19010, telephone number (610) 525-1700. Its Internet website is www.bmtc.com. The information on BMBC’s website is not part of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Royal Bancshares of Pennsylvania, Inc. (Page 40)

RBPI is a Pennsylvania business corporation and a bank holding company registered under the BHCA. RBPI is supervised by the Federal Reserve Board. Royal Bank, the bank subsidiary of RBPI, was incorporated in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on July 30, 1963, and commenced operation as a Pennsylvania state-chartered bank on October 22, 1963. Royal Bank is the successor of the Bank of King of Prussia, the principal ownership of which was acquired by the Tabas family in 1980. As of December 31, 2016, RBPI had consolidated total assets of $832.5 million, deposits of $629.5 million and shareholders' equity of $51.6 million.

The principal trading market for RBPI common stock (NASDAQ: RBPAA) is NASDAQ. The principal executive offices of RBPI are located at One Bala Plaza, Suite 522, 231 St. Asaph's Road, Bala Cynwyd, PA 19004, telephone number (610) 668-4700. Its Internet website is www.royalbankamerica.com. The information on RBPI's website is not part of this proxy statement/prospectus.

The Merger

The Merger and the Merger Agreement (Pages 41, 69 and Appendix A)

The merger agreement, which provides the terms and conditions on which RBPI will merge with and into BMBC, is attached to this document as Appendix A. We encourage you to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety. All descriptions in this summary and elsewhere in this document of the terms and conditions of the merger are qualified by reference to the merger agreement.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, RBPI will merge with and into BMBC, and BMBC will be the surviving entity. As a result of the merger:

RBPI's businesses will be combined with BMBC's, and RBPI will cease to exist as a separate legal entity;

Table of Contents

The articles of incorporation and bylaws of BMBC will be the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the surviving entity;

The board of directors of BMBC will be the board of directors of the surviving entity. At the time the merger is completed, the board of directors of BMBC will be enlarged by one seat, and one RBPI director, selected by BMBC in its sole discretion, will be appointed to the vacant seat; and

The executive officers of BMBC shall be the executive officers of the surviving entity.

Immediately after the merger between BMBC and RBPI is completed, Royal Bank will merge with and into BMT, and BMT will continue as the surviving bank. Royal Bank and BMT will enter into a separate agreement of merger setting forth their agreement to merge and the terms and conditions of their merger. The form of the agreement of merger between the banks is attached as Exhibit B to the merger agreement between BMBC and RBPI.

Merger Consideration (Page 69)

The merger consideration to RBPI shareholders will be shares of BMBC common stock, which will be paid at a fixed exchange ratio of 0.1025 shares of BMBC common stock for each share of RBPI Class A Stock and 0.1179 shares of BMBC common stock for each share of RBPI Class B Stock that is outstanding immediately before the merger occurs. Cash will be paid in lieu of any fractional shares of BMBC common stock which a RBPI shareholder would otherwise be entitled to receive.

Based on the exchange ratios for RBPI Class A Stock and RBPI Class B Stock and the number of shares of RBPI common stock outstanding and reserved for issuance pursuant to various convertible securities and outstanding awards under equity-based compensation plans as of January 30, 2017, the maximum number of shares of BMBC common stock estimated to be issuable in the merger is 3,112,612, which represents total aggregate merger consideration of approximately $125.6 million in value, based on the closing price of BMBC's common stock on January 30, 2017 of $40.35. After completion of the merger, without giving effect to any shares of BMBC common stock held by RBPI shareholders prior to the merger, we expect that RBPI shareholders will, as a group, own approximately 15.5% of the surviving corporation.

Treatment of RBPI Equity Awards and Warrants (Page 70)

Stock Option Awards. Immediately prior to the closing of the merger, all rights with respect to RBPI Class A Stock issuable pursuant to the exercise of the RBPI stock options, which remain outstanding immediately prior to the closing of the merger and which have not yet been exercised, will be cancelled by RBPI in exchange for a cash payment equal to the positive difference, if any, between $4.19 and the corresponding exercise price of such RBPI stock option.

Restricted Stock Awards. Upon completion of the merger, each outstanding RBPI restricted stock award will become fully vested and will be converted into the right to receive, without interest, BMBC common stock at the applicable exchange ratio for each share of RBPI common stock subject to the award and cash in lieu of any fractional shares of BMBC common stock.

Warrants. Upon completion of the merger, all RBPI warrants which are outstanding and unexercised shall become fully vested and exercisable and be converted, in their entirety, automatically into Continuing Warrants in an amount and at an exercise price determined as follows: (i) the number of shares of BMBC common stock to be subject to the Continuing Warrants shall be equal to the product of the number of shares of RBPI common stock subject to the RBPI warrants, and the applicable exchange ratio; provided that any fractional shares of BMBC common stock resulting from such multiplication shall be rounded down to the nearest share; and (ii) the exercise price per share of BMBC common stock under the Continuing Warrants shall be equal to the exercise price per share of RBPI common stock under the RBPI warrants, as applicable, divided by the applicable exchange ratio; provided that such exercise price shall be rounded up to the nearest cent. The duration and other terms of the Continuing Warrants shall be the same as the RBPI warrants, except all references to RBPI shall instead be references to BMBC.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger and the Bank Merger (Pages 64)

Completion of the merger between BMBC and RBPI and the merger between BMT and Royal Bank are subject to various regulatory approvals. The merger of RBPI with and into BMBC, and in turn the merger of their respective subsidiary banks, is subject to the prior review and approval of the Federal Reserve Board or, through delegated authority, of the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia (collectively, the “Federal Reserve Board”) and prior review and approval of the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities. On _____, 2017, BMBC submitted an application pursuant to the BHC Act and Regulation Y seeking a waiver of the prior approval requirement of the Federal Reserve Board for BMBC to acquire RBPI and thereby indirectly acquire Royal Bank. On _____, 2017, BMBC submitted an application to the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities pursuant to Section 115 of the Pennsylvania Banking Code of 1965 to acquire RBPI and thereby indirectly acquire Royal Bank.

Table of Contents

The merger between RBPI's and BMBC's respective bank subsidiaries, Royal Bank and BMT, is subject to the prior approval of the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities and the Federal Reserve Board. On 2017, BMT submitted an application with the Federal Reserve Board pursuant to the Bank Merger Act for prior approval for Royal Bank to merge with and into BMT. Also, the United States Department of Justice has authority to comment on the mergers during the regulatory approval process of federal banking agencies and will have at least 30 days, which may be reduced to 15 days following the approvals by the Federal Reserve Board and Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities, to challenge such approvals on antitrust grounds. There can be no assurance that the Federal Reserve Board or the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities will approve the merger between RBPI and BMBC, or the merger between the bank subsidiaries.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger (Pages 84)

Currently, we expect to complete the merger between BMBC and RBPI during the third quarter of 2017. However, we cannot assure you that the merger will be completed in that time frame, or at all. As more fully described elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus and in the merger agreement, the completion of the merger depends on the satisfaction of a number of conditions or, where legally permissible, the waiver of those conditions. The principal conditions that must be satisfied are listed below.

RBPI shareholders have approved the adoption of the merger agreement and the merger;

BMBC and RBPI have received all regulatory approvals that are needed to complete the merger;

BMBC has received NASDAQ approval of the listing on NASDAQ of the shares of BMBC common stock to be issued in the merger to RBPI shareholders as merger consideration;

At the time of the closing of the merger, the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part continues to be effective under the Securities Act;

There is no law, statute or regulation, or any judgment, decree, injunction or other order of any court or other governmental entity in effect that would prevent, prohibit or make illegal completion of the merger;

At the time of the closing of the merger, each party has received a legal opinion from its tax counsel to the effect that the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code;

Each party's representations and warranties in the merger agreement are true and correct statements as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing date, subject to applicable materiality qualifiers; and

Each party has performed, in all material respects, its obligations under the merger agreement.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (Pages 85)

The parties can mutually agree to terminate the merger agreement in writing at any time prior to completion of the merger.

Additionally, the merger agreement allows either party to unilaterally terminate the merger agreement if any of the following occurs:

an approval of a governmental entity, which is required for completion of the merger, cannot be obtained;

the voting results from the RBPI special meeting is not in favor of the merger agreement and the merger;

the other party has breached the merger agreement in a manner such that the closing conditions which require its representations and warranties to be true and correct, cannot be satisfied, and the breach cannot be cured or has not been cured within the timeframes given in the merger agreement;

the other party has breached the merger agreement in a manner such that the closing conditions, which require the performance and compliance with all material covenants and agreements, cannot be satisfied, and the breach cannot be cured or has not been cured within the timeframes given in the merger agreement;

the merger is not completed by 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on December 31, 2017;

RBPI has a separate right to terminate the merger agreement, without payment of any termination fee, if the average closing price of BMBC common stock during a specified period before the completion of the merger is less than $33.16 and BMBC common stock underperforms the ABA NASDAQ Community Bank Index by more than 20%.

Table of Contents

BMBC has a separate right to terminate the merger agreement if RBPI has breached the provisions in the merger agreement that require RBPI to refrain from soliciting alternative acquisition proposals from third parties or if RBPI takes certain other actions which substantially increase the likelihood that a vote by RBPI shareholders in favor of the merger will not be obtained. BMBC also has a separate right to terminate the merger agreement if any environmental site assessments confirm the existence of a release or releases which either violate an applicable environmental law or are present in concentrations exceeding applicable standards under applicable environmental laws and are estimated by the environmental consultant to cost more than the threshold set forth in the merger agreement to remediate in accordance with, and to ensure compliance with, applicable environmental laws.

Termination Fee (Page 88)

If the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, which generally relate to RBPI's pursuit of an alternative acquisition proposal from a third party or a change in the RBPI board of directors' recommendation of the merger that is adverse to BMBC, RBPI will be required to pay a termination fee of $5 million to BMBC.

Expenses (Page 88)

BMBC and RBPI will each bear their own costs and expenses with respect to the merger, except that the costs and expenses associated with filing and printing this proxy statement/prospectus will be shared equally between them. However, if the merger agreement is terminated by one of them due to a breach by the other party of its representations and warranties or performance obligations under the merger agreement, the breaching party must reimburse the other party up to $1.8 million of its out-of-pocket expenses actually incurred in connection with the merger. In addition, if BMBC terminates the merger agreement because environmental remediation costs are estimated to exceed the threshold set forth in the merger agreement, as described above, RBPI must reimburse BMBC up to $1.8 million for out-of-pocket expenses it actually incurred.

RBPI Shareholders Dissenters' Rights or Appraisal Rights (Page 65)

Holders of RBPI Class A Stock will have no dissenters' or appraisal rights in the merger. Under Pennsylvania law, dissenters' or appraisal rights are generally not available if the shares of a corporation are listed on a national securities exchange, such as NASDAQ, or if the corporation's shares are held beneficially or of record by more than 2,000 persons at the record date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to notice of the meeting of shareholders and to vote upon the matter. Because RBPI Class A Stock is listed on NASDAQ, dissenters' or appraisal rights will not be available.

Holders of RBPI Class B Stock will be entitled to dissenters' or appraisal rights in the merger. In order to perfect dissenters' rights, holders of RBPI Class B Stock must not vote for approval of the merger, and must file with RBPI prior to the closing date of the merger notice of an intention to demand fair market value for their shares if the merger is effectuated.

U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (Pages 91)

Holders of RBPI common stock are not expected to recognize any gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes on the exchange of shares of RBPI common stock for shares of BMBC common stock in the merger, except with respect to any cash received instead of fractional shares of BMBC common stock. The obligations of BMBC and RBPI to complete the merger are subject to, among other conditions described in this proxy statement/prospectus, the receipt by each of BMBC and RBPI of the opinion of its counsel to the effect that the merger will be treated as a transaction that qualifies as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (which we refer to as the "Code").

You should read the section of this proxy statement/prospectus entitled "U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger" beginning on page 91 for a more complete discussion of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. Tax matters can be complicated and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on your particular tax situation. You should consult your tax advisor to determine the tax consequences of the merger to you.

Exchange and Payment Procedures (Page 71)

Upon, or as soon as practicable after, completing the merger, BMBC will deposit with its exchange agent, Computershare Trust Company, N.A., book entry shares representing the aggregate number of shares of BMBC common stock issuable under the merger agreement in exchange for the outstanding shares of RBPI common stock. BMBC will also deposit a cash amount equal to any dividends or distributions that may be payable to RBPI shareholders under the merger agreement, and any cash that may be payable in lieu of the fractional shares of BMBC common stock which the RBPI shareholders otherwise would be entitled to receive in the merger.

As soon as practicable after completing the merger, but in any event, no later than ten business days after the merger is completed, BMBC's exchange agent will mail each holder of record of RBPI common stock a letter of transmittal with instructions for surrendering their shares of RBPI stock in exchange for the merger consideration. Holders of RBPI common stock will be entitled to receive merger consideration consisting of 0.1025 shares of BMBC common stock for each share of RBPI Class A Stock and 0.1179 shares of BMBC common stock for each share of RBPI Class B Stock owned by the holder, and cash in lieu of any fractional shares of BMBC common stock that otherwise would be issuable to the holder. To receive the merger consideration, except for shares held in book-entry form, a shareholder must surrender his or her RBPI stock certificates to the exchange agent, together with properly completed and signed transmittal materials. BMBC has no obligation to pay the merger consideration to any RBPI shareholder until the shareholder has properly surrendered any stock certificates representing his or her shares of RBPI voting common stock.

Litigation Related to the Merger (Pages 68)

In connection with the proposed merger with BMBC, RBPI has received a letter from attorneys representing a purported shareholder, demanding that the RBPI board investigate alleged breaches of fiduciary duty in connection with the merger. The letter asserts that the proposed transaction undervalues RBPI and that RBPI's directors breached their fiduciary duties by entering into the merger agreement, which contains provisions that constrain the board's ability to negotiate with other potential buyers and may dissuade other potential buyers from submitting alternative proposals. The letter requests that RBPI's board investigate the alleged breaches of fiduciary duty and commence legal action against the individual members of the board.

Risk Factors (Pages 16)

You should carefully consider the information in this proxy statement/prospectus under the caption, "Risk Factors," in deciding how to vote for the proposals presented in this proxy statement/prospectus. In this section, we describe a number of risks associated with the merger and the issuance of BMBC common stock in the merger which could affect BMBC or RBPI or the BMBC common stock that is being offered to RBPI shareholders by BMBC through this proxy statement/prospectus. The risks described in this section are the risks that BMBC and RBPI considered to be most significant, but BMBC and RBPI also encourage you to read and consider the risks that each company has described in the "Risk Factors" sections of their Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, which is on file with the SEC and all of which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 104 of this proxy statement/prospectus. The risk factors in those reports were identified by each company as being significant to its own businesses and also could affect the operations and financial results of the combined company.

Interests of RBPI's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger (Pages 60)

RBPI shareholders should be aware that some of RBPI's executive officers and directors may have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, those of RBPI shareholders generally. RBPI's board of directors was aware of these interests and considered these interests, among other matters, when making its decision to approve the merger and the merger agreement, and in recommending that RBPI shareholders vote in favor of approval of adopting the merger agreement and the merger. The material interests considered by RBPI's board of directors include the following:

Change in Control Payments. RBPI executive officers will receive payments and other benefits in connection with the merger, which are triggered upon a qualifying termination of employment by RBPI without "cause" or by the executive officer voluntarily for "good reason" under the executives' employment agreements.

Post-Merger Employment With BMBC. Some directors and executive officers will have continuing roles with BMBC or its principal subsidiary, BMT, following the merger. F. Kevin Tylus, who is a director and the President and CEO of RBPI, will be hired as Managing Director of New Markets for BMT reporting to BMT's chief executive officer. He will receive an annual salary of $100,000 plus opportunities for incentive or bonus awards, consistent with BMT's compensation practices.

Appointment of One RBPI Director to BMBC Board. BMBC agreed that following the completion of the merger, one director of RBPI, as selected by BMBC in its sole discretion, will serve as a paid member of the boards of directors of BMBC and BMT. BMBC currently pays its non-employee directors an annual retainer fee of $12,500 in the form of BMBC common stock. BMBC also pays its non-employee directors a standard fee of $1,500 for each Board meeting attended, $1,000 for attending the organization meeting held after the annual meeting each year, and $1,250 for each committee meeting attended. BMBC also paid a $10,000 fee to the Audit Committee Chair and a $5,000 fee to the chair of each of the other committees in 2016.

Indemnification and Insurance. The merger agreement also provides for continuing indemnification for directors and executive officers of RBPI following the merger and the continuation of directors' and officers' insurance for these individuals for six years after the merger.

Opinion of RBPI's Financial Advisor in Connection with the Merger (Page 48 and Appendix C)

RBPI's financial advisor in connection with the merger, Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P., or Sandler O'Neill, has delivered a written opinion, dated January 30, 2017, to the RBPI board of directors to the effect that, as of the date of the opinion, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, limitations, qualifications and other matters set forth therein, the Class A exchange ratio and Class B exchange ratio provided for in the merger agreement were fair to the holders of RBPI Class A Stock and RBPI Class B Stock, respectively, from a financial point of view. The full text of Sandler O'Neill's opinion is attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill in rendering its opinion. RBPI shareholders are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the proposed merger.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion was directed to RBPI's board of directors in connection with its consideration of the merger and was directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Class A exchange ratio and Class B exchange ratio to the holders of RBPI Class A Stock and RBPI Class B Stock, respectively. Sandler O'Neill's opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of RBPI as to how such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the merger. In addition, the unaudited prospective information used by Sandler O'Neill in its analyses reflects numerous estimates and assumptions made with respect to business, economic, market, competition, regulatory and financial conditions and matters specific to RBPI's business, and should not be relied upon. For a further discussion of Sandler O'Neill opinion, RBPI's prior relationship with Sandler O'Neill and the terms of Sandler O'Neill's engagement, see "The Merger -- Opinion of RBPI's Financial Advisor in Connection with the Merger," beginning on page 48 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Recommendation of the RBPI Board of Directors (Page 45)

The RBPI board of directors determined that the merger agreement and the transactions described in the merger agreement, including the merger, are advisable and in the best interests of RBPI and its shareholders and recommends that RBPI shareholders vote "FOR" approval of the adoption of the merger agreement and the merger, "FOR" the approval, by an advisory (non-binding) vote, of certain compensation arrangements in connection with the proposed merger for RBPI's named executive officers, and "FOR" approval of one or more adjournments of the RBPI special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of adoption of the merger agreement and the merger.

BMBC entered into voting agreements with certain shareholders of RBPI, including all directors and executive officers of RBPI and certain of their family members or affiliates. Pursuant to the voting agreements, these shareholders have agreed to vote in favor of the proposal to approve adoption of the merger agreement and the merger and the proposal to approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of approval of adoption of the merger agreement and the merger. The form of the voting agreements they executed are included as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus. As of January 30, 2017, there were 5,954,810 shares of RBPI Class A Stock and 1,362,717 shares of RBPI Class B Stock subject to the voting agreements (excluding options), which represented approximately 41.5% of the outstanding voting power of the RBPI common stock as of that date.

Comparative Market Prices and Dividends (Page 32)

BMBC common stock is listed on NASDAQ under the symbol “BMTC”; and RBPI Class A Stock is listed on NASDAQ under the symbol “RBPAA.” The table on page 32 of this proxy statement/prospectus lists the quarterly price range of BMBC common stock and RBPI Class A Stock from the quarter ended March 31, 2015 through March 24, 2017, as well as the quarterly cash dividends BMBC and RBPI have paid during the same time period on such stock.

The following table shows the closing prices of BMBC common stock and RBPI Class A Stock as reported on January 30, 2017, the last trading day before BMBC and RBPI announced they had entered into the merger agreement, and on _____, 2017, the last practical trading day before the date we printed and mailed this proxy statement/prospectus. This table also presents the pro forma equivalent per share value of a share of RBPI Class A Stock on those dates. We calculated the pro forma equivalent per share value by multiplying the closing price of BMBC common stock on those dates by 0.1025, the exchange ratio for RBPI Class A Stock in the merger.

	BMBC Common Stock	RBPI Class A Stock	Pro Forma Equivalent Value of One Share of RBPI Class A Stock
January 30, 2017	$ 40.35	$ 3.89	$ 4.14

The market price of BMBC common stock may change at any time. Consequently, the total dollar value of the BMBC common stock that you will receive upon completion of the merger may be significantly higher or lower than its value as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. We urge you to obtain current market quotations for BMBC common stock and RBPI Class A Stock. We can provide no assurance as to future prices of BMBC common stock or RBPI Class A Stock.

The Special Meeting

RBPI Special Meeting of Shareholders (Pages 33)

The RBPI special meeting will be held at _____, Eastern Time, on _____, 2017, at _____. At the RBPI special meeting, RBPI shareholders will be asked to consider and vote on the following matters:

- (1) a proposal to approve adoption of the merger agreement and the merger;
- (2) a proposal to approve, by an advisory (non-binding) vote, certain compensation arrangements in connection with the proposed merger for RBPI's named executive officers; and a proposal to approve one or more adjournments of the RBPI special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to

- (3) solicit additional proxies in the event that there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve adoption of the merger agreement and the merger.

Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast by holders of RBPI common stock. The proposals to approve certain compensation arrangements in connection with the merger for RBPI's named executive officers and to approve adjournment of the special meeting if necessary to solicit additional proxies requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares cast at the special meeting. However, the vote on the compensation proposal is only advisory and will not be binding on RBPI or the combined company that results from the merger.

Only holders of record of RBPI common stock at the close of business on _____, 2017 will be entitled to vote at the special meeting. Each share of RBPI Class A Stock is entitled to one vote and each share of RBPI Class B Stock is entitled to ten votes on each proposal to be considered at the RBPI special meeting. As of the record date, there were _____ shares of RBPI Class A Stock and _____ shares of RBPI Class B Stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. As of the record date, the directors and executive officers of RBPI and their respective affiliates beneficially owned and were entitled to vote approximately _____ shares of RBPI Class A Stock and _____ shares of RBPI Class B Stock, allowing them to exercise approximately _____ % of the voting power of RBPI voting common stock outstanding as of the record date. On January 30, 2017, BMBC entered into voting agreements with certain shareholders of RBPI, including all directors and executive officers of RBPI and certain of their family members or affiliates. Pursuant to the voting agreements, these shareholders have agreed to vote in favor of the proposal to approve adoption of the merger agreement and the merger and the proposal to approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of approval of adoption of the merger agreement and the merger. The form of the voting agreements they executed are included as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus. As of January 30, 2017, there were 5,954,810 shares of RBPI Class A Stock and 1,362,717 shares of RBPI Class B Stock subject to the voting agreements (excluding options), which represented approximately 41.5% of the outstanding voting power of the RBPI common stock as of that date.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed under “Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements,” beginning on page 21 of this proxy statement/prospectus, you should carefully consider the following risk factors in determining whether to vote “FOR” approval of the adoption of the merger agreement and the merger. You should also read and consider the risk factors associated with each of the businesses of BMBC and RBPI because those risk factors may affect the operations and financial results of the combined company. Those risk factors may be found under Part I, Item 1A, “Risk Factors,” in each company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, which is on file with the SEC and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See the section titled “Where You Can Find More Information” beginning on page 104 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Because the market price of BMBC common stock will fluctuate, RBPI shareholders cannot be certain of the market value of the BMBC common stock that they will receive upon completion of the merger.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of RBPI Class A Stock and RBPI Class B Stock (other than certain shares held by BMBC, its subsidiaries or RBPI’s subsidiaries, or any shares held by RBPI as treasury shares) will become the right to receive 0.1025 and 0.1179 shares of BMBC common stock, respectively. Any change in the price of BMBC common stock prior to the merger will affect the market value of the BMBC common stock that RBPI shareholders will receive upon completion of the merger.

The prices of BMBC common stock and RBPI common stock at the closing of the merger may vary from their respective prices on the date the merger agreement was executed, on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and on the date of the RBPI special meeting. The market value of the BMBC shares represented by the exchange ratios may fluctuate during these periods as a result of a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, changes in BMBC’s business, operations and prospects and regulatory considerations. Many of these factors are outside of the control of RBPI and BMBC. For example, based on the range of closing prices of BMBC common stock during the period from January 30, 2017, the last full trading day before public announcement of the merger, through _____, 2017, the last practical full trading day prior to the date we printed and mailed this proxy statement/prospectus, the exchange ratios represented a value ranging from a high of $ _____ on _____, 2017 to a low of $ _____ on _____, 2017 for each share of RBPI Class A Stock and a value ranging from a high of $ _____ on _____, 2017 to a low of $ _____ on _____, 2017 for each share of RBPI Class B Stock. Because the date on which we expect to complete the merger will be later than the date of the RBPI special meeting, at the time of the RBPI special meeting RBPI shareholders will not know what the market value of BMBC’s common stock will be upon completion of the merger.

Combining BMBC and RBPI may be more difficult, costly or time-consuming than expected, and the anticipated benefits and cost savings of the merger with RBPI may not be realized.

BMBC and RBPI have operated and, until the completion of the merger, will continue to operate, independently from each other. The success of the merger, including anticipated benefits and cost savings, will depend, in part, on BMBC's ability to successfully combine and integrate the businesses of BMT and Royal Bank within BMBC's projected timeframe in a manner that permits growth opportunities and does not materially disrupt existing customer relationships or result in decreased revenues due to loss of customers.

A number of factors could affect BMBC's ability to successfully combine its business with RBPI's. Key employees of RBPI, whose services will be needed to complete the integration process, may elect to terminate their employment as a result of, or in anticipation of, the merger. The integration process itself could be disruptive to BMBC's or RBPI's ongoing businesses, causing loss of momentum in one or more of their businesses or inconsistencies or changes in standards, practices, business models, controls, procedures and policies that could adversely affect the ability of BMBC to maintain relationships with customers and employees.

If BMBC encounters significant difficulties in the integration process, the anticipated benefits of the merger may not be realized fully, or at all, or may take longer to realize than expected. Failure to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger in the timeframes projected by BMBC could result in increased costs and decreased revenues. This could have a dilutive effect on the combined company's earnings per share.

BMBC and RBPI will incur transaction and integration costs in connection with the merger.

BMBC and RBPI each have incurred and expect to continue to incur substantial costs in connection with the negotiation and completion of the merger and combining the businesses and operations of the two companies. Additional unanticipated transaction- and merger-related costs may be incurred prior to or following the consummation of the merger. Whether or not the merger is consummated, BMBC and RBPI expect to continue to incur substantial expenses in planning for and completing the merger and combining the operations of the two companies, including such non-recurring expenses as legal, accounting and financial advisory fees, printing fees, data processing and other fees related to formulating integration and conversion plans. In addition, BMBC will incur integration costs following the completion of the merger as BMBC integrates the businesses of the two companies, including facilities and data systems consolidation costs and employment related costs. There can be no assurance that the expected benefits and efficiencies related to the integration of the businesses will be realized to offset these transactional and integration costs over time. Also, BMBC and RBPI may incur additional costs to maintain employee morale and to retain key employees. BMBC and RBPI will incur significant legal, financial advisor, accounting, banking and consulting fees, fees relating to regulatory filings and notices, SEC filing fees, printing and mailing fees, and other costs associated with the merger. The costs described above, as well as any unanticipated costs and expenses, could have a material adverse effect on the financial condition and operating results of BMBC following completion of the merger.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements included in this document are preliminary, and the actual financial condition and results of operations after the merger may differ significantly.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements in this document are presented for illustrative purposes only and are not necessarily indicative of what BMBC's actual financial condition or results of operations would have been had the merger been completed on the dates indicated. The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements reflect adjustments to illustrate the effect of the merger had it been completed on the dates indicated, which are based upon preliminary estimates, to record the RBPI identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed at fair value and the resulting goodwill recognized. The purchase price allocation for the merger reflected in this document is preliminary, and final allocation of the purchase price will be based upon the actual purchase price and the fair value of the assets and liabilities of RBPI as of the date of the completion of the merger. Accordingly, the final acquisition accounting adjustments may differ materially from the pro forma adjustments reflected in this document. For more information, see "Unaudited Pro Forma Consolidated Financial Information" beginning on page 26.

The merger may not be accretive, and may be dilutive, to BMBC's earnings per share, which may negatively affect the market price of BMBC common stock.

BMBC currently expects the merger to be accretive to earnings per share in the first full calendar year after closing (excluding one-time charges). This expectation, however, is based on preliminary estimates which may materially change, including the currently expected timing of the merger. BMBC may encounter additional transaction- and integration-related costs or other factors, such as a delay in the closing of the merger, may fail to realize all of the benefits anticipated in the merger, or may be subject to other factors that affect preliminary estimates or its ability to realize operational efficiencies. Any of these factors could cause a decrease in BMBC's earnings per share or decrease or delay the expected accretive effect of the merger and contribute to a decrease in the price of BMBC's common stock.

BMBC's decisions regarding the credit risk associated with Royal Bank's loan portfolio could be incorrect and the credit mark applied to the acquired loan portfolio upon acquisition may be inadequate, which may adversely affect the financial condition and results of operations of the combined company after the closing of the merger.

Before signing the merger agreement, BMBC conducted extensive due diligence on a significant portion of the Royal Bank loan portfolio. However, BMBC's review did not encompass each and every loan in the Royal Bank loan portfolio. In accordance with customary industry practices, BMBC evaluated the Royal Bank loan portfolio based on various factors including, among other things, historical loss experience, economic risks associated with each loan category, volume and types of loans, trends in classification, volume and trends in delinquencies and nonaccruals, and general economic conditions, both local and national. In this process, BMBC's management made various assumptions and judgments about the collectability of the loan portfolio, including the creditworthiness and financial condition of the borrowers, the value of the real estate, which is obtained from independent appraisers, other assets serving as collateral for the repayment of the loans, the existence of any guarantees and indemnifications and the economic environment in which the borrowers operate. In addition, the effects of probable decreases in expected principal cash flows on the Royal Bank loans were considered as part of BMBC's evaluation. If BMBC's assumptions and judgments turn out to be incorrect, including as a result of the fact that its due diligence review did not cover each individual loan, BMBC's estimated credit mark against the Royal Bank loan portfolio in total may be insufficient to cover actual loan losses after the merger is completed, and adjustments may be necessary to allow for different economic conditions or adverse developments in the Royal Bank loan portfolio. Additionally, deterioration in economic conditions affecting borrowers, new information regarding existing loans, identification of additional problem loans and other factors, both within and outside BMBC's or RBPI's control, may require an increase in the provision for loan losses. Material additions to the credit mark and/or allowance for loan losses would materially decrease BMBC's net income and would result in extra regulatory scrutiny and possibly supervisory action.

If the merger is not completed, BMBC and RBPI will have incurred substantial expenses without realizing the expected benefits of the merger.

BMBC and RBPI have already incurred, and will continue to incur, substantial expenses in connection with the transactions described in this proxy statement/prospectus, which are charged to earnings as incurred. If the merger is not completed, these expenses will still be charged to earnings even though BMBC and RBPI would not have realized the expected benefits of the merger. There can be no assurance that the merger will be completed.

The ability of BMBC and RBPI to complete the merger is subject to the satisfaction (or waiver by the parties) of the closing conditions set forth in the merger agreement, some of which are outside of the parties' control.

The merger agreement contains a number of conditions that must be fulfilled in order to complete the merger. Those conditions include: approval of adoption of the merger agreement and the merger by RBPI shareholders, receipt of all required regulatory approvals, absence of any law, statute or regulation, or any order, injunction or other legal restraint or prohibition preventing the completion of the merger, effectiveness of the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of both parties (subject to applicable materiality qualifiers), and the performance, in all material respects, by both parties of their respective covenants and agreements. See "The Merger Agreement -- Conditions to Completion of the Merger" beginning on page 84 for a more complete discussion of the conditions to the completion of the merger. There can be no assurance that the conditions to the completion of the merger will be fulfilled or that the merger will be completed.

Termination of the merger agreement could have a negative impact on the prospects and stock price of RBPI and/or BMBC.

The merger agreement contains a number of provisions that could permit either or both parties to abandon the merger and terminate the merger agreement. If the merger agreement is terminated, there may be various adverse consequences to RBPI and BMBC. For example, since certain matters relating to the merger (including business integration and data system conversion planning) will require substantial commitments of time and resources by the respective management teams of RBPI and BMBC, and RBPI's or BMBC's businesses may have been adversely affected by the failure to pursue other beneficial opportunities due to the focus of management on the merger, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the merger. Also, the merger agreement imposes certain restrictions on the conduct of RBPI businesses prior to the completion of the merger. See "The Merger Agreement -- Conduct of Business While the Merger is Pending" beginning on page 75 for a summary of the restrictions applicable to RBPI. Additionally, if the merger agreement is terminated, the market price of RBPI's or BMB's common stock could decline to the extent that the current market prices reflect a market assumption that the merger will be completed. If the merger agreement is terminated and RBPI seeks another merger or business combination, it is not certain that RBPI would be able to find a party willing to offer equivalent or more attractive consideration than the consideration BMBC has agreed to pay in the merger. Similarly, BMBC may not be successful in competing with other financial institutions for other potential acquisition candidates. In addition, if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, RBPI may be required to pay BMBC a termination fee of $5 million.

Regulatory approvals may not be received, may take longer than expected or may impose conditions that are not presently anticipated or cannot be met.

Before the merger between BMBC and RBPI and the merger between their bank subsidiaries may be completed, various approvals must be obtained from bank regulatory agencies and other governmental authorities. These governmental entities may not grant approval of either the merger or the bank merger, may engage in an extended regulatory review process, or may impose conditions on the granting of their approvals. The regulatory delays, conditions or changes they impose, as well as the process of obtaining regulatory approvals, could have the effect of delaying completion of the merger or of imposing additional costs or limitations on BMBC following the merger. BMBC may elect not to consummate the merger if, in connection with any regulatory approval required to consummate the merger, any governmental or regulatory entity imposes a restriction, requirement or condition on BMBC that, in the good faith reasonable judgment of BMBC, materially and adversely affects the business, operations, financial condition, property, or assets of RBPI and BMBC combined, or materially impairs the value of RBPI or Royal Bank to BMBC. As a result, there can be no assurance that the desired regulatory approvals for the merger will be obtained or that the merger will be completed.

The merger agreement limits RBPI's ability to pursue alternatives to the merger with BMBC.

The merger agreement contains provisions that may discourage a third party from submitting an acquisition proposal to RBPI that might result in greater value to RBPI's shareholders than the merger with BMBC, or may result in a potential acquirer proposing to pay a lower per share price to acquire RBPI than it might otherwise have proposed to pay. These provisions include a general prohibition on RBPI from soliciting or, subject to certain exceptions relating to the exercise of fiduciary duties by RBPI's board of directors, entering into discussions or agreements with third parties regarding transactions to acquire RBPI. RBPI also has an unqualified obligation to submit the RBPI merger proposal to its shareholders, even if RBPI receives an alternative acquisition proposal that the RBPI board of directors believes is superior to the merger. In addition, RBPI could be obligated to pay BMBC a termination fee of $5 million if either BMBC or RBPI terminates the merger agreement under specified circumstances, including those relating to acquisition proposals for competing transactions. See "The Merger Agreement -- Termination Fee" beginning on page 88.

RBPI and BMBC will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the merger is pending.

Uncertainties about the effect of the merger on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on RBPI or BMBC. These uncertainties may impair BMBC's or RBPI's ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the merger is completed, and could cause customers and others that deal with BMBC or RBPI to consider changing their existing business relationships with BMBC or RBPI. Retention of certain employees may be challenging during the pendency of the merger, as certain employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles. If key employees depart because of issues relating to the uncertainty and difficulty of integration or a desire not to remain with the business, RBPI's business or BMBC's business could be negatively impacted. In addition, the merger agreement restricts RBPI from taking specified actions relative to its business without the prior consent of BMBC. These restrictions may prevent RBPI from pursuing attractive business opportunities that may arise prior to the completion of the merger. See "The Merger Agreement -- Conduct of Business While the Merger is Pending" beginning on page 75 for a summary of the restrictions applicable to RBPI.

Litigation relating to the merger could result in significant additional costs and management distraction, as well as delay and/or enjoin the merger.

RBPI has received a letter from attorneys representing a purported shareholder demanding that the RBPI board investigate alleged breaches of fiduciary duty in connection with the merger. The letter asserts that the proposed transaction undervalues RBPI and that RBPI's directors breached their fiduciary duties by entering into the merger agreement, which contains provisions that constrain the board's ability to negotiate with other potential buyers and may dissuade other potential buyers from submitting alternative proposals. The letter requests that RBPI's board investigate the alleged breaches of fiduciary duty and commence legal action against the individual members of the board.

RBPI and BMBC could be subject to additional demands or litigation related to the merger, whether or not the merger is consummated. Such actions may create additional uncertainty relating to the merger, and responding to the current or subsequent demands and defending such actions may be costly and distracting to management.

A negative outcome in this matter or potential subsequent litigation could have a material adverse effect on RBPI and BMBC if it results in preliminary or permanent injunctive relief or rescission of the merger agreement. Neither RBPI nor BMBC is currently able to predict the outcome of any suit arising out of or relating to the proposed transaction that may be filed in the future. If additional letters or complaints are filed, absent new or different allegations that are material, RBPI and BMBC will not necessarily announce such additional filings.

Some of RBPI's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that may differ from the interests of RBPI shareholders including, if the merger is completed, the receipt of financial and other benefits.

RBPI's shareholders should be aware that some of RBPI's directors and executive officers may have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, those of RBPI shareholders generally. RBPI's board of directors was aware of these interests and considered these interests, among other matters, when making its decision to approve the merger agreement and the merger, and in recommending that RBPI shareholders vote in favor of adoption of the merger agreement. For example:

Change in Control Payments. RBPI executive officers will receive payments and other benefits in connection with the merger, which are triggered upon a qualifying termination of employment by RBPI without "cause" or by the executive officer voluntarily for "good reason" under the executives' employment or change in control agreements.

Post-Merger Employment With BMBC. Some directors and executive officers will have continuing roles with BMBC or its principal subsidiary, BMT, following the merger. F. Kevin Tylus, who is a director and the President and CEO of RBPI, will be hired as the Managing Director of New Markets for BMT, for which he will receive an annual salary of $100,000, plus opportunities for incentives or bonus awards consistent with BMBC's compensation practices.

Appointment of One RBPI Director to BMBC Board. BMBC agreed that following the completion of the merger, one director of RBPI, as selected by BMBC in its sole discretion, will serve as a paid member of the boards of directors of BMBC and BMT. BMBC currently pays its non-employee directors an annual retainer fee of $12,500 in the form of BMBC common stock. BMBC also pays its non-employee directors a standard fee of $1,500 for each Board meeting attended, $1,000 for attending the organization meeting held after the annual meeting each year, and $1,250 for each committee meeting attended. BMBC also paid a $10,000 fee to the Audit Committee Chair and a $5,000 fee to the chair of each of the other committees in 2016.

Indemnification and Insurance. The merger agreement also provides for continuing indemnification for directors and executive officers of RBPI following the merger and the continuation of directors' and officers' insurance for these individuals for six years after the merger.

See "The Merger -- Interests of RBPI's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" on page 60 for more information on the amounts payable to certain directors and executive officers of RBPI in connection with the merger.

Holders of BMBC and RBPI common stock, respectively, will have a reduced ownership and voting interest in the combined company after the merger and may exercise less influence over the combined company's management.

Holders of RBPI common stock and BMBC common stock currently have the right to vote in elections of the board of directors and on other matters affecting RBPI and BMBC, respectively. Upon the completion of the merger, each RBPI shareholder will become a shareholder of BMBC with a percentage ownership of BMBC that is significantly smaller than the shareholder's current percentage ownership of RBPI. Immediately after completion of the merger, without giving effect to any shares of BMBC common stock held by RBPI shareholders prior to the merger, we expect that BMBC shareholders will, as a group, own approximately % of BMBC and RBPI shareholders will, as a group, own approximately % of BMBC. As a result, RBPI shareholders may have less influence on the management and policies of BMBC than they now have on the management and policies of RBPI. Similarly, current BMBC shareholders will own a smaller percentage of BMBC than prior to the merger, and may have less influence than they now have on the management and policies of BMBC.

The shares of BMBC common stock to be received by RBPI shareholders as a result of the merger will have different rights from the shares of RBPI common stock they currently hold.

Upon completion of the merger, RBPI shareholders will become BMBC shareholders and their rights as shareholders will be governed by the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law including the Pennsylvania Entity Transactions Law (the "PBCL") and BMBC's articles of incorporation and bylaws. The rights associated with RBPI common stock are different from the rights associated with BMBC common stock. Please see "Comparison of Shareholders' Rights" beginning on page 96 for a discussion of the different rights associated with BMBC common stock.

The fairness opinion received by the board of directors of RBPI prior to the signing of the merger agreement will not reflect any changes in circumstances between the date of signing of the merger agreement and the date of completion of the merger.

Sandler O'Neill, RBPI's financial advisor in connection with the proposed merger, delivered to the RBPI board of directors its opinion, dated January 30, 2017, to the effect that, as of the date of such opinion, the Class A exchange ratio and the Class B exchange ratio set forth in the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of RBPI Class A Stock and RBPI Class B Stock, respectively. The opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion and not as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus or the time the merger is completed. Any changes in the operations and prospects of RBPI or BMBC, general market and economic conditions or other factors outside of the control of RBPI or BMBC could significantly alter the value of RBPI or the prices of the shares of BMBC common stock or RBPI common stock by the time the merger is completed.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

BMBC and RBPI have included in this proxy statement/prospectus certain statements that may constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act and Section 21E of the Exchange Act. You can generally identify forward-looking statements by the use of forward-looking terminology such as “anticipate,” “believe,” “continue,” “can,” “could,” “estimate,” “expect,” “explore,” “evaluate,” “forecast,” “guidance,” “intend,” “may,” “might,” “outlook,” “plan,” “potential,” “predict,” “probable,” “project,” “seek,” “should,” “view,” or “will,” or other similar terms. These forward-looking statements are only predictions and involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond BMBC’s and RBPI’s control. Statements in this proxy statement/prospectus that are forward-looking include BMBC’s and RBPI’s statements regarding the anticipated benefits of the merger, the impact of the merger on BMBC’s and RBPI’s businesses, BMBC’s estimated credit mark against RBPI’s loan portfolio, the impact of the merger on BMBC’s earnings per share, revenues and cash flows, the anticipated synergies from the merger and the date the merger will be completed, the number of shares of BMBC common stock to be issued pursuant to the merger, BMBC’s and RBPI’s merger-related transaction costs and the estimates and assumptions underlying the pro forma financial information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, and are based on BMBC’s and, as applicable, RBPI’s management’s estimates, assumptions and projections.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual future results and other future events to differ materially from those currently estimated by BMBC’s and, as applicable, RBPI’s management, including but not limited to:

BMBC may not successfully integrate its business with RBPI’s, or the integration and data conversions may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than BMBC currently anticipates;

the combined company that results from the merger may not realize the revenue synergies anticipated to result from the integration of BMBC’s and RBPI’s businesses;

the introduction, withdrawal, success and timing of business initiatives, practices and strategies by BMBC;

the effectiveness of capital management strategies and activities;

competitive conditions in RBPI’s banking markets; changes in interest rates and capital markets;

revenues may be lower, and expenses may be higher, than expected following the merger;

deposit attrition, inflation, customer disintermediation, operating costs, loss of customers and business disruption, including, without limitation, any difficulties in maintaining relationships with employees, customers and/or suppliers, may be greater than anticipated following the merger;

there may be higher than expected increases in BMBC's or RBPI's loan losses or in the level of non-performing loans or changes in asset quality or credit risk;

there may be higher than expected charges incurred by BMBC in connection with marking RBPI's assets to fair value;

there may be other than temporary impairments or declines in value in BMBC's or RBPI's investment portfolios;

BMBC and RBPI may not obtain the regulatory approvals for the holding company and bank mergers on acceptable terms, on the anticipated schedule or at all;

RBPI may not obtain the requisite vote of its shareholders which is needed to approve the adoption of the merger agreement and the merger, respectively; competitive pressure among financial services companies is intense and may further intensify, and competitors in the Royal Bank markets may engage in aggressive competitive practices in view of BMBC's entry into those markets; changes in general, national or regional economic conditions may adversely affect the businesses in which BMBC and RBPI engage;

changes in the interest rate environment may reduce net interest margins and impact funding sources; changes in market interest rates and prices may adversely impact the value of financial products and assets; changes in accounting policies or accounting standards; legislation or changes in the regulatory environment (including the implementation of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010 and related regulations) may adversely affect the businesses in which BMBC and RBPI engage and result in increased compliance costs and/or require BMBC and RBPI to change their business models;

Table of Contents

liabilities arising out of any litigation that may be threatened or filed in connection with the merger, including costs, expenses, settlements and judgments, may adversely affect BMBC, RBPI and their respective businesses; and material adverse changes in BMBC's or RBPI's operations or earnings.

Consequently, all forward-looking statements made by BMBC or RBPI contained or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus are qualified by factors, risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to, those set forth under the caption titled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 16 of this proxy statement/prospectus and those set forth under the caption "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" and "Risk Factors" in BMBC's and RBPI's annual and quarterly reports and other filings with the SEC are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See the section titled "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 104 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

You should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements. No assurances can be given that any of the events anticipated by the forward-looking statements will transpire or occur, or if any of them do occur, what impact they will have on the results of operations or financial condition of BMBC or RBPI. Actual results may differ materially from those discussed in this proxy statement/prospectus. All forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. Neither BMBC nor RBPI assumes any duty to update or revise forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, uncertainties or otherwise, as of any future date.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following unaudited pro forma consolidated financial information combines the historical consolidated financial position and results of operations of BMBC and its subsidiaries and of RBPI and its subsidiaries and as adjusted to reflect the acquisition by BMBC of RBPI using the acquisition method of accounting and giving effect to the related pro forma adjustments described in the accompanying notes. Under the acquisition method of accounting, the assets and liabilities of RBPI will be recorded by BMBC at their respective fair values as of the date the merger is completed. The unaudited pro forma consolidated combined balance sheet gives effect to the merger, as if the transaction had occurred on December 31, 2016. The unaudited pro forma consolidated income statements for the year ended December 31, 2016 give effect to the merger as if the transaction had become effective at January 1, 2016.

The merger was announced on January 30, 2017, and the merger agreement provides that each outstanding share of RBPI Class A Stock and RBPI Class B Stock, other than shares of RBPI common stock that BMBC, its subsidiaries and RBPI's subsidiaries hold and shares that RBPI holds as treasury shares, will become, by operation of law, the right to receive 0.1025 and 0.1179 shares of BMBC common stock, respectively. The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial information has been derived from and should be read in conjunction with the historical consolidated financial statements and the related notes of both BMBC and RBPI, which are incorporated in the document by reference. See "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 104.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements included herein are presented for informational purposes only and do not necessarily reflect the financial results of the combined company had the companies actually been combined at the beginning of each period presented. The adjustments included in these unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements are preliminary and may be revised. This information also does not reflect the benefits of the expected cost savings and expense efficiencies, opportunities to earn additional revenue, potential impacts of current market conditions on revenues, or asset dispositions, among other factors, and includes various preliminary estimates and may not necessarily be indicative of the financial position or results of operations that would have occurred if the merger had been consummated on the date or at the beginning of the period indicated or which may be attained in the future. The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes should be read in conjunction with and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the historical consolidated financial statements and related notes thereto of BMBC and its subsidiaries and of RBPI and its subsidiaries, such information and notes thereto are incorporated by reference herein.

NOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA COMBINED BALANCE SHEET

Footnote

- (1) Adjustment reflects a $15.3 million cash payment to fully fund and settle the Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan ("SERP") and $391 thousand to cash-out options at closing.
- (2) The $20.6 million acquisition method accounting adjustment reduces the carrying value of acquired loans to their fair value. The $20.6 million adjustment is approximately 3.4% of RBPI portfolio loans. It is anticipated that approximately 36% of the $20.6 million loan mark will be accreted through the income statement over the estimated life of the portfolio, as an adjustment to the yield.
- (3) In accordance with acquisition method accounting, RBPI's $10.4 million allowance for loan losses which is equal to 1.73% of its portfolio loans, has been reversed.
- (4) Adjustment represents the reversal of a $25.2 million reserve placed against a deferred tax asset associated with a net operating loss which will be fully realizable by BMBC and a $1.3 million net deferred tax asset related to fair value adjustments of loans, core deposit intangible, time deposits, borrowings, and subordinated debt.
- (5) The $55.5 million acquisition method accounting adjustment represents the difference between the fair value of all assets and liabilities acquired and the implied purchase consideration of $130.4 million (excludes the $15.3 million cash used to settle the SERP, discussed in Note (1) above). The implied purchase price in this pro forma is based on the issuance of 3,085,334 common shares of BMBC stock at the December 31, 2016 share price of $42.15 and $391 thousand cash for the cash-out of in-the-money options.
- (6) The $4.0 million adjustment is the establishment of a core deposit intangible ("CDI") which estimates the fair value of RBPI's core deposit base, comprised of non-maturity deposits, and is amortized through the income statement over a ten-year period.
- (7) The $4.5 million acquisition method accounting adjustment on certificates of deposit, adjusts their carrying value to fair value. This adjustment will be amortized through the income statement as a reduction of interest expense over the remaining term of these deposit.
- (8) The $415 thousand acquisition method adjustment on long-term FHLB advances and other borrowed funds brings their carrying value to their fair value. This adjustment will be amortized through the income statement as a reduction to interest expense over the remaining term of the FHLB advances.
- (9) The $7.3 million acquisition method accounting adjustment to subordinated debt, adjusts its carrying value to estimated fair value. This adjustment will be amortized through the income statement as an increase in interest expense over the remaining term of the debt.
- (10) These pro forma adjustments represent the net impact of the issuance of BMBC common stock in connection with the merger and the elimination of RBPI's stockholders' equity. This adjustment assumes the issuance of 3,085,334 shares of BMBC common stock valued at $130.0 million using the December 31, 2016 BMBC share price of $42.15.
- (11) Common stock of RBPI includes 27,887,024 shares of Class A common stock and 1,924,629 shares of Class B common stock. For book value per common share purposes, Class B common stock is converted to Class A common stock at a conversion rate of 1.15 shares of Class A common stock per share of Class B common stock. 1,924,629 shares of Class B common stock is equivalent to 2,213,323 shares of Class A common stock.
- (12) The adjustment of (27,015,013) represents the conversion of 27,887,024 shares of RBPI Class A Stock to 2,858,420 shares of BMBC common stock at a rate of 0.1025 shares of BMBC common stock for each share of RBPI Class A Stock and the conversion of 1,924,629 shares of RBPI Class B Stock to 226,914 shares of BMBC common stock at a rate of 0.1179 shares of BMBC common stock for each share of RBPI Class B Stock.

NOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA COMBINED INCOME STATEMENT

Footnote

- (1) Assumes the merger with RBPI was completed at the beginning of the period presented. These pro forma acquisition method accounting adjustments reflect the amortization/accretion for the twelve months ended December 31, 2016 of acquisition date fair value adjustments related to loans, available for sale investment securities, time deposits, long-term FHLB advances and other borrowings, and subordinated debt utilizing the straight line method over the estimated lives or remaining terms of the related assets or liabilities.
- (2) Non-interest income does not include any revenue enhancements that might occur as a result of the merger and non-interest expenses do not reflect anticipated cost savings. Adjustment includes the $1.0 million income tax expense related to the pro forma acquisition adjustments at BMBC's statutory income tax rate of 35% and the reversal of the $4.3 income tax benefit recognized on the RBPI standalone income statement related to the release of reserve on its deferred tax asset for the twelve months ended December 31, 2016. The purchase accounting adjustments to the balance sheet assume that the reserve on the deferred tax asset associated with net operating loss carryforwards will be reversed in the opening balance sheet after the merger.
- (3) The adjustment to average outstanding common shares reverses the 30,081,000 average outstanding shares of RBPI common stock and replaces it with the 3,085,334 shares of BMBC common stock issued in the merger and assumes that the 3,085,334 shares of BMBC common stock were outstanding for the entire twelve months ended December 31, 2016.
- (4) Assumes no additional dilutive shares related to the merger since all options to purchase shares of RBPI common stock will be cashed-out at the time of the merger.
- (5) Included in other operating expense in RBPI's standalone income statement is $590 thousand net income attributable to noncontrolling interests. The combined pro forma income statement assumes there will be no noncontrolling interests after the merger.
- (6) Adjustment assumes no Preferred Stock Series A in the combined entity.
- (7) Net income for RBPI does not include a reduction for dividends and accretion on Preferred Stock Series A, since this stock will not exist in the combined entity.

Table of ContentsCOMPARATIVE PER SHARE DATA

The following table sets forth certain historical, pro forma and pro forma-equivalent per share financial information for BMBC common stock and RBPI common stock. The pro forma and pro forma-equivalent per share information give effect to the merger of RBPI with and into BMBC as if the merger had been effective on the dates presented, in the case of the book value data, and as if the merger had become effective on January 1, 2016, in the case of the net income and dividends declared data. The unaudited pro forma data in the table assume that the merger is accounted for using the acquisition method of accounting and represent a current estimate based on available information of the combined company's results of operations. The pro forma financial adjustments record the assets and liabilities of RBPI at their estimated fair values and are subject to adjustment as additional information becomes available and as additional analyses are performed. The information in the following table is based on, and should be read together with BMBC's and RBPI's historical financial statements and notes thereto incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. See "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 104.

This information is presented for illustrative purposes only. You should not rely on the pro forma combined or pro forma equivalent amounts as they are not necessarily indicative of the operating results or financial position that would have occurred if the merger had been completed as of the dates indicated, nor are they necessarily indicative of the future operating results or financial position of the combined company that will result from the merger. The pro forma information, although helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under one set of assumptions, does not reflect the benefits of expected cost savings, opportunities to earn additional revenue, the impact of restructuring and merger-related costs, or other factors that may result as a consequence of the merger and, accordingly, does not attempt to predict or suggest future results.

RBPI SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

This proxy statement/prospectus is being delivered to RBPI shareholders by RBPI's board of directors in connection with the solicitation of proxies from RBPI shareholders for use at the special meeting of RBPI shareholders and any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting.

Date, Time and Place

The special meeting will be held on _____, 2017 at _____ a.m., local time, at _____ located at _____, Pennsylvania, subject to any adjournments or postponements.

Matters to be Considered

At the special meeting, RBPI shareholders will be asked to consider and vote upon the following proposals:

1. adoption and approval of the merger agreement as described in detail under the heading "The Merger" beginning on page 41;
2. a proposal to approve, by advisory (non-binding) vote, certain compensation arrangements for the named executive officers of RBPI in connection with the merger; and
3. a proposal to authorize the board of directors to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies to adopt the merger agreement.

Shareholders Entitled to Vote

The close of business on _____, 2017 has been fixed by RBPI's board of directors as the record date for the determination of those holders of RBPI common stock who are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting and any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting.

Quorum and Required Vote

At the close of business on the record date there were _____ shares of RBPI Class A Stock outstanding and _____ shares of RBPI Class B Stock outstanding. Each share of RBPI Class A Stock is entitled to one vote and each share of RBPI Class B Stock is entitled to ten votes on each matter presented at the special meeting.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of shareholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes that are entitled to be cast at the special meeting constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business at the special meeting. The affirmative vote at the RBPI special meeting, in person or by proxy, of at least two-thirds of the total number of votes entitled to be cast at the special meeting is required to approve the merger agreement. The affirmative vote, in person or by proxy, of a majority of votes cast at the RBPI special meeting is required to approve the advisory (non-binding) vote on certain compensation arrangements for the named executive officers of RBPI in connection with the merger agreement and the proposal to adjourn the RBPI special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies.

How Shares Will Be Voted at the Special Meeting

All shares of RBPI common stock represented by properly executed proxies received before or at the special meeting, and not properly revoked, will be voted as specified in the proxies. Properly executed proxies that do not contain voting instructions will be voted “FOR” the adoption of the merger agreement, “FOR” the adoption of the proposal to approve, by advisory (non-binding) vote, certain compensation arrangements for the named executive officers in connection with the merger and “FOR” the adjournment or postponement of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies.

If you hold shares of RBPI common stock in street name through a bank, broker or other nominee holder, the nominee holder may only vote your shares in accordance with your instructions. If you do not give specific instructions to your nominee holder as to how you want your shares voted, your nominee will indicate that it does not have authority to vote on the proposal, which will result in what is called a “broker non-vote.” Broker non-votes will be counted for determining whether there is a quorum present at the special meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes with respect to the merger agreement will effectively act as “no” votes on such proposal, but will not affect the outcomes of the other proposals.

If any other matters are properly brought before the special meeting, the proxies named in the proxy card will have discretion to vote the shares represented by duly executed proxies in their sole discretion.

How to Vote Your Shares

RBPI shareholders may vote by one of the following methods:

Voting by Mail. You may vote by completing and returning the enclosed proxy card. Your proxy will be voted in accordance with your instructions. If you do not specify a choice on one of the proposals described in this joint proxy statement, your proxy will be voted in favor of that proposal.

Voting by Internet. If you are a registered shareholder, you may vote electronically through the Internet by following the instructions included with your proxy card. If your shares are registered in the name of a broker or other nominee, you may be able to vote via the Internet. If so, the voting form your nominee sends you will provide Internet instructions.

Voting by Phone. Use any touch-tone telephone to transmit your voting instructions up until 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time the day before the cut-off date or meeting date. Have your proxy card in hand when you call (____) ____-____ and then follow the instructions.

Voting in Person. If you attend the meeting, you may deliver your completed proxy card in person or may vote by completing a ballot that will be available at the meeting. If your shares are registered in the name of a broker or other nominee and you wish to vote at the meeting, you will need to obtain a legal proxy from your bank or brokerage firm. Please consult the voting form sent to you by your bank or broker to determine how to obtain a legal proxy in order to vote in person at the special meeting. Should you have any questions on the procedure for voting your shares, please contact RBPI's Corporate Secretary, Lisa Lockowitz, telephone (484) 270-3029.

How to Change Your Vote

If you are a registered shareholder, you may revoke any proxy at any time before it is voted by (1) signing and returning a proxy card with a later date (if you submitted your proxy by Internet or telephone, you can vote again by Internet or telephone), (2) delivering a written revocation letter to the Corporate Secretary of RBPI, or (3) attending the special meeting in person and voting by ballot at the special meeting. The RBPI Secretary's mailing address is One Bala Plaza, Suite 522, 231 St. Asaph's Road, Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania, 19004. If your shares are registered in the name of a broker or other nominee, you may revoke your proxy instructions by informing the holder of record in accordance with that entity's procedures.

Solicitation of Proxies

RBPI will bear the cost of soliciting proxies for the RBPI special meeting.

In addition to solicitation of proxies by mail, RBPI will request that banks, brokers and other record holders send proxies and proxy material to the beneficial owners of RBPI common stock and secure their voting instructions. RBPI will reimburse the record holders for their reasonable expenses in taking those actions. If necessary, RBPI may use several of its regular employees, who will not be specially compensated, to solicit proxies from RBPI shareholders, either personally or by telephone, facsimile, letter or other electronic means.

BMBC and RBPI will each bear one-half of the expenses incurred in connection with the copying, printing and distribution of this proxy statement/prospectus.

RBPI Voting Agreements

BMBC entered into voting agreements with certain shareholders of RBPI, including all directors and executive officers of RBPI and certain of their family members or affiliates. Pursuant to the voting agreements, these shareholders have agreed to vote in favor of the proposal to approve adoption of the merger agreement and the merger and the proposal to approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of approval of adoption of the merger agreement and the merger. The form of the voting agreements they executed are included as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus. As of January 30, 2017, there were 5,954,810 shares of RBPI Class A Stock and 1,362,717 shares of RBPI Class B Stock subject to the voting agreements (excluding options), which represented approximately 41.5% of the outstanding voting power of the RBPI common stock as of that date.

Attending the Meeting

All holders of RBPI common stock, including shareholders of record and shareholders who hold their shares through banks, brokers, nominees or any other holder of record, are invited to attend the special meeting. Shareholders of record can vote in person at the special meeting. If you are not a shareholder of record, you must obtain a proxy executed in your favor from the record holder of your shares, such as a broker, bank or other nominee, to be able to vote in person at the special meeting. If you plan to attend the special meeting, you must hold your shares in your own name or have a letter from the record holder of your shares confirming your ownership and you must bring a form of personal photo identification with you in order to be admitted. We reserve the right to refuse admittance to anyone without both proper proof of share ownership and proper photo identification.

RBPI SPECIAL MEETING—PROPOSAL NO. 1
ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT

RBPI is asking its shareholders to adopt the merger agreement. For a detailed discussion of the merger, including the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, see “The Merger,” beginning on page 41. As discussed in detail in the sections entitled “The Merger—Recommendation of the RBPI Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger,” beginning on page 45, after careful consideration, the RBPI board of directors determined that the terms of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by it are in the best interests of RBPI and its shareholders and the board unanimously approved the merger agreement.

Recommendation of the RBPI Board of Directors

The RBPI board unanimously recommends that you vote “FOR” the adoption of the merger agreement.

RBPI SPECIAL MEETING—PROPOSAL NO. 2
ADVISORY (NON-BINDING) VOTE ON MERGER-RELATED COMPENSATION FOR RBPI'S NAMED EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

General

Pursuant to Rule 14a-21(c) of the Exchange Act and as required by the Dodd-Frank Act, RBPI is providing its shareholders with a separate advisory (non-binding) vote to approve the merger-related compensation for its named executive officers as described in "The Merger—Related Compensation for RBPI's Named Executive Officers."

Shareholders are being asked to approve the following resolution on an advisory (non-binding) basis:

“RESOLVED, that the compensation that may be paid or become payable to RBPI’s named executive officers in connection with the merger, and the agreement or understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, in each case, as disclosed pursuant to Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K in "The Merger—Related Compensation for RBPI's Named Executive Officers" is hereby APPROVED.”

Approval of this advisory (non-binding) proposal is not a condition to completion of the merger. The vote is an advisory vote and will not be binding on RBPI or the surviving corporation in the merger. If the merger is completed, the merger-related compensation may be paid to RBPI’s named executive officers to the extent payable in accordance with the terms of their compensation agreements and arrangements and the outcome of this advisory (non-binding) vote will not affect RBPI’s or BMBC’s obligations to make these payments even if RBPI shareholders do not approve, by advisory (non-binding) vote, this proposal.

The vote on the merger-related named executive officer compensation is separate from the vote to approve the merger agreement. You may vote “against” the merger-related named executive officer compensation and “for” approval of the merger agreement and vice versa. You also may abstain from this proposal and vote on the merger agreement proposal and vice versa.

Recommendation of the RBPI Board of Directors

The RBPI board unanimously recommends that you vote “FOR” the approval, in a non-binding advisory vote, of the merger-related named executive officer compensation proposal.

AUTHORIZATION TO VOTE ON ADJOURNMENT OR OTHER MATTERS

General

If, at the RBPI special meeting, the number of shares of RBPI common stock, present in person or by proxy, is insufficient to constitute a quorum or the number of shares of RBPI common stock voting in favor is insufficient to adopt the merger agreement, RBPI management intends to adjourn the special meeting in order to enable the RBPI board of directors more time to solicit additional proxies. In that event, RBPI will ask its shareholders to vote only upon the adjournment proposal and not the proposal relating to adoption of the merger agreement.

In this proposal, RBPI is asking you to grant discretionary authority to the holder of any proxy solicited by the RBPI board of directors so that such holder can vote in favor of the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to solicit additional proxies. If the shareholders of RBPI approve the adjournment proposal, RBPI could adjourn the special meeting, and any adjourned session of the special meeting, and use the additional time to solicit additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from shareholders who have previously voted.

Generally, if the special meeting is adjourned, no notice of the adjourned meeting is required to be given to shareholders, other than an announcement at the special meeting of the place, date and time to which the meeting is adjourned.

Recommendation of the RBPI Board of Directors

The RBPI board of directors recommends a vote “FOR” the proposal to authorize the board of directors to adjourn the special meeting of shareholders to allow time for the further solicitation of proxies to adopt the merger agreement.

The principal activities of RBPI are supervising Royal Bank, which engages in general banking business principally in Montgomery, Delaware, Chester, Bucks, Philadelphia and Berks counties in Pennsylvania, southern New Jersey, and Delaware. Royal Bank offers a wide range of traditional banking products and services for small to medium sized businesses, professionals and other individuals in its markets, including commercial and consumer loan and deposit services, as well as mortgage services.

Royal Bank was incorporated in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on July 30, 1963, and commenced operation as a Pennsylvania state-chartered bank on October 22, 1963. Royal Bank is the successor of the Bank of King of Prussia, the principal ownership of which was acquired by the Tabas family in 1980. The deposits of Royal Bank are insured by the FDIC.

Royal Bank derives its income principally from interest charged on loans, interest earned on investment securities, and fees received in connection with the origination of loans and other services. Royal Bank's principal expenses are interest expense on deposits and borrowings and operating expenses. Operating revenues, deposit growth, investment maturities, loan sales and the repayment of outstanding loans provide the majority of funds for activities. Royal Bank conducts business operations as a commercial bank offering checking accounts, savings and time deposits, and loans, including residential mortgages, home equity and SBA loans. Royal Bank also offers safe deposit boxes, collections, internet banking and bill payment along with other customary bank services (excluding trust) to its customers. Drive-up, ATM, and night depository facilities are available. Services may be added or deleted from time to time.

As of December 31, 2016, RBPI had consolidated total assets of $832.5 million, deposits of $629.5 million and shareholders' equity of $51.6 million.

THE MERGER

This proxy statement/prospectus is being provided to holders of shares of RBPI common stock in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the board of directors of RBPI to be voted at the RBPI special meeting and at any adjournments or postponements of the RBPI special meeting. At the RBPI special meeting, RBPI will ask its shareholders to vote on (1) a proposal to approve the adoption of the merger agreement and the merger, (2) a proposal to approve by an advisory (non-binding) vote, certain compensation arrangements in connection with the proposed merger for RBPI's named executive officers, and (3) a proposal to approve one or more adjournments of the RBPI special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in the event that there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve and adopt the agreement and plan of merger.

Overview of the Merger

BMBC's and RBPI's boards of directors have each unanimously approved the merger and the merger agreement. The merger agreement provides for RBPI to merge with and into BMBC after the closing conditions specified in the merger agreement have been satisfied. When the merger is completed, RBPI's separate corporate existence will cease and BMBC will be the surviving corporation. BMBC's articles of incorporation and bylaws and the provisions of the PBCL (which are the statutory corporation laws under which BMBC is incorporated) will govern the surviving corporation. The persons serving as the directors and officers of BMBC immediately before the merger also will be the directors and officers of the surviving corporation. Additionally, at the time the merger is completed, the boards of directors of BMBC and BMT will be enlarged by one seat, and one current member of the board of directors of RBPI, as determined by BMBC in its sole discretion, will be appointed to the vacant seat. The appointed RBPI director will be nominated for re-election at the first annual meeting of BMBC shareholders that is held after the merger is completed. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, BMBC has not selected the director who will be appointed to the boards of directors of BMBC and BMT. For information about the identities, backgrounds, compensation and certain other matters relating to BMBC's directors and executive officers, please refer to BMBC's proxy statement for its 2016 annual meeting of shareholders, which is incorporated by reference herein. For information about RBPI's directors, please refer to RBPI's proxy statement for its 2016 annual meeting of shareholders, which is also incorporated by reference herein. See "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 104. The parties intend for the merger to be treated as a "reorganization" under Section 368(a) of the Code. See "U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger" on page 91 for additional information.

As a result of the merger of RBPI into BMBC, all outstanding shares of RBPI common stock will be automatically converted into the right to receive merger consideration from BMBC, except that shares of RBPI common stock held by RBPI, BMBC or their respective subsidiaries (other than in a fiduciary capacity or as a result of debts previously contracted) will be canceled without consideration. The number of shares of BMBC common stock each RBPI shareholder is entitled to receive will be determined based on fixed exchange ratios of 0.1025 shares of BMBC common stock for each share of RBPI Class A Stock owned and 0.1179 shares of BMBC common stock for each share of RBPI Class B Stock owned, with the exception of those holders of RBPI Class B Stock who timely perfect their dissenters' rights under the PBCL. No fractional shares of BMBC common stock will be issued in the merger. Instead, RBPI shareholders will be entitled to receive cash in lieu of any fractional share of BMBC common stock they would otherwise be entitled to receive.

BMBC and RBPI can provide no assurance that the value of the BMBC common stock at the time the merger is completed will be substantially equivalent to the value of the BMBC common stock at the time RBPI shareholders vote to approve the merger. Because the market value of BMBC common stock fluctuates, the value of the BMBC common stock that RBPI shareholders will receive as merger consideration will fluctuate correspondingly.

Upon completion of the merger, all shares of BMBC capital stock issued and outstanding as of the completion of the merger will remain outstanding and will be unaffected by the merger. BMBC common stock will continue to trade on NASDAQ under the symbol "BMTC" following the merger. Based on information as of the record date, immediately after the merger is completed, without giving effect to any shares of BMBC common stock held by RBPI shareholders prior to the merger, holders of RBPI voting common stock will own approximately 15.5% all outstanding shares of BMBC common stock, which percentage excludes the right to receive BMBC common stock under outstanding RBPI warrants that will continue after the closing of the merger pursuant to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

Immediately after the merger of RBPI into BMBC is completed, BMBC's and RBPI's main operating subsidiaries, BMT, a Pennsylvania chartered bank, and Royal Bank, a Pennsylvania chartered bank, will merge, with BMT being the surviving entity. Royal Bank and BMT shall enter into a separate merger agreement setting forth their agreement to merge and the terms and conditions of the merger. The form of the bank merger agreement is attached as Exhibit B to the merger agreement between BMBC and RBPI.

Background of the Merger

RBPI's board of directors engages in regular strategic planning in connection with RBPI's business and operations. Prior to 2016, RBPI's consideration of a broad range of strategic alternatives was constrained due to a number of factors, including significant credit quality issues following the general recession that began in 2008, which substantially impacted many of the real estate loans and commercial loans secured by real estate made by Royal Bank and resulted in substantial operating losses, the existence of regulatory orders executed in 2009 by Royal Bank with the FDIC and the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities (which regulatory orders were replaced with a memorandum of understanding in late 2011) and a written agreement with the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia executed in 2010 by RBPI (which Federal Reserve Bank agreement was replaced with a memorandum of understanding, effective July 17, 2013 and terminated in the first quarter of 2017), and the issuance by RBPI in February 2009 of 30,407 shares of Series A Preferred Stock under the Troubled Asset Relief Program of the United States Department of Treasury ("Treasury") for an aggregate purchase price of approximately $30.4 million. The regulatory orders and agreements (and subsequent memorandum of understanding with the Federal Reserve Bank), among other things, limited RBPI's ability to declare or pay any dividends on its capital stock or make interest payments related to its outstanding trust preferred securities or subordinate securities without the prior written approval of the Reserve Bank and the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities. In addition, the terms of the Series A Preferred Stock, among other things, prohibited any payment of dividends on RBPI's Class A common stock or Class B common stock unless all dividends were current on the Series A Preferred Stock; in August 2009, the board suspended the regular quarterly cumulative cash dividends on the outstanding 30,407 shares of Series A Preferred Stock.

In late 2013, RBPI received approval from the Federal Reserve Bank to bid up to $14.0 million, which was raised by RBPI in a private placement transaction, to purchase shares of the Series A Preferred Stock in an auction of such shares conducted by Treasury. In February 2014, the annual cumulative dividend rate on the Series A Preferred Stock increased to 9%. On July 2, 2014, RBPI participated as a bidder in the auction and was allocated 11,551 shares of Series A Preferred Stock for repurchase at a price of $1,207 per share. At the time of the auction, the dividend in arrears on the remaining 18,856 shares of Series A Preferred Stock was approximately $6.6 million. RBPI repurchased the remaining 18,856 shares of Series A Preferred Stock from time to time during 2016 as shares became available for purchase and RBPI received the required regulatory approvals to repurchase such shares, completing all of the purchases by early November 2016. As of November 17, 2016 no shares of Series A Preferred Stock were outstanding and no dividend arrearages existed on the Series A Preferred Stock.

In addition to the restrictions and limitations imposed by the regulatory orders or agreements and the outstanding Series A Preferred Stock, RBPI experienced significant operating losses for the years ended December 31, 2008 through December 31, 2012. For the five years prior to 2013, RBPI recorded significant losses totaling $119.6 million, which were primarily related to charge-offs on the loan and lease portfolio, impairment charges on investment securities, impairment charges on OREO, credit related expenses and the establishment of a deferred tax asset valuation allowance. RBPI returned to modest profitability for 2013 and has experienced increasing net income each year thereafter as a result of a number of corporate initiatives designed to decrease expenses, increase loans and deposits, and re-focus Royal Bank's efforts to a more traditional community banking model. RBPI recorded net income of $5.1 million and $11.0 million for the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2015, respectively, and $6.3 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2016. The period of improved earnings corresponded with significant improvements in asset quality metrics.

RBPI's improved earnings and performance after 2013, coupled with the completion of the repurchase of all outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock in 2016, the termination over the past few years of the formal regulatory agreements to which RBPI and Royal Bank were parties, and the termination of Royal Bank's informal memorandum of understanding with each of the FDIC and the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities in February 2015, provided RBPI more flexibility to consider different strategies and opportunities, and made RBPI a more attractive candidate to a larger institution interested in a potential business combination transaction.

On June 22, 2016, RBPI's President and Chief Executive Officer received a phone call from the President and Chief Executive Officer of another publicly traded regional financial institution holding company ("Company A") who expressed interest in the possibility of exploring a potential business combination between RBPI and Company A.

On July 28, 2016, the President and Chief Executive Officer of BMBC met with RBPI's President and Chief Executive Officer to, among other things, discuss the banking industry and their respective company's business and operations. At that meeting, the President and Chief Executive Officer of BMBC inquired whether RBPI would have any interest in a possible business combination transaction with BMBC. RBPI's President and Chief Executive Officer communicated both this conversation and the conversation with Company A's President and Chief Executive Officer to RBPI's Chairman and also to RBPI's board of directors at the August board meeting.

In September 2016, the President and Chief Executive Officer of Company A, contacted RBPI's President and Chief Executive Officer and requested a meeting. RBPI's Chairman and its President and Chief Executive Officer met with the President and Chief Executive Officer of Company A on October 4, 2016. At this meeting, the President and Chief Executive Officer of Company A inquired whether RBPI would have any interest in considering a potential business combination with Company A.

In light of these factors, including the preliminary interest expressed by BMBC and Company A, and in anticipation of an off-site strategic planning meeting of RBPI's board of directors scheduled for November 18, 2016, in September 2016, RBPI authorized its financial advisor, Sandler O'Neill, to formally contact each of BMBC and Company A to determine whether they might have interest in a business combination with RBPI and, if so, the preliminary price range and other material terms for such interest. RBPI selected Sandler O'Neill as its financial advisor in connection with a possible business combination transaction based on, among other factors, Sandler O'Neill's experience and reputation in mergers and acquisitions involving financial institutions and its familiarity with the business and operations of RBPI. Representatives of Sandler O'Neill requested that written indication of interest letters be received prior to the date of a previously scheduled strategic planning meeting of RBPI's board on November 18, 2016.

Each of BMBC and Company A executed standard nondisclosure agreements in September 2016. In the period between September 2016 and January 2016, the President and Chief Executive Officer of RBPI had various informal telephone calls with the President and Chief Executive Officer of each of BMBC and Company A regarding due diligence and strategic matters. A data site was populated with materials for preliminary due diligence in October 2016, and each of BMBC and Company A submitted a written preliminary indication of interest letter on or about November 15, 2016, prior to the board's strategic planning meeting on November 18, 2016.

At the November 18 strategic planning meeting, RBPI's board first received a presentation from an experienced banking industry consultant and advisor. The presentation included a review of RBPI's financial performance, a peer group analysis, a financial services industry overview with an emphasis on emerging trends, a review of the markets in which RBPI operates, and a review of potential core strategies. The presentation offered a number of conclusions, including that, although RBPI's recent loan growth was favorable and exceeded peer averages, growth in deposits was below peer averages over the period. The presentation also noted that, although RBPI's non-interest income grew during the measurement period, its non-interest income as a percentage of average assets and as a percentage of operating revenue was below peer averages. The consultant also reviewed emerging trends in the financial services industry, with an emphasis on branch banking trends, and discussed his view of the continuing importance of size and scale in the financial services industry, particularly as it relates to the ability to generate additional sources of fee income. The consultant's presentation did not address, and the consultant was not aware of, the preliminary indication of interest letters received from BMBC and Company A as part of his presentation. This portion of the November 18, 2016 strategic planning meeting was attended by the Chief Financial Officer of RBPI and a representative of Stevens & Lee, RBPI's counsel, in addition to the board of directors. Representatives of Sandler O'Neill were not present for this portion of the meeting.

Following completion of the presentation by the banking industry consultant and advisor and his exit from the November 18, 2016 strategic planning meeting, representatives of RBPI's financial advisor, Sandler O'Neill, reviewed with the board the two preliminary indication of interest letters received from BMBC and Company A. Both preliminary indications of interest letters contemplated a 100% stock transaction. As part of this discussion, Sandler O'Neill also addressed with the board the possibility of a business combination with other financial institutions, and their potential interest based on various factors. No other party had expressed interest in a potential combination either through the Company directly or indirectly through Sandler O'Neill. The board also discussed certain alternative strategies which had been previously discussed by the board, including additional capital raises and potential acquisitions, and noted that each of these strategies was limited by various factors, including potential adverse effects on RBPI's significant deferred tax asset valuation allowance. Following discussion, the board directed Sandler O'Neill to contact each of BMBC and Company A, and advise them that RBPI was interested in continuing discussions of a potential transaction with each of them. This portion of the November 18, 2016 strategic planning meeting was also attended by the Chief Financial Officer of RBPI and a representative of Stevens & Lee.

During December 2016, each of BMBC and Company A was granted access to additional due diligence materials of RBPI in an electronic data room, and a more complete due diligence investigation was completed. On December 12, 2016, RBPI's President and Chief Executive Officer and Chairman met with Company A's President and Chief Executive Officer to discuss additional details regarding Company A's indication of interest.

Throughout December, the parties conducted in-person senior management interviews as part of their respective due diligence processes.

On January 10, 2017, BMBC submitted a revised indication of interest letter and Company A declined to submit an indication of interest. The board of directors reviewed the revised indication of interest letter with representatives of Sandler O'Neill and Stevens & Lee, counsel to RBPI, at a special meeting held on January 12, 2017. RBPI's Chief Financial Officer also attended this meeting. The revised BMBC indication of interest letter set forth a fixed exchange ratio of 0.1025x for RBPI's Class A shares and a fixed exchange ratio of 0.1179x for Class B shares, an improvement over the prior BMBC preliminary indication of interest. The fixed exchange ratio equated to a then current implied price of $4.27 per share. The proposed terms, other than the pricing and exchange ratio, were substantially similar to the November 2016 BMBC letter, including that the transaction would be an all-stock transaction with RBPI and Royal Bank being merged into BMBC and BMT, respectively, and that BMBC would agree to appoint one of RBPI's directors to the board of directors of BMBC and BMT at closing, while maintaining an advisory board for all of RBPI's remaining directors. Sandler O'Neill reviewed the proposed transaction pricing and multiples with the board, noting the implied price per Class A equivalent share of $4.27 and RBPI's pro forma ownership of 15.4% of the combined company. Representatives of Sandler O'Neill also reviewed with the board certain transaction metrics contained in the January 10 BMBC letter and preliminary pro forma financial information. The representatives of Sandler O'Neill also discussed with the board the strategic rationale for a potential transaction with BMBC and other information relating to the combined company.

Based on the discussion at the January 12, 2017 special meeting of the board of directors, the board authorized President and Chief Executive Officer Kevin Tylus to execute and return the January 10, 2017 BMBC indication of interest letter. The board also authorized the President and Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer to begin negotiation of a merger agreement and ancillary documents, in conjunction with RPBI's legal and financial advisors.

On January 17, 2017, Reed Smith LLP, legal counsel for BMBC, provided Stevens & Lee with a draft merger agreement. The parties and their respective advisers negotiated the terms of the merger agreement over the weeks that followed. The terms negotiated by the parties and their respective advisors included, but were not limited to, environmental liabilities, termination provisions and their related fees, the treatment of non-wholly owned subsidiaries, and the determination of which shareholders would execute voting agreements. In addition, in mid-January 2017, during a strategic discussion regarding the post-merger combined company, BMBC's Chief Executive Officer introduced the concept of Mr. Tylus becoming an employee of BMT following the merger to assist BMT in the integration process with Royal Bank's employees, and to provide BMT with knowledge and strategic leadership in certain new markets.

On January 25, 2017, representatives of Sandler O'Neill conducted on-site reverse due diligence on BMBC. Throughout the month of January, representatives of RBPI's management team held discussions with representatives of BMBC's management team and conducted reverse due diligence on BMBC.

On January 30, 2017, RBPI's board of directors met to consider the proposed merger agreement and certain ancillary documents. RBPI's President and Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, and representatives from its legal and financial advisors, participated in the meeting. A substantially complete copy of the merger agreement that had been negotiated to date, as well as certain ancillary documents, including a draft of Sandler O'Neill's presentation materials to be reviewed at the meeting, had been sent to board members on January 28, 2017. At the meeting, representatives of Stevens & Lee reviewed in detail the terms of the merger agreement and ancillary documents, including the voting agreements required by BMBC to be executed by the directors and executive officers of RBPI and certain of their affiliates and non-competition and non-solicitation agreements to be entered into by each RBPI director. Representatives of Stevens & Lee also discussed the proposed resolutions that the board would be requested to approve. Representatives of Sandler O'Neill made a presentation, which summarized the transaction terms, the pricing metrics and multiples for the transaction and compared that information against comparable merger transactions. Sandler O'Neill's presentation included an overview of RBPI's historical financial profile, stock price performance and peer group metrics. The representatives of Sandler O'Neill also reviewed the pro forma company's footprint and metrics about the transaction and the pro forma company. At the January 30, 2017 meeting of the board of directors, representatives of Sandler O'Neill delivered to RBPI's directors its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing on January 30, 2017, that, as of January 30, 2017, to the effect that the exchange ratio for the Class A common stock provided for in the merger agreement was fair to the holders of Class A common stock and the exchange ratio for Class B common stock provided for in the merger agreement was fair to the holders of Class B common stock from a financial point of view. Representatives of RBC Capital Markets, LLC, which was also engaged to provide financial advisory services to RBPI in connection with the transaction, also made a presentation at the meeting with respect the proposed merger, but did not provide a fairness opinion.

Following these presentations and discussions and review and discussion among the members of RBPI's board of directors, including consideration of the factors described under "—Reasons of the Merger," RBPI's board of directors determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger of RBPI with BMBC, were advisable and in the best interests of RBPI and its shareholders and the directors unanimously voted to adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and recommended that RBPI's shareholders approve the merger agreement.

On January 30, 2017, Mr. Tylus accepted BMT's offer of employment post-merger, and signed BMT's standard form of employment agreement following minor clarifications of the role and applicability.

Table of Contents

At each meeting of the BMBC executive and risk management committees of the BMBC board of directors held in November and December of 2016, the potential transaction with RBPI was discussed and management was authorized to continue the due diligence process in anticipation of submitting an indication of interest in November 2016. On January 10, 2017, at a special meeting of the BMBC board, the board received management presentations regarding the results of due diligence, cost savings estimates, RBPI's loan portfolio, key risks and risk management, operational impact of the transaction, integration matters, legal matters and the impact of the transaction on BMBC's other projects and initiatives. BMBC management was authorized to issue a revised indication of interest to RBPI and, if accepted, to engage in the negotiation process with respect to the merger and the merger agreement. The BMBC board met again at a regularly scheduled meeting on January 19, 2017 and management gave an update regarding key transaction and due diligence matters as well as the progress of the merger negotiations. On January 30, 2017, BMBC's board held another special meeting to review the final merger proposal as set forth in the definitive merger agreement and related documents negotiated by RBPI and BMBC and their respective financial and legal advisors. The BMBC board received an updated management presentation regarding the key transaction areas that were initially presented at the January 10 special meeting, a legal presentation outlining the material elements of the proposed merger agreement, and a presentation by BMBC's financial advisor regarding the financial aspects of the proposed merger. After careful and deliberate consideration of the presentations received as well as the interests of BMBC and of its constituencies, BMBC's board determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby were in the best interests of BMBC, approved and adopted the merger agreement, subject to the final negotiation by management of certain terms of the merger agreement and finalization of the disclosure schedules, and approved the merger and the other transactions contemplated thereby.

Following the completion of the RBPI and BMBC board meetings, the merger agreement and ancillary documents were executed and delivered by the parties. Prior to the opening of the market on January 31, 2017, BMBC and RBPI issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the merger agreement.

Recommendation of the RBPI Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger

In reaching the conclusion that the merger agreement is in the best interests of and advisable for RBPI and its shareholders, and in approving the merger agreement, RBPI's board of directors consulted with senior management, its legal counsel and financial advisor and considered a number of factors, including, among others, the following, which are not presented in order of priority:

- the business strategy and strategic plan of RBPI, its prospects for the future and projected financial results, particularly in light of RBPI's asset size, scale and product offerings;
- the consideration offered by BMBC, in relation to RBPI's tangible book value at December 31, 2016; trailing twelve-month tax-adjusted earnings; core deposits premium; and publicly traded market value;

- the transaction is an all-stock transaction with a fixed exchange ratio, thereby permitting RBPI shareholders to realize the benefits of any increases in value of BMBC stock before and after closing of the transaction;
- on a pro forma basis, the transaction is estimated to be accretive to earnings per share in the first full year after completion of the transaction;
- on a pro forma basis, the transaction is estimated to be accretive to book value per share in the first full year after completion;

the understanding of RBPI's board of directors of the strategic options available to RBPI and the board of directors' assessment of those options taking into account a number of factors, including the effects on RBPI's significant deferred tax asset of various strategic alternatives (including acquisitions of other companies by RBPI, additional capital raises by RBPI, and "merger of equal" transactions);

the challenges facing RBPI's management to grow RBPI's franchise and enhance shareholder value given current market conditions, including increased operating costs resulting from regulatory compliance, continued pressure on net interest margin resulting from the current interest rate environment and competition, and anticipated challenges in funding continued loan growth through deposits or otherwise;

- the board's belief that the merger consideration offered by BMBC equaled or exceeded the consideration that could reasonably be expected from other potential acquirers with apparent willingness and ability to acquire RBPI;
- the board's view that the relative size of a financial institution and related economies of scale, beyond the level it believed to be reasonably achievable by RBPI on an independent basis, was becoming increasingly important to continued success in the current and future financial services environment;
- the strong capital position of the combined company, and the larger scale and more diverse revenue of the combined company particularly given the diversified revenue composition of BMBC's lines of business in commercial banking, insurance, and wealth management and the fact that BMBC's fee income presently represents approximately 34% of BMBC's net operating income;
- the ability of BMBC to pay the merger consideration and the perceived relative value of the BMBC stock consideration compared to peers;
- the ability of BMBC to execute a merger transaction from a financial and regulatory perspective and its recent history of being able to successfully integrate merged institutions and other fee income businesses into its existing franchise;
- the geographic fit and increased customer convenience of the expanded branch network of the combined company, including the complementary nature of RBPI's existing branch network with that of BMBC;
- BMBC's business, operations, financial condition, asset quality, earnings and prospects, taking into account the results of RBPI's due diligence review of BMBC, and information provided by RBPI's financial advisor;
- the historical stock market performance for RBPI and BMBC common stock, and historical analyst recommendations with respect to BMBC common stock;
- the cash dividend rate payable on BMBC common stock, and the fact that RBPI has not paid a cash dividend for several years due to regulatory and other restrictions;
- the significantly greater market capitalization and historical trading volume of BMBC common stock, thereby providing RBPI shareholders greater liquidity for their investment;
- the terms of the merger agreement, including the representations and warranties of the parties, the covenants of the parties, the merger consideration, and the benefits to RBPI's employees;

- the financial analysis presented by representatives of Sandler to the RBPI board of directors, and the opinion delivered to the RBPI board of directors by Sandler to the effect that, as of January 30, 2017, and subject to and
- based on the qualifications, limitations, and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the Class A exchange ratio and Class B exchange ratio provided for in the merger agreement were fair, from a financial point of view, to the RBPI Class A common shareholders and RBPI Class B common shareholders, respectively;
 - the composition of BMBC's share ownership, including the fact that approximately 70% of BMBC common stock is owned by experienced institutional investors;
 - the commitment by BMBC to elect one current director of RBPI to the board of directors of BMBC and BMT for a period of at least four years from the closing;
 - the process conducted by RBPI's financial advisor to identify potential merger partners and to solicit proposals as to the terms, structure and other aspects of a potential transaction from potential merger partners; and
 - the likelihood of expeditiously obtaining the necessary regulatory approval without unusual or burdensome conditions.

Table of Contents

RBPI's board of directors also considered a number of potential risks and uncertainties associated with the merger in connection with its deliberation of the proposed transaction, including, without limitation, the following:

- the potential risk of diverting management attention and resources from the operation of RBPI's business and towards the completion of the merger;

- the restrictions on the conduct of RBPI's business before the completion of the merger, which are customary for public company merger agreements involving financial institutions, but which, subject to specific exceptions, could delay or prevent RBPI from undertaking business opportunities that may arise or any other action it would otherwise take with respect to the operations of RBPI absent the pending merger;

- the potential risks associated with achieving anticipated cost synergies and savings and successfully integrating RBPI's business, operations and workforce with those of BMBC;

- the merger-related costs;

- that the interests of certain of RBPI's directors and executive officers may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of RBPI's other shareholders as described under the heading "Interests of RBPI's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger;"

- the risk that the conditions to the parties' obligations to complete the merger agreement may not be satisfied, including the risk that necessary regulatory approvals or the RBPI shareholder approval might not be obtained and, as a result, the merger may not be consummated;

- the risk of potential employee attrition and/or adverse effects on business and customer relationships as a result of the pending merger;

- that: (1) RBPI would be prohibited from affirmatively soliciting acquisition proposals after execution of the merger agreement; and (2) RBPI would be obligated to pay to BMBC a termination fee if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, which may discourage other parties potentially interested in a strategic transaction with RBPI from pursuing such a transaction; and

- the other risks described under the heading "Risk Factors."

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the board of directors of RBPI is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the board of directors of RBPI. In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, the board of directors of RBPI did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The board of directors of RBPI considered all these factors as a whole, including discussions with, and questioning of RBPI's management and RBPI's independent financial and legal advisors, and overall considered the factors to be favorable to, and to support, its determination.

RBPI shareholders should be aware that RBPI's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, those of other RBPI shareholders. The board of directors of RBPI was aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the merger agreement, and in recommending that the Merger Proposal be approved by the shareholders of RBPI. See "—Interests of RBPI's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger."

This summary of the reasoning of the Board of Directors of RBPI and other information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under the heading "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements."

Recommendation of RBPI's Board of Directors

RBPI's board of directors believes that the terms of the transaction are in the best interests of RBPI and its shareholders and has unanimously approved the merger agreement. Accordingly, RBPI's board of directors unanimously recommends that RBPI's shareholders vote "FOR" approval and adoption of the merger agreement, "FOR" approval of certain compensation arrangements for the named executive officers of RBPI in connection with the merger, and "FOR" an adjournment of the RBPI special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies.

Opinion of RBPI's Financial Advisor in Connection with the Merger

RBPI retained Sandler O'Neill, to act as financial advisor to RBPI's board of directors in connection with RBPI's consideration of a possible business combination. Sandler O'Neill is a nationally recognized investment banking firm whose principal business specialty is financial institutions. In the ordinary course of its investment banking business, Sandler O'Neill is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

Sandler O'Neill acted as financial advisor in connection with the proposed transaction and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to the execution of the merger agreement. At the January 30, 2017 meeting at which RBPI's board of directors considered and discussed the terms of the merger agreement and the merger, Sandler O'Neill delivered to RBPI's board of directors its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing on January 30, 2017, to the effect that, as of such date, the exchange ratio for RBPI Class A Stock provided for in the merger agreement was fair to the holders of RBPI Class A Stock and the exchange ratio for RBPI Class B Stock provided for in the merger agreement was fair to the holders of RBPI Class B Stock from a financial point of view. The full text of Sandler O'Neill's opinion is attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill in rendering its opinion. The description of the opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. Holders of RBPI Class A Stock and RBPI Class B Stock are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the proposed merger.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion was directed to RBPI's board of directors in connection with its consideration of the merger agreement and the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of RBPI as to how any such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the approval of the merger agreement and the merger. Sandler O'Neill's opinion was directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the exchange ratio for RBPI Class A Stock to the holders of RBPI Class A Stock and to the fairness of the exchange ratio for RBPI Class B Stock to the holders of RBPI Class B Stock, and does not address the underlying business decision of RBPI to engage in the merger, the form or structure of the merger or any other transactions contemplated in the merger agreement, the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other alternative transactions or business strategies that might exist for RBPI or the effect of any other transaction in which RBPI might engage. Sandler O'Neill did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the merger by any officer, director or employee of RBPI or Bryn Mawr (or, for the purposes of this section, "BMBC"), or any class of such persons, if any, relative to the compensation to be received in the merger by any other shareholder, including the holders of Class A and Class B RBPI common stock. Sandler O'Neill's opinion was approved by Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion committee.

In connection with its opinion, Sandler O'Neill reviewed and considered, among other things:

an execution copy of the merger agreement, dated January 30, 2017;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of RBPI that Sandler O'Neill deemed relevant;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of BMBC that Sandler O'Neill deemed relevant;

internal financial projections for RBPI for the year ending December 31, 2017 as well as estimated long-term net income and balance sheet growth rates for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of RBPI; publicly available consensus median analyst earnings per share estimates for BMBC for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as well as an estimated long-term annual earnings per share growth rate for BMBC for the years thereafter, as discussed with and confirmed by the senior management of BMBC and its representatives;

the pro forma financial impact of the Merger on BMBC based on certain assumptions relating to purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and transaction expenses, as provided by the senior management of BMBC and its representative;

the publicly reported historical price and trading activity for RBPI common stock and BMBC common stock, including a comparison of certain stock market information for RBPI common stock and BMBC common stock and certain stock indices as well as publicly available information for certain other similar companies, the securities of which are publicly traded;

a comparison of certain financial information for RBPI and BMBC with similar institutions for which information is publicly available;

the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the bank and thrift industry (on a regional and nationwide basis), to the extent publicly available;

the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as Sandler O'Neill considered relevant.

Sandler O'Neil also discussed with certain members of the senior management of RBPI the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of RBPI and held similar discussions with certain members of the senior management of BMBC regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of BMBC.

In performing its review, Sandler O'Neill relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to and reviewed by it from public sources, that was provided by RBPI or BMBC, or their respective representatives, or that was otherwise reviewed by Sandler O'Neill, and Sandler O'Neill assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering its opinion without any independent verification or investigation. Sandler O'Neill relied on the assurances of the respective managements of RBPI and BMBC that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances that would have made any of such information inaccurate or misleading. Sandler O'Neill was not asked to and did not undertake an independent verification of any of such information and did not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. Sandler O'Neill did not make an independent evaluation or perform an appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of RBPI or BMBC or any of their respective subsidiaries, nor was Sandler O'Neill furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. Sandler O'Neill rendered no opinion or evaluation on the collectability of any assets or the future performance of any loans of RBPI or BMBC or any of their respective subsidiaries. Sandler O'Neil did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of RBPI or BMBC, or of the combined entity after the Merger, and Sandler O'Neill did not review any individual credit files relating to RBPI or BMBC. Sandler O'Neill assumed, with RBPI's consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both RBPI and BMBC were adequate to cover such losses and would be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill used internal financial projections for RBPI for the year ending December 31, 2017 as well as estimated long-term net income and balance sheet growth rates for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of RBPI. In addition, Sandler O'Neill used publicly available consensus median analyst earnings per share estimates for BMBC for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as well as an estimated long-term annual earnings per share growth rate for BMBC for the years thereafter, as discussed with and confirmed by the senior management of BMBC and its representatives. Sandler O'Neill also received and used in its pro forma analyses certain assumptions relating to purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and transaction expenses, as provided by the senior management of BMBC and its representatives. With respect to the foregoing information, the respective senior managements of RBPI and BMBC confirmed to Sandler O'Neill that such information reflected (or, in the case of the publicly available consensus median analyst earnings per share estimates, were consistent with) the best currently available projections, estimates and judgments of those respective senior managements as to the future financial performance of RBPI and BMBC, respectively, and the other matters covered thereby, and Sandler O'Neill assumed that the future financial performance reflected in such information would be achieved. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to such information, or the assumptions on which such information was based. Sandler O'Neill also assumed that there had been no material change in the respective assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of RBPI or BMBC since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to Sandler O'Neill. Sandler O'Neill assumed in all respects material to its analysis that RBPI and BMBC would remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to its analysis.

Sandler O’Neill also assumed, with RBPI’s consent, that (i) each of the parties to the merger agreement would comply in all material respects with all material terms and conditions of the merger agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements were true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to such agreements would perform in all material respects all of the covenants and other obligations required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements were not and would not be waived, (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition would be imposed that would have an adverse effect on RBPI, BMBC or the merger or any related transaction, (iii) the merger and any related transactions would be consummated in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements, and (iv) the merger would qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Finally, with RBPI’s consent, Sandler O’Neill relied upon the advice that RBPI had received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters related to the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Sandler O’Neill expressed no opinion as to any such matters.

Sandler O’Neill’s opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Sandler O’Neill as of January 30, 2017. Events occurring after January 30, 2017 could materially affect Sandler O’Neill’s opinion. Sandler O’Neill has not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after January 30, 2017. Sandler O’Neill expressed no opinion as to the trading values of RBPI common stock or BMBC common stock at any time or what the value of BMBC common stock would be once it was actually received by the holders of RBPI common stock.

In rendering its opinion, Sandler O’Neill performed a variety of financial analyses. The summary below is not a complete description of the analyses underlying Sandler O’Neill’s opinion or the presentation made by Sandler O’Neill to RBPI’s board of directors, but is a summary of all material analyses performed and presented by Sandler O’Neill. The summary includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, these tables must be read together with the accompanying text. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. The process, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Sandler O’Neill believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the factors and analyses to be considered without considering all factors and analyses, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all such factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion. Also, no company included in Sandler O’Neill’s comparative analyses described below is identical to RBPI or BMBC and no transaction is identical to the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of comparable companies or transactions involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading values or merger transaction values, as the case may be, of RBPI and BMBC and the companies to which they are being compared. In arriving at its opinion, Sandler O’Neill did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered. Rather, Sandler O’Neill made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Sandler O’Neill did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative) considered in isolation supported or failed to support its opinion, rather, Sandler O’Neill made its determination as to the fairness of the exchange ratios for RBPI Class A Stock and RBPI Class B Stock on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all its analyses taken as a whole.

In performing its analyses, Sandler O’Neill also made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and various other matters, many of which are beyond the control of RBPI, BMBC and Sandler O’Neill. The analyses performed by Sandler O’Neill are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, both of which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Sandler O’Neill prepared its analyses solely for purposes of rendering its opinion and provided such analyses to RBPI’s board of directors at its January 30, 2017 meeting. Estimates on the values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold. Such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty and actual values may be materially different. Accordingly, Sandler O’Neill’s analyses do not necessarily reflect the value of RBPI common stock or the prices at which RBPI common stock or BMBC common stock may be sold at any time. The analyses of Sandler O’Neill and its opinion were among a number of factors taken into consideration by RBPI’s board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and should not be viewed as determinative of the RBPI Class A Stock and RBPI Class B Stock exchange ratios or the decision of RBPI’s board of directors or management with respect to the fairness of the merger. The type and amount of consideration payable in the merger were determined through negotiation between RBPI and BMBC.

Summary of Proposed Exchange Ratio and Implied Transaction Metrics. Sandler O’Neill reviewed the financial terms of the proposed merger. Using the closing price of BMBC Class A common stock on January 27, 2017 of $41.45 for valuing BMBC common stock issuable in the merger and assuming 1,924,629 shares of RBPI Class B Stock are converted to shares of RBPI Class A Stock, 1,368,040 RBPI warrants are converted into BMBC warrants, and 182,000 outstanding RBPI in-the-money options that are cashed-out in connection with the merger, Sandler O’Neill calculated an aggregate implied transaction value of approximately $129.7 million, or an implied transaction price per share of Class A equivalent RBPI common stock of $4.25. Based upon historical financial information for RBPI as or for the last twelve months (“LTM”) ended December 31, 2016, Sandler O’Neill calculated the following implied transaction metrics.

Transaction Price / Last Twelve Months Stated Earnings Per Share:	13.7x
Transaction Price / Tax Adjusted Last Twelve Months Earnings Per Share ¹ :	26.6x
Transaction Price / Tangible Book Value Per Share:	247%

Net Present Value Analyses. Sandler O’Neill performed an analysis that estimated the net present value per share of RBPI common stock assuming RBPI performed in accordance with internal financial projections for the year ending December 31, 2017, as well as estimated long-term net income and balance sheet growth rates for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of RBPI. To approximate the terminal value of a share of RBPI common stock at December 31, 2021, Sandler O’Neill applied price to 2021 earnings per share multiples ranging from 13.0x to 18.0x and price to December 31, 2021 tangible book value per share multiples ranging from 110% to 160%. The terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 10.0% to 15.0% which were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of RBPI common stock. As illustrated in the following tables, the analysis indicated an imputed range of values per share of RBPI common stock of $1.42 to $2.46 when applying multiples of earnings per share and $1.93 to $3.50 when applying multiples of tangible book value per share.

Sandler O’Neill also considered and discussed with the RBPI board of directors how this analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including variations with respect to net income. To illustrate this impact, Sandler O’Neill performed a similar analysis assuming RBPI’s net income varied from 15% above projections to 15% below projections. This analysis resulted in the following range of per share values for RBPI common stock, applying the price to 2021 earnings per share multiples range of 13.0x to 18.0x referred to above and a discount rate of 12.78%.

Sandler O’Neill also performed an analysis that estimated the net present value per share of BMBC common stock assuming that BMBC performed in accordance with publicly available consensus median analyst earnings per share estimates for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as well as an estimated long-term annual earnings per share growth rate for BMBC for the years thereafter, as discussed with and confirmed by the senior management of BMBC and its representatives. To approximate the terminal value of BMBC common stock at December 31, 2021, Sandler O’Neill applied price to 2021 earnings per share multiples ranging from 17.0x to 22.0x and price to December 31, 2021 tangible book value per share multiples ranging from 170% to 270%. The terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 9.0% to 13.0% chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of BMBC common stock. Sandler O’Neill noted that the net present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, and the results thereof are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. Sandler O’Neill analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the merger, assuming the merger closes on July 1, 2017. In performing this analysis, Sandler O’Neill utilized the following information: (i) internal financial projections for RBPI for the year ending December 31, 2017 as well as estimated long-term net income and balance sheet growth rates for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of RBPI; (ii) publicly available consensus median analyst earnings per share estimates for BMBC for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as well as an estimated long-term annual earnings per share growth rate for BMBC for the years thereafter, as discussed with and confirmed by the senior management of BMBC and its representatives; and (iii) certain assumptions relating to purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and transaction expenses, as provided by the senior management of BMBC and its representative. The analysis indicated that the merger could be accretive to BMBC’s earnings per share (excluding one-time transaction costs and expenses) in the years ended December 31, 2018 and December 31, 2019, and accretive to BMBC’s estimated tangible book value per share at close.

In connection with this analysis, Sandler O’Neill considered and discussed with the RBPI board of directors how the analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including the impact of final purchase accounting adjustments determined at the closing of the transaction, and noted that the actual results achieved by the combined company may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

Sandler O’Neill’s Relationship. Sandler O’Neill is acting as RBPI’s financial advisor in connection with the merger and will receive a fee for its services. Sandler O’Neill’s fee is equal to 1.60% of the aggregate purchase price, will vary based on the market value of BMBC common stock at the time of closing and is contingent upon the closing of the merger. Sandler O’Neill also received a $150,000 fee upon rendering its opinion to the board of directors of RBPI, which opinion fee will be credited in full towards the transaction fee which will become payable to Sandler O’Neill on the day of closing of the merger. RBPI has also agreed to indemnify Sandler O’Neill against certain claims and liabilities arising out of its engagement and to reimburse Sandler O’Neill for certain of its out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with Sandler O’Neill’s engagement.

Sandler O’Neill has not provided any other investment banking services to RBPI in the two years preceding the date of its opinion for which it has received compensation. As Sandler O’Neill previously advised the board of directors of RBPI, in the two years preceding the date of its opinion, Sandler O’Neill provided certain investment banking services to BMBC and received compensation for such services. Most recently, Sandler O’Neill acted as placement agent to BMBC in connection with its offer and sale of $30 million of subordinated notes on August 6, 2015. Sandler O’Neill has advised the RBPI board of directors that it may provide, and receive compensation for, investment banking services to BMBC in the future, including during the pendency of the merger. In addition, in the ordinary course of Sandler O’Neill’s business as a broker-dealer, Sandler O’Neill may purchase securities from and sell securities to RBPI and BMBC and their respective affiliates. Sandler O’Neill may also actively trade the equity and debt securities of RBPI and BMBC or their respective affiliates for its own account and for the accounts of its customers.

In connection with Sandler O'Neill providing its opinion regarding the fairness of the exchange ratios for the RBPI Class A Stock and RBPI Class B Stock from a financial point of view, RBPI provided Sandler O'Neill with internal financial projections for RBPI for the year ending December 31, 2017 and estimated net income and balance sheet growth rates.

A summary of the projected year-end assets and results of operations of RBPI as set forth in the projections provided by RBPI to Sandler O'Neill is set forth below for the sole purpose of describing the projections Sandler O'Neill received. The inclusion of the summary in this document should not be interpreted as an indication that RBPI considers this information to be a reliable prediction of its future results of operations, and this information should not be relied upon for that purpose or for any other purpose. Additionally, it should be noted that the net income projection shown below excludes any potential tax benefit that might result from a further reversal of the valuation allowance for deferred tax assets.

	For the Year Ending December 31, 2017
Dollars in thousands ($000)
Total assets	$ 874,608
Net interest income	$ 28,458
Provision for loan losses	$ 2,010
Net Income	$ 6,974

The RBPI projections that are summarized above were not prepared for the purpose, or with any expectation, of public disclosure, nor were they intended to comply with the guidelines for financial forecasts established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants or any other established guidelines regarding projections or forecasts. In addition, they were not reviewed or compiled by any accounting firm or Sandler O'Neill, either in connection with their preparation or for the purpose of providing any opinion with respect thereto. The report of the independent registered public accounting firm of RBPI included in this document relates solely to the historical financial information of RBPI as referred to therein. Such report does not extend to the above summary of the RBPI projections and should not be read as doing so.

The internal financial projections for RBPI for the year ending December 31, 2017 and estimated net income and balance sheet growth rates provided by the management of RBPI in or underlying Sandler O'Neill's analyses, are not necessarily indicative of actual values or actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those estimates or those suggested by Sandler O'Neill's analyses. While presented with numeric specificity, the unaudited prospective financial information reflects numerous estimates and assumptions made with respect to business, economic, market, competition, regulatory and financial conditions and matters specific to RBPI's business, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond RBPI's control.

Sandler O'Neill's analyses were prepared solely as part of Sandler O'Neill's analysis of the fairness of the exchange ratios for RBPI Class A Stock and RBPI Class B Stock from a financial point of view provided for in the merger and were provided to RBPI in connection with the delivery of Sander O'Neill's opinion. The analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which a company might actually be sold or the prices at which any securities have traded or may trade at any time in the future. Accordingly, the estimates used in, and the ranges of valuations resulting from, any particular analysis described above are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty and should not be taken to be Sandler O'Neill's view of the actual value of RBPI.

Interests of RBPI's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the RBPI board that you vote to approve the merger, you should be aware that RBPI's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, those of RBPI's shareholders generally. The RBPI board was aware of and considered those interests, among other matters, in reaching its decisions to (i) approve the merger and (ii) resolve to recommend the approval of the merger to RBPI shareholders. See the section entitled "The Merger -- Background of the Merger" and the section entitled "The Merger -- Recommendation of the RBPI Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page 42 and page 45 of this proxy statement/prospectus, respectively. RBPI's shareholders should take these interests into account in deciding whether to vote "FOR" the proposal to approve the merger. These interests are described in more detail below, and certain of them are quantified in the narrative below and, for the named executive officers, in the tables included in the section entitled "The Merger -- Merger-Related Compensation for RBPI's Named Executive Officers," including the footnotes to the table.

In considering the recommendation of the RBPI board of directors that you vote to approve the merger agreement, RBPI shareholders should be aware that RBPI's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, those of RBPI shareholders generally. The RBPI board was aware of and considered those interests, among other matters, in reaching its decisions to (1) approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and (2) resolve to recommend the approval of the merger agreement to RBPI shareholders. RBPI's shareholders should take these interests into account in deciding whether to vote "FOR" the proposal to approve the merger agreement and whether to vote "FOR" the proposal to approve, by advisory (non-binding) vote, certain compensation arrangements for RBPI's named executive officers in connection with the merger. These interests are described in more detail below, and certain of them are quantified in the narrative below and the table below.

Employment Agreement between F. Kevin Tylus and RBPI

RBPI previously entered into an employment agreement with F. Kevin Tylus, President and Chief Executive Officer of RBPI and Royal Bank, which provides for a lump-sum cash payment upon termination of his employment without cause or his resignation for good reason, in each case during the term of Mr. Tylus' employment agreement and in connection with a change in control of RBPI, equal to three times his annual salary. Mr. Tylus's employment agreement also includes noncompetition and nonsolicitation provisions.

In connection with the merger agreement, BMT entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Tylus, which provides that Mr. Tylus will be employed as Managing Director of New Markets for BMT. Mr. Tylus will receive an annual salary of $100,000 and the opportunity to qualify for incentive or bonus awards.

Non-Solicitation and Change in Control Agreements between Executive Officers and RBPI

RBPI previously entered into non-solicitation and change in control agreements with its named executive officers, Michael S. Thompson, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of RBPI and Royal Bank, Mark W. Biedermann, Executive Vice President and Chief Lending Officer of Royal Bank, and Lars B. Eller, Executive Vice President and Chief Retail Officer of Royal Bank, that provide for a lump-sum cash payment in the event of a termination of employment by RBPI without cause or a resignation by the executive for good reason within one year after a change in control. The lump-sum payment is equal to two times the executive officer's highest base salary for the three most recent calendar years preceding the change in control.

Noncompetition and Nonsolicitation Agreements with BMT

In connection with RBPI's entry into the merger agreement with BMBC, Messrs. Thompson, Biedermann, and Eller entered into noncompetition and nonsolicitation agreements with BMT that will be effective as of the effective time of the merger. Under these agreements, such officers agree (1) not to engage in certain competitive activities with respect to BMT in any county in which a branch location, office, loan production office, or trust or asset and wealth management office of BMT or any of its subsidiaries are located, (2) not to solicit or provide services to customers of BMT or any of its affiliates, and (3) not to solicit for employment any employees of BMT or any of its affiliates. The restrictions contained in the noncompetition and nonsolicitation agreements apply during such officers' employment with BMT and will expire after a specified period following the effective time of the merger. In consideration of the covenants included in the noncompetition and nonsolicitation agreements, BMT will pay cash consideration in an amount to be determined to each of such officers within fifteen days of the effective time of the merger.

Treatment of RBPI Equity Awards

Treatment of Stock Options. At the effective time, each RBPI stock option will fully vest and be converted into the right to receive cash equal to the amount by which $4.19 exceeds the exercise price per share of the RBPI stock option multiplied by the number of shares of RBPI common stock previously subject to such RBPI stock option, without interest. From and after the effective time, any RBPI stock option so converted will be cancelled and no longer exercisable by the former holder.

Treatment of Restricted Stock Awards. At the effective time, each RBPI restricted stock award will fully vest and be converted into the right to receive, without interest, the merger consideration payable under the merger agreement.

Quantification of Value of Unvested Equity Awards. For an estimate of the value to be received by each of RBPI's named executive officers in respect of their unvested RBPI equity awards outstanding as of the date hereof, assuming all such awards vested at the effective time, see "Merger Related Compensation for RBPI's Named Executive Officers" below. None of the options held by RBPI's eight non-employee directors have an exercise price below $4.14 per share. The estimated aggregate value that such non-employee directors would receive for their unvested shares of RBPI restricted stock outstanding as of the date hereof assuming all such awards vested at the effective time of the merger is $0.00.

Indemnification; Directors' and Officers' Insurance

The merger agreement provides that for a period of six years after the effective time, BMBC will indemnify and hold harmless all present and former directors, officers and employees of RBPI and its subsidiaries against all costs and liabilities arising out of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, or employee of RBPI or any of its subsidiaries and pertaining to matters, actions, or omissions existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, and will also advance expenses to such persons to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, provided such person provides an undertaking to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to indemnification.

The merger agreement also requires BMBC to maintain, for a period of six years after the completion of the merger, RBPI's existing directors' and officers' liability insurance policy, or policies with a substantially comparable insurer of at least the same coverage and amounts and containing terms and conditions that are no less advantageous to the insured, with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred at or prior to the completion of the merger. However, BMBC will not be required to spend annually in the aggregate an amount in excess of 150% of the annual premium currently paid by RBPI under its current policy. For additional information see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Indemnification and Insurance” beginning on page 81 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Merger-Related Compensation for RBPI’s Named Executive Officers

This section sets forth the information required by Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K of the SEC rules regarding the compensation for each named executive officer of RBPI that is based on or otherwise relates to the merger. This compensation is referred to as “golden parachute” compensation by the applicable SEC disclosure rules. Additional information regarding these payments and benefits is also summarized in the section entitled “The Merger -- Interests of RBPI’s Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger” beginning on page 60 of this proxy statement/prospectus, which information is incorporated by reference into this section.

Quantification of Payments and Benefits to RBPI’s Named Executive Officers

The information set forth in the table below is intended to comply with SEC rules that require disclosure of information about certain compensation for each named executive officer of RBPI that is based on, or otherwise relates to, the merger (which we refer to as “merger-related compensation”).

As described above in Interests of RBPI’s Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger -- Employment Agreement between F. Kevin Tylus and RBPI, F. Kevin Tylus, President and Chief Executive Officer of RBPI, has entered into an employment agreement with BMBC that will become effective upon the effective time of the merger. The merger-related compensation described below payable by RBPI is based on the existing agreements between RBPI and each officer upon the occurrence of certain events following the effective time of the merger.

The table below sets forth the amount of payments and benefits that each of RBPI's named executive officers would receive in connection with the merger, based on multiple assumptions that may or may not actually occur or be accurate on the relevant date, including the assumptions described below and in the footnotes to the table. The table also reflects the vesting of certain equity awards held by the named executive officers as a result of the merger that otherwise would not vest in accordance with their terms prior to the effective time, and does not reflect certain compensation actions that may occur before the effective time. For purposes of calculating such amounts, in addition to the assumptions described in the footnotes to the table below, the following assumptions were used:

- the amounts below are determined using a price per share of BMBC common stock of $40.61, the average closing price per share over the first five business days following the announcement of the merger agreement; and
- the effective time of the merger is assumed to occur on July 1, 2017 solely for purposes of the disclosure in this section, and each named executive officer is assumed to experience a qualifying termination on such date.

Name	Cash ($) (1)	Equity ($) (2)	Perquisites/ Benefits ($)	Tax Reimbursement ($)	Total ($)
F. Kevin Tylus	$ 1,351,875	$ 19,668	—	—	$ 1,371,543
Michael S. Thompson	$ 440,000	$ 7,868	—	—	$ 447,868
Mark W. Biedermann	$ 463,500	$ 124,731	—	—	$ 588,231
Lars B. Eller	$ 448,800	$ 7,868	—	—	$ 456,668

- (1) Cash. The employment agreements or change in control agreements between RBPI and each named executive provide for a lump-sum cash payment upon consummation of a change in control of RBPI equal to two times his base salary at the highest annual amount during the prior three calendar years (for Mr. Tylus, the payment is equal to three times his current base salary).

Under the employment agreements or change in control agreements with each of the named executive officers, cash payments would be made in the event that the executive's employment were terminated without "cause" or the executive resigned for some specified event of "good reason" following the effective time of the merger (a so-called "double trigger" arrangement).

- (2) Equity. As described above, all unvested equity-based awards held by RBPI's named executive officers will become vested at the effective time of the merger (i.e., "single-trigger" vesting). Restricted stock awards will be settled for the merger consideration and stock options will be cashed out at a price equal to $4.19 less the option exercise price multiplied by the number of options held. Set forth below are the values of each type of equity-based award outstanding as of the date hereof that would become vested upon the effective time, based on a price per share of BMBC common stock of $40.61, the average closing price per share over the first five business days following the announcement of the merger agreement.

Name	Stock Options ($)	Restricted Stock ($)

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger and the Bank Merger

Completion of the merger between BMBC and RBPI and the bank merger between BMT and Royal Bank are each subject to several federal and state regulatory agency filings and approvals. The merger and the bank merger cannot be completed unless and until BMBC and RBPI, on the one hand, and BMT and Royal Bank, on the other hand, have received all necessary prior approvals, waivers or exemptions from the applicable bank regulatory authorities and any applicable waiting periods have expired. We cannot predict whether or when BMBC and RBPI and their bank subsidiaries will obtain the required regulatory approvals, waivers or exemptions necessary for the merger of RBPI with and into BMBC and the merger of Royal Bank with and into BMT.

Federal Reserve Board. BMBC and RBPI are both registered under the BHCA. As a result, the merger of RBPI with and into BMBC is subject to prior approval of the Federal Reserve Board under the BHCA, unless an exemption from the prior approval requirement is available. We intend to apply for a waiver from the prior approval requirement pursuant to Section 12 of the Federal Reserve Board's Regulation Y.

The merger of Royal Bank with and into BMT is also subject to the prior approval of the Federal Reserve Board under the Bank Merger Act. BMT and Royal Bank plan to file their Bank Merger Act Application for approval of the bank merger with the Federal Reserve Board during the second quarter of 2017. In reviewing applications under the Bank Merger Act, the Federal Reserve Board must consider, among other factors: the financial and managerial resources (including consideration of the competence, experience and integrity of the officers, directors and principal shareholders) and future prospects of the existing and proposed institutions; the convenience and needs of the communities to be served; safety and soundness considerations; the capital adequacy of the combined bank after the merger; and the effectiveness of both institutions in combating money laundering; and the extent to which the proposal would result in greater or more concentrated risks to the stability of the United States banking or financial system. In addition, the Federal Reserve Board may not approve a merger:

that will result in a monopoly or be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the United States;

if the effect of the merger in any section of the country may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly; or if the merger would in any other manner be a restraint of trade unless the Federal Reserve Board finds that the anticompetitive effects of the merger are clearly outweighed by the public interest and the probable effect of the merger in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served.

Under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, the Federal Reserve Board must also take into account the records of performance of Royal Bank and BMT in meeting the credit needs of their respective markets, including low and moderate income neighborhoods served by each institution and the bank's credit practices under the federal fair lending laws. As part of the merger review process, the Federal Reserve Board may receive comments from community groups and others as to their views on the propriety of the proposed merger. Royal Bank and BMT each received a "Satisfactory" rating in their most recent CRA evaluations.

The Federal Reserve Board is also authorized to, but generally does not, hold a public hearing or meeting in connection with an application under the Bank Merger Act. A decision by the Federal Reserve Board that such a hearing or meeting would be appropriate regarding any application could prolong the period during which the application is subject to review.

Mergers approved by the Federal Reserve Board under the Bank Merger Act, with certain exceptions, may not be consummated until 30 days after the date of approval, during which time the U.S. Department of Justice may challenge the merger on antitrust grounds and may require the divestiture of certain assets and liabilities. With approval of the Federal Reserve Board and the Department of Justice, that waiting period may be, and customarily is, reduced to no less than 15 days. There can be no assurance that the Department of Justice will not challenge the merger or, if such a challenge is made, that the result of that challenge will be favorable to BMBC and RBPI.

Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities. The merger of RBPI with and into BMBC is subject to the prior approval of the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities under Section 115 of the Pennsylvania Banking Code of 1965 relating to business combinations involving the holding company of a Pennsylvania-chartered bank. Additionally, the merger of Royal Bank with and into BMT is subject to the prior approval of the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities under Chapter 16 of the Pennsylvania Banking Code of 1965. Generally, in determining whether to approve the bank merger, the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities considers the same factors that are considered by the Federal Reserve Board under the Bank Merger Act. BMBC expects to file its applications for approval of the merger between BMBC and RBPI, and the bank merger between MBMT and Royal Bank with the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities during the second quarter of 2017.

Other Regulatory Submissions or Approvals. Notices and/or applications requesting approval may be submitted to other federal and state regulatory authorities and self-regulatory organizations.

There can be no assurance that the regulatory authorities described above will approve the merger of RBPI with and into BMBC or the bank merger, and even if those mergers are approved, there can be no assurance as to the date on which the approvals will be received. The mergers cannot proceed unless all required regulatory approvals have been received. See “The Merger Agreement -- Conditions to Completion of the Merger” and “The Merger Agreement -- Termination of the Merger Agreement.”

The approval of a merger application by a regulatory authority only means that the regulatory criteria for approval have been satisfied. The process of obtaining regulatory approval would not include a review of the adequacy of the merger consideration. Further, regulatory approvals do not constitute an endorsement or recommendation of the merger.

Public Trading Markets

BMBC common stock is listed on NASDAQ under the symbol “BMTC.” RBPI Class A Stock is traded on NASDAQ under the symbol “RBPAA.” RBPI Class B Stock is not listed on any national securities exchange, such as NYSE or NASDAQ. Upon completion of the merger, RBPI Class A Stock will cease to be traded on NASDAQ, and BMBC as the surviving company in the merger will cause RBPI’s Class A Stock and Class B Stock to be deregistered under the Exchange Act. BMBC will list the BMBC common stock issuable pursuant to the merger agreement on NASDAQ upon receipt of NASDAQ approval and subject to official notice of issuance.

As reported on NASDAQ, the closing price per share of BMBC common stock on January 30, 2017 was $40.35. As reported by NASDAQ, the closing price per share of RBPI Class A Stock on January 30, 2017 was $3.89. Based on

Delisting and Deregistration of RBPI Common Stock Following the Merger

If the merger is completed, RBPI Class A Stock will be delisted from NASDAQ and RBPI Class A Stock and RBPI Class B Stock will be deregistered under the Exchange Act.

RBPI Shareholders Dissenters' Rights or Appraisal Rights

RBPI Class B Stock

Holders of RBPI Class B Stock, under the PBCL have the right to dissent from the merger agreement and obtain the "fair value" of their shares of RBPI Class B Stock in cash as determined by an appraisal process in accordance with the procedures under the PBCL. Following is a summary of the rights of dissenting shareholders. The summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to Appendix D which sets forth the applicable dissenters' rights provisions of Pennsylvania law. If you are considering exercising your dissenters' rights, you should read carefully the summary below and the full text of the law set forth in Appendix D.

In the discussion of dissenters' rights, the term "fair value" means the value of a share of RBPI Class B Stock immediately before the day of the effective date of the merger, taking into account all relevant factors, but excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the merger.

Before the effective date of the merger, holders of RBPI Class B Stock who wish to exercise dissenters' rights must send written notice of their intent to exercise dissenters' rights to Royal Bancshares of Pennsylvania, Inc., One Bala Plaza, Suite 522, 231 St. Asaph's Road, Bala Cynwyd, PA 19004 (Attn: Michael Thompson). After the effective date of the merger, any correspondence relating to the exercise of dissenters' rights should be sent to Bryn Mawr Bank Corporation, 801 Lancaster Avenue, Bryn Mawr PA 19010 (Attn: Lori A. Goldman).

Notice of Intention to Dissent

If you wish to dissent from the merger, you must do the following:

prior to the vote on the merger agreement by RBPI shareholders at the RBPI special meeting, file with RBPI a written notice of your intention to demand payment of the fair value of your shares of RBPI Class B Stock if the merger with BMBC is completed; make no change in your beneficial ownership of RBPI Class B Stock from the date you give notice of your intention to demand fair value of your shares of RBPI Class B Stock through the day of the merger; and not vote your RBPI Class B Stock to adopt the merger agreement at the special meeting.

Simply providing a proxy against or voting against the proposed merger at the special meeting of shareholders will not constitute notice of your intention to dissent. Further, if you submit a proxy but do not indicate how you wish to vote, you will be deemed to have voted in favor of the merger and your right to dissent will be lost.

Notice to Demand Payment

If the merger is adopted by the required vote of RBPI shareholders, RBPI and BMBC will mail a notice to all those dissenting shareholders who gave due notice of their intention to demand payment of the fair value of their shares and who did not vote to adopt the merger agreement. The notice will state where and when dissenting RBPI shareholders must deliver a written demand for payment and where such dissenting shareholder must deposit certificates for RBPI Class B Stock in order to obtain payment. The notice will include a form for demanding payment and a copy of the relevant provisions of Pennsylvania law. The time set for receipt of the demand for payment and deposit of stock certificates will be not less than 30 days from the date of mailing of the notice.

Failure to Comply with Required Steps to Dissent

You must take each step in the indicated order and in strict compliance with Pennsylvania law in order to maintain your dissenters' rights. If you fail to follow these steps, you will lose the right to dissent and you will receive the same merger consideration as those RBPI shareholders who do not dissent.

Payment of Fair Value of Shares

Promptly after the effective date of the merger, or upon timely receipt of demand for payment if the closing of the merger has already taken place, BMBC will send each dissenting shareholder who has deposited his, her or its stock certificates, the amount that BMBC estimates to be the fair value of the RBPI Class B Stock held by such dissenting shareholder. The remittance or notice will be accompanied by:

a closing balance sheet and statement of income of RBPI for the fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of remittance or notice, together with the latest available interim financial statements; a statement of BMBC's estimate of the fair value of RBPI Class B Stock; and a notice of the right of the dissenting shareholder to demand supplemental payment, accompanied by a copy of the relevant provisions of Pennsylvania law.

Table of Contents

Estimate by Dissenting Shareholder of Fair Value of Shares

If a dissenting shareholder believes that the amount stated or remitted by BMBC is less than the fair value of the RBPI Class B Stock, the dissenting shareholder must send its estimate of the fair value (deemed a demand for the deficiency) of the RBPI Class B Stock to BMBC within 30 days after BMBC mails its remittance. If the dissenting shareholder does not file its estimated fair value within 30 days after the mailing by BMBC of its remittance, the dissenting shareholder will be entitled to no more than the amount remitted by BMBC.

Valuation Proceedings

If any demands for payment remain unsettled within 60 days after the latest to occur of:

the effective date of the merger; timely receipt by RBPI or BMBC, as the case may be, of any demands for payment; or timely receipt by RBPI or BMBC, as the case may be, of any estimates by dissenters' of the fair value, then, BMBC may file an application, in the Court of Common Pleas of Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, requesting that the court determine the fair value of the RBPI Class B Stock. If this happens, all dissenting shareholders whose demands have not been settled, no matter where they reside, will become parties to the proceeding. In addition, a copy of the application will be delivered to each dissenting shareholder.

If BMBC were to fail to file the application, then any dissenting shareholder, on behalf of all dissenting shareholders who have made a demand and who have not settled their claim against BMBC, may file an application in the name of BMBC at any time within the 30-day period after the expiration of the 60-day period and request that the Montgomery County Court of Common Pleas determine the fair value of the shares. The fair value determined by the Montgomery County Court of Common Pleas may, but need not, equal the dissenting shareholders' estimates of fair value. If no dissenter files an application, then each dissenting shareholder entitled to do so shall be paid no more than BMBC's estimate of the fair value of the RBPI Class B Stock, and may bring an action to recover any amount not previously remitted, plus interest at a rate the Montgomery County Court of Common Pleas finds fair and equitable.

BMBC intends to negotiate in good faith with any dissenting shareholder. If, after negotiation, a claim cannot be settled, then BMBC will file an application requesting that the fair value of the RBPI Class B Stock be determined by the Montgomery County Court of Common Pleas.

Cost and Expenses

The costs and expenses of any valuation proceedings performed by the Montgomery County Court of Common Pleas, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of any appraiser appointed by such court to recommend a decision on the issue of fair value, will be determined by such court and assessed against BMBC, except that any part of the costs and expenses may be apportioned and assessed by such court against any or all of the dissenting shareholders who are parties and whose action in demanding supplemental payment is dilatory, obdurate, arbitrary, vexatious or in bad faith, in the opinion of such court.

Table of Contents

Holders of RBPI Class B Stock wishing to exercise their dissenters' rights should consult their own counsel to ensure that they fully and properly comply with applicable requirements.

RBPI Class A Stock

Dissenters' rights or appraisal rights will not be available to holders of RBPI Class A Stock in connection with the merger.

Under the PBCL, which is the statutory corporation law under which RBPI is incorporated, holders of RBPI Class A Stock will not be entitled to any appraisal rights or dissenters' rights in connection with the merger because, on the RBPI record date, RBPI Class A Stock was listed on NASDAQ, a national securities exchange.

Litigation Related to the Merger

In connection with the proposed merger with BMBC, RBPI has received a letter from attorneys representing a purported shareholder, demanding that the RBPI board investigate alleged breaches of fiduciary duty in connection with the merger. The letter asserts that the proposed transaction undervalues RBPI and that RBPI's directors breached their fiduciary duties by entering into the merger agreement, which contains provisions that constrain the board's ability to negotiate with other potential buyers and dissuade other potential buyers from submitting alternative proposals. The letter requests that RBPI's board investigate the alleged breaches of fiduciary duty and commence legal action against the individual members of the board.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following section is a summary of the material provisions of the merger agreement. The following description of the merger agreement is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the merger agreement, which we include as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus and incorporate by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. This summary may not contain all of the information about the merger agreement that may be important to you. We encourage you to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety.

Explanatory Note Regarding the Merger Agreement

This summary and the copy of the merger agreement attached to this document as Appendix A are included solely to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the merger agreement. The merger agreement contains representations and warranties by BMBC and RBPI, which were made to the other contracting party only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates. The representations, warranties and covenants in the merger agreement may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the merger agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those generally applicable to investors. For the foregoing reasons, the representations, warranties and covenants, and any descriptions of those provisions, should not be relied on by any persons as characterizations of the actual state of facts about RBPI or BMBC at the time they were made or otherwise. They should be read in conjunction with the other information contained in the reports, statements and filings that BMBC and RBPI publicly file with the SEC. For more information regarding these documents, see the section entitled “Where You Can Find More Information” on page 104.

The Merger and the Bank Merger

The merger agreement provides for the merger of RBPI with and into BMBC. The parties will take the necessary steps to complete the merger once the conditions in the merger agreement are satisfied. Upon completion of the merger, BMBC will be the surviving corporation and the separate corporate existence of RBPI will cease.

The merger agreement provides that BMBC may at any time change the structure of the merger, unless the change would do any of the following:

alter or change the amount or kind of merger consideration to be provided to the RBPI common shareholders, adversely affect the U.S. federal income tax consequences to RBPI common shareholders, or impede or delay consummation of the merger or otherwise adversely affect RBPI or the RBPI common shareholders in any material respect.

As soon as practicable after the merger of RBPI into BMBC is completed, Royal Bank will merge with and into BMT. BMT will be the surviving entity in the merger and continue its existence as a Pennsylvania chartered bank, and Royal Bank's separate existence will cease.

Merger Consideration

Treatment of RBPI common stock

At the time BMBC and RBPI entered into the merger agreement, RBPI had two classes of common stock outstanding: RBPI Class A Stock and RBPI Class B Stock (collectively, the "RBPI common stock"). The merger consideration payable by BMBC in exchange for each class of common stock is described below.

RBPI Class A Stock. At the time the merger is completed, each share of RBPI Class A Stock that was issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will automatically be converted into the right to receive 0.1025 shares of BMBC common stock (the "RBPI Class A Exchange Ratio") and cash in lieu of any fractional share of BMBC common stock. In other words, each holder of RBPI Class A Stock will have the right to receive 0.1025 shares of BMBC common stock in exchange for each share of RBPI Class A Stock that he or she owns.

RBPI Class B Stock. At the time the merger is completed, each share of RBPI Class B Stock that was issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will automatically be converted into the right to receive 0.1179 shares of BMBC common stock (the “RBPI Class B Exchange Ratio” and together with the RBPI Class A Exchange Ratio, the “Exchange Ratios”) and cash in lieu of any fractional shares of BMBC common stock. In other words, each holder of RBPI Class B Stock will have the right to receive 0.1179 shares of BMBC common stock in exchange for each share of RBPI Class B Stock that he or she owns.

Treasury Shares. Any shares of RBPI common stock that RBPI holds as treasury shares and any shares of RBPI common stock held by BMBC (other than shares held in a fiduciary capacity or as a result of debts previously contracted) will not be converted into merger consideration and will be cancelled without receipt of any consideration.

If BMBC makes a change in its capitalization before the merger is completed, then BMBC will make proportionate adjustments to the Exchange Ratios to give RBPI shareholders the same economic effect as contemplated by the merger agreement prior to such change. Examples of changes in the capitalization of BMBC that would trigger an adjustment are:

a stock dividend or distribution on BMBC common stock with a record date prior to the effective time of the merger;
and stock splits and reverse stock splits involving BMBC common stock.

BMBC will not issue any fractional shares of BMBC common stock in the merger. For each fractional share that RBPI shareholders would otherwise have the right to receive, BMBC will pay an amount in cash, without interest, rounded to the nearest cent, that will be calculated by multiplying (1) the fractional share issuable to that shareholder and (2) the average closing price of BMBC common stock for the 5 consecutive trading-day period immediately preceding the fifth calendar day prior to the closing date of the merger. RBPI shareholders will not have the right to receive dividends or other rights with respect to those fractional shares.

Treatment of RBPI Equity Awards and Warrants

Stock Options. Upon completion of the merger, each outstanding option to purchase shares of RBPI Class A Stock pursuant to RBPI’s equity-based compensation plans will be cancelled by RBPI in exchange for a cash payment equal to the positive difference, if any, between $4.19 and the corresponding exercise price of such outstanding option. The cancellation of such option will be considered a release of any and all rights the holder of such option had or may have had in respect to such option. As of the date of the merger agreement, there were no outstanding options to purchase shares of RBPI Class B Stock.

Restricted Stock Awards. Upon completion of the merger, each outstanding RBPI restricted stock award will become fully-vested and will be converted into the right to receive, without interest, the same merger consideration as the RBPI Class A Stock (i.e., the shares of RBPI Class A Stock subject to the restricted stock award will be converted into merger consideration in the same manner as the RBPI Class A Stock).

Warrants. Pursuant to the merger agreement, RBPI will diligently attempt to repurchase and retire all warrants to purchase shares of RBPI Class A Stock, as disclosed to BMBC under the merger agreement, prior to the closing date of the merger for an amount mutually acceptable to RBPI and BMBC, after consultation with each other.

Upon completion of the merger, all RBPI warrants which are outstanding and unexercised shall become fully vested and exercisable and be converted, in their entirety, automatically into Continuing Warrants in an amount and at an exercise price determined as follows: (i) The number of shares of BMBC common stock to be subject to the Continuing Warrants shall be equal to the product of the number of shares of RBPI common stock subject to the RBPI warrants, and the applicable exchange ratio; provided that any fractional shares of BMBC common stock resulting from such multiplication shall be rounded down to the nearest share; and (ii) the exercise price per share of BMBC common stock under the Continuing Warrants shall be equal to the exercise price per share of RBPI common stock under the RBPI warrants, as applicable, divided by the applicable exchange ratio; provided that such exercise price shall be rounded up to the nearest cent. The duration and other terms of the Continuing Warrants shall be the same as the RBPI warrants, except all references to RBPI shall instead be references to BMBC.

Effect of Merger on BMBC Stock

The merger will have no effect on BMBC's capital stock. Each share of BMBC capital stock that was issued and outstanding immediately before the merger will remain issued and outstanding after the merger is completed.

Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation

The BMBC articles of incorporation and the BMBC bylaws as in effect immediately prior to the completion of the merger will be the articles of incorporation and the bylaws of the surviving corporation.

Board of Directors and Executive Officers of the Surviving Corporation; BMT Advisory Board

At the time the merger is completed, BMBC will increase the size of its board of directors by one and appoint one current RBPI director, who will be selected by BMBC in its sole discretion, to the BMBC board of directors. The board of directors of the surviving corporation will consist of the BMBC board of directors as increased to include the appointed RBPI director. Additionally, BMT will increase the size of its board of directors by one and appoint one current RBPI director, who will be selected by BMBC in its sole discretion, to the BMT board of directors. The persons who are the executive officers of BMBC immediately before the merger will continue as the executive officers of the surviving corporation.

Additionally, at the time the merger is completed, BMT will form an advisory board comprised of certain members of RBPI's and/or Royal Bank's boards of directors who did not become directors of BMBC and BMT pursuant to the merger agreement and were acting in such capacities immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. Such directors who agree in writing at or prior to the effective time of the merger, will serve on such advisory board immediately following the effective time of the merger.

Closing and Effective Time of the Merger

The closing of the merger will take place within fifteen calendar days after all of the closing conditions specified in the merger agreement have been satisfied or waived, other than those conditions which by their nature must be satisfied at the closing; however, the parties may agree in writing to hold the closing of the merger on another date.

The merger will become effective when filed or at another time specified by BMBC and RBPI in the statement of merger filed with the Pennsylvania Department of State.

Exchange and Payment Procedures

At least two business days prior to the effective date of the merger, BMBC will deposit the merger consideration with its exchange agent, Computershare, Inc., or such other company designated by BMBC, and reasonably acceptable to RBPI. Specifically, the deposit will consist of:

book entry shares representing the shares of BMBC common stock issuable in exchange for the shares of RBPI common stock which will be cancelled in the merger;

cash consideration payable in exchange for each outstanding option to purchase shares of RBPI Class A Stock pursuant to RBPI's equity-based compensation plans; cash in an amount equal to pay any dividends or distributions which are payable to RBPI shareholders under the merger agreement; and cash to be paid to RBPI shareholders in lieu of fractional shares of BMBC common stock.

Table of Contents

Within ten business days after the merger is completed, the exchange agent will mail each holder of record of RBPI common stock a letter of transmittal which will contain instructions for surrendering their stock certificates for the merger consideration. Each holder of a RBPI stock certificate, who surrenders his or her stock certificates to the exchange agent together with properly signed transmittal materials, will be entitled to receive, for each share of RBPI common stock he or she holds:

0.1025 shares of BMBC common stock for each share of RBPI Class A Stock or 0.1179 shares of BMBC common stock for each share of RBPI Class B Stock, as applicable, in book entry form;

cash in lieu of any fractional shares of BMBC common stock to which the holder would otherwise be entitled; and any cash dividends which are payable to former RBPI shareholders according to the merger agreement.

After the completion of the merger, shares of RBPI common stock held in book-entry form automatically will be exchanged for the merger consideration, including shares of BMBC common stock in book-entry form and any cash to be paid in exchange for fractional shares in the merger.

BMBC will have no obligation to issue any merger consideration or cash consideration or any cash in lieu of fractional shares until the former RBPI shareholder has surrendered the stock certificates representing his or her shares of RBPI common stock with properly signed transmittal materials to the exchange agent.

If a RBPI stock certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the exchange agent will issue the BMBC common stock payable under the merger agreement to the shareholder upon receipt of an affidavit by the shareholder regarding the loss of his or her stock certificate. BMBC or the exchange agent may require the shareholder to post a bond in a reasonable amount as indemnity against any claim that may be made against BMBC or the exchange agent with respect to the shareholder's lost, stolen or destroyed RBPI stock certificate.

Former RBPI shareholders may exchange their RBPI stock certificates through the exchange agent for up to 12 months after the completion of the merger. At the end of that period, the exchange agent will return any remaining BMBC shares and cash to BMBC, and former RBPI shareholders who did not previously exchange their RBPI stock certificates for the merger consideration must apply to BMBC for payment of the merger consideration. Neither RBPI nor BMBC will be liable to any former holder of RBPI common stock for any merger consideration that is paid to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

BMBC or the exchange agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from any cash amounts payable to any holder of RBPI common stock the amounts that the exchange agent or BMBC is required to deduct and withhold under the Code or any state, local or foreign tax law or regulation. Any amounts that BMBC or the exchange agent withholds will be treated as having been paid to such the holder of the RBPI common stock.

Once the merger is completed, no transfers on the stock transfer books of RBPI will be permitted other than to settle transfers of shares of RBPI common stock that occurred prior to the effective time of the merger.

Dividends and Distributions

Upon surrender of their RBPI stock certificates to the exchange agent, former RBPI shareholders will be paid, without interest:

any dividends or distributions that were declared by RBPI on its common stock with a record date prior to the date on which the merger was completed, and that remained unpaid at the time the merger was completed; and any dividends or distributions that were declared on the BMBC common stock with a record date after the date on which the merger was completed, and that became payable before the date of surrender.

Shares of RBPI common stock held in book-entry form will be automatically exchanged for shares of BMBC common stock and cash in lieu of any fractional share of BMBC common stock.

While the merger is pending, RBPI may not pay any dividends on its common stock, except for payments from (i) Royal Bank to RBPI, (ii) any subsidiary of Royal Bank to Royal Bank or (iii) Royal Investments of Delaware, Inc. to RBPI.

Representations and Warranties

The merger agreement contains generally reciprocal and customary representations and warranties of BMBC and RBPI relating to their respective businesses. The representations and warranties of RBPI and BMBC are subject, in some cases, to exceptions and qualifications contained in the merger agreement and the matters contained in the disclosure schedules that RBPI and BMBC delivered to each other at the time they entered into the merger agreement. The representations and warranties in the merger agreement only remain in effect until the merger is completed.

A summary of the matters which each of RBPI and BMBC covered in its representations and warranties is provided below.

corporate matters, such as its organization and existence, its corporate power and authority to conduct their businesses, and its subsidiaries;

its capitalization;

its corporate power and authority to enter into and perform the merger agreement; that entering into the merger agreement and completing the merger will not cause a violation of its organizational documents or applicable laws, a breach of contract or acceleration of indebtedness;

the governmental filings and consents, authorizations, approvals and exemptions that are required to be completed or obtained in order to enter into the merger agreement and complete the merger;

BMBC made additional representations and warranties regarding ownership of shares of RBPI common stock by BMBC and its affiliates or associates (as those terms are defined under the Exchange Act) and the non-applicability of provisions relating to “interested shareholders” under the PBCL.

Certain representations and warranties of BMBC and RBPI are qualified as to “materiality” or “material adverse effect.” A “material adverse effect,” when used in reference to BMBC or RBPI, means any circumstance, development, change or effect that (1) is, or would reasonably be expected to be, materially adverse to the business, results of operations or financial condition of that party and its subsidiaries taken as a whole, or (2) does, or would reasonably be expected to, materially impair the ability of that party to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, on a timely basis or materially impede the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

In determining whether a material adverse effect has occurred with respect to the business, results of operations or financial condition of a party and its subsidiaries, the parties will disregard any effects resulting from:

changes in U.S. generally accepted accounting principles or regulatory accounting requirements applicable to banks or bank holding companies generally;

changes in laws, rules or regulations affecting banks or bank holding companies generally, or their interpretation by courts or any governmental entity; actions or omissions taken by either party with the prior written consent of the other party;

the announcement or public disclosure of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and compliance with the merger agreement on the business, financial condition or results of operations of the parties and their subsidiaries in consummating the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including related expenses;

changes in national or international political or social conditions, including engagement by the U.S. in hostilities, whether or not pursuant to the declaration of a national emergency or war, or the occurrence of any military or terrorist attack upon or within the U.S.;

economic, financial market or geographic conditions affecting banks or bank holding companies generally and not disproportionately affecting the parties and their subsidiaries as compared to similarly situated banks and bank holding companies, including changes in interest rates; and any action taken at the direction of any federal or state bank regulator, or in compliance with or in furtherance of any agreement with a federal or state bank regulator, and the direct costs, consequences, or effects thereof.

Conduct of Business While the Merger is Pending

BMBC and RBPI agreed to generally customary covenants that place restrictions on them and their respective subsidiaries until the merger is completed. For example, BMBC and RBPI each agreed to:

refrain from taking any actions that may adversely affect its ability to perform its covenants and agreements under the merger agreement; and refrain from taking any action that would adversely affect either party's ability to obtain the regulatory approvals needed to complete the merger or increase the time necessary to obtain such approvals.

RBPI also agreed to provide BMBC with regular updates and certain other information about its lending operations.

RBPI further agreed that RBPI and its subsidiaries would refrain from taking certain actions while the merger is pending, unless permitted by the merger agreement or BMBC has consented in advance (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed). For example, RBPI and its subsidiaries will not:

make, declare, pay or set aside for payment of dividends payable in cash, stock or property, or declare or make any distribution on any shares of its capital stock, except for payments from (1) Royal Bank to RBPI or from any subsidiary of Royal Bank to Royal Bank, or (2) Royal Investments of Delaware, Inc. to RBPI;

issue, sell, grant, dispose of, encumber or otherwise permit to become outstanding, or authorize the creation of, any additional shares of its capital stock, any rights related to its capital stock, any award or grant under its benefit plans or otherwise, or any other securities of RBPI or any of its subsidiaries, except as provided for under the merger agreement;

accelerate the vesting of any existing warrants, options, rights, convertible securities, stock appreciation rights or other arrangements which obligate RBPI to issue or dispose of its capital stock or other ownership interests, or which provide for compensation based on equity appreciation of its capital stock, except as provided for under the merger agreement;

(1) pay, loan or advance any amount to, (2) sell, transfer or lease any assets or properties to, (3) buy, acquire or lease any properties or assets from, or (4) enter into, renew, extend or modify any agreement or arrangement with any of its officers, directors or holders of RBPI Class B Stock, or any of their respective immediate family members, affiliates or associates, except in the ordinary course of business, pursuant to such persons' employment or service as a director with RBPI or its subsidiaries or deposits held by Royal Bank in the ordinary course of business;

implement or adopt any change in its accounting principles, practices or methods, except as may be required by applicable law, U.S. generally accepted accounting principles or applicable regulatory accounting requirements;

enter into, amend, modify, extend or waive any material provision of RBPI's material contracts, leases or insurance policies, or make any change in any instrument or agreement governing the terms of its securities, except for normal renewals pursuant to such agreements, provided that such renewals may not impose a material adverse change on the terms of such agreements; enter into any contract (1) that would constitute a material contract under the merger agreement, (2) for over $25,000, or (3) that has a term of more than one year;

incur any capital or other discretionary expenditure in excess of $25,000 individually or $50,000 in the aggregate, except as set forth in any of RBPI's material contracts or leases;

acquire, sell or otherwise dispose of any debt security or equity investment or any certificates of deposits issued by other banks, except (1) by way of foreclosures, deficiency, judgment settlements or acquisitions in a bona fide fiduciary capacity or (2) in satisfaction of debts previously contract for in good faith;

change the classification method for any of the RBPI investment securities from “held to maturity” to “available for sale” or from “available for sale” to “held to maturity”, as those terms are used in ASC 320, except for certain securities under the merger agreement;

enter into, amend, renew or take any action that would give rise to or accelerate a right of payment under any employment, consulting, severance or similar agreements or arrangements with any director, officer or employee of RBPI or its subsidiaries, or grant any fee, wage or salary increase or increase any employee benefit or pay any incentive or bonus payments, except as provided for under the merger agreement, such as the following:

RBPI may make normal increases in the base salaries of its employees in the ordinary course of business and pursuant to any policies currently in effect, provided that, such increases will not result in an annual adjustment in base compensation (which includes base salary and any other compensation other than bonus payments) of more than 3% for any individual;

make any increases to deposit pricing for deposit products, except for certificates of deposit and increases at a rate consistent with, but not greater than, the average increase in the then-current average rate paid by the following banks in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, as provided by BMT on at least a weekly basis: BMT, Beneficial Bank, Firsttrust Bank and Uninvest;

make any increases to deposit pricing for certificates of deposit in excess of 20 basis points above RBPI’s rates for such products in effect on the date of the merger agreement;

make, renew, renegotiate, increase, extend or modify loans which exceed specified dollar thresholds and have characteristics described in the merger agreement;

make any material investment or commitment to invest in real estate or in any real estate development project other than by way of foreclosure or deed in lieu or make any investment or commitment to develop, or otherwise take any actions to develop any real estate owned by RBPI or its subsidiaries, except for loans or extensions of credit made in compliance with the merger agreement or as required by any material contracts or leases;

except as required by law, make or change any tax election, file any material amended tax return, enter into any closing agreement with respect to taxes, settle or compromise any liability with respect to taxes, agree to any adjustment of any tax attribute, file any claim for a refund of taxes or consent to any extension or waiver of the limitation period applicable to any tax claims or assessment;

commit any act or omission which constitutes a material breach of default by RBPI or its subsidiaries under any agreement with any governmental entity or under any material contract that would reasonably be expected to prevent the satisfaction of any of the closing conditions under the merger agreement;

foreclose on or take a deed or title to any real estate that upon such foreclosure or acceptance of such deed or title will become classified as property acquired by RBPI (1) if an environmental assessment of such property reveals environmental hazards or liabilities on the property or (2) without first conducting an environmental assessment on such property;

knowingly take any action, or fail to take any action, not contemplated by this agreement that is intended or is reasonably likely to (1) make any or the representations and warranties of RBPI or Royal Bank under the merger agreement untrue on any date following the date of the merger agreement, (2) prevent, delay or impair RBPI's ability to consummate the transactions contemplated under the merger agreement, or (3) prevent the merger of RBPI with and into BMBC or the merger of Royal Bank with and into BMT from qualifying as a reorganization under the Code;

except as a result of foreclosure or deficiency judgment settlement, directly or indirectly repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any shares of its capital stock or any securities convertible into or exercisable for any shares of its capital stock; compromise, resolve, or otherwise “workout” any delinquent or troubled loan unless any such loan workout is done in the ordinary course of business; and agree to take, make any commitment to take or adopt any board of directors’ resolutions in support of any of the prohibited actions listed in the merger agreement.

BMBC also agreed that while the merger is pending, it will not take or permit its subsidiaries to take certain actions, unless permitted by the merger agreement or RBPI has consented in advance (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed). For example, BMBC and its subsidiaries will not:

take any action that would, or would be reasonably likely to, result in its representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement to not be true and correct on the date of the merger agreement or at any time prior to the closing date of the merger agreement.

Regulatory Matters

BMBC agreed to prepare and file with the SEC, as soon as practicable after the date of the merger agreement, a registration statement on Form S-4, of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part. RBPI will prepare and furnish any information about itself and its directors, officers and shareholders to BMBC, as BMBC may reasonably request, to include in the registration statement. BMBC and RBPI will use their commercially reasonable efforts to have the registration statement declared effective under the Securities Act. RBPI will promptly mail the proxy statement/prospectus to their respective shareholders once the registration statement is declared effective.

BMBC and RBPI agreed to cooperate with each other and use all reasonable efforts to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation to effect all necessary filings as soon as practicable after the date of the merger agreement, and to obtain all necessary permits, consents, waivers, approvals and authorizations of all third parties, regulatory agencies and governmental entities as may be necessary or advisable to complete the merger.

Each of BMBC and RBPI also agreed to allow the other party to review in advance all information relating to the other party which appears in a filing or other submission made with any regulatory agency or governmental entity in connection with the merger.

Access to Information

BMBC and RBPI each agreed to cause one or more of its representatives to confer with the representatives of the other to report on the general status of the other's ongoing operations at such times and in such manner as the other party may reasonably request. RBPI has agreed to provide BMBC, upon reasonable notice, reasonable access during normal business hours to its books, papers and records relating to its assets, properties, operations, obligations and liabilities in which BMBC may have a reasonable interest. RBPI will also permit BMBC to conduct environmental assessments on RBPI's real property, at BMBC's sole expense and subject to certain restrictions under the merger agreement. RBPI will also regularly provide to BMBC certain financial reports and other information regarding its loan portfolio and business operations, as described in the merger agreement. All information so provided will be subject to the terms of the pre-existing confidentiality agreements between BMBC and RBPI.

Shareholder Approvals

RBPI agreed to hold a special meeting of its shareholders within 45 days following the date on which the registration statement on the Form S-4 becomes effective, subject to extension with the consent of BMBC (not to be unreasonably withheld or conditioned), for the purpose of obtaining the necessary RBPI shareholder vote to approve the adoption of the merger agreement and the merger. In addition, the merger agreement provides that (1) subject to the board's exercise of its fiduciary duties if RBPI receives a superior proposal, RBPI's board of directors will make a recommendation for the RBPI shareholders to approve the adoption of the merger agreement and the merger, (2) the board's recommendation in favor of the merger agreement and the merger will be included in this proxy statement/prospectus, and (3) subject to the board's exercise of its fiduciary duties if RBPI receives a superior proposal, as discussed later in this summary, RBPI will use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the RBPI shareholders' vote in favor of the merger and the merger agreement.

Listing on NASDAQ

BMBC will take all necessary steps to cause the shares of BMBC common stock that will be issued in the merger to be approved for listing on NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the completion of the merger.

Employee Benefit Plans

BMBC will take all reasonable action to entitle each employee of RBPI or any of its subsidiaries who become employees of BMBC or any of its subsidiaries to participate as soon as administratively practicable after the merger is completed in each of BMBC's employee compensation and benefit plans, as generally applicable, to the same extent as similarly situated employees of BMBC and its subsidiaries. BMBC will recognize the length of service credited to each such RBPI employee under any RBPI employee compensation and benefit plans for purposes of determining eligibility to participate in, and vesting of benefits under, such BMBC employee compensation and benefit plans. BMBC has agreed to recognize such length of service credited to each such RBPI employee for credit for benefit accrual purposes related to vacation, leave policies, and severance benefits, subject to the severance benefits being calculated as set forth in the merger agreement. BMBC may also (1) continue any of RBPI's or its subsidiaries' employee compensation and benefit plans, in lieu of offering participation in the BMBC employee compensation and benefit plans providing similar benefits (2) terminate any such RBPI employee compensation and benefit plans, or (3) merge any such RBPI compensation and benefit plans with the corresponding BMBC employee compensation and benefit plans, provided that in each case such plans are substantially similar to benefits provided to employees of BMBC and its subsidiaries generally. If, prior to the effective time of the merger, BMBC notifies RBPI that it wishes to terminate any of the RBPI employee compensation and benefit plans, RBPI will take all steps necessary to comply with such request prior to the effective time of the merger, so long as BMBC has certified that all closing conditions of BMBC to consummate the transactions under the merger agreement have been satisfied or waived.

BMT will also honor all employment and change of control agreements provided for under the merger agreement, subject to limitations under applicable law or by any regulatory authority. BMBC will pay to any employee of RBPI or its subsidiaries, who is not a party to an employment, consulting, change in control or severance agreement and is terminated after the date of the merger agreement and within twelve (12) months after the effective time of the merger, severance pay equal to two (2) weeks of such employee's regular pay for each year such employee was employed at RBPI or its subsidiary, up to a maximum of twenty-six (26) weeks.

In the event of any termination, or the consolidation, of any medical, dental, health or disability plans of RBPI or its subsidiaries, BMBC will make available to continuing RBPI employees and their dependents coverage under the corresponding BMBC benefit plans, as applicable, and on the same basis as BMBC provides coverage to its or its subsidiaries' employees. BMBC will also cause each such plan to, in each case to the extent the applicable employee or dependent has satisfied any similar limitations or requirements under the analogous plan of RBPI or its subsidiaries prior to the effective time of the merger:

waive any pre-existing condition limitations to the extent such conditions would be covered under the applicable medical, health and dental plans of RBPI;

honor under such plans any deductible, co-payment and out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the employees and their dependents under the applicable mental, health and dental plans of RBPI or its subsidiaries during the portion of the plan year prior to participation in the corresponding plan of BMBC or its subsidiaries; and waive any period limitation or evidence of insurability requirement which would otherwise be applicable to such employees and their dependents on or after the effective time of the merger.

Indemnification and Insurance

For a period of six (6) years following the effective time of the merger, BMBC will be obligated to indemnify and hold harmless each current and former director and officer of RBPI and its subsidiaries against any losses, claims, liabilities and fees and expenses incurred in connection with any claim, suit, proceeding or investigation that is initiated or threatened against any of those persons because of his or her service to RBPI or its subsidiaries, if such claim pertains to any matter of fact arising, existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger, including the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. BMBC will also advance expenses as incurred by those persons prior to the final disposition of the claim, suit, proceeding or investigation, to the fullest extent permitted by RBPI under applicable law and RBPI's articles of incorporation; however, the person receiving the advanced expenses must provide an undertaking to repay such advanced expenses to BMBC if it is ultimately determined that he or she was not entitled to indemnification.

For a period of six (6) years following the effective time of the merger, BMBC also agreed to maintain, or cause BMT to maintain, the current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies covering RBPI's directors and officers as of the date of the merger agreement for all matters occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger. BMBC may substitute such insurance policies with policies of at least the same coverage containing terms and conditions which are not materially less favorable. However, BMBC will not be required to pay annual premiums in excess of 150% of the annual premium currently paid by RBPI for such insurance. If BMBC is unable to maintain RBPI's existing policies or obtain a substitute policy for that amount, BMBC will use its commercially reasonable best efforts to obtain the most advantageous coverage available for such amount.

BMT Advisory Board

Upon the effective time of the merger, BMT will form an advisory board comprised of certain members of RBPI's and/or Royal Bank's boards of directors who did not become directors of BMBC and BMT pursuant to the merger agreement and were acting in such capacities immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. Such directors, if agreed to in writing at or prior to the effective time of the merger, will serve on such advisory board immediately following the effective time of the merger.

RBPI/Royal Bank Director and Employee Agreements

Concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement, every director of RBPI or Royal Bank serving on the date of the merger agreement executed a non-solicitation and restrictive covenant agreement with a two (2) year term with BMBC and BMT.

RBPI will cause certain employees to execute non-solicitation agreements as provided for under the merger agreement, and, until the effective time of the merger, will use commercially reasonable efforts to enforce such non-solicitation agreements. RBPI will also notify BMBC in writing if it learns that any party to such agreements is in violation of any terms or conditions set forth therein and will take steps as BMBC reasonably requests in order to enforce such agreements. RBPI will also use commercially reasonable efforts to cause each employment, consulting, change in control or severance agreement providing severance payments to any employee or consultant, whose employment or services are terminated on or after the date of the merger agreement, to be subject to an amendment or provision that (1) requires the execution of a release in a form satisfactory to RBPI as a precondition to the payment of severance (or similar) benefits thereunder and (2) imposes non-solicitation and non-competition restrictions on the applicable counterparty(ies) satisfactory to BMBC and RBPI.

Conversion of Information Systems

RBPI will cause one or more representatives of Royal Bank to meet with representatives of BMT on a regular basis to discuss and plan for the conversion of Royal Bank's data processing and related electronic informational systems to those used by BMT. Such planning will include discussions of possible termination by Royal Bank of third-party service provider arrangements, non-renewal of personal property leases or software licenses and retention of outside consultants and additional employees to assist with the conversion; provided, however, that Royal Bank will not be obligated to take any such actions, and the conversion will not take place, prior to the effective time of the merger.

Divestment of Non-Volcker Compliant Securities

RBPI will divest from its investment portfolio, prior to July 1, 2017, any securities that, were they to remain in Royal Bank's investment portfolio through July 1, 2017, would fail to comply with the Volcker Rule (§ 619 (12 U.S.C. §1851)).

Agreement Not to Solicit Other Offers

RBPI agreed to certain restrictions that may discourage a third party from submitting an acquisition proposal to RBPI that might result in greater value to RBPI's shareholders than the merger with BMBC, or may result in a potential acquirer proposing to pay a lower per share price to acquire RBPI than it might otherwise have proposed to pay. Specifically, subject to the exceptions described below, RBPI agreed:

that it will promptly, and in any event within 24 hours, notify BMBC in writing if it receives another acquisition proposal (as defined below) or offer to negotiate or discuss terms in connection with any acquisition proposal; such notice will indicate the name of the person making, and the terms and conditions of, such proposal, including copies of any written materials relating to such proposal, except to the extent providing such written materials would violate binding confidentiality, privilege or other restrictions under applicable law, and RBPI agrees that it will keep BMBC informed, on a current basis, of the status and terms of any such proposal; and that it and its officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives will not, directly or indirectly:

initiate, solicit, induce, knowingly encourage or facilitate an acquisition proposal or inquiries relating to a potential acquisition proposal;

enter into or participate in any discussions or negotiations with, or furnish any information to another party that is seeking to make, or has already made, an acquisition proposal;

release any person from, waive any provision of, or fail to enforce any confidentiality agreement or standstill agreement to which RBPI or its subsidiaries is a party; or approve, endorse, recommend or enter into a letter of intent, agreement or other commitment with any party relating to an acquisition proposal.

As used in the merger agreement, an “acquisition proposal” means any inquiry, proposal or offer, whether or not in writing and other than from BMBC, of an intention to enter into any transaction:

or series of transactions involving any merger, consolidation, recapitalization, share exchange, liquidation, dissolution, or similar transaction involving RBPI or any of its subsidiaries; to acquire, directly or indirectly, any assets of RBPI or any of its subsidiaries representing, in the aggregate, 15% or more of the assets of RBPI and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis;

pursuant to which there is any issuance, sale or other disposition of securities representing 15% or more of the votes attached to the outstanding securities of RBPI or any of its subsidiaries;

pursuant to which any tender offer or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in any third party or group beneficially owning 15% or more of any class of equity securities of RBPI or any of its subsidiaries; or which is similar in form, substance or purpose to any of the previously listed transactions, or any combination thereof.

However, the merger agreement allows RBPI to consider and participate in discussions and negotiations with respect to a bona fide, unsolicited, written acquisition proposal from a party other than BMBC if:

the RBPI board of directors concludes in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and its independent financial advisor, that such acquisition proposal constitutes a superior proposal (as defined below) and that the failure to take any such actions would be reasonably likely to violate its fiduciary duties under applicable law;

RBPI has provided BMBC with at least three (3) business days prior notice of such determination to consider and participate in discussions and negotiations related to such proposal; and RBPI enters into a confidentiality agreement with the party that made the acquisition proposal before providing it with any information or data about RBPI, and the confidentiality agreement contains confidentiality terms that are no less favorable to RBPI than those contained in its confidentiality agreement with BMBC.

Definition of “Superior Proposal”

“Superior proposal” means any bona fide, unsolicited, written acquisition proposal made by a third party which the RBPI board of directors has determined in good faith would:

if consummated, result in the acquisition of all of the issued and outstanding shares of RBPI common stock or all, or substantially all, of the assets of RBPI and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis;

result in a transaction that involves consideration to the holders of shares of RBPI common stock that is more favorable than the consideration provided for under the merger agreement, and is, in light of the other terms of such proposal, more favorable to RBPI than the merger and transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; and is reasonably likely to be completed on the terms proposed.

Additionally, the RBPI board of directors’ conclusion that an acquisition proposal is a superior proposal must be based on the information then available after consultation with its financial advisors and outside counsel and must take into account, among other things, all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal.

Ability of the RBPI Board of Directors to Change Its Recommendation of the Merger

In any case, the merger agreement allows the RBPI board of directors to (1) withdraw, modify or qualify its recommendation of the merger in a manner adverse to BMBC, (2) approve or recommend any acquisition proposal or (3) resolve to take, or publicly announce an intention to take either of the foregoing actions, if the RBPI board of directors determines, within the time period provided for under the merger agreement, that such acquisition proposal constitutes a superior proposal and has reasonably determined, in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel and a financial advisor, that the failure to take such actions would be reasonably likely to violate its fiduciary duties under applicable law.

Even if the RBPI board of directors withdraws or qualifies its recommendation of the merger with BMBC or makes a determination to recommend an acquisition proposal, RBPI will use commercially reasonable efforts to solicit and obtain the required shareholder approval to consummate the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

The merger agreement contains a number of closing conditions. RBPI and BMBC are required to complete the merger only if those conditions are satisfied or, in the alternative (and if legally permissible), the requirement to satisfy the condition is waived by the other party.

The following closing conditions apply to both RBPI and BMBC. In other words, neither party will be required to complete the merger unless the conditions listed below are satisfied (or waived):

the RBPI common shareholders have approved the merger and adoption of the merger agreement;

the shares of BMBC common stock to be issued in the merger have been approved for listing on NASDAQ;

all regulatory approvals that the parties are required to obtain to complete the merger have been received and none of the regulatory approvals will have included any condition or requirement that would, in the reasonable judgment of the BMBC board of directors, materially or adversely affect the business, operations, assets or financial condition of the combined enterprise of RBPI and BMBC or materially impair the value of RBPI or Royal Bank to BMBC;

the registration statement for the BMBC common stock to be issued in the merger has been declared effective under the Securities Act and no stop order or proceedings for issuance of a stop order have been initiated or threatened by the SEC;

BMBC and RBPI shall each have received tax opinions from their legal counsel, each reasonably acceptable in form and substance to BMBC and RBPI, substantially to the effect that for federal income tax purposes the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code; and no law, statute, code or regulation, or judgment, decree, injunction or order from a court or other governmental entity is in effect, or applicable to RBPI or BMBC, that prevents, prohibits or makes illegal the completion of the merger.

In addition, the merger agreement contains separate closing conditions of RBPI which must be satisfied in order for RBPI to be obligated to close the merger, and separate closing conditions of BMBC which must be satisfied in order for BMBC to be obligated to close the merger. Certain of these closing conditions, as listed below, are based on whether the representations and warranties made by the other party are true and correct and whether the other party has performed all of its obligations under the merger agreement. Individually, RBPI or BMBC will not be obligated to close the merger unless:

the representations and warranties in the merger agreement from the other party are true and correct both as of the date of the merger agreement and as of all times up to and including the effective time of the merger (except to the extent such representations and warranties speaks as of a specified date), and the other party has delivered an officer's certificate certifying that this condition has been met;

the other party has performed all of its obligations under the merger agreement in all material respects and has delivered an officer's certificate certifying that this condition has been met;

the other party shall have obtained any and all material permits, authorizations, consents, waivers, clearances or approvals required for the lawful consummation of the transactions contemplated under the merger agreement; and the other party's outside auditors will have issued an unqualified audit opinion with respect to the other party's 2016 audited financial statements.

Table of Contents

In addition, the merger agreement contains specific closing conditions of BMBC which must be satisfied in order for BMBC to be obligated to close the merger.

the average of certain RBPI loan portfolios and delinquencies must be below certain threshold amounts for certain periods as set forth under the merger agreement; holders of no more than 8.5% of the issued and outstanding shares of RBPI Class B Stock will have exercised their statutory appraisal or dissenters' rights pursuant to the merger agreement;

prior to July 1, 2017, Royal Bank will have divested from its investment portfolio any securities that, were they to remain in Royal Bank's investment portfolio through July 1, 2017, would fail to comply with the Volcker Rule (§ 619 (12 U.S.C. § 1851));

RBPI will have accrued reserves in an amount satisfactory to BMBC for, or settlement of, the litigation matters described under the merger agreement;

RBPI will have completed certain actions related to its subsidiaries as set forth under the merger agreement;

RBPI will have delivered to BMBC evidence that each and every employment, consulting, change in control or severance agreement providing severance payments to any employee or consultant, whose employment or services are terminated on or after the date of the merger agreement, are subject to the amendments or provisions required by the merger agreement;

RBPI's outside legal counsel will have delivered to BMBC a legal opinion, dated as of the closing date of the merger, in substantially the form and substance of the legal opinion delivered to BMBC by RBPI's outside legal counsel as of the date of the merger agreement; and to the extent RBPI or Royal Bank is subject to any outstanding supervisory action involving a bank regulator, the applicable bank regulator will have terminated or lifted such outstanding supervisory action, or provided assurances acceptable to BMBC that such action will not be binding upon BMBC or BMT following the merger and no obligations arising under such action will be transferred to BMBC or BMT.

Neither party can provide assurance as to when, or if, all of the conditions to the merger can or will be satisfied or waived by the appropriate party. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, neither party has any reason to believe that those conditions will not be satisfied.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

Right of Either BMBC or RBPI to Terminate the Merger Agreement. The merger agreement may be terminated at any time before the merger is completed by mutual written consent of BMBC and RBPI. Also, either party, acting alone, has the right to terminate the merger agreement in any of the following circumstances:

the approval of a governmental entity, which is required for completion of the merger or the transactions contemplated under the merger agreement, has been denied by final and non-appealable action, or an application for such approval has been withdrawn at the request of the governmental entity, unless the denial was caused by the failure of the terminating party to perform or perform its obligations under the merger agreement; the merger is not completed on or before December 31, 2017, unless the failure to complete the merger by that date was caused by a material breach of the terminating party under the merger agreement, provided that the parties shall have an additional three (3) month period following December 31, 2017 to obtain necessary regulatory approvals;

the other party has breached its representations and warranties or any of its performance obligations under the merger agreement to such a degree that the closing conditions cannot be satisfied, and the breach has not been cured within 30 days after such party has received notice of its breach (such cure period shall be 60 days after receiving such notice if the other party cannot reasonably cure its breach within the 30 day period); or

RBPI convened a special meeting of its shareholders for the purpose of obtaining their approval of the merger agreement and the merger, but failed to obtain such approval, provided that RBPI must have performed in accordance with the merger agreement in its attempt obtain such approval.

Right of BMBC to Terminate. In addition to the other termination rights of BMBC above, BMBC may terminate the merger agreement at any time before the merger agreement and the merger have been approved by RBPI shareholders (and RBPI would be obligated to pay BMBC the termination fee described below) if:

RBPI has materially breached its agreement not to solicit, negotiate or enter into an acquisition proposal and does not cure such breach by the fifth (5th) business day after the occurrence of such breach;

the RBPI board of directors has failed to recommend approval of the merger agreement and the merger to the RBPI shareholders, or changed, withdrew, modified, qualified or conditioned its recommendation of the merger in a manner adverse to BMBC;

the RBPI board of directors has approved, recommended or endorsed an acquisition proposal from a party other than BMBC; or if any Phase II environmental site assessment, performed in accordance with ASTM E1903-11 and/or the “all appropriate inquiry standards set forth at 40 C.F.R. Part 312, on RBPI’s real property confirms the existence of any spilling, leaking or disposing in the environment of any regulated substances which (1) violates applicable environmental law or are present in concentrations exceeding applicable standards under applicable environmental law and (2) are estimated to cost more than $1,000,000 to remedy (less certain costs as set forth in the merger agreement).

Right of RBPI to Terminate. In addition to the other termination rights of RBPI above, RBPI may terminate the merger agreement under the following circumstances:

RBPI may terminate the merger agreement at any time before the adoption of the merger agreement and the merger have been approved by RBPI shareholders, if RBPI has concluded in good faith, after consultation with its financial and legal advisors, that it must agree to endorse a superior proposal. Additionally, the superior proposal must be bona fide, in writing and unsolicited, and otherwise have been obtained by RBPI in compliance with the terms of the merger agreement. However, RBPI is not entitled to exercise this termination right until it has met the following conditions: (1) RBPI has given notice to BMBC of its intention to accept a superior proposal and, for a period of at least three business days, negotiated with BMBC in good faith to make adjustments to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement with BMBC, (2) RBPI's board of directors has considered all of the adjustments proposed by BMBC and concluded in good faith, based upon consultation with its financial and legal advisers, that the acquisition proposal of the other party remains a superior proposal even after giving effect to the adjustments proposed by BMBC, and (3) RBPI has paid BMBC the termination fee described below.

RBPI also may terminate the merger agreement if there has been a substantial decline in BMBC's stock price that is not generally experienced by comparable banks, as described in detail below.

The operation of the conditions permitting RBPI to terminate the merger agreement based on a decrease in the market price of BMBC common stock reflects the parties' agreement that RBPI's shareholders will assume the risk of a decline in value of BMBC common stock and will assume the risk of a more significant decline in value of BMBC's common stock, unless the percentage decline from $41.45 (which was the closing value of a share of BMBC common stock on the last trading day before the date of the merger agreement (such date, the "Starting Date")) to the average closing price of BMBC common stock during the twenty (20) consecutive trading day period immediately preceding the, and ending on, the later of (1) the date of the RBPI shareholder meeting or (2) the date on which the last regulatory approval required by the merger agreement is obtained (such date, the "Determination Date") is more than 20% greater than the percentage decrease, if any, in the average closing price of the ABA Community Bank Index from the Starting Date to the Determination Date, using closing price of the ABA Community Bank Index as of the Starting Date and the twenty (20) trading days preceding the Determination Date to determine the average closing price of the ABA Community Bank Index. The purpose of this agreement is that a decline in the value of BMBC common stock which is comparable to the decline in the value of an index of comparable publicly-traded stocks is indicative of a broad-based change in market and economic conditions that affect the financial services industry generally instead of factors which affect the value of BMBC common stock in particular.

Specifically, RBPI may terminate the merger agreement, if the RBPI board of directors determines, at any time during the five business day period beginning with the Determination Date if all of the following occur:

- (i) the average daily closing price of a share of BMBC common stock during the 20 trading days immediately preceding the Determination Date (the “BMBC Market Value”) is less than $33.16; and
- (ii) the number obtained by dividing the BMBC Market Value by $41.45 is less than the quotient obtained by dividing the average closing price of the ABA Community Bank Index during the 20 trading day period immediately preceding the Determination Date by $352.23 (which was the average closing value of the ABA Community Bank Index as of the Starting Date) (the “Index Ratio”), minus 0.20.

If RBPI elects to exercise its termination rights pursuant to these provisions, it will give prompt notice to BMBC, and BMBC will, for a period of five (5) business days following such notice, have the option of increasing the exchange ratio, by adjusting the exchange ratio amount which, when multiplied by the BMBC Market Value, equals the lesser of (1) $3.35 or (2) the product of the Index Ratio and the closing value of a share of BMBC common stock on the Starting Date multiplied by the exchange ratio. If BMBC delivers written notice to RBPI of its intention to provide such additional consideration, then no termination shall occur and the merger agreement shall remain in full force and effect with its terms, except that the merger consideration shall have been so modified.

The operation and effect of the provisions of the merger agreement dealing with a decline in the market price of BMBC common stock may be illustrated by the following three scenarios:

- (1) One scenario is that the BMBC Market Value is above $33.16. In this event, RBPI would not have the right to terminate the merger agreement due to a decline in the market price of BMBC common stock.

- (2) A second scenario is that the BMBC Market Value is less than $33.16 but that the percentage decline in the price of BMBC common stock from the initial measurement price of $41.45 is not more than 20% greater than the percentage decline, if any, in the closing price of the ABA Community Bank Index. Under this scenario, RBPI would not have the right to terminate the merger agreement.

- (3) A third scenario is that the BMBC Market Value is less than $33.16 and the percentage decline in the price of BMBC common stock from the initial measurement price is more than 20% greater than the decline in the closing price of the ABA Community Bank Index. Under this scenario, RBPI would have the right, but not the obligation, to terminate the agreement and plan of merger.

Effect of Termination

If the merger agreement is terminated, it will become void and have no effect, except that the designated provisions of the merger agreement will continue to be in force after the termination, including those relating to payment of the termination fee and expenses and the confidential treatment of information.

Table of Contents

Termination Fee

Under any of the following circumstances, RBPI must pay BMBC a termination fee of $5 million:

BMBC has terminated the merger agreement due to RBPI's material breach of its agreement not to solicit, negotiate or enter into an acquisition proposal;

BMBC has terminated the merger agreement, because the RBPI board of directors failed to recommend approval of the merger agreement and the merger to the RBPI shareholders, or changed, withdrew, modified, qualified or conditioned its recommendation of the merger in a manner adverse to BMBC;

BMBC has terminated the merger agreement, because the RBPI board of directors approved, recommended or endorsed an acquisition proposal from a party other than BMBC;

RBPI has terminated the merger agreement, because RBPI, prior to the adoption of the merger agreement and the merger having been approved by RBPI shareholders, has concluded in good faith, after consultation with its financial and legal advisors, that it must agree to endorse a superior proposal; and during any time that an acquisition proposal made by a party other than BMBC has not been withdrawn, and the merger agreement is terminated for any of the reasons given below, and within 12 months after such termination, RBPI has entered into an agreement to consummate an acquisition transaction relating to such acquisition proposal:

by either BMBC or RBPI because the requisite RBPI shareholder approval has not been obtained by reason of the failure to obtain the required vote at a duly held meeting;

by either BMBC or RBPI because the merger was not completed on or before December 31, 2017; or by BMBC if RBPI has breached its representations and warranties or any of its performance obligations under the merger agreement to such a degree that the closing conditions cannot be satisfied.

Expenses

In general, BMBC and RBPI each are responsible for the expenses which it incurs in connection with the negotiation and completion of the merger. BMBC and RBPI will share equally in the cost of the SEC registration fee and costs and expenses associated with filing the Form S-4 registration statement and printing this proxy statement/prospectus.

In addition, if a party breaches any of its representations and warranties or performance obligations to a degree that would prevent a closing condition from being satisfied, and the other party terminates the merger agreement as a result, the breaching party must pay the out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the terminating party in connection with the merger (including fees of legal counsel, financial advisors and accountants), up to a maximum amount of $1.8 million. However, if RBPI becomes liable for payment of the termination fee, it will not also be liable for the payment of BMBC's out-of-pocket expenses.

Amendment of the Merger Agreement; Waiver

The parties may amend the merger agreement and either party may waive a requirement for the other party to comply with any provision in the merger agreement. However, once RBPI's shareholders have approved the merger agreement and the merger, the merger agreement may not be amended, and no waiver may be granted, except with further approval of the RBPI shareholders to reduce the amount or value, or change the form of consideration to be received by RBPI's shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement.

OTHER MATERIAL AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE MERGER

Voting Agreements

The following description of the voting agreements is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the form of voting agreement, which we include as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus and incorporate by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. We encourage you to read the forms of voting agreements carefully and in their entirety.

In connection with the merger agreement, certain shareholders of RBPI, including all directors and executive officers of RBPI and certain of their family members or affiliates have entered into voting agreements with BMBC. In the voting agreements, each of these shareholders has agreed to vote all shares of RBPI common stock that they own of record or beneficially, and that they subsequently acquire, in favor of approval of the adoption of the merger agreement and the merger.

In addition, except under limited circumstances, these shareholders agreed not to sell, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of or encumber their shares of RBPI common stock prior to the record date for the special meeting of RBPI shareholders called for the purpose of voting on the approval of the adoption of the merger agreement and the merger. Additionally, these shareholders agree not to exercise dissenters' or appraisal rights with respect to the merger. The voting agreements terminate immediately upon the earliest to occur of: the effective date of the merger; the termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms; or the mutual written agreement of BMBC and the individual shareholder.

As of January 30, 2017, there were 5,954,810 shares of RBPI Class A Stock, which represents approximately 21.3% of the outstanding shares of RBPI Class A Stock, and 1,362,717 shares of RBPI Class B Stock, which represents 70.8% of the outstanding shares of RBPI Class B Stock, subject to the voting agreements (excluding options), which represented approximately 41.5% of the total outstanding voting power of the RBPI common stock as of that date.

Employment Agreement between F. Kevin Tylus and BMT

In connection with the merger agreement, BMT entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Tylus, which provides that Mr. Tylus will be employed as Managing Director of New Markets for BMT. Mr. Tylus will receive an annual salary of $100,000 and the opportunity to qualify for incentive or bonus awards.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT

BMBC will account for the merger as an “acquisition,” as that term is used under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, or GAAP, for accounting and financial reporting purposes. Under acquisition accounting, RBPI’s assets, including identifiable intangible assets, and liabilities, including executory contracts and other commitments, as of the effective time of the merger will be recorded at their respective fair values and added to the balance sheet of BMBC. Any excess of the purchase price over the fair values will be recorded as goodwill. Financial statements of BMBC issued after the merger will include these fair values and RBPI’s results of operations from the effective time of the merger.

U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

The following is a discussion of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger that apply generally to "U.S. holders" (as defined below) of RBPI common stock. This discussion is based on the Code, Treasury Regulations promulgated under the Code, judicial and administrative authorities, rulings and decisions, all as in effect as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Accordingly, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to the holders of RBPI common stock could differ from those described below.

For purposes of this discussion, a U.S. holder is a beneficial owner of RBPI common stock who for United States federal income tax purposes is:

a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation, or an entity treated as a corporation, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state or political subdivision thereof;

a trust that (1) is subject to (A) the primary supervision of a court within the United States and (B) the authority of one or more United States persons to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Department of Treasury regulations to be treated as a United States person; or an estate that is subject to United States federal income tax on its income regardless of its source.

If a partnership (including for this purpose any entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) holds shares of RBPI common stock, the tax treatment of a partner generally will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. If you are a partner of a partnership holding shares of RBPI common stock, you should consult your tax advisor.

This discussion assumes that you hold your shares of RBPI common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code. This discussion does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to U.S. holders of RBPI common stock in light of their particular circumstances, nor does it address the U.S. federal income tax consequences to U.S. holders of RBPI common stock that are subject to special rules, including:

dealers in securities or foreign currencies;

tax-exempt organizations;

financial institutions;

retirement plans;

insurance companies;

expatriates or holders who have a "functional currency" other than the U.S. dollar; pass-through entities and investors in those entities; holders who acquired their shares in connection with the exercise of stock options or other compensatory transactions or through exercise of warrants; holders who hold their shares as a hedge or as part of a straddle, constructive sale, conversion transaction or other risk management transaction; and traders in securities that elect to use the mark-to-market method of accounting.

In addition, this discussion does not address any alternative minimum tax, unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, U.S. federal estate or gift tax, or foreign, state or local tax consequences. Neither BMBC nor RBPI has obtained or sought to obtain a ruling from the IRS regarding any matter relating to the merger and no assurance can be given that the IRS will not assert, or that a court will not sustain, a position contrary to any aspect of this discussion. We urge holders to consult their own tax advisors as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger, as well as the effects of state, local and foreign tax laws in light of their own situations.

Table of Contents

The closing of the merger is conditioned on the delivery of opinions of Reed Smith LLP and Stevens & Lee, P.C., dated the closing date of the merger, to the effect that, based on U.S. federal income tax law in effect as of the date of such opinions, the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. In the opinion of Reed Smith LLP and Stevens & Lee, P.C., the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, with the tax consequences described below. An opinion of counsel is not binding on the IRS or any court. In rendering their respective opinions, Reed Smith LLP and Stevens & Lee, P.C. will rely on certain assumptions, including assumptions regarding the absence of changes in existing facts and the completion of the merger strictly in accordance with the merger agreement and this proxy statement/prospectus. The opinions will also rely upon certain representations and covenants made by the management of BMBC and RBPI, will assume that these representations are true, correct and complete, and that BMBC and RBPI, as the case may be, will comply with these covenants. If any of these assumptions or representations is inaccurate in any way, or any of the covenants are not satisfied, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger could be adversely affected.

Exchange of RBPI common stock for BMBC common stock. Each holder of RBPI common stock who receives BMBC common stock in the merger generally will not recognize gain or loss (except to the extent of cash received in lieu of fractional shares, as discussed below).

In general, the aggregate tax basis in the shares of BMBC common stock that RBPI shareholders will receive upon the merger will equal such holders' aggregate tax basis in the shares of RBPI common stock surrendered, decreased by the amount of basis allocated to any fractional share such holder was deemed to receive and subsequently sell. A RBPI shareholder's holding period for the shares of BMBC common stock that are received in the merger, including any fractional share deemed received and sold as described below, generally will include such holder's holding period for the shares of RBPI common stock surrendered in the merger. The amount of BMBC common stock received in the merger includes any fractional share of BMBC common stock deemed to be received prior to the deemed exchange of such fractional share for cash. See "U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger -- Cash Received in Lieu of a Fractional Share" below.

If U.S. holders of RBPI common stock acquired different blocks of shares of RBPI common stock at different times or at different prices, such holders' basis and holding period in their shares of BMBC common stock may be determined with reference to each block of shares of RBPI common stock. Any such holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the manner in which shares of BMBC common stock received in the exchange should be allocated among different blocks of shares of RBPI common stock and with respect to identifying the bases or holding periods of the particular shares of BMBC common stock received in the merger. Because these rules are complex, we recommend that each RBPI shareholder who may be subject to these rules consult his, her, or its own tax advisor.

Cash Received in Lieu of a Fractional Share. RBPI shareholders who receive cash instead of fractional shares of BMBC common stock will be treated as having received the fractional shares in the merger and then as having exchanged the fractional shares for cash. These holders will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the tax basis allocable to the fractional shares. The gain or loss will be capital gain or loss and long-term capital gain or loss if the holder has held the shares of RBPI common stock exchanged for more than one year at the effective time of the merger. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Reporting Requirements. A “significant holder” of shares of RBPI stock for U.S. federal income tax purposes who receives shares of BMBC common stock upon completion of the merger will be required to retain records pertaining to the merger and to file with such holder's U.S. federal income tax return for the year in which the merger takes place a statement setting forth certain facts relating to the merger. For this purpose, a RBPI shareholder is only a “significant holder” if the person, immediately before the merger, owns at least 5% of the outstanding stock of RBPI or has a basis of $1,000,000 or more in securities of RBPI. Such statement must include the holder's tax basis in and fair market value of the RBPI shares surrendered in the merger.

Dissenting Shareholders. The receipt of solely cash in exchange for RBPI Class B Stock by holders of RBPI Class B Stock that exercise dissenters' rights is treated as a distribution in redemption (i.e., a taxable exchange), subject to the special provisions and limitations of Section 302 of the Internal Revenue Code. In general, the determination of whether the gain recognized in the exchange will be treated as capital gain or has the effect of a distribution of a dividend depends upon whether and to what extent the exchange reduces the RBPI dissenting shareholder's deemed percentage stock ownership of BMBC. For purposes of this determination, holders of RBPI Class B Stock will be treated as if they first exchanged all of their RBPI Class B Stock solely for BMBC common stock, and then BMBC immediately redeemed (the "deemed redemption") a portion of the BMBC common stock in exchange for the cash actually received. The gain recognized in the deemed redemption will be treated as capital gain if the deemed redemption (1) is in "complete redemption" of all of the BMBC common stock treated as owned by the holder of RBPI Class B Stock, (2) is "substantially disproportionate" with respect to the holder of RBPI Class B Stock (and the shareholder actually or constructively owns after the deemed redemption less than 50% of the voting power of the outstanding BMBC common stock), or (3) is "not essentially equivalent to a dividend." In applying the above tests, holders of RBPI Class B Stock may, under the constructive ownership rules, be deemed to own stock that is owned by other persons or otherwise in addition to the stock actually owned by the shareholder.

Holders of Warrants and Options to Purchase RBPI Common Stock. Holders of RBPI warrants and stock options should discuss with their tax advisors the tax results of each course of action available to them.

Backup Withholding. Non-corporate shareholders of RBPI common stock may be subject to backup withholding at a rate of 28% on cash payments received in the merger. Backup withholding will not apply, however, to a shareholder who (1) furnishes a correct taxpayer identification number and certifies that he or she is not subject to backup withholding on the substitute Form W-9 included in the letter of transmittal, (2) who provides a certificate of foreign status on an appropriate Form W-8, or (3) who is otherwise exempt from backup withholding. A shareholder who fails to provide the correct taxpayer identification number on Form W-9 may be subject to a $50 penalty imposed by the IRS.

DESCRIPTION OF BMBC CAPITAL STOCK

As a result of the merger, RBPI shareholders who receive shares of BMBC common stock in the merger will become shareholders of BMBC. The following summary of BMBC capital stock, including the common stock to be issued in the merger, is not complete and is qualified by reference to the BMBC articles of incorporation and the BMBC bylaws. You are encouraged to read the applicable provisions of Pennsylvania law, the BMBC articles of incorporation and the BMBC bylaws and U.S. federal law governing bank holding companies carefully and in their entirety.

Authorized Common Stock

As of _____, 2017, BMBC's authorized common stock, $1.00 stated value per share, was 100,000,000 shares, of which _____ shares were issued and outstanding. Shares of BMBC's common stock to be issued pursuant to the merger agreement, when issued in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, will be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and subject to no preemptive rights.

General

The holders of BMBC's common stock are entitled to:

one vote for each share of common stock held; receive dividends if and when declared by BMBC's board of directors from BMBC's unreserved and unrestricted earned surplus or BMBC's unreserved and unrestricted net earnings for the current fiscal year; and share ratably in BMBC's net assets legally available to BMBC's shareholders in the event of BMBC's liquidation, dissolution or winding up, after payment in full of all amounts required to be paid to creditors and preferred shareholders, if any, or provision for such payment.

BMBC common stock is neither redeemable nor convertible into another security of BMBC. Because BMBC is a holding company, BMBC's rights and the rights of BMBC's creditors and shareholders to participate in the distribution of assets of a subsidiary on its liquidation or recapitalization may be subject to prior claims of the subsidiary's creditors, except to the extent that BMBC itself may be a creditor having recognized claims against the subsidiary.

Holders of BMBC's common stock have no preemptive, subscription, redemption, conversion or cumulative voting rights. BMBC's outstanding common stock is fully paid and nonassessable.

BMBC's common stock is listed on NASDAQ under the symbol "BMTC." The transfer agent for BMBC's common stock is ComputerShare, Inc., 259 Royall Street, Canton, MA 02021.

BMBC's board of directors consists of ten (10) directors divided into four classes. The directors in the divided classes each serve staggered four-year terms unless selected to fill a vacancy (in which case, such director serves for a term expiring with the next annual meeting of shareholders), and until their successors are elected and take office.

Anti-Takeover Provisions and Other Shareholder Protections

Pennsylvania Law Considerations. The Pennsylvania Business Corporations Law (the "PBCL") contains certain provisions applicable to BMBC that may have the effect of deterring or discouraging an attempt to take control of BMBC. These provisions, among other things:

require that, following any acquisition by any person or group of 20% of a public corporation's voting power, the remaining shareholders have the right to receive payment for their shares, in cash, from such person or group in an amount equal to the "fair value" of the shares, including an increment representing a proportion of any value payable for control of the corporation (Subchapter 25E of the PBCL);

prohibit for five years, subject to certain exceptions, a “business combination” (which includes a merger or consolidation of the corporation or a sale, lease or exchange of assets) with a person or group beneficially owning 20% or more of a public corporation’s voting power (Subchapter 25F of the PBCL); expand the factors and groups (including shareholders) which a corporation’s board of directors can consider in determining whether an action is in the best interests of the corporation; eliminates the preemptive right to subscribe to purchase, on a pro rata basis, additional shares of stock issued or sold by the corporation, unless provided for in the corporation’s articles of incorporation; provide that a corporation’s board of directors need not consider the interests of any particular group as dominant or controlling;

provide that a corporation’s directors, in order to satisfy the presumption that they have acted in the best interests of the corporation, need not satisfy any greater obligation or higher burden of proof with respect to actions relating to an acquisition or potential acquisition of control;

provide that actions relating to acquisitions of control that are approved by a majority of “disinterested directors” are presumed to satisfy the directors’ standard, unless it is proven by clear and convincing evidence that the directors did not assent to such action in good faith after reasonable investigation; and provide that the fiduciary duty of a corporation’s directors is solely to the corporation and may be enforced by the corporation or by a shareholder in a derivative action, but not by a shareholder directly.

The PBCL explicitly provides that the fiduciary duty of directors does not require them to:

redeem any rights under, or to modify or render inapplicable, any shareholder rights plan; render inapplicable, or make determinations under, provisions of the PBCL relating to control transactions, business combinations, control-share acquisitions or disgorgement by certain controlling shareholders following attempts to acquire control; or act as the board of directors, a committee of the board or an individual director, solely because of the effect such action might have on an acquisition or potential acquisition of control of BMBC or the consideration that might be offered or paid to shareholders in such an acquisition.

COMPARISON OF SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS

After the merger, the RBPI shareholders will become shareholders of BMBC and their rights will be governed by BMBC's articles of incorporation, BMBC's bylaws and the PBCL and Pennsylvania Entity Transactions Law. The following is a summary of the material differences between (1) the current rights of RBPI shareholders under the PBCL, Pennsylvania Entity Transactions Law and RBPI's articles of incorporation and bylaws, and (2) the current rights of BMBC shareholders under the PBCL and Pennsylvania Entity Transactions Law and BMBC's articles of incorporation and bylaws. For information as to how to get the full text of each party's respective articles of incorporation or bylaws, see "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 104.

The following summary is not intended to be a complete statement of the differences affecting the rights of RBPI's shareholders who become BMBC shareholders, but rather as a summary of the more significant differences affecting the rights of those shareholders and certain important similarities. The following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the articles of incorporation and bylaws of BMBC and the articles of incorporation and bylaws of RBPI. BMBC and RBPI encourage you to read BMBC's articles of incorporation and bylaws, RBPI's articles of incorporation and bylaws, and the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law and Pennsylvania Entity Transactions Law, and federal law governing bank holding companies.

	BMBC Shareholder Rights	RBPI Shareholder Rights
Authorized Capital Stock	BMBC's articles of incorporation authorizes it to issue up to 100,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share. As of March 7, 2017, there were 16,969,451 shares of BMBC common stock issued and outstanding. Vacancies and Removal of Directors	BMBC Shareholder Rights BMBC’s amended and restated bylaws provide that unexcused absence for six months, conviction of a felony, adjudication of incompetence, and any other grounds set forth in the PBCL will create a vacancy on the board of directors. Pursuant to Section 1726(a)(1) of the PBCL, the entire board of directors, any class of the board, or any individual director may be removed from office for cause by a majority of the votes cast by all BMBC shareholders entitled to vote. Additionally, pursuant to Section 1726(b) of the PBCL, the board of directors may declare vacant the office of a director who has been judicially declared of unsound mind, or who has been convicted of an offense punishable by imprisonment for a term of more than one year. BMBC’s amended and restated bylaws provide that the board of directors, by majority vote, is to be the sole judge as to when a vacancy in the board has occurred.	RBPI Shareholder Rights RBPI’s bylaws provide that the board of directors may declare vacant the office of a director who has been judicially declared of unsound mind or who has been convicted of an offense punishable by imprisonment or for any other proper cause set forth in the bylaws.
	Filling Vacancies on the Board of Directors	Under BMBC’s amended and restated bylaws, vacancies may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, whether or not a quorum exists. Directors who fill vacancies occurring before the record date preceding the annual meeting will remain in office until the next annual meeting, at which time a director is to be elected by the shareholders to fill the unexpired term. Directors who fill vacancies occurring on or after the record date preceding the annual meeting shall continue until a successor is duly chosen and qualified. Each director filling a vacancy shall remain in office for the remainder of the unexpired term. BMBC's amended and restated bylaws provide that BMBC must give notice at least 5 days prior to a meeting of shareholders unless a greater period of notice is required by law. Section 1704(b) of the PBCL requires notice to be given at least ten days prior to the date of a meeting that will consider a fundamental change (including amendment to the articles of incorporation, merger, consolidation, share exchanges and sale of assets, division, conversion, voluntary dissolution and winding up, involuntary liquidation and dissolution, and post-dissolution provision for liabilities), or five days prior to the date of the meeting in any other case. Section 1702(a)(2) and 1704(c) of the PBCL provide that the notice shall state the place, date and hour, and in the case of a special meeting, the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting

Notice of Shareholder MeetingsIndemnification of Directors and Officers

BMBC's amended and restated articles of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws provide that BMBC shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including an action by or in the right of BMBC, because such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of BMBC, or is or was serving at the request of BMBC as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise. Such indemnification is furnished to the full extent provided by Pennsylvania law against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such action, suit or proceeding unless the act giving rise to the claim for indemnification is determined by a court to have constituted willful misconduct or recklessness. The indemnification provisions also permit BMBC to pay reasonable expenses in advance of the final disposition of any action, suit or proceeding as authorized by the BMBC's board of directors, provided that the indemnified person

Amendments to Articles/Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws	BMBC's amended and restated articles of incorporation generally provide that any amendment to BMBC's articles of incorporation or bylaws requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of BMBC common stock entitled to vote. BMBC's amended and restated bylaws indicate that BMBC's board of directors may amend the bylaws, except to change the qualifications required or the classification or the term of office of a director, or if the amendment would take place within thirty days prior to an annual meeting of shareholders. Any amendment to the bylaws adopted by BMBC's board of directors must be ratified by BMBC's shareholders at the first meeting of shareholders after the adoption of the amendment in order for the amendment to be effective.	RBPI's bylaws generally provide that any amendment to RBPI's bylaws requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding total votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all the outstanding shares of common stock of RBPI, or by a majority vote of the members of the board of directors, subject to the powers of the shareholders to change such action of the board of directors by the affirmative vote of a majority of the total votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all the outstanding shares of common stock of RBPI.

OTHER MATTERS

As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, RBPI does not know of any matter that an RBPI shareholder will present for consideration at its special meeting other than the matters described in this document. However, if any other matter properly comes before the RBPI special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting, all executed proxy cards will be deemed to confer discretionary authority on the individuals named as proxies on those proxy cards to vote the shares represented by those proxy cards as to any such matters. The proxies will vote such shares in accordance with their best judgment.

This proxy statement/prospectus does not cover any resales of the BMBC common stock issued as common stock consideration pursuant to this proxy statement/prospectus by any shareholder deemed to be an affiliate of BMBC upon the consummation of the merger. BMBC has not authorized any person to make use of this proxy statement/prospectus in connection with any such resales.

WHERE YOU CAN FIND MORE INFORMATION

BMBC has filed with the SEC a registration statement on Form S-4 to register the shares of BMBC common stock to be issued pursuant to the merger agreement. This proxy statement/prospectus is part of that registration statement and constitutes the prospectus of BMBC in addition to being a proxy statement of RBPI for its special meeting. The registration statement, including the attached exhibits and schedules, contains additional relevant information about BMBC and BMBC common stock. As permitted by SEC rules, BMBC and RBPI have omitted from this proxy statement/prospectus certain information that is included in the registration statement.

BMBC and RBPI also file reports, proxy statements and other information with the SEC under the Exchange Act. You may read and copy this information at the SEC's public reference room at 100 F Street, NE, Washington, DC 20549. Please call the SEC at 1-800-SEC-0330 for further information on the public reference room. In addition, the SEC maintains an Internet website at <http://www.sec.gov> that contains reports, proxy statements and other information about issuers who file electronically with the SEC, such as BMBC and RBPI. You may also find the reports and other information filed by BMBC and RBPI with the SEC at the respective Internet websites of BMBC and RBPI, which are <http://www.bmtc.com> and <http://www.royalbankamerica.com>. Information on these Internet websites is not part of this proxy statement/prospectus.

The SEC allows BMBC and RBPI to incorporate by reference information in this proxy statement/prospectus. This means that BMBC and RBPI can disclose important information to you by referring you to another document filed separately with the SEC.

The following documents filed by BMBC with the SEC (File No. 001-35746) are hereby incorporated by reference:

Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, filed on March 10, 2017, as amended by Form 10-K/A filed on March 17, 2017, and including the Part III information incorporated by reference from the definitive proxy statement on Schedule 14A filed on March 10, 2017;

Current Reports on Form 8-K filed on January 31, 2017, February 10, 2017, and March 9, 2017 (in each case except to the extent furnished and not filed); and

The description of BMBC common stock contained in the Form 8-A Registration Statement filed with the SEC on December 18, 1986, as amended from time to time, including any amendment or report filed with the SEC for the purpose of updating such description.

The following documents filed by RBPI with the SEC (File No. 0-26366) are hereby incorporated by reference:

Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, filed on March 22, 2017; and Current Reports on Form 8-K filed on February 2, 2017 (in each case except to the extent furnished and not filed).

BMBC and RBPI also incorporate by reference any additional documents filed with the SEC under Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and the effective date of the Merger (other than, in each case, those documents, or the portions of those documents or exhibits thereto, deemed to be furnished and not filed in accordance with SEC rules). Those documents include periodic reports such as Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K, as well as proxy statements.

Any statement contained in a document incorporated by reference herein shall be deemed to be modified or superseded for purposes of this proxy statement/prospectus to the extent that a statement contained herein or in any subsequently filed document which is deemed to be incorporated by reference herein modifies or supersedes such statement. Any such statement so modified or superseded shall not be deemed, except as so modified or superseded, to constitute a party of this proxy statement/prospectus.

This AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER (this “Agreement”) is dated as of January 30, 2017, by and between Bryn Mawr Bank Corporation, a Pennsylvania corporation (“BMBC”), and Royal Bancshares of Pennsylvania, Inc., a Pennsylvania corporation (“RBPI”).

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of each of BMBC and RBPI (a) has determined that this Agreement and the business combination and related transactions contemplated hereby are in the best interests of their respective companies, (b) has determined that this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby are consistent with and in furtherance of their respective business strategies, and (c) has adopted a resolution approving this Agreement and declaring its advisability; and

WHEREAS, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, RBPI will merge with and into BMBC (the “Merger”), and thereafter Royal Bank America, a Pennsylvania chartered bank and wholly owned subsidiary of RBPI (“RBA”), will be merged with and into The Bryn Mawr Trust Company, a Pennsylvania chartered bank and wholly owned subsidiary of BMBC (“BMT”); and

WHEREAS, as a condition to the willingness of BMBC to enter into this Agreement, each of the directors, executive officers and Principal Shareholders of RBPI have entered into a Voting Agreement, substantially in the form of Exhibit A hereto, dated as of the date hereof, with BMBC (collectively, the “RBPI Voting Agreements”), pursuant to which each such Person has agreed, among other things, to vote all shares of RBPI Common Stock owned by such Person in favor of the approval of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the RBPI Voting Agreements;

WHEREAS, each director of RBPI or RBA who will become neither a director of BMBC upon consummation of the Merger nor a director of BMT upon consummation of the Bank Merger has entered into a Non-Competition and Non-Solicitation Agreement pursuant to Section 6.13 hereof;

WHEREAS, the parties intend the Merger to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), and that this Agreement be and is hereby adopted as a “plan of reorganization” within the meaning of Sections 354 and 361 of the Code; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to make certain representations, warranties and agreements in connection with the business transactions described in this Agreement and to prescribe certain conditions thereto.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants, representations, warranties and agreements herein contained, and of other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, intending to be legally bound, the parties hereto agree as follows:

“Securities Laws” shall mean the Securities Act; the Exchange Act; the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended; the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended; the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended, and the rules and regulations of the SEC promulgated thereunder.

“Starting Date” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 11.1.10.

“Subsidiary” shall mean a corporation, limited liability company, partnership, trust, joint venture or other entity in which a Person owns, directly or indirectly, an equity interest representing 50% or more of any class of the capital stock thereof or other equity interests therein.

“Superior Proposal” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 6.10.2.

“Surviving Corporation” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 2.1 hereof.

Table of Contents

“Tax” shall mean any tax, including any fees, levies, duties, tariffs, imposts, and governmental impositions or charges of any kind in the nature of (or similar to) taxes, payable to any federal, state, provincial, local or foreign Taxing Authority, including: (a) income, franchise, profits, gross receipts, ad valorem, net worth, value added, sales, use, service, real, personal or intangible property, special assessments, capital stock, license, payroll, withholding, employment, social security, workers’ compensation, unemployment compensation, estimated, utility, severance, production, excise, stamp, occupation, premiums, windfall profits, recording, transfer and gains taxes; (b) interest, penalties, additional taxes and additions to tax imposed; and (c) any obligations under any agreements or arrangements with any other Person with respect to such amounts and including any liability for taxes of a predecessor entity.

“Tax Return” shall mean any return, declaration, report, claim for refund, estimates, elections, agreements, statements, declarations of estimated tax, information returns or other documents of any nature or kind, relating to, or required to be filed in connection with, any Taxes, including any schedule or attachment thereto and amendments thereof, and including any information returns or reports with respect to backup withholding and other payments to third parties.

“Taxing Authority” shall mean any Governmental Entity responsible for the imposition or collection of any Taxes, whether domestic or foreign.

“Termination Date” shall mean December 31, 2017.

“Termination Fee” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 11.2.1.

“Treasury Stock” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 3.1.2.

“Troubled Debt Restructurings” shall mean loans that are “troubled debt restructurings” as defined in Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 15, “Accounting by Debtors and Creditors for Troubled Debt Restructuring” (ASC 310-40), or any successor thereto.

Other terms used herein are defined in the recitals and elsewhere in this Agreement.

ARTICLE II

THE MERGER

2.1. Merger.

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, at the Effective Time: (a) RBPI shall merge with and into BMBC, with BMBC as the surviving corporation (the “Surviving Corporation”); and (b) the separate existence of RBPI shall cease and all of the rights, privileges, powers, franchises, properties, assets, liabilities and obligations of RBPI shall be vested in and assumed by BMBC. As part of the Merger, each share of RBPI Class A Stock (other than Treasury Stock) and each share of RBPI Class B Stock will be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Merger Consideration pursuant to the terms of Article III hereof.

2.2. Effective Time.

The closing of the transactions contemplated hereby (the “Closing”) shall occur no later than the close of business on the fifteenth calendar day following the satisfaction or (to the extent permitted by applicable Law) waiver of the conditions set forth in Article IX (other than those conditions that by their terms are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or (to the extent permitted by applicable Law) waiver of those conditions), or such other date that may be agreed to in writing by the parties; provided, however, that in no event shall the Closing occur prior to July 1, 2017. The Merger shall be effected by the filing of a Statement of Merger with the Pennsylvania DOS on the day of the Closing (the “Closing Date”), in accordance with the PBCL. The “Effective Time” shall mean the date and time upon which the Statement of Merger are filed with the Pennsylvania DOS, or as otherwise stated in the Statement of Merger, in accordance with the PBCL.

2.3. Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws.

The articles of incorporation and bylaws of BMBC as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation, until thereafter amended as provided therein and by applicable Law.

2.4. Directors and Officers of Surviving Corporation.

Subject to Section 7.11 below, the directors of BMBC immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the initial directors of the Surviving Corporation, each to hold office in accordance with the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation. The officers of BMBC immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the initial officers of the Surviving Corporation, in each case until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified.

2.5. Effects of the Merger.

At and after the Effective Time, the Merger shall have the effects as set forth in the PBCL.

2.6. Tax Consequences.

It is intended that the Merger shall constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and that this Agreement shall constitute a “plan of reorganization” as that term is used in Sections 354 and 361 of the Code. From and after the date of this Agreement and until the Closing, each party hereto shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Merger to qualify, and will not knowingly take any action, cause any action to be taken, fail to take any action or cause any action to fail to be taken, which action or failure to act could prevent the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code. BMBC and RBPI each hereby agrees to deliver certificates substantially in compliance with IRS published advance ruling guidelines, with customary exceptions and modifications thereto, to enable counsel to deliver the legal opinions contemplated by Section 9.1.6, which certificates shall be effective as of the date of such opinions.

2.7. Possible Alternative Structures.

Prior to the Effective Time, BMBC shall be entitled to change the structure of the Merger or the Bank Merger, including, without limitation, by merging RBPI into a wholly-owned Subsidiary of BMBC, without the approval of RBPI; provided, however, that no such change shall (a) adversely alter or change the federal income Tax treatment of holders of RBPI Common Stock in connection with the Merger from what such treatment would have been absent such change; (b) alter or change the kind or amount of the consideration to be paid to the holders of RBPI Common Stock under this Agreement; and (c) impede or delay consummation of the Merger or the Bank Merger or otherwise adversely affect RBPI or the holders of RBPI Common Stock in any material respect. The parties hereto agree to appropriately amend this Agreement and any related documents in order to reflect any such revised structure.

2.8. Bank Merger.

The Bank Merger shall be consummated immediately after the Merger, or as promptly as practicable thereafter. In furtherance of the foregoing, promptly following the execution and delivery of this Agreement, BMBC will cause BMT, and RBPI will cause RBA, to execute and deliver an agreement and plan of merger, substantially in the form attached to this Agreement as Exhibit B, with respect to the Bank Merger.

2.9. Absence of Control.

Subject to any specific provisions of this Agreement, it is the intent of the parties hereto that BMBC by reason of this Agreement shall not be deemed (until consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby) to control, directly or indirectly, RBPI or to exercise, directly or indirectly, a controlling influence over the management or policies of RBPI.

ARTICLE III

CONVERSION OF SHARES

3.1. Conversion of RBPI Common Stock; Merger Consideration.

At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of BMBC, RBPI or the holders of any of the shares of RBPI Common Stock, the Merger shall be effected in accordance with the following terms:

3.1.1. BMBC Shares. Each share of BMBC Common Stock that is issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain issued and outstanding following the Effective Time and shall be unchanged by the Merger.

3.1.2. Cancelled RBPI Shares. All shares of RBPI Common Stock held in the treasury of RBPI (“Treasury Stock”) and each share of RBPI Common Stock owned by BMBC immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than shares held in a fiduciary or agency capacity) shall, at the Effective Time, cease to exist, and the certificates for such shares shall be cancelled as promptly as practicable thereafter, and no payment or distribution shall be made in consideration therefor.

3.1.3. Merger Consideration. Subject to the provisions of this Article III, each share of RBPI Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than as set forth in Section 3.1.2 above), except as to Dissenting Shares, shall become and be converted into, as provided in and subject to the limitations set forth in this Agreement, the right to receive the Per Share Merger Consideration, subject to adjustment in accordance with Section 3.1.5 hereof.

3.1.4. Rights of RBPI Shares Post-Effective Time. After the Effective Time, shares of RBPI Common Stock shall be no longer outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and shall cease to exist, except as to Dissenting Shares, and shall thereafter by operation of this section represent only the right to receive Merger Consideration and any dividends or distributions with respect thereto or any dividends or distributions with a record date prior to the Effective Time that were declared or made by RBPI on such shares of RBPI Common Stock in accordance with the terms of this Agreement on or prior to the Effective Time and which remain unpaid at the Effective Time.

3.1.5. Stock Splits, Etc. In the event BMBC changes (or establishes a record date for changing) the number of, or provides for the exchange of, shares of BMBC Common Stock issued and outstanding prior to the Effective Time as a result of a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification, or similar transaction with respect to the outstanding BMBC Common Stock and the record date therefor shall be prior to the Effective Time, the Exchange Ratio shall be proportionately and appropriately adjusted; provided that no such adjustment shall be made with regard to BMBC Common Stock if BMBC issues additional shares of BMBC Common Stock and receives fair market value consideration for such shares.

3.1.6. No Fractional Shares. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, no certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of BMBC Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender of Certificates for exchange, no dividend or distribution with respect to BMBC Common Stock shall be payable on or with respect to any fractional share, and such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any other rights of a shareholder of BMBC. In lieu of the issuance of any such fractional share, BMBC shall pay to each former shareholder of RBPI who otherwise would be entitled to receive such fractional share, an amount in cash (rounded to the nearest cent), determined by multiplying (a) the fraction of a share (after taking into account all shares of RBPI Common Stock held by such holder at the Effective Time and rounded to the nearest thousandth when expressed in decimal form) of BMBC Common Stock to which such holder would otherwise have been entitled to receive pursuant to Section 3.1, and (b) the average of the daily closing sales prices of a share of BMBC Common Stock as reported on NASDAQ for the five consecutive trading days immediately preceding the fifth calendar day prior to the Closing Date. For purposes of determining any fractional share interest, all shares of RBPI Common Stock owned by a RBPI shareholder shall be combined so as to calculate the maximum number of whole shares of BMBC Common Stock issuable to such RBPI shareholder. For the avoidance of doubt, the parties hereby acknowledge that BMBC is providing such cash payments in lieu of the issuance of any fractional shares of BMBC Common Stock solely for the purpose of avoiding the expense of inconvenience to BMBC of issuing such fractional shares, and such cash payments do not represent separately bargained-for consideration in addition to the Merger Consideration under this Agreement. The aggregate cash consideration paid by BMBC to RBPI's shareholders in lieu of issuing fractional shares of BMBC

Common Stock shall not exceed one percent of the Merger Consideration. The fractional share interests of each RBPI shareholder will be aggregated, and no RBPI shareholder will receive cash consideration in lieu of the issuance of any fractional shares of BMBC Common Stock in an amount equal to or greater than the value of one full share of BMBC Common Stock.

3.2. Procedures for Exchange of RBPI Common Stock.

3.2.1. Deposit of Merger Consideration. At least two Business Days prior to the Effective Time, BMBC shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with the Exchange Agent certificates, or at BMBC's option, evidence of shares in book entry form, representing the aggregate number of shares of BMBC Common Stock, and an amount of cash sufficient to pay the aggregate amount of cash payable pursuant to this Article III (including the amount of cash to pay the estimated amount of cash in lieu of fractional shares) sufficient to deliver the Merger Consideration (and cash in lieu of fractional shares) (collectively, the "Exchange Fund"), and BMBC shall instruct the Exchange Agent to timely pay the aggregate Merger Consideration (and cash in lieu of fractional shares in accordance with this Agreement).

3.2.2. Exchange of Certificates. BMBC shall cause the Exchange Agent, within ten (10) Business Days after the Effective Time (subject to extension as the Exchange Agent may reasonably request), to mail to each holder of a Certificate or Certificates, a letter of transmittal for return to the Exchange Agent and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates for the Merger Consideration (and cash in lieu of fractional shares), if any, into which the RBPI Common Stock represented by such Certificates shall have been converted as a result of the Merger. The letter of transmittal shall be subject to the approval of RBPI (which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) and specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent. Upon proper surrender of a Certificate for exchange and cancellation to the Exchange Agent, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal, duly executed, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor, as applicable, (a) a certificate representing the aggregate amount of Per Share Merger Consideration to which such former holder of RBPI Common Stock shall have become entitled pursuant to the provisions of Section 3.1 hereof, and (b) a check representing the aggregate amount of cash (if any) payable in lieu of fractional shares of BMBC Common Stock (rounded to the nearest whole cent), to which such former holder of RBPI Common Stock shall have become entitled pursuant to the provisions of Section 3.1 hereof, and the Certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be cancelled. No interest will be paid or accrued on the cash payable in lieu of fractional shares.

3.2.3. Rights of Certificate Holders after the Effective Time. The holder of a Certificate that prior to the Merger represented issued and outstanding RBPI Common Stock shall have no rights, after the Effective Time, with respect to such RBPI Common Stock except to surrender the Certificate in exchange for the Merger Consideration as provided in this Agreement. No dividends or other distributions with respect to BMBC Common Stock shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate with respect to the shares of BMBC Common Stock represented thereby, in each case until the surrender of such Certificate in accordance with this Section 3.2. Subject to the effect of applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws, following surrender of any such Certificate in accordance with this Section 3.2, the record holder thereof shall be entitled to receive, without interest, (a) the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore payable with respect to the whole shares of BMBC Common Stock represented by such Certificate and not paid and/or (b) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions payable with respect to shares of BMBC Common Stock represented by such Certificate with a record date after the Effective Time (but before such surrender date) and with a payment date subsequent to the issuance of the BMBC Common Stock issuable with respect to such Certificate.

3.2.4. Surrender by Persons Other than Record Holders. In the event of a transfer of ownership of a Certificate representing RBPI Common Stock that is not registered in the stock transfer records of RBPI, the Merger Consideration (and cash in lieu of fractional shares), shall be issued and paid in exchange therefor to a Person other than the Person in whose name the Certificate so surrendered is registered if the Certificate formerly representing such RBPI Common Stock shall be properly endorsed or otherwise be in proper form for transfer and the Person requesting such issuance and payment shall pay any transfer or other similar Taxes required by reason of the issuance and payment to a Person other than the registered holder of the Certificate or establish to the satisfaction of BMBC that the Tax has been paid or is not applicable.

3.2.5. Closing of Transfer Books. From and after the Effective Time, there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of RBPI of the shares of RBPI Common Stock that were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time other than to settle transfers of RBPI Common Stock that occurred prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates representing such shares are presented for transfer to the Exchange Agent, they shall be cancelled and exchanged for the Merger Consideration (and cash in lieu of fractional shares) to be issued or paid in consideration therefor in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 3.2.

3.2.6. Return of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains unclaimed by the shareholders of RBPI as of the first anniversary of the Effective Time may, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, be paid to BMBC. In such event, any former shareholders of RBPI who have not theretofore complied with this Section 3.2 shall thereafter look only to BMBC with respect to the Per Share Merger Consideration (and cash in lieu of any fractional shares) and any unpaid dividends and distributions on the BMBC Common Stock deliverable in respect of each share of RBPI Common Stock such shareholder holds as determined pursuant to this Agreement, in each case, without any interest thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of BMBC, RBPI, the Exchange Agent or any other person shall be liable to any former holder of shares of RBPI Common Stock for any amount delivered in good faith to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

3.2.7. Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. In the event any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if reasonably required by BMBC or the Exchange Agent, the posting by such Person of a bond in such amount as BMBC may determine is reasonably necessary as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Per Share Merger Consideration deliverable in respect thereof pursuant to this Agreement.

3.2.8. Withholding Rights. BMBC or the Exchange Agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby to any holder of RBPI Common Stock such amounts as BMBC (or any Affiliate thereof) or the Exchange Agent are required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code, or any applicable provision of U.S. federal, state, local or non-U.S. tax law. To the extent that such amounts are properly withheld by BMBC or the Exchange Agent, such withheld amounts will be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the RBPI Common Stock in respect of whom such deduction and withholding were made by BMBC or the Exchange Agent.

3.2.9. Treatment of RBPI Warrants and RBPI Restricted Stock Awards. RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.2.1 sets forth all of the outstanding RBPI Warrants and RBPI Restricted Stock Awards as of the date hereof, and includes, as applicable, the name of the individual grantee, the date of grant, the exercise price, the vesting schedule, if any, and the expiration date.

(A) At the Effective Time, all RBPI Warrants which are outstanding and unexercised immediately prior thereto shall become fully vested, to the extent not fully vested, and exercisable and be converted, in their entirety, automatically into fully vested and exercisable warrants as applicable to purchase shares of BMBC Common Stock (the “Continuing Warrants”) in an amount and at an exercise price determined as provided below (and otherwise subject to the terms of the RBPI Warrant):

(i) The number of shares of BMBC Common Stock to be subject to the Continuing Warrants shall be equal to the product of the number of shares of RBPI Common Stock subject to the RBPI Warrants, and the Exchange Ratio; provided that any fractional shares of BMBC Common Stock resulting from such multiplication shall be rounded down to the nearest share; and

(ii) The exercise price per share of BMBC Common Stock under the Continuing Warrants shall be equal to the exercise price per share of RBPI Common Stock under the RBPI Warrants, as applicable, divided by the Exchange Ratio; provided that such exercise price shall be rounded up to the nearest cent.

The duration and other terms of the Continuing Warrants shall be the same as the RBPI Warrants, except that all references to RBPI shall be deemed to be references to BMBC.

(B) At all times after the Effective Time, BMBC shall reserve for issuance such number of shares of BMBC Common Stock as necessary so as to permit the exercise of Continuing Warrants in the manner contemplated by this Agreement and in the instruments pursuant to which such warrants were granted.

A-19

(C) Each outstanding RBPI Restricted Stock Award granted by RBPI pursuant to the RBPI Stock Benefit Plan, which is unvested immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall vest and be free of any restrictions as of the Effective Time to the extent that such treatment is provided under the terms of the RBPI Stock Benefit Plan and the applicable Restricted Stock Award Agreement and be exchanged for the Merger Consideration as provided in Section 3.1.3 hereof.

Prior to the Effective Time, RBPI shall take or cause to be taken all actions required or necessary under the RBPI Stock Benefit Plan and the RBPI Warrants and RBPI Restricted Stock Awards to provide for the actions set forth in this Section 3.2.9.

3.2.10. Exercise of Continuing Warrants. Continuing Warrants may be exercised in accordance with the terms of the RBPI Warrants in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, subject to the terms of the Continuing Warrants and applicable Law.

3.2.11. Treatment of RBPI Options. RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.2.1 sets forth all of the RBPI Options outstanding as of the date hereof, and includes for each such RBPI Option grant, the name of the individual grantee, the date of grant, the exercise price, the vesting schedule and the expiration date. As of and immediately prior to the Effective Time, all rights with respect to RBPI Class A Stock issuable pursuant to the exercise of RBPI Options which remain outstanding at the Effective Time of the Merger and which have not yet been exercised, shall be cancelled by RBPI in exchange for a cash payment equal to the positive difference, if any, between $4.19 and the corresponding exercise price of such RBPI Option (the “Cash-Out Consideration”). The cancellation of RBPI Options as provided for in this section shall be deemed a release of any and all rights the holder had or may have had in respect of such RBPI Options; provided, however that RBPI will use its commercially reasonable efforts to have each holder of a RBPI Option execute and deliver a Stock Option Cancellation Acknowledgment in the form set forth as Exhibit C hereto. Prior to the Effective Time, RBPI shall take or cause to be taken all actions required under the RBPI Stock Benefit Plan and the applicable option agreements to provide for the actions set forth in this Section 3.2.11.

3.2.12. Dissenters’ Rights.

(A) Each outstanding share of RBPI Class B Stock, the holder of which has provided notice of his, her or its intent to dissent under and in accordance with the PBCL and has not effectively withdrawn or lost such right as of the Effective Time (the “Dissenting Shares”), shall not be converted into or represent a right to receive the Merger Consideration hereunder, and the holder thereof shall be entitled only to such rights as are granted by the PBCL. RBPI shall give BMBC prompt notice upon receipt by RBPI of any such demands for payment of the fair value of such shares of RBPI Class B Stock and of withdrawals of such notice and any other related communications served pursuant to the applicable provisions of the PBCL (any shareholder duly making such demand being hereinafter called a “Dissenting Shareholder”), and BMBC shall have the right to participate in all discussions, negotiations and proceedings with respect to any such demands. RBPI shall not, except with the prior written consent of BMBC, voluntarily make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer to settle, any such demand for payment, or waive any failure to timely deliver a written demand for appraisal or the taking of any other action by such Dissenting Shareholder as may be necessary to perfect dissenters rights under the PBCL. Any payments made in respect of Dissenting Shares shall be made by the Surviving Corporation.

(B) If any holder of Dissenting Shares shall fail to perfect or shall have effectively withdrawn or lost the right to dissent at or prior to the Effective Time, such holder's shares of RBPI Class B Stock shall be converted into a right to receive the Merger Consideration in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement. If such holder withdraws or loses (through failure to perfect or otherwise) the right to such payment after the Effective Time, each share of RBPI Class B Stock of such holder shall be entitled to receive the Per Share Merger Consideration.

ARTICLE IV

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF RBPI

RBPI represents and warrants to BMBC that the statements contained in this Article IV are true and correct as of the date hereof and thereafter as of all times up to and including the Effective Time, subject to such qualifications and exceptions as are set forth in the RBPI Disclosure Schedules.

4.1. Organization.

4.1.1. RBPI is a corporation duly incorporated and validly subsisting under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and is duly registered as a bank holding company under the BHCA. RBPI has the requisite corporate power and authority to carry on its business as now conducted and is duly licensed or qualified to do business in the states of the United States and foreign jurisdictions where its ownership or leasing of property or the conduct of its business requires such licensure or qualification.

4.1.2. RBA is a Pennsylvania chartered bank duly organized and validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. RBA has the requisite corporate power and authority to carry on its business as now conducted and is duly licensed or qualified to do business in the states of the United States and foreign jurisdictions where its ownership or leasing of property or the conduct of its business requires such qualification. The deposits of RBA are insured by the FDIC to the fullest extent permitted by law, and all premiums and assessments required to be paid in connection therewith have been paid by RBA when due. RBA is a member in good standing of the FHLB and owns the requisite amount of stock therein.

4.1.3. RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.1.3 sets forth each RBPI Subsidiary. Each RBPI Subsidiary is a corporation, limited liability company or other entity duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of incorporation or organization. Each RBPI Subsidiary has the requisite corporate or other entity power and authority to carry on its business as now conducted. Each RBPI Subsidiary is duly licensed or qualified to do business in the states of the United States and foreign jurisdictions where its ownership or leasing of property or the conduct of its business requires such qualification.

A-21

4.1.4. The respective minute books of RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary accurately record all material corporate or other entity actions of their respective shareholders and boards of directors, or their other entity equivalents, (including committees).

4.1.5. Prior to the date of this Agreement, RBPI has made available to BMBC true and correct copies of the articles of incorporation, charter and bylaws, or their other equivalent governing documents, of RBPI and the RBPI Subsidiaries, each as in effect as of the date hereof.

4.2. Capitalization.

4.2.1. The authorized capital stock of RBPI consists of 40,000,000 shares of RBPI Class A Stock, of which 28,244,055 shares are outstanding, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free of preemptive rights, and 3,000,000 shares of RBPI Class B Stock, of which 1,924,629 shares are outstanding, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free of preemptive rights. There are 331,031 shares of RBPI Class A Stock and no shares of RBPI Class B Stock held by RBPI as Treasury Stock. Except as set forth above and in RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.2.1, as of the date of this Agreement, there are no outstanding shares of RBPI's capital stock of any class, or any options, warrants or other similar rights, convertible or exchangeable securities, "phantom stock" rights, stock appreciation rights, stock based performance units, agreements, arrangements, commitments or understandings, in each case, to which RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries is a party, whether or not in writing, of any character relating to the issued or unissued capital stock or other securities of RBPI or any of RBPI's Subsidiaries or obligating RBPI or any of RBPI's Subsidiaries to issue (whether upon conversion, exchange or otherwise) or sell any share of capital stock of, or other equity interests in or other securities of, RBPI or any of RBPI's Subsidiaries. As of the date of this Agreement, other than as set forth in RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.2.1, there are no obligations, contingent or otherwise, of RBPI or any of RBPI's Subsidiaries to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any shares of RBPI's capital stock or capital stock of any of RBPI's Subsidiaries or any other securities of RBPI or any of RBPI's Subsidiaries or to provide funds to or make any investment (in the form of a loan, capital contribution or otherwise) in any such Subsidiary. There are no agreements, arrangements or other understandings with respect to the voting of RBPI's capital stock to which RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries is a party and, to the Knowledge of RBPI as of the date hereof, no such agreements between any Persons exist. There are no other agreements or arrangements under which RBPI is obligated to register the sale of any of its securities under the Securities Act. Except as set forth on RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.2.1, since September 30, 2016 through the date hereof, RBPI has not (A) issued or repurchased any shares of RBPI Common Stock, or other equity securities of RBPI or (B) issued or awarded any RBPI Restricted Stock Awards. RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.2.1 sets forth the name of each holder of options or warrants to purchase RBPI Common Stock, the number of shares each such individual may acquire pursuant to the exercise of such options or warrants, the grant and vesting dates, and the exercise price relating to the options or warrants held. In addition, RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.2.1 sets forth the name of each holder of RBPI Restricted Stock Awards, the number of shares such individual may receive upon the vesting thereof, and the grant and vesting dates related to such RBPI Restricted Stock Awards.

4.2.2. RBPI owns all of the capital stock of RBA, free and clear of any Liens. Except for the RBPI Subsidiaries, RBPI does not possess, directly or indirectly, any equity interest in any corporate entity, except for equity interests held in the investment portfolios of RBPI Subsidiaries, equity interests held by RBPI Subsidiaries in a fiduciary capacity, and equity interests held in connection with the lending activities of RBPI Subsidiaries, including stock in the FHLB. Except as disclosed in RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.2.2, either RBPI or RBA, directly or indirectly, owns all of the outstanding shares of capital stock of or all equity interests in each RBPI Subsidiary free and clear of all Liens.

4.2.3. Except as set forth on RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.2.3, no Person or “group” (as that term is used in Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act), is the beneficial owner (as defined in Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) of 5% or more of the outstanding shares of RBPI Common Stock.

4.2.4. RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.2.4 sets forth RBPI’s and all RBPI Subsidiaries’ capital stock, equity interest or other direct or indirect ownership interest in any Person other than a RBPI Subsidiary, where such ownership interest is equal to or greater than five percent (5%) of the total ownership interest of such Person.

4.3. Authority; No Violation.

4.3.1. RBPI has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and, subject to receipt of the Regulatory Approvals and the approval of this Agreement by RBPI’s shareholders, to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by RBPI and the consummation by RBPI of the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger, have been duly and validly approved by the Board of Directors of RBPI, and no other corporate proceedings on the part of RBPI, except for the approval of the RBPI shareholders, is necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by RBPI, and subject to approval by the shareholders of RBPI and receipt of the Regulatory Approvals and due and valid execution and delivery of this Agreement by BMBC, constitutes the valid and binding obligation of RBPI, enforceable against RBPI in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting creditors’ rights generally, and subject, as to enforceability, to general principles of equity.

4.3.2. Subject to receipt of Regulatory Approvals and RBPI’s and BMBC’s compliance with any conditions contained therein, and to the receipt of the approval of the shareholders of RBPI, (a) the execution and delivery of this Agreement by RBPI, (b) the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, and (c) compliance by RBPI with any of the terms or provisions hereof does not and will not (i) conflict with or result in a breach of any provision of the articles of incorporation, certificate of formation, limited liability company agreement, bylaws, or other similar organizational or governing document of RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary or the charter and bylaws of RBA; (ii) violate any statute, code, ordinance, rule, regulation, judgment, order, writ, decree or injunction applicable to RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary or any of their respective properties or assets; (iii) violate, conflict with, result in a breach of any provisions of, constitute a default (or an event which, with notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute a default), under, result in the termination of, accelerate the performance required by, or result in a right of termination or acceleration or the creation of any Lien upon any of the properties or assets of RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary under any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, deed of trust, license, lease, agreement, commitment or other instrument or obligation to which any of them is a party, or by which they or any of their respective properties or assets may be bound or affected; (iv) cause BMBC to become subject to, or to become liable for, the payment of any tax; or (v) contravene, conflict with or result in a violation or breach of any of the terms or requirements of, or give any Governmental Entity the right to revoke, withdraw, suspend, cancel, terminate or modify, any governmental authorization that is held by RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary.

4.3.3. The RBPI Board of Directors has determined that the Merger, on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, is advisable and in the best interests of RBPI and its shareholders, that it will recommend that RBPI's shareholders vote in favor of the Merger, on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, and has directed that the Merger, on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, be submitted to RBPI's shareholders for consideration at a duly held meeting of such shareholders and, except for the approval of this Agreement by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast by all shareholders entitled to vote at a duly held meeting of such shareholders, assuming a quorum is present, no other proceedings on the part of RBPI are necessary to approve this Agreement or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

4.4. Consents.

Except for (a) filings with Bank Regulators, the receipt of the Regulatory Approvals, and compliance with any conditions contained therein, (b) the filing of the Statement of Merger with the Pennsylvania DOS, and (c) the filing with the SEC of (i) the Merger Registration Statement and (ii) such reports under Sections 13(a), 13(d), 13(g) and 16(a) of the Exchange Act as may be required in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby and the obtaining from the SEC of such orders as may be required in connection therewith, (d) approval of the listing of BMBC Common Stock to be issued in the Merger on NASDAQ, (e) such filings and approvals as are required to be made or obtained under the securities or "Blue Sky" laws of various states in connection with the issuance of the shares of BMBC Common Stock pursuant to this Agreement, and (f) the approval of this Agreement by the requisite vote of the shareholders of RBPI, no consents, waivers or approvals of, or filings or registrations with, any Governmental Entity are necessary, and no consents, waivers or approvals of, or filings or registrations with, any other third parties are necessary, in connection with (x) the execution and delivery of this Agreement by RBPI, and (y) the completion of the Merger and the Bank Merger by RBPI and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. RBPI has no reason to believe that any Regulatory Approvals or other required consents or approvals will not be received.

4.5. Reports, Regulatory Matters, Financial Statements.

4.5.1. RBPI has filed (or furnished, as applicable) all Securities Documents required to be filed with the SEC or furnished to the SEC since January 1, 2015, and has paid all fees and assessments due and payable in connection therewith. As of their respective dates of filing with the SEC (or, if amended or superseded by a subsequent filing prior to the date hereof, as of the date of such subsequent filing), the RBPI Securities Documents complied as to form and substance in all material respects with the applicable requirements of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, as the case may be, and the rules and regulations of the SEC thereunder applicable to such RBPI Securities Documents, and none of the RBPI Securities Documents when filed with the SEC, or if amended prior to the date hereof, as of the date of such amendment, (in the case of filings under the Securities Act, at the time it was declared effective) contained any untrue statement of a material fact or omitted to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements made therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. As of the date of this Agreement, there are no unresolved outstanding comments from or unresolved issues raised by the SEC, as applicable, with respect to any of the RBPI Securities Documents.

4.5.2. The consolidated financial statements of RBPI (including any related notes and schedules thereto) included in the RBPI Securities Documents complied as to form and substance, as of their respective dates of filing with the SEC (or, if amended or superseded by a subsequent filing prior to the date hereof, as of the date of such subsequent filing), in all material respects, with all applicable accounting requirements and with the published rules and regulations of the SEC with respect thereto (except, in the case of unaudited statements, as permitted by the rules of the SEC), have been prepared from the books and records of RBPI and the RBPI Subsidiaries, and all such books and records have been maintained in accordance with GAAP applied on a consistent basis during the periods involved (except as may be disclosed therein) and any other legal and accounting requirements, reflect only actual transactions and fairly present, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of RBPI and its Subsidiaries and the consolidated results of operations, changes in shareholders' equity and cash flows of such companies as of the dates and for the periods shown, subject in the case of unaudited statements, only to year-end audit adjustments not material, individually or in the aggregate, in nature and amount, and to the absence of footnote disclosure. Except for those liabilities to the extent reflected or reserved against in the most recent audited consolidated balance sheet of RBPI and its Subsidiaries (or disclosed in the notes thereto) contained in the RBPI Securities Documents and, except for liabilities reflected in RBPI Securities Documents filed prior to the date hereof or incurred in the Ordinary Course of Business or in connection with this Agreement, since December 31, 2015, neither RBPI nor any of its Subsidiaries has any liabilities or obligations of any nature (whether accrued, absolute, contingent or otherwise) required by GAAP to be set forth on its consolidated balance sheet or in the notes thereto.

4.5.3. The records, systems, controls, data and information of RBPI and its Subsidiaries are recorded, stored, maintained and operated under means (including any electronic, mechanical or photographic process, whether computerized or not) that are under the exclusive ownership and direct control of RBPI or its Subsidiaries or accountants (including all means of access thereto and therefrom), except for any non-exclusive ownership and non-direct control that would not reasonably be expected to have a material and adverse effect on the system of internal accounting controls described below in this Section 4.5.3. RBPI (a) has implemented and maintains a system of internal control over financial reporting (as required by Rule 13a-15 of the Exchange Act) that is, among other things, designed to provide reasonable assurances regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of its financial statements for external purposes in accordance with GAAP, (b) has implemented and maintains disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) of the Exchange Act) to ensure that material information relating to RBPI, including its consolidated Subsidiaries, is made known to the chief executive officer and the chief financial officer of RBPI by others within those entities, and (c) has evaluated the effectiveness of RBPI's disclosure controls and procedures and disclosed, based on its most recent evaluation prior to the date hereof, to RBPI's outside auditors and the audit committee of RBPI's Board of Directors (the "RBPI Audit Committee"), and to the extent required by Law, in its Securities Documents, (i) any significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) of the Exchange Act) which are reasonably likely to adversely affect RBPI's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial information, and (ii) any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in RBPI's internal control over financial reporting. These disclosures (if any) were made in writing to RBPI's auditors and the RBPI Audit Committee and a copy has previously been made available to BMBC.

4.5.4. RBPI and each of its Subsidiaries, and the officers and directors of each, have made all certifications required under and are otherwise in compliance in all material respects with and have complied in all material respects with (i) the applicable provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and the related rules and regulations promulgated under such act and the Exchange Act, and (ii) the applicable listing and corporate governance rules and regulations of NASDAQ. As of the date hereof, to the Knowledge of RBPI's chief executive officer and chief financial officer, each of them will be able to give the certifications required pursuant to the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to Section 302 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, without qualification, when next due.

4.5.5. The allowance for loan and lease losses reflected in RBPI's audited consolidated balance sheet at December 31, 2015 was, and the allowance for loan and lease losses shown on the balance sheets in RBPI's Securities Documents for periods ending after December 31, 2015 was, adequate, as of the dates thereof, under GAAP.

4.5.6. Since January 1, 2013, (a) neither RBPI nor any of its Subsidiaries nor any director, officer, employee, auditor, accountant or representative of RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries has received or otherwise had or obtained Knowledge of any complaint, allegation, assertion or claim, whether written or oral, regarding the accounting or auditing practices, procedures, methodologies or methods of RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries or their respective internal accounting controls, including any complaint, allegation, assertion or claim that RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries has engaged in illegal accounting or auditing practices or otherwise relating to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, and (b) no attorney representing RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries, whether or not employed by RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries, has reported evidence of a violation of Securities Laws, breach of fiduciary duty or similar violation by RBPI or any of its officers, directors, employees or agents to the Board of Directors of RBPI or any committee thereof or to any director or officer of RBPI.

4.6. Taxes.

4.6.1. RBPI and the RBPI Subsidiaries are members of the same affiliated group within the meaning of Code Section 1504(a). RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary has timely and duly filed all Tax Returns required to be filed by or with respect to RBPI and every RBPI Subsidiary, either separately or as a member of a group of corporations, on or prior to the Closing Date, taking into account any extensions (all such Tax Returns being accurate and correct in all respects and prepared in compliance with all applicable Law) and has duly paid or made provisions that are adequate for the payment of all Taxes which have been incurred by or are due or claimed to be due from RBPI and any RBPI Subsidiary by any Taxing Authority or pursuant to any written Tax sharing agreement on or prior to the Closing Date other than Taxes or other charges which (a) are not delinquent, (b) are being contested in good faith and as to which adequate reserves (determined in accordance with GAAP) have been provided in the RBPI Financial Statements, or (c) have not yet been fully determined. Neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiaries currently is the beneficiary of any extension of time within which to file any Tax Return. Except as set forth in RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.6.1, as of the date of this Agreement, there is no audit examination, deficiency assessment, Tax investigation, administrative or judicial proceedings or refund litigation with respect to any Taxes of RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary, and no written claim has been made by any Taxing Authority in a jurisdiction where RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary does not file Tax Returns that RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary is subject to Tax in that jurisdiction. RBPI and the RBPI Subsidiaries have not executed an extension or waiver of any statute of limitations on the assessment or collection of any Tax due that is currently in effect. RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary has withheld and paid all Taxes required to have been withheld and paid in connection with amounts paid or owing to any employee, independent contractor, creditor, shareholder or other third party, and RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary has timely complied with all applicable information reporting requirements under Part III, Subchapter A of Chapter 61 of the Code and similar applicable state and local information reporting requirements. Except as set forth on RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.6.1, the United States federal and state income Tax Returns of RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary subject to such Taxes have been audited by the IRS or relevant state Tax Authorities or are closed by the applicable statute of limitations for all taxable years through December 31, 2013.

4.6.2. The unpaid Taxes of RBPI and the RBPI Subsidiaries (a) do not exceed the reserve for Tax liability (rather than any reserve for deferred Taxes established to reflect timing differences between book and Tax income) set forth on the balance sheet of the RBPI Financial Statements and (b) do not exceed the reserve as adjusted for the passage of time through the Closing Date in accordance with the past customs and practice of the Company in filing its Tax Returns. Since December 31, 2015, neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary has incurred any liability for Taxes arising from extraordinary gains or losses, as the term is used in GAAP.

4.6.3. Neither RBPI, RBPI Subsidiary or any director or executive officer (or employee responsible for Tax matters) of RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary expects any Taxing Authority to assess any additional Taxes for any period for which Tax Returns have been filed. Neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary has received from any federal, state, local, or non-U.S. Taxing Authority (including jurisdictions where RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary have not filed Tax Returns) any (a) notice indicating an intent to open an audit or other review, (b) request for information related to Tax matters, or (c) notice of deficiency or proposed adjustment for any amount of Tax proposed, asserted, or assessed by any Taxing Authority against RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary. Neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary is a party to or bound by any Tax allocation or sharing agreement. Neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary has been a member of an affiliated group filing a consolidated federal income Tax Return (other than a group the common parent of which was RBPI) and neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary has any liability for the Taxes of any Person (other than RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary) under Section 1.1502-6 of the income tax regulations promulgated under the Code (or any similar provision of state, local, or non-U.S. law), as a transferee or successor, by contract, or otherwise. There has not been an ownership change, as defined in Section 382(g) of the Code, of RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary that occurred during or after any taxable period in which the Company incurred an operating loss that carries over to any taxable period ending after the fiscal year of RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary immediately preceding the date of this Agreement.

4.6.4. Neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary has been a United States real property holding corporation within the meaning of Section 897(c)(2) of the Code during the applicable period specified in Section 897(c)(1)(A)(ii) of the Code. Neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary has distributed stock of another Person, or has had its stock distributed by another Person, in a transaction that was purported or intended to be governed in whole or in part by Section 355 or Section 361 of the Code. Neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary is or has been a party to any “reportable transaction,” as defined in Section 6707A(c)(1) of the Code and Section 1.6011-4(b) of the income tax regulations promulgated under the Code. Except as set forth on RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.6.4, neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary is a party to any joint venture, partnership, or other arrangement or contract which could be treated as a partnership for federal income tax purposes. Except as set forth on RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.6.4, neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary owns an interest in any (a) single member limited liability company or other entity that is treated as a disregarded entity, (b) controlled foreign corporation (as defined in Section 957 of the Code), (c) passive foreign investment company (as defined in Section 1297 of the Code) or (d) other entity the income of which is or could be required to be included in the income of RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary. Neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary is or ever has been a “personal holding Company” as defined in Section 542 of the Code.

4.6.5. Neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary has disposed of property in a transaction presently being accounted for under the installment method under Section 453 of the Code. None of the assets of RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary is property which RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary is required to treat as being owned by any other Person pursuant to the so-called “safe harbor lease” provisions of former Section 168(f)(8) of the Code. None of the assets of RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary directly or indirectly, secures any debt the interest on which is tax exempt under Section 103(a) of the Code. Neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary presently holds assets for which an election under Section 108(b)(5) of the Code was made. None of the assets of RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary is “tax-exempt use property” within the meaning of Section 168(h) of the Code. No excess loss account exists with respect to any RBPI Subsidiary. RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary is not required to include in income any adjustment pursuant to Section 481(a) of the Code by reason of a voluntary change in accounting and RBPI has no Knowledge that the IRS has proposed such adjustment in accounting method. Except as described in the RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.6.5, the acquisition of the RBPI Common Stock and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement will not be a factor causing any payments to be made by RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary not to be deductible (in whole or in part) pursuant to Sections 280G, 404 or 162(m) of the Code (or any corresponding provisions of state, local, or non-U.S. Tax law). There are no rulings, requests for rulings, or closing agreements with any Taxing Authority specifically requested or entered into by RBPI or a RBPI Subsidiary, which could affect their respective Taxes for any period after the Closing. All transactions that could give rise to an understatement of federal income Tax (within the meaning of Sections 6662 and 6662A of the Code) with respect to RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary were adequately disclosed on Tax Returns to the extent required under the Code. There are no Liens for Taxes upon any property or assets of RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary except for Liens for current Taxes, assessments, and other governmental charges not yet due, or which may thereafter be paid without penalty.

4.6.6. Each of RBPI and the RBPI Subsidiaries operates at least one significant historic business line, or owns at least a significant portion of its historic business assets, in each case within the meaning of Section 1.368-1(d) of the income tax regulations promulgated under the Code.

4.6.7. No portion of the Merger Consideration (or any other amount payable pursuant to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement) is payable on account of or attributable to accrued but unpaid dividends on any class of stock of RBPI.

4.6.8. Neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary has engaged (or will engage) in any transaction wherein the financial statement effects of the tax position related thereto are not recognized pursuant to Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification 740 (FASB ASC 740) because, based on the technical merits, it is not more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination.

4.7. Absence of Changes and Events.

Except as set forth in RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.7, or as otherwise expressly contemplated by this Agreement, (a) since December 31, 2015 to the date hereof, there has not been any change or development in the business, operations, assets, liabilities, condition (financial or otherwise), results of operations, cash flows or properties of RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries which has had, or would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect with respect to RBPI or RBA; (b) since December 31, 2015 to the date hereof there has not been (i) any change by RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries in its accounting methods, principles or practices, other than changes required by applicable Law or GAAP or regulatory accounting as concurred by RBPI's independent accountants, (ii) any declaration, setting aside or payment of any dividend or distribution in respect of any capital stock of RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries or any redemption, purchase or other acquisition of any of its securities; (iii) any increase in or establishment of any bonus, insurance, severance, deferred compensation, pension, retirement, profit sharing, stock option (including, without limitation, the granting of stock options, stock appreciation rights, performance awards, restricted stock awards, restricted stock unit awards or deferred stock unit awards), stock purchase or other employee benefit plan, or any other increase in the compensation payable or to become payable to any directors, officers or employees of RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries (other than normal salary adjustments to employees made in the Ordinary Course of Business), or any grant of severance or termination pay, or any contract or arrangement entered into to make or grant any severance or termination pay, any payment of any bonus, or the taking of any action not in the Ordinary Course of Business with respect to the compensation or employment of directors, officers or employees of RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries; (iv) any material election or material changes in existing elections made by RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries for federal or state Tax purposes; (v) any material change in the credit policies or procedures of RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries, the effect of which was or is to make any such policy or procedure less restrictive in any material respect; (vi) any material acquisition or disposition of any assets or properties, or any contract for any such acquisition or disposition entered into other than RBPI Investment Securities or loans and loan commitments purchased, sold, made or entered into in the Ordinary Course of Business; or (vii) any lease of real or personal property entered into outside of the Ordinary Course of Business, other than in connection with foreclosed property; and (c) since September 30, 2016, there has not been a material increase in RBPI Delinquencies.

4.8.2. Each real estate lease that requires the consent of the lessor or its agent resulting from the Merger or the Bank Merger by virtue of the terms of any such lease, is listed in RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.8.2 identifying the section of the lease that contains such prohibition or restriction. Subject to any consents that may be required as a result of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary is in default in any respect under any material contract, agreement, commitment, arrangement, lease, insurance policy or other instrument to which it is a party, by which its assets, business, or operations may be bound or affected, or under which it or its assets, business, or operations receive benefits, and there has not occurred any event that, with the lapse of time or the giving of notice or both, would constitute such a default.

4.8.3. True and correct copies of the agreements, contracts, arrangements and instruments referred to in Section 4.8.1 and 4.8.2 (“Material Contracts”) have been made available to BMBC on or before the date hereof, and are valid, binding and in full force and effect on the date hereof and neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary (nor, to the Knowledge of RBPI, any other party to any such contract, arrangement or instrument) has breached any provision of, or is in default in any respect under any term of, any Material Contract, and no event or condition exists that constitutes or, after notice or lapse of time or both, will constitute, a breach or default on the part of RBPI or any of the RBPI Subsidiaries under any Material Contract. Except as listed on RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.8.3, no party to any Material Contract will have the right to terminate any or all of the provisions of any such Material Contract as a result of the execution of, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by, this Agreement.

4.8.4. Except as listed on RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.8.4, since December 31, 2015, through and including the date of this Agreement, neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary has (a) increased the wages, salaries, compensation, pension, or other fringe benefits or perquisites payable to any executive officer, employee, or director from the amount thereof in effect as of October 26, 2016 (which amounts have been previously made available to BMBC), granted any severance or termination pay, entered into any contract to make or grant any severance or termination pay (except as required under the terms of agreements or severance plans listed on RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.12.1, as in effect as of the date hereof), or paid any bonus other than the customary year-end bonuses in amounts consistent with past practice except for (i) normal increases for employees made in the Ordinary Course of Business, or (ii) as required by applicable Law, (b) granted any options to purchase shares of RBPI Common Stock, or any right to acquire any shares of its capital stock to any executive officer, director or employee other than grants to employees (other than officers subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act) made in the Ordinary Course of Business under any RBPI Stock Benefit Plan, (c) increased or established any bonus, insurance, severance, deferred compensation, pension, retirement, profit sharing, stock option (including, without limitation, the granting of stock options, stock appreciation rights, performance awards, or restricted stock awards), stock purchase or other employee benefit plan, (d) made any election for federal or state income tax purposes, (e) made any change in the credit policies or procedures of RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries, the effect of which was or is to make any such policy or procedure less restrictive, (f) made any material acquisition or disposition of any assets or properties, or any contract for any such acquisition or disposition entered into other than loans and loan commitments, (g) entered into any lease of real or personal property requiring annual payments in excess of $50,000, (h) except as required by GAAP or a Governmental Entity, changed any accounting methods, principles or practices of RBPI or its Subsidiaries affecting its assets, liabilities or businesses, including any reserving, renewal or residual method, practice or policy or (i) suffered any strike, work stoppage, slow-down, or other labor disturbance.

4.9. Ownership of Property; Insurance Coverage.

4.9.1. RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary has good and, as to real property, marketable title to all assets and properties owned by RBPI or each RBPI Subsidiary in the conduct of their businesses, whether such assets and properties are real or personal, tangible or intangible, including assets and property reflected in the balance sheets contained in the RBPI Regulatory Reports and in the RBPI Financial Statements or acquired subsequent thereto (except to the extent that such assets and properties have been disposed of in the Ordinary Course of Business, since the date of such balance sheets), subject to no Liens, except (a) those items which secure liabilities for public or statutory obligations or any discount with, borrowing from or other obligations to FHLB, inter-bank credit facilities, or any transaction by a RBPI Subsidiary acting in a fiduciary capacity, (b) statutory Liens for amounts not yet delinquent or which are being contested in good faith, (c) non-monetary Liens affecting real property which do not adversely affect the value or use of such real property, and (d) those described and reflected in the RBPI Financial Statements. RBPI and the RBPI Subsidiaries, as lessee, have the right under valid and enforceable leases of real and personal properties used by RBPI and its Subsidiaries in the conduct of their businesses to occupy or use all such properties as presently occupied and used by each of them. Neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary is in default under any lease for any real or personal property to which either RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary is a party, and there has not occurred any event that, with lapse of time or the giving of notice or both, would constitute such a default. RBPI is not a party to any agreement pursuant to which it has securitized any of its assets.

4.9.2. With respect to all agreements pursuant to which RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary has purchased securities subject to an agreement to resell, if any, RBPI or such RBPI Subsidiary, as the case may be, has a valid, perfected, first priority Lien in the securities or other collateral securing the repurchase agreement, and the value of such collateral equals or exceeds the amount of the debt secured thereby.

4.9.3. RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary currently maintain insurance considered by each of them to be reasonable for their respective operations. Neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary, except as disclosed in RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.9.3, has received notice from any insurance carrier during the past five years that (a) such insurance will be cancelled or that coverage thereunder will be reduced or eliminated, or (b) premium costs (other than with respect to health or disability insurance) with respect to such policies of insurance will be substantially increased. Except as set forth on RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.9.3, there are presently no claims pending under such policies of insurance and no notices have been given by RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary under such policies (other than with respect to health or disability insurance). RBPI and all RBPI Subsidiaries maintain such fidelity bonds and errors and omissions insurance as may be customary or required under applicable Law. All such insurance is valid and enforceable and in full force and effect, and within the last three years RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary has received each type of insurance coverage for which it has applied and during such periods has not been denied indemnification for any claims submitted under any of its insurance policies. RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.9.3 identifies all policies of insurance maintained by RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary as well as the other matters required to be disclosed under this Section.

All real property owned by RBPI or a RBPI Subsidiary is in material compliance with all applicable zoning laws and building codes, and the buildings and improvements located on such real property are in good operating condition and in a state of good working order, ordinary wear and tear and casualty excepted. There are no pending or, to the Knowledge of RBPI, threatened condemnation proceedings against such real property. RBPI and the applicable RBPI Subsidiaries are in material compliance with all applicable health and safety related requirements for the owned real property, including those under the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970. Insurance is currently maintained on all property, including all owned real property, in amounts, scope and coverage reasonably necessary for its operations. Neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary has received any written notice of termination, nonrenewal or premium adjustment for such policies.

4.10. Legal Proceedings.

4.10.1. Except (i) as set forth on RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.10 or (ii) in connection with foreclosure proceedings initiated by any RBPI Subsidiary in the Ordinary Course of Business, since January 1, 2012 there have been, and there currently are, no civil, criminal, administrative or regulatory actions, suits, demand letters, demands for indemnification, claims, hearings, notices of violation, default or breach, arbitrations, investigations, orders to show cause, market conduct examinations, notices of non-compliance or other proceedings of any nature pending or, to RBPI's Knowledge, threatened against RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary or to which RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary is a party.

4.10.2. Except as set forth on RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.10, since January 1, 2012 there has been, and there currently is, no injunction, order, judgment, decree or regulatory restriction imposed upon RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary, or the assets of RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary (or that, upon consummation of the transactions contemplated herein, would apply to the Surviving Corporation or any of its Affiliates), and neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary has been advised in writing or, to RBPI's Knowledge, orally, or otherwise has Knowledge of, the threat of any such action.

4.11. Compliance With Applicable Law.

4.11.1. Except as set forth on RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.11.1, and except as has not been and would not reasonably be expected to materially and adversely affect or interfere with RBPI's or RBA's operations, neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary is a party to any agreement with any individual or group regarding Community Reinvestment Act ("CRA") matters. As of the date hereof, RBPI's and RBA's rating in its most recent examination or interim review under the CRA was "satisfactory" or better, and RBPI has not received any written or, to RBPI's Knowledge, oral, communication that RBA's rating in its next subsequent examination or interim review under the CRA will be lower than "satisfactory." Except as set forth on RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.11.1, RBPI and all RBPI Subsidiaries (a) are in compliance in all material respects with the CRA, and the regulations promulgated thereunder; and (b) are operating in in compliance in all material respects with the Bank Secrecy Act and its implementing regulations (31 C.F.R. Title X), the USA PATRIOT Act, any order or guidance issued with respect to anti-money laundering by the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control, or any other applicable anti-money laundering statute, rule or regulation; and (c) are in compliance in all material respects with the applicable privacy of customer information requirements contained in any federal and state privacy Laws and regulations, including, without limitation, in Title V of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act of 1999 and regulations promulgated thereunder, as well as the provisions of the information security program adopted by RBA pursuant to 12 C.F.R. Part 364. Furthermore, the board of directors of RBA has adopted and RBA has implemented an anti-money laundering program that contains adequate and appropriate customer identification verification procedures and meets the requirements of Sections 352 and 326 of the USA PATRIOT Act and the regulations thereunder. RBPI and RBA, collectively, are the sole owner of all individually identifiable personal information relating to identifiable or identified natural Persons who are customers, former customers and prospective customers of RBPI and RBA. Moreover, all RBPI Subsidiaries that are deposit-taking institutions are fully-insured by the FDIC to the extent permissible by the FDIA.

4.11.2. Each of RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary has all permits, licenses, authorizations, orders and approvals of, and has made all filings, applications and registrations with, all Governmental Entities and Bank Regulators that are required in order to permit it to own or lease its properties and to conduct its business as presently conducted, including but not limited to any licenses or approvals required for RBA to conduct mortgage lending activities in the State of New Jersey; all such permits, licenses, certificates of authority, orders and approvals are in full force and effect, and no suspension or cancellation of any such permit, license, certificate, order or approval is, to the Knowledge of RBPI, threatened or will result from the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, subject to obtaining the Regulatory Approvals.

4.11.3. Except as set forth on RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.11.3, since January 1, 2012, neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary has received any written notification or other communication from any Bank Regulator (a) asserting that RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary is not in compliance with any of the statutes, regulations or ordinances which such Bank Regulator enforces; (b) threatening to revoke any license, franchise, permit or governmental authorization; (c) requiring, or threatening to require, RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary, or indicating that RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary may be required, to enter into a cease and desist order, agreement or memorandum of understanding or any other agreement with any federal or state governmental agency or authority which is charged with the supervision or regulation of banks or engages in the insurance of bank deposits restricting or limiting, or purporting to restrict or limit the operations of RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary, including without limitation any restriction on the payment of dividends; or (d) directing, restricting or limiting, or purporting to direct, restrict or limit, in any manner the operations of RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary, including without limitation any restriction on the payment of dividends (any such notice, communication, memorandum, agreement or order described in this sentence is hereinafter referred to as a “RBPI Regulatory Agreement”). Except as disclosed on RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.11.3, neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary is a party to or is subject to any order, decree, agreement, memorandum of understanding or similar arrangement with, or a commitment letter or similar submission to, or extraordinary supervisory letter from, any Bank Regulator or any federal or state governmental agency or authority charged with the supervision or regulation of issuers of securities or the supervision or regulation of it. The most recent regulatory rating given to RBA as to compliance with the CRA is “satisfactory” or better. There are no unresolved violations, criticism, or exception by any Regulatory Authority with respect to any RBPI Regulatory Agreement. There is no injunction, order, judgment or decree imposed upon RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary or the assets of RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary.

4.11.4. RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.11.4 sets forth, as of January 25, 2017, a schedule of all executive officers and directors of RBPI who have outstanding loans from RBPI or RBA, and there has been no default on, or forgiveness or waiver of, in whole or in part, any such loan during the two years immediately preceding the date hereof.

4.11.5. Except as set forth on RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.11.5, none of RBPI's or RBPI Subsidiary's officers, directors, managers, members, employees, partners or independent contractors, has at any time made or received any bribe, kickback or other illegal payment or engaged in any other illegal or improper conduct that has led to any fine, penalty, sanction or liability. RBPI has no Knowledge of any actual, possible or proposed disciplinary action by any Governmental Entity against any of RBPI's or any RBPI Subsidiary's officers, directors, managers, members, partners, employees or independent contractors.

4.12. Employee Benefit Plans.

4.12.1. RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.12.1 includes a list of all RBPI Compensation and Benefit Plans. Neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary has any commitment to create any additional RBPI Compensation and Benefit Plan or to modify, change or renew any existing RBPI Compensation and Benefit Plan, except as required to maintain the qualified status thereof. RBPI has made available to BMBC true and correct copies of the agreements or other documents establishing and evidencing the RBPI Compensation and Benefit Plans.

4.12.2. Except as disclosed in RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.12.2, each RBPI Compensation and Benefit Plan has been operated and administered in all material respects in accordance with its terms and with applicable Law, including, but not limited to, ERISA, the Code, the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, COBRA, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (“HIPAA”) and any regulations or rules promulgated thereunder, and all filings, disclosures and notices required by ERISA, the Code, the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, COBRA and HIPAA and any other applicable Law have been timely made or any interest, fines, penalties or other impositions for late filings have been paid in full. Each RBPI Compensation and Benefit Plan which is an “employee pension benefit plan” within the meaning of Section 3(2) of ERISA (a “Pension Plan”) and which is intended to be qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code has received a favorable determination letter from the IRS, or is in the form of a prototype or volume submitter plan that is the subject of a favorable opinion letter from the IRS on which RBPI is entitled to rely, and RBPI is not aware of any circumstances which are reasonably likely to result in revocation of any such favorable determination letter or opinion letter. There is no pending or, to the Knowledge of RBPI, threatened action, suit or claim relating to any of the RBPI Compensation and Benefit Plans (other than routine claims for benefits). Neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary has engaged in a transaction, or omitted to take any action, with respect to any RBPI Compensation and Benefit Plan that would reasonably be expected to subject RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary to an unpaid tax or penalty imposed by either Sections 4975, 4980B or 5000 of the Code or Section 502 of ERISA.

4.12.3. Neither RBPI nor any entity with which it is or was ever considered one employer under Section 4001(b)(1) of ERISA or Section 414 of the Code (an “RBPI ERISA Affiliate”) since the effective date of ERISA maintains or ever maintained or participated in a plan subject to Title IV of ERISA, or contributes to, contributed to, is obligated to contribute to or was ever obligated to contribute to a “multiemployer plan,” as defined in Section 3(37) of ERISA. Neither RBPI, nor any RBPI ERISA Affiliate, nor any RBPI Compensation and Benefit Plan, nor any trust created thereunder, nor any trustee or administrator thereof has engaged in a transaction in connection with which RBPI, any RBPI ERISA Affiliate, and any RBPI Compensation and Benefit Plan, or any such trust or any trustee or administrator thereof, could reasonably be expected to be subject to either a civil liability or penalty pursuant to Section 409, 502(i) or 502(l) of ERISA or a tax imposed pursuant to Chapter 43 of the Code.

4.12.4. All contributions required to be made under the terms of any RBPI Compensation and Benefit Plan have been timely made, and all anticipated contributions and funding obligations are accrued on RBPI’s consolidated financial statements to the extent required by GAAP. RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary has expensed and accrued as a liability the present value of future benefits under each applicable RBPI Compensation and Benefit Plan for financial reporting purposes as required by GAAP.

4.12.5. Neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary has any obligations to provide retiree health, life insurance, death benefits, or disability insurance, except as set forth in RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.12.5, under any RBPI Compensation and Benefit Plan, other than benefits mandated by Section 4980B of the Code. Except as set forth in RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.12.5, there has been no communication to employees by RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary that would reasonably be expected to promise or guarantee such employees retiree health, life insurance, or disability insurance, or any retiree death benefits.

4.12.6. RBPI and its Subsidiaries do not maintain any RBPI Compensation and Benefit Plans covering employees who are not United States residents.

4.12.7. With respect to each RBPI Compensation and Benefit Plan, if applicable, RBPI has provided or made available to BMBC copies of the: (a) trust instruments and insurance contracts; (b) three most recent Forms 5500 filed with the IRS, including all schedules and attachments thereto; (c) three most recent financial statements; (d) most recent summary plan description; (e) most recent determination letter issued by the IRS; (f) any Form 5310 or Form 5330 filed with the IRS within the last three years; and (g) most recent nondiscrimination tests performed under ERISA and the Code (including 401(k) and 401(m) tests).

4.12.8. Except as provided in RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.12.8 and in Section 3.2.9, the consummation of the Merger will not, directly or indirectly (including, without limitation, as a result of any termination of employment or service at any time prior to or following the Effective Time) (a) entitle any employee, consultant or director to any payment or benefit (including severance pay, change in control benefit, or similar compensation) or any increase in compensation, (b) result in any increase in benefits payable under any RBPI Compensation and Benefit Plan, or (c) entitle any current or former employee, director or independent contractor of RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary to any actual or deemed payment (or benefit) which could constitute a “parachute payment” (as such term is defined in Section 280G of the Code).

4.12.9. Except as disclosed in RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.12.9, neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary maintains any compensation plans, programs or arrangements under which any payment is reasonably likely to become non-deductible, in whole or in part, for tax reporting purposes as a result of the limitations under Section 162(m) of the Code and the regulations issued thereunder.

4.12.10. Except as disclosed in RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.12.10, all deferred compensation plans, programs or arrangements are in compliance, both in form and operation, with Section 409A of the Code and all guidance issued thereunder.

4.12.11. Except as disclosed in RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.12.11, there are no stock options, stock appreciation or similar rights, earned dividends or dividend equivalents, or shares of restricted stock, outstanding under any of the RBPI Compensation and Benefit Plans or otherwise as of the date hereof.

4.12.12. RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.12.12 sets forth, as of the payroll date immediately preceding the date of this Agreement, a list of the full names of all officers, and employees of RBA or RBPI, their title and rate of salary, and their date of hire.

4.13. Brokers, Finders and Financial Advisors.

Neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary, nor any of their respective officers, directors, employees or agents, has employed any broker, finder or financial advisor in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or incurred any liability or commitment for any fees or commissions to any such person in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement except for the retention of Sandler O’Neill & Partners (“Sandler”) and RBC Capital Markets, LLC (“RBCCM”) by RBPI, and the fees payable pursuant thereto. A true and correct copy of the engagement agreements with Sandler and RBCCM, setting forth the fees payable to Sandler and RBCCM for their respective services rendered to RBPI in connection with the Merger and transactions contemplated by this Agreement, is attached to RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.13.

4.14. Environmental Matters.

4.14.1. Except as may be set forth in RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.14, with respect to RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary:

(A) Except as set forth on RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.14, neither the conduct nor operation of its business nor any condition of any property currently owned or operated, or to RBPI's Knowledge previously owned or operated, by it during the period of such ownership or operation by RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary, or to RBPI's Knowledge at any other time, (including Participation Facilities, as hereinafter defined) including, without limitation, in a fiduciary or agency capacity, or, to RBPI's Knowledge, any property on which it holds a Lien, results or resulted in a violation of or gives rise to any potential liability under, any Environmental Laws that is reasonably likely to impose a liability (including a remediation obligation) upon RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary. To the Knowledge of RBPI, no condition has existed or event has occurred with respect to any of them or any such property that, with notice or the passage of time, or both, is reasonably likely to result in any liability to RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary by reason of any Environmental Laws. Neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary during the past five years has received any written notice from any Person or Governmental Entity that RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary or the operation or condition of any property ever owned, operated (including Participation Facilities), or held as collateral or in a fiduciary capacity by any of them, is currently in violation of or otherwise is alleged to have liability under any Environmental Laws or relating to Materials of Environmental Concern (including, but not limited to, responsibility (or potential responsibility) for the investigation, cleanup or other remediation of any Materials of Environmental Concern at, on, beneath, or originating from any such property) for which a material liability is reasonably likely to be imposed upon RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary;

(B) There is no suit, claim, action, demand, executive or administrative order, directive, investigation, proceeding or agreement pending or, to RBPI's Knowledge, threatened, before any court, Governmental Entity or other forum against RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary (a) for alleged noncompliance (including by any predecessor) with, or liability under, any Environmental Law or (b) relating to the presence or threat of a Release, whether or not occurring at or on a site owned, leased or operated by RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary;

(C) To RBPI's Knowledge, there are no underground storage tanks on, in or under any properties owned or operated by RBPI or any of the RBPI Subsidiaries, and to RBPI's Knowledge no underground storage tanks have been closed or removed from any properties owned or operated by RBPI or any of the RBPI Subsidiaries or any Participation Facility except in compliance with Environmental Laws; and

(D) “Participation Facility” shall mean any facility in which RBPI or any of the RBPI Subsidiaries participates in the management, whether as a fiduciary, lender in control of the facility, owner or operator.

4.15. Loan Portfolio.

4.15.1. RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.15.1 sets forth a listing, as of December 31, 2016, by name and account, of: (a) all Loans of RBA or any other RBPI Subsidiary that have had their respective terms to maturity accelerated during the past twelve months; (b) all loan commitments or lines of credit of RBA or any other RBPI Subsidiary which have been terminated by RBA or any other RBPI Subsidiary during the past twelve months by reason of a default or adverse developments in the condition of the borrower or other events or circumstances affecting the credit of the borrower; (c) each borrower, customer or other party which has notified RBA or any other RBPI Subsidiary during the past twelve months of, or has asserted against RBA or any other RBPI Subsidiary, in each case in writing, any “lender liability” or similar claim, and each borrower, customer or other party which has given RBA or any other RBPI Subsidiary any oral notification of, or orally asserted to or against RBA or any other RBPI Subsidiary, any such claim.

4.15.2. RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.15.2 sets forth a listing of all Loans, (a) that are contractually past due 30 days or more in the payment of principal and/or interest, (b) that are on non-accrual status, (c) that as of the date of this Agreement are classified as “Watch,” “Other Loans Specially Mentioned,” “Special Mention,” “Substandard,” “Doubtful,” “Loaned,” “Classified,” “Criticized,” “Credit Risk Assets,” “Concerned Loans,” “Watch List” or words of similar import, together with the principal amount of and accrued and unpaid interest on each such Loan and the identity of the obligor thereunder, (d) where, during the past three years, the interest rate terms have been reduced and/or the maturity dates have been extended subsequent to the agreement under which the Loan was originally created due to concerns regarding the borrower’s ability to pay in accordance with such initial terms, (e) that qualify as Troubled Debt Restructurings, (f) where a specific reserve allocation exists in connection therewith.

4.15.3. RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.15.3 identifies each asset of RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries that as of September 30, 2016 was classified as OREO and the book value thereof as of the date of this Agreement as well as any assets classified as OREO since September 30, 2016 to the date hereof and any sales of OREO between September 30, 2016 and the date hereof, reflecting any gain or loss with respect to any OREO sold.

4.15.4. All Loans receivable (including discounts) and accrued interest entered on the books of RBPI and the RBPI Subsidiaries arose out of bona fide arm’s-length transactions, were made for good and valuable consideration in the Ordinary Course of Business, and the notes or other evidences of indebtedness with respect to such Loans (including discounts), and all pledges, mortgages, deeds of trust and other collateral documents or security instruments relating thereto, are valid, true and genuine and are what they purport to be. To RBPI’s Knowledge, the Loans, discounts and the accrued interest reflected on the books of RBPI and the RBPI Subsidiaries are subject to no defenses, set-offs or counterclaims (including, without limitation, those afforded by usury or truth-in-lending laws), except as may be provided by bankruptcy, insolvency or similar laws affecting creditors’ rights generally or by general principles of equity. All such Loans are being transferred with good and marketable title, free and clear of any and all Liens encumbering such Loan and are evidenced by notes, agreements or other evidences of indebtedness which are true, genuine and correct, and to the extent secured, are secured by valid Liens that are legal, valid and binding obligations of the maker thereof, enforceable in accordance with the respective terms thereof, except as such enforcement may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other similar laws or equitable principles affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights, which have been perfected.

4.15.5. All currently outstanding Loans held in RBPI's, RBA's or any of their respective Subsidiaries' loan portfolio (each a "RBPI Loan") were solicited, originated, administered, and, currently exist, and the relevant Loan files are being maintained, in material compliance with all applicable requirements of Law, the applicable loan documents, and RBA's lending policies at the time of origination of such RBPI Loans, and the notes or other credit or security documents with respect to each such outstanding RBPI Loan are complete and correct in all material respects. There are no oral modifications or amendments or additional agreements related to the RBPI Loans that are not reflected in the written records of RBPI or RBA, as applicable. All such RBPI Loans are owned by RBPI or RBA free and clear of any Liens (other than blanket Liens by the FHLB). No claims of defense as to the enforcement of any currently outstanding RBPI Loan have been asserted in writing against RBPI or RBA for which there is a reasonable probability of an adverse determination, and, except as set forth in RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.15.5(i), neither RBPI nor RBA has any Knowledge of any claim or right of rescission for which there is a reasonable probability of a determination adverse to RBA. Except as set forth in RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.15.5(ii), no RBPI Loans are presently serviced by third parties, and there is no obligation which could result in any RBPI Loan becoming subject to any third party servicing.

4.15.6. Except as would not reasonably be expected to be material, neither RBPI nor any of its Subsidiaries is a party to any agreement or arrangement with (or otherwise obligated to) any Person which obligates RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries to repurchase from any such Person any Loan or other asset of RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries, unless there is a material breach of a representation or covenant by RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries, and none of the agreements pursuant to which RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries has sold Loans or pools of Loans or participations in Loans or pools of Loans contains any obligation to repurchase such Loans or interests therein solely on account of a payment default by the obligor on any such Loan.

4.15.7. Neither RBPI nor any of its Subsidiaries is now nor has it ever been since January 1, 2012, subject to any fine, suspension, settlement or other contract or other administrative agreement or sanction by, or any reduction in any loan purchase commitment from, any Governmental Entity relating to the origination, sale or servicing of mortgage or consumer Loans.

4.15.8. Since January 1, 2014, neither RBPI nor any of its Subsidiaries has canceled, released or compromised any Loan, obligation, claim or receivable other than in the Ordinary Course of Business.

4.15.9. RBPI and RBA have not, since December 31, 2013, extended or maintained credit, arranged for the extension of credit, or renewed an extension of credit, in the form of a personal loan to or for any director, executive officer, or principal shareholder (or equivalent thereof) of RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries (as such terms are defined in FRB Regulation O), except as permitted by Regulation O and that have been made in compliance with the provisions of Regulation O (or that are exempt therefrom). RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.15.9 identifies, as of September 30, 2016, any loan or extension of credit maintained by RBPI and RBA to which Regulation O applies, and there has been no default on, or forgiveness of waiver of, in whole or in part, any such loan during the two (2) years preceding the date hereof.

4.15.10. RBPI's reserves, allowance for loan and lease losses and carrying value for real estate owned as reflected in each of the RBPI Financial Statements were, in the opinion of management, as of the applicable dates thereof, adequate in all material respects to provide for possible losses on the applicable items and in compliance with RBPI's and RBA's existing methodology for determining the adequacy of its allowance for loan and lease losses as well as the standards established by applicable Governmental Entity, the Financial Accounting Standards Board and GAAP.

4.16. Documents.

RBPI has made available to BMBC copies of its annual reports and proxy materials used or for use in connection with its meetings of shareholders, each since January 1, 2013.

4.17. Related Party Transactions.

Except as set forth in RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.17, neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary is a party to any transaction (including any loan or other credit accommodation) with any Affiliate of RBPI or any RBPI Affiliate. All such transactions (a) were made in the Ordinary Course of Business, (b) were made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other Persons, and (c) did not involve substantially more than the normal risk of collectability or present other unfavorable features (as such terms are used under Regulation O of the FRB). No loan or credit accommodation to any Affiliate of RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary is presently in default or, during the three year period prior to the date of this Agreement, has been in default or has been restructured, modified or extended. Neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary has been notified that principal and interest with respect to any such loan or other credit accommodation will not be paid when due or that the loan grade classification accorded such loan or credit accommodation by RBPI is inappropriate.

4.18. Deposits.

As of the date of this Agreement, none of the deposits of RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary is a "brokered deposit" as defined in 12 CFR Section 337.6(a)(2).

4.19. Antitakeover Provisions Inapplicable; Required Vote.

RBPI and its Subsidiaries have taken all actions required to exempt BMBC, BMT, the Merger, the Bank Merger, the Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby from any provisions of an anti-takeover nature contained in RBPI's or its Subsidiaries' organizational documents, and the provisions of any applicable federal or state "anti-takeover," "fair price," "moratorium," "control share acquisition" or similar laws or regulations, including provisions of the nature set forth in Chapter 25 of the PBCL. The affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the total votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all the outstanding shares of RBPI Common Stock is required to approve this Agreement and the Merger under RBPI's articles of incorporation and the PBCL.

4.20. Registration Obligations.

Neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary is under any obligation, contingent or otherwise, which will survive the Effective Time by reason of any agreement to register any transaction involving any of its securities under the Securities Act.

4.21. Risk Management Instruments.

All interest rate swaps, caps, floors, option agreements, futures and forward contracts and other similar risk management arrangements, whether entered into for RBPI's own account, or for the account of one or more of RBPI's Subsidiaries or their customers (all of which are set forth in RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.21), were entered into in the Ordinary Course of Business and in compliance with all applicable Laws, and with counterparties believed at the time to be financially responsible and able to understand (either alone or in consultation with their advisors) and to bear the risks of such transactions; and each of them constitutes the valid and legally binding obligation of RBPI or one of its Subsidiaries, enforceable in accordance with its terms (except as enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent transfer and similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights or by general equity principles), and is in full force and effect. Neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary, nor to the Knowledge of RBPI any other party thereto, is in breach of any of its obligations under any such agreement or arrangement in any respect and there are no allegations or assertions of such by any party thereunder.

4.22. Fairness Opinion.

RBPI has received an oral opinion from Sandler to the effect that, subject to the terms, conditions and qualifications set forth therein, as of the date hereof, the Exchange Ratio is fair to the shareholders of RBPI from a financial point of view, which opinion will be confirmed in a writing dated as of the date of this Agreement. Such opinion has not been amended or rescinded as of the date of this Agreement.

4.23. Trust Accounts.

RBA and each of its subsidiaries has properly administered all accounts for which it acts as a fiduciary, including but not limited to accounts for which it serves as trustee, agent, custodian, personal representative, guardian, conservator or investment advisor, in accordance with the terms of the governing documents and applicable Law. None of RBA, any other RBPI Subsidiary, or any of their respective directors, officers or employees, has committed any breach of trust with respect to any such fiduciary account and the records for each such fiduciary account are true and correct and accurately reflect the assets of such fiduciary account.

4.24. Intellectual Property.

RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.24 sets forth a true and accurate list of all patents, copyrights, trade secrets, trade names, service marks, trademarks, and domain names owned or used by RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary. RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary (a) owns or possesses valid and binding licenses and other rights (subject to expirations in accordance with their respective terms) to use any and all patents, copyrights, trade secrets, trade names, service marks, trademarks, and domain names and (b) is a party to valid and binding licenses for any software, which are required for RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary to conduct their respective businesses as currently conducted. Neither RBPI nor any RBPI Subsidiary has received any notice or has any Knowledge of any conflict with respect any patents, copyrights, trade secrets, trade names, service marks, trademarks, or licensed software used by RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary in their respective businesses as currently conducted. RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary has performed all of the obligations required to be performed as of the date of this Agreement, and is not in default in any respect, under any license, contract, agreement, arrangement or commitment relating to any of the foregoing. The conduct of the business of RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary as currently conducted or proposed to be conducted does not infringe upon, dilute, misappropriate or otherwise violate any intellectual property owned or controlled by any third party, and no third party has infringed, diluted, misappropriated or otherwise violated any intellectual property rights of RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary. RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary (a) owns or possesses confidential information, including, but not limited to, customer lists and customer data, (b) has taken reasonable steps to protect such confidential information from unintended disclosure, and (c) represents and warrants that such confidential information has not been disclosed to any third parties other than their Affiliates, third parties with which they have contractual nondisclosure agreements or BMBC and its Affiliates.

4.25. Labor Matters.

There are no labor or collective bargaining agreements to which RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary is a party. There is no union organizing effort pending or to the Knowledge of RBPI, threatened against RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary. There is no labor strike, labor dispute (other than routine employee grievances that are not related to union employees), work slowdown, stoppage or lockout pending or, to the Knowledge of RBPI, threatened against RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary. There is no unfair labor practice or labor arbitration proceeding pending or, to the Knowledge of RBPI, threatened against RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary (other than routine employee grievances that are not related to union employees). RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary is in compliance in all material respects with all applicable Law respecting employment and employment practices, terms and conditions of employment and wages and hours, and are not engaged in any unfair labor practice. RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary represents that they have not made any commitments to others inconsistent with or in derogation of any of the foregoing. There are no pending or, to the Knowledge of RBPI, threatened claims or suits against RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary, or for which either might be legally responsible, under any labor or employment law or brought or made by a current or former employee or applicant.

4.26. RBPI Information Supplied.

4.26.1. The information relating to RBPI and any RBPI Subsidiary to be contained in the Merger Registration Statement, or in any other document filed with any Bank Regulator or other Governmental Entity in connection herewith will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances in which they are made, not misleading.

4.26.2. The information supplied by RBPI and any RBPI Subsidiary for inclusion in the Applications will, at the time each such document is filed with any Bank Regulator and up to and including the dates of any required regulatory approvals or consents, as such Applications may be amended by subsequent filings, be accurate in all material respects.

4.27. Investment Securities and Commodities

4.27.1. RBPI and all RBPI Subsidiaries have good title to all securities and commodities owned by them (except those sold under repurchase agreements or held in any fiduciary or agency capacity), free and clear of any Liens, except to the extent such securities or commodities are pledged in the Ordinary Course of Business to secure obligations of RBPI or RBPI Subsidiaries. Such securities and commodities are valued on the books of RBPI in accordance with GAAP.

4.27.2. RBPI and all RBPI Subsidiaries and their respective businesses employ, and have acted in compliance in all material respects with, investment, securities, commodities, risk management and other policies, practices and procedures (the “Policies, Practices and Procedures”) that RBPI believes are prudent and reasonable in the context of such businesses. Before the date hereof, RBPI has made available to BMBC in writing its material Policies, Practices and Procedures.

4.28. RBPI Information.

No statement, certificate, instrument, or other writing furnished or to be furnished by RBPI to BMBC pursuant to this Agreement or any other document, agreement, or instrument referred to herein contains or will contain any untrue statement of material fact or omits or will omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

ARTICLE V

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF BMBC

BMBC represents and warrants to RBPI that the statements contained in this Article V are true and correct as of the date hereof and thereafter as of all times up to and including the Effective Time, subject to such qualifications and exceptions as are set forth in the BMBC Disclosure Schedules.

5.1. Organization.

5.1.1. BMBC is a corporation duly organized and, validly subsisting under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and is duly registered as a bank holding company under the BHCA. BMBC has the requisite corporate power and authority to carry on its business as now conducted. BMBC is duly licensed or qualified to do business in the states of the United States and foreign jurisdictions where its ownership or leasing of property or the conduct of its business requires such licensure or qualification.

Table of Contents

5.1.2. BMT is a Pennsylvania chartered bank duly organized and validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. BMT has the requisite corporate power and authority to carry on its business as now conducted. BMT is duly licensed or qualified to do business in the states of the United States and foreign jurisdictions where its ownership or leasing of property or the conduct of its business requires such qualification. The deposits of BMT are insured by the FDIC to the fullest extent permitted by law, and all premiums and assessments required to be paid in connection therewith have been paid when due. BMT is a member in good standing of the FHLB and owns the requisite amount of stock therein.

5.2. Capitalization.

5.2.1. The authorized capital stock of BMBC consists of 100,000,000 shares of common stock, $1.00 par value per share, of which 16,940,715 shares are outstanding, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free of preemptive rights. There are 4,171,253 shares of BMBC Common Stock held by BMBC as treasury stock. Neither BMBC nor any BMBC Subsidiary has or is bound by any Rights of any character relating to the purchase, sale or issuance or voting of, or right to receive dividends or other distributions on any shares of BMBC Common Stock, or any other security of BMBC or any securities representing the right to vote, purchase or otherwise receive any shares of BMBC Common Stock or any other security of BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary, or pursuant to which BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary is or could be required to register shares of BMBC capital stock or other securities under the Securities Act, other than shares issuable under the BMBC Stock Benefit Plans.

5.2.2. BMBC owns all of the capital stock of BMT free and clear of any Liens. Except for the BMBC Subsidiaries, BMBC does not possess, directly or indirectly, any equity interest in any corporate entity, except for equity interests held in the investment portfolios of BMBC Subsidiaries, equity interests held by BMBC Subsidiaries in a fiduciary capacity, and equity interests held in connection with the lending activities of BMBC Subsidiaries, including stock in the FHLB. Except as set forth in BMBC's Securities Documents, either BMBC or BMT, directly or indirectly, owns all of the outstanding shares of capital stock of or all equity interests in each BMBC Subsidiary free and clear of all Liens.

5.2.3. Except as set forth in BMBC's Securities Documents, to the Knowledge of BMBC, no Person or "group" (as that term is used in Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act) is the beneficial owner (as defined in Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) of 5% or more of the outstanding shares of BMBC Common Stock.

5.2.4. Neither BMBC nor any of the BMBC Subsidiaries' hold any capital stock, equity interest or other direct or indirect ownership interest in any Person other than a BMBC Subsidiary, where such ownership interest is equal to or greater than five percent (5%) of the total ownership interest of such Person.

5.3. Authority; No Violation.

5.3.1. BMBC has full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and, subject to receipt of the Regulatory Approvals, to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by BMBC and the consummation by BMBC of the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger, have been duly and validly approved by the Board of Directors of BMBC, and no other corporate proceedings on the part of BMBC are necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by BMBC, and subject to receipt of the Regulatory Approvals and due and valid execution and delivery of this Agreement by RBPI, constitutes the valid and binding obligation of BMBC, enforceable against BMBC in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally, and subject, as to enforceability, to general principles of equity.

5.3.2. Subject to receipt of Regulatory Approvals and RBPI's and BMBC's compliance with any conditions contained therein, (a) the execution and delivery of this Agreement by BMBC, (b) the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, and (c) compliance by BMBC with any of the terms or provisions hereof does not and will not (i) conflict with or result in a breach of any provision of the articles of incorporation, certificate of formation, limited liability company agreement, bylaws or other similar organizational or governing document of BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary; (ii) violate any statute, code, ordinance, rule, regulation, judgment, order, writ, decree or injunction applicable to BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary or any of their respective properties or assets; or (iii) violate, conflict with, result in a breach of any provisions of, constitute a default (or an event which, with notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute a default), under, result in the termination of, accelerate the performance required by, or result in a right of termination or acceleration or the creation of any Lien upon any of the properties or assets of BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary under any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, deed of trust, license, lease, or material agreement, commitment or other instrument or obligation to which any of them is a party, or by which they or any of their respective properties or assets may be bound or affected (iv) cause RBPI to become subject to, or to become liable for, the payment of any tax; or (v) contravene, conflict with or result in a violation or breach of any of the terms or requirements of, or give any Governmental Entity the right to revoke, withdraw, suspend, cancel, terminate or modify, any governmental authorization that is held by BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary.

5.3.3. The BMBC Board of Directors has determined that the Merger, on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, is advisable and in the best interests of BMBC and its shareholders, and no other proceedings on the part of BMBC are necessary to approve this Agreement or consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

5.4. Consents.

Except for (a) filings with Bank Regulators, the receipt of the Regulatory Approvals, and compliance with any conditions contained therein, (b) the filing of the Statement of Merger with the Pennsylvania DOS, (c) the filing with the SEC of (i) the Merger Registration Statement, and (ii) such reports under Sections 13(a), 13(d), 13(g) and 16(a) of the Exchange Act as may be required in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby and the obtaining from the SEC of such orders as may be required in connection therewith, (d) approval of the listing of BMBC Common Stock to be issued in the Merger on NASDAQ, (e) such filings and approvals as are required to be made or obtained under the securities or “Blue Sky” laws of various states in connection with the issuance of the shares of BMBC Common Stock pursuant to this Agreement, and (f) the approval of this Agreement by the requisite vote of the shareholders of RBPI, no consents, waivers or approvals of, or filings or registrations with, any Governmental Entity are necessary, and no consents, waivers or approvals of, or filings or registrations with, any other third parties are necessary, in connection with (i) the execution and delivery of this Agreement by BMBC, and (ii) the completion of the Merger and the Bank Merger by BMBC and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. BMBC has no reason to believe that any Regulatory Approvals or other required consents or approvals will not be received.

5.5. Reports, Regulatory Matters, Financial Statements.

5.5.1. BMBC has filed (or furnished, as applicable) all Securities Documents required to be filed with the SEC or furnished to the SEC since January 1, 2015, and has paid all fees and assessments due and payable in connection therewith. As of their respective dates of filing with the SEC (or, if amended or superseded by a subsequent filing prior to the date hereof, as of the date of such subsequent filing), the BMBC Securities Documents complied as to form and substance in all material respects with the applicable requirements of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, as the case may be, and the rules and regulations of the SEC thereunder applicable to such BMBC Securities Documents, and none of the BMBC Securities Documents when filed with the SEC, or if amended prior to the date hereof, as of the date of such amendment, (in the case of filings under the Securities Act, at the time it was declared effective) contained any untrue statement of a material fact or omitted to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements made therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. As of the date of this Agreement, there are no unresolved outstanding comments from or unresolved issues raised by the SEC, as applicable, with respect to any of the BMBC Securities Documents.

5.5.2. The consolidated financial statements of BMBC (including any related notes and schedules thereto) included in the BMBC Securities Documents complied as to form and substance, as of their respective dates of filing with the SEC (or, if amended or superseded by a subsequent filing prior to the date hereof, as of the date of such subsequent filing), in all material respects, with all applicable accounting requirements and with the published rules and regulations of the SEC with respect thereto (except, in the case of unaudited statements, as permitted by the rules of the SEC), have been prepared from the books and records of BMBC and the BMBC Subsidiaries, and all such books and records have been maintained in accordance with GAAP applied on a consistent basis during the periods involved (except as may be disclosed therein) and any other legal and accounting requirements, reflect only actual transactions and fairly present, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of BMBC and its Subsidiaries and the consolidated results of operations, changes in shareholders' equity and cash flows of such companies as of the dates and for the periods shown, subject in the case of unaudited statements, only to year-end audit adjustments not material, individually or in the aggregate, in nature and amount, and to the absence of footnote disclosure. Except for those liabilities to the extent reflected or reserved against in the most recent audited consolidated balance sheet of BMBC and its Subsidiaries contained in the BMBC Securities Documents (or disclosed in the notes thereto) and, except for liabilities reflected in BMBC Securities Documents filed prior to the date hereof or incurred in the Ordinary Course of Business or in connection with this Agreement, since December 31, 2015, neither BMBC nor any of its Subsidiaries has any liabilities or obligations of any nature (whether accrued, absolute, contingent or otherwise) required by GAAP to be set forth on its consolidated balance sheet or in the notes thereto.

5.5.3. The records, systems, controls, data and information of BMBC and its Subsidiaries are recorded, stored, maintained and operated under means (including any electronic, mechanical or photographic process, whether computerized or not) that are under the exclusive ownership and direct control of BMBC or its Subsidiaries or accountants (including all means of access thereto and therefrom), except for any non-exclusive ownership and non-direct control that would not reasonably be expected to have a material and adverse effect on the system of internal accounting controls described below in this Section 5.5.3. BMBC (a) has implemented and maintains a system of internal control over financial reporting (as required by Rule 13a-15 of the Exchange Act) that is, among other things, designed to provide reasonable assurances regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of its financial statements for external purposes in accordance with GAAP, (b) has implemented and maintains disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) of the Exchange Act) to ensure that material information relating to BMBC, including its consolidated Subsidiaries, is made known to the chief executive officer and the chief financial officer of BMBC by others within those entities, and (c) has evaluated the effectiveness of BMBC's disclosure controls and procedures and disclosed, based on its most recent evaluation prior to the date hereof, to BMBC's outside auditors and the audit committee of BMBC's Board of Directors (the "BMBC Audit Committee"), and to the extent required by Law, in its Securities Documents, (i) any significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) of the Exchange Act) which are reasonably likely to adversely affect BMBC's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial information, and (ii) any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in BMBC's internal control over financial reporting. These disclosures (if any) were made in writing to BMBC's auditors and the BMBC Audit Committee and a copy has previously been made available to RBPI.

5.5.4. BMBC and each of its Subsidiaries, and the officers and directors of each, have made all certifications required under and are otherwise in compliance in all material respects with and have complied in all material respects with (i) the applicable provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and the related rules and regulations promulgated under such act and the Exchange Act, and (ii) the applicable listing and corporate governance rules and regulations of NASDAQ. As of the date hereof, to the Knowledge of BMBC's chief executive officer and chief financial officer, each of them will be able to give the certifications required pursuant to the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to Section 302 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, without qualification, when next due.

5.6. Taxes.

5.6.1. BMBC and each BMBC Subsidiary has timely and duly filed all material Tax Returns required to be filed by or with respect to BMBC and each BMBC Subsidiary, either separately or as a member of a group of corporations, on or prior to the Closing Date, taking into account any extensions (all such Tax Returns being accurate and correct in all material respects and prepared in compliance with all applicable Law) and has duly paid or made provisions that are adequate for the payment of all Taxes which have been incurred by or are due or claimed to be due from BMBC and any BMBC Subsidiary by any Taxing Authority or pursuant to any written Tax sharing agreement on or prior to the Closing Date other than Taxes or other charges which (a) are not delinquent, (b) are being contested in good faith and as to which adequate reserves (determined in accordance with GAAP) have been provided in the BMBC Financial Statements, or (c) have not yet been fully determined. BMBC and each BMBC Subsidiary has withheld and paid all material amounts of Taxes required to have been withheld and paid in connection with amounts paid or owing to any employee, independent contractor, creditor, shareholder or other third party, and BMBC and each BMBC Subsidiary has timely complied with all applicable information reporting requirements under Part III, Subchapter A of Chapter 61 of the Code and similar applicable state and local information reporting requirements.

5.7. No Material Adverse Effect.

BMBC has not suffered any Material Adverse Effect since December 31, 2015 and no event has occurred or circumstance arisen since that date which, in the aggregate, has had or is reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on BMBC.

5.8. Ownership of Property.

BMBC and each BMBC Subsidiary has good and, as to real property, marketable title to all assets and properties owned by BMBC or each BMBC Subsidiary in the conduct of their businesses, whether such assets and properties are real or personal, tangible or intangible, including assets and property reflected in the balance sheets contained in the BMBC Financial Statements or acquired subsequent thereto (except to the extent that such assets and properties have been disposed of in the Ordinary Course of Business, since the date of such balance sheets), subject to no Liens, except (a) those items which secure liabilities for public or statutory obligations or any discount with, borrowing from or other obligations to FHLB, inter-bank credit facilities, or any transaction by a BMBC Subsidiary acting in a fiduciary capacity, (b) statutory Liens for amounts not yet delinquent or which are being contested in good faith, (c) non-monetary Liens affecting real property which do not adversely affect the value or use of such real property, and (d) those described and reflected in the BMBC Financial Statements. BMBC and the BMBC Subsidiaries, as lessee, have the right under valid and enforceable leases of real and personal properties used by BMBC and its Subsidiaries in the conduct of their businesses to occupy or use all such properties as presently occupied and used by each of them. Neither BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary is in default under any lease for any real or personal property to which either BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary is a party, and there has not occurred any event that, with lapse of time or the giving of notice or both, would constitute such a default.

5.9. Legal Proceedings.

There are no material civil, criminal, administrative or regulatory actions, suits, demand letters, demands for indemnification, claims, hearings, notices of violation, default, or breach, arbitrations, investigations, orders to show cause, market conduct examinations, notices of non-compliance or other proceedings of any nature pending or, to BMBC's Knowledge, threatened against BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary or to which BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary is a party that (a) is required to be disclosed by BMBC in its Securities Documents which has not be so disclosed, (b) is reasonably likely to prevent or materially delay BMBC from performing its obligations, or consummating the transactions contemplated by, this Agreement, or (c) challenges the validity or propriety of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

5.10. Compliance With Applicable Law.

5.10.1. Except as has not been and would not reasonably be expected to materially and adversely affect or interfere with BMBC's or BMT's operations, neither BMBC nor any of its Subsidiaries is a party to any agreement with any individual or group regarding CRA matters. Neither BMBC nor any of its Subsidiaries has Knowledge of any facts or circumstances that would cause BMBC or BMT: (a) to be deemed not to be in satisfactory compliance with the CRA, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, or to be assigned a rating for CRA purposes by federal or state bank regulators of lower than "satisfactory"; or (b) to be deemed to be operating in violation of the Bank Secrecy Act and its implementing regulations (31 C.F.R. Title X), the USA PATRIOT Act, any order issued with respect to anti-money laundering by the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control, or any other applicable anti-money laundering statute, rule or regulation; or (c) to be deemed not to be in compliance with the applicable privacy of customer information requirements contained in any federal and state privacy Laws and regulations, including, without limitation, in Title V of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act of 1999 and regulations promulgated thereunder, as well as the provisions of the information security program adopted by BMT pursuant to 12 C.F.R. Part 364. Furthermore, the board of directors of BMT has adopted and BMT has implemented an anti-money laundering program that contains adequate and appropriate customer identification verification procedures that meets the requirements of Sections 352 and 326 of the USA PATRIOT Act. As of the date hereof, BMBC's and BMT's most recent examination rating under the CRA was "satisfactory" or better. Moreover, all Subsidiaries of BMBC that are deposit-taking institutions are fully-insured by the FDIC to the extent permissible by the FDIA.

5.10.2. Each of BMBC and each BMBC Subsidiary has all material permits, licenses, authorizations, orders and approvals of, and has made all filings, applications and registrations with, all Governmental Entities and Bank Regulators that are required in order to permit it to own or lease its properties and to conduct its business as presently conducted; all such permits, licenses, certificates of authority, orders and approvals are in full force and effect and no suspension or cancellation of any such permit, license, certificate, order or approval is, to the Knowledge of BMBC, threatened or will result from the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, subject to obtaining the Regulatory Approvals.

5.10.3. Except as would not, or would not reasonably be expected to, have a Material Adverse Effect on BMBC, since January 1, 2012, neither BMBC nor any BMBC Subsidiary has received any written notification or any other communication from any Bank Regulator (a) asserting that BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary is not in compliance with any of the statutes, regulations or ordinances which such Bank Regulator enforces; (b) threatening to revoke any license, franchise, permit or governmental authorization; (c) requiring or threatening to require BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary, or indicating that BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary may be required, to enter into a cease and desist order, agreement or memorandum of understanding or any other agreement with any federal or state governmental agency or authority which is charged with the supervision or regulation of banks or engages in the insurance of bank deposits restricting or limiting, or purporting to restrict or limit the operations of BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary, including without limitation any restriction on the payment of dividends; or (d) directing, restricting or limiting, or purporting to direct, restrict or limit, in any manner the operations of BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary, including without limitation any restriction on the payment of dividends (any such notice, communication, memorandum, agreement or order described in this sentence is hereinafter referred to as a “BMBC Regulatory Agreement”). Neither BMBC nor any BMBC Subsidiary is a party to or is subject to any order, decree, agreement, memorandum of understanding or similar arrangement with, or a commitment letter or similar submission to, or extraordinary supervisory letter from, any Bank Regulator or any federal or state governmental agency or authority charged with the supervision or regulation of issuers of securities or the supervision or regulation of it. The most recent regulatory rating given to BMT as to compliance with the CRA is satisfactory or better. There are no unresolved violations, criticism, or exception by any Regulatory Authority with respect to any BMBC Regulatory Agreement. There is no injunction, order, judgment or decree imposed upon BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary or the assets of BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary.

5.10.4. Since the enactment of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, BMBC has been and is in compliance in all material respects with the applicable provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act.

5.11. Employee Benefit Plans.

5.11.1. Neither BMBC nor any BMBC Subsidiary has any commitment to create any additional BMBC Compensation and Benefit Plan or to modify, change or renew any existing BMBC Compensation and Benefit Plan, except as required to maintain the qualified status thereof.

5.11.2. Each BMBC Compensation and Benefit Plan has been operated and administered in all material respects in accordance with its terms and with applicable Law, including, but not limited to, ERISA, the Code, the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, COBRA, HIPAA and any regulations or rules promulgated thereunder, and all material filings, disclosures and notices required by ERISA, the Code, the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, COBRA and HIPAA and any other applicable Law have been timely made or any interest, fines, penalties or other impositions for late filings have been paid in full. Each BMBC Compensation and Benefit Plan which is a Pension Plan and which is intended to be qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code has received a favorable determination letter from the IRS, or is in the form of a prototype or volume submitter plan that is the subject of a favorable opinion letter from the IRS on which BMBC is entitled to rely, and BMBC is not aware of any circumstances which are reasonably likely to result in revocation of any such favorable determination letter or opinion letter. There is no pending or, to the Knowledge of BMBC, threatened action, suit or claim relating to any of the BMBC Compensation and Benefit Plans (other than routine claims for benefits). Neither BMBC nor any BMBC Subsidiary has engaged in a transaction, or omitted to take any action, with respect to any BMBC Compensation and Benefit Plan that would reasonably be expected to subject BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary to a material unpaid tax or penalty imposed by either Sections 4975, 4980B or 5000 of the Code or Section 502 of ERISA.

5.11.3. No liability under Title IV of ERISA has been incurred by BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary with respect to any BMBC Compensation and Benefit Plan which is subject to Title IV of ERISA (“BMBC Pension Plan”) currently or formerly maintained by BMBC or any entity which is considered one employer with BMBC under Section 4001(b)(1) of ERISA or Section 414 of the Code (an “BMBC ERISA Affiliate”) since the effective date of ERISA that has not been satisfied in full, and no condition exists that presents a risk to BMBC or any BMBC ERISA Affiliate of incurring a liability under such Title. No BMBC Pension Plan had an “accumulated funding deficiency” (as defined in Section 302 of ERISA), whether or not waived, as of the last day of the end of the most recent plan year ending prior to the date hereof; there is not currently pending with the PBGC any filing with respect to any reportable event under Section 4043 of ERISA nor has any reportable event occurred as to which a filing is required and has not been made (other than as might be required with respect to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby). Neither BMBC nor any BMBC ERISA Affiliate has contributed to or has or had any obligation to contribute to any “multiemployer plan,” as defined in Section 3(37) of ERISA. Neither BMBC, nor any BMBC ERISA Affiliate, nor any BMBC Compensation and Benefit Plan, including any BMBC Pension Plan, nor any trust created thereunder, nor any trustee or administrator thereof has engaged in a transaction in connection with which BMBC, any BMBC ERISA Affiliate, and any BMBC Compensation and Benefit Plan, including any BMBC Pension Plan or any such trust or any trustee or administrator thereof, could reasonably be expected to be subject to either a civil liability or penalty pursuant to Section 409, 502(i) or 502(l) of ERISA or a tax imposed pursuant to Chapter 43 of the Code.

5.11.4. All contributions required to be accrued under the terms of any BMBC Compensation and Benefit Plan have been timely accrued, and all anticipated contributions and funding obligations are accrued on BMBC’s consolidated financial statements to the extent required by GAAP. BMBC and each BMBC Subsidiary has expensed and accrued as a liability the present value of future benefits under each applicable BMBC Compensation and Benefit Plan for financial reporting purposes as required by GAAP.

5.11.5. Neither BMBC nor any BMBC Subsidiary has any obligations to provide retiree health, life insurance, death benefits, or disability insurance, under any BMBC Compensation and Benefit Plan, other than benefits mandated by Section 4980B of the Code. There has been no communication to employees by BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary that would reasonably be expected to promise or guarantee such employees retiree health, life insurance, or disability insurance, or any retiree death benefits.

5.11.6. BMBC and its Subsidiaries do not maintain any BMBC Compensation and Benefit Plans covering employees who are not United States residents.

5.11.7. Neither BMBC nor any BMBC Subsidiary maintains any compensation plans, programs or arrangements under which any payment is reasonably likely to become non-deductible, in whole or in part, for tax reporting purposes as a result of the limitations under Section 162(m) of the Code and the regulations issued thereunder.

5.11.8. All deferred compensation plans, programs or arrangements are in compliance, both in form and operation, with Section 409A of the Code and all guidance issued thereunder.

5.11.9. Except as disclosed in BMBC Disclosure Schedule 5.11.9, there are no stock options, stock appreciation or similar rights, earned dividends or dividend equivalents, or shares of restricted stock, outstanding under any of the BMBC Compensation and Benefit Plans or otherwise as of the date hereof.

5.12. Environmental Matters.

5.12.1. Except as may be set forth in BMBC Disclosure Schedule 5.12, with respect to BMBC and each BMBC Subsidiary:

(A) To BMBC's Knowledge, neither the conduct nor operation of its business nor any condition of any property currently or previously owned or operated by it (including, without limitation, in a fiduciary or agency capacity), or on which it holds a Lien, results or resulted in a violation of or gives rise to any potential material liability under, any Environmental Laws that is reasonably likely to impose a material liability (including a remediation obligation) upon BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary. No condition has existed or event has occurred with respect to any of them or any such property that, with notice or the passage of time, or both, is reasonably likely to result in any material liability to BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary by reason of any Environmental Laws. Neither BMBC nor any BMBC Subsidiary during the past five years has received any written notice from any Person or Governmental Entity that BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary or the operation or condition of any property ever owned, operated, or held as collateral or in a fiduciary capacity by any of them are currently in violation of or otherwise are alleged to have liability under any Environmental Laws or relating to Materials of Environmental Concern (including, but not limited to, responsibility (or potential responsibility) for the investigation, cleanup or other remediation of any Materials of Environmental Concern at, on, beneath, or originating from any such property) for which a material liability may be reasonably likely to be imposed upon BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary.

(B) There is no suit, claim, action, demand, executive or administrative order, directive, investigation, proceeding or agreement pending or, to BMBC's Knowledge, threatened, before any court, Governmental Entity or other forum against BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary (a) for alleged noncompliance (including by any predecessor) with, or liability under, any Environmental Law or (b) relating to the presence or threat of a Release, whether or not occurring at or on a site owned, leased or operated by BMBC or any BMBC Subsidiary.

5.13. Brokers, Finders and Financial Advisors.

Neither BMBC nor any BMBC Subsidiary, nor any of their respective officers, directors, employees or agents, has employed any broker, finder or financial advisor in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or incurred any liability or commitment for any fees or commissions to any such person in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement except for the retention of Boenning & Scattergood, Inc. and the fee payable pursuant thereto.

5.14. BMBC Common Stock.

The shares of BMBC Common Stock to be issued pursuant to this Agreement, when issued in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, will be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable and subject to no preemptive rights.

5.15. BMBC Information Supplied.

5.15.1. The information relating to BMBC and any BMBC Subsidiary to be contained in the Merger Registration Statement, or in any other document filed with any Bank Regulator or other Governmental Entity in connection herewith, will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances in which they are made, not misleading.

5.15.2. The Merger Registration Statement will comply with the provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder and the provisions of the Securities Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, except that no representation or warranty is made by BMBC with respect to statements made or incorporated by reference therein based on information supplied by RBPI specifically for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the Merger Registration Statement.

5.15.3. The information supplied by BMBC and any BMBC Subsidiary for inclusion in the Applications will, at the time each such document is filed with any Bank Regulator and up to and including the dates of any required regulatory approvals or consents, as such Applications may be amended by subsequent filings, be accurate in all material respects.

5.16. PBCL Sections 2538 and 2553

Other than by reason of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, BMBC is not an “interested shareholder” (as defined in Sections 2538 or 2553 of the PBCL) of RBPI.

ARTICLE VI

COVENANTS OF RBPI

6.1. Conduct of Business.

6.1.1. Affirmative Covenants. From the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, except with the prior written consent of BMBC (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), RBPI will, and will cause each RBPI Subsidiary to: operate its business only in the Ordinary Course of Business and in compliance in all material respects with all applicable Laws; use commercially reasonable efforts consistent with past practices to preserve intact its business organization and assets, keep available to itself and, after the Effective Time, BMBC the present services of the current officers and employees of RBPI and the RBPI Subsidiaries, preserve for itself and, after the Effective Time, BMBC the goodwill of RBPI's customers, employees, lessors and others with whom business relationships exist, and continue collection efforts with respect to any delinquent loans; and voluntarily take no action which would, or would be reasonably likely to, (a) adversely affect the ability of the parties to obtain any Regulatory Approval or increase the period of time necessary to obtain such approvals, or (b) adversely affect its ability to perform its covenants and agreements under this Agreement.

(AA) Merge or consolidate itself or any of RBPI Subsidiary with any other Person, or restructure, reorganize or completely or partially liquidate or dissolve it or any RBPI Subsidiary;

(BB) Compromise, resolve, or otherwise “workout” any delinquent or troubled loan unless any such loan workout is done in the Ordinary Course of Business;

(CC) Agree to take, make any commitment to take, or adopt any resolutions of the RBPI’s Board of Directors or RBA’s Board of Directors in support of, any of the actions prohibited by this Section 6.1.2.

6.2. Current Information and Cooperation.

6.2.1. During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, RBPI will cause one or more of its representatives to confer with representatives of BMBC and report the general status of its ongoing operations at such times and in such manner as BMBC may reasonably request. RBPI will promptly notify BMBC of any material change in its business, operations, properties or assets and, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, of any governmental complaints, investigations or hearings (or communications indicating that the same may be contemplated), or the institution or the threat of material litigation involving RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary. Without limiting the foregoing, RBPI will make its senior officers available to meet with BMBC on a regular basis (expected to be at least monthly) to review the financial, credit and operational affairs, and the like, of RBPI and its Subsidiaries, and RBPI shall give due consideration to BMBC’s input on such matters, with the understanding that, notwithstanding any other provision contained in this Agreement, neither BMBC nor any BMBC Subsidiary shall under any circumstance be permitted to exercise control of RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary prior to the Effective Time.

6.2.2. RBPI will cause one or more representatives of RBA to meet with representatives of BMT on a regular basis to discuss and plan for the conversion of RBA’s data processing and related electronic informational systems to those used by BMT, which planning shall include, but not be limited to, discussion of the possible termination by RBA of third-party service provider arrangements effective at the Effective Time or at a date thereafter, non-renewal of personal property leases and software licenses used by RBA in connection with its systems operations, retention of outside consultants and additional employees to assist with the conversion, and outsourcing, as appropriate, of proprietary or self-provided system services, it being understood that RBA shall not be obligated to take any such action prior to the Effective Time and, unless RBA otherwise agrees, no conversion shall take place prior to the Effective Time.

6.2.3. RBPI shall provide BMT, within twenty (20) days after the end of each calendar month, a written list of nonperforming assets and RBPI Delinquencies. The term “nonperforming assets,” for purposes of this subsection, means (a) loans that are Troubled Debt Restructurings, (b) loans on nonaccrual, (c) OREO, (d) all loans thirty (30) days or more past due as of the end of such month and (e) and impaired loans. On a monthly basis, RBPI shall provide to BMT, within twenty (20) days after the end of each calendar month, a schedule of all loan approvals, which schedule shall indicate the loan amount, loan type and other material features of the loan, as well as the related loan origination/underwriting documentation and credit file detail if requested by BMT. On a monthly basis, RBPI shall provide to BMT, within twenty (20) days after the end of each calendar month, the following reports: (a) watch list report; (b) classified asset report; (c) individual asset quality write ups that are classified as “special assets”; (d) pipeline report; and (e) monthly net charge-off reports, beginning as of September 30, 2016, on a month-to-date and year-to-date basis. On a quarterly basis, RBPI shall provide to BMT, within thirty (30) days after the end of each quarter, a loan loss reserve analysis.

6.2.4. RBPI shall promptly inform BMBC upon receiving notice of any legal, administrative, arbitration or other proceedings, demands, notices, audits or investigations by any Governmental Entity relating to the alleged liability of RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary under any labor or employment law, or related to any claims made by or threatened by any current or former employee or applicant.

6.3. Access to Properties and Records.

Subject to Section 12.1 hereof, RBPI shall permit BMBC reasonable access during normal business hours upon reasonable notice to its properties and those of the RBPI Subsidiaries, and shall disclose and make available to BMBC during normal business hours all of its books, papers and records relating to the assets, properties, operations, obligations and liabilities, including, but not limited to, all books of account (including the general ledger), tax records, minute books of directors’ (other than minutes that discuss any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any other subject matter RBPI reasonably determines based on the advice of legal counsel should be treated as confidential) and shareholders’ meetings, organizational documents, bylaws, contracts and agreements, filings with any Governmental Entity, litigation files, plans affecting employees, and any other business activities or prospects in which BMBC may have a reasonable interest; provided, however, that RBPI shall not be required to take any action that would provide access to or to disclose information where such access or disclosure would violate or prejudice the rights or business interests or confidences of any customer or other person or would result in the waiver by it of the privilege protecting communications between it and any of its counsel or that is otherwise prohibited by Law. RBPI shall provide and shall request its auditors to provide BMBC with such historical financial information regarding it (and related audit reports and consents) as BMBC may reasonably request for securities disclosure. BMBC shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize any interference with RBPI’s regular business operations during any such access to RBPI’s property, books and records. RBPI shall permit BMBC, at BMBC’s expense, to cause a Phase I and any Phase II recommended therein to be performed at each RBPI Real Property; provided, however: (i) that BMBC shall have the right to conduct a Phase II only to the extent that RBPI has a right of access to the RBPI Real Property sufficient to grant BMBC the right to perform such Phase II activities; provided that RBPI shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain such right of access; and (ii) prior to the Closing Date only to the extent that a Phase II is within the scope of additional testing recommended by the Phase I to be performed as a result of either a “Historical Recognized Environmental Condition” or a “Recognized Environmental Condition” (as such terms are defined by the ASTM Standard E1527-13) that was discovered in the Phase I. Any such Phase I shall be commenced within thirty (30) days after the date of this Agreement and any such Phase II, to the extent permitted by the provisions hereof to be conducted prior to Closing, recommended to be performed by any such Phase I shall be commenced within thirty (30) days of the Phase I report recommending such Phase II. BMBC shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause any such Phase I conducted to be completed within thirty (30) days of the date of commencement thereof, but in no event more than sixty (60) days after the date of commencement thereof. In the event BMBC elects to commence any Phase II, to the extent permitted pursuant to the provisions of this Section 6.3 to be conducted prior to Closing, BMBC shall use commercially reasonable efforts to have any such Phase II completed within forty-five (45) days of the commencement thereof, but in no event more than sixty (60) days after the date of commencement thereof. BMBC and its environmental consultant shall conduct all environmental assessments pursuant to this Section at mutually agreeable times and so as to eliminate or minimize to the greatest extent possible interference with RBPI’s operation of its business, and BMBC shall maintain or cause to be maintained reasonably adequate insurance with respect to any assessment conducted hereunder. BMBC shall be required to restore each RBPI Real Property to substantially its pre-assessment condition. All costs and expenses incurred in connection with any Phase I or Phase II and any post-assessment restoration or an assessed property substantially to its pre-assessment condition, shall be borne solely by BMBC.

6.4. Financial and Other Statements.

6.4.1. Promptly after review and approval by the RBPI Audit Committee, RBPI will furnish to BMBC copies of each annual, interim or special audit of the books of RBPI and the RBPI Subsidiaries made by its independent auditors and copies of all internal control reports submitted to RBPI by such auditors in connection with each annual, interim or special audit of the books of RBPI and the RBPI Subsidiaries made by such auditors.

6.4.2. As soon as reasonably available, RBPI will furnish to BMBC copies of all documents, statements and reports that it or any RBPI Subsidiary shall send to its shareholders or any Bank Regulator to the extent legally permitted to do so; provided that if RBPI is not legally permitted to furnish BMBC with a document without having received the approval of a Bank Regulator, RBPI shall promptly request such approval from the applicable Bank Regulator.

6.4.3. To the extent legally permitted to do so, RBPI will advise BMBC promptly of the receipt of any written communication of any Bank Regulator with respect to the condition or activities of RBPI or any of the RBPI Subsidiaries; provided further that if RBPI is not legally permitted to furnish BMBC with such written communication without having received the approval of a Bank Regulator, RBPI shall promptly request such approval from the applicable Bank Regulator.

6.4.4. RBPI shall notify BMBC (a) if aggregate RBA borrowings (excluding deposits and any subordinated indebtedness outstanding on the date of this Agreement) exceed $115 in outstanding borrowings at the close of business on any Business Day prior to the Effective Time, and (b) of any decrease in RBA's maximum borrowing capacity at the FHLB.

6.5. Maintenance of Insurance.

RBPI shall maintain, and cause each RBPI Subsidiary to maintain, insurance in such amounts as are reasonable to cover such risks as are customary in relation to the character and location of their properties and the nature of their business, but in no event shall such coverage be less than coverage by the policies in place as of the date of this Agreement.

6.6. Regulatory Actions.

To the extent that either RBPI or RBA is currently subject to any outstanding supervisory action (including but not limited to a consent order, formal agreement, or memorandum of understanding) involving a Bank Regulator, RBPI and RBA shall make commercially reasonable efforts and take appropriate steps to seek and obtain the termination of such supervisory action.

6.7. Consents and Approvals of Third Parties.

RBPI shall obtain as soon as practicable, but in any event prior to the Closing Date, all consents and approvals necessary or desirable for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by RBPI. For the avoidance of doubt, RBPI's obligations with respect to obtaining Regulatory Approvals shall be governed by Section 8.3.

6.8. Commercially Reasonable Efforts.

Subject to the terms and conditions herein provided, RBPI agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all action and to do, or cause to be done, and to assist and cooperate with BMBC in doing, all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective, in the most expeditious manner practicable, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including, without limitation, any actions necessary, proper or advisable under applicable Law and any actions, assistance or cooperation in preparation for the conversion and integration of RBA's operations into BMT's operations.

6.9. Failure to Fulfill Conditions.

In the event that RBPI determines that a condition to its obligation to complete the Merger cannot be fulfilled and that it will not waive that condition, it will promptly notify BMBC.

6.10. No Solicitation.

6.10.1. RBPI shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and its and their respective officers, directors, employees, investment bankers, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, consultants, affiliates and other agents (collectively, “Representatives”) not to, directly or indirectly, (a) initiate, solicit, induce or knowingly encourage, or take any action to facilitate the making of, any inquiry, offer or proposal which constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Proposal; (b) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding any Acquisition Proposal or furnish, or otherwise afford access, to any Person (other than BMBC) any information or data with respect to RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries or otherwise relating to an Acquisition Proposal; (c) release any Person from, waive any provisions of, or fail to enforce any confidentiality agreement or standstill agreement to which RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries is a party; or (d) enter into any agreement, agreement in principle or letter of intent with respect to any Acquisition Proposal or approve or resolve to approve any Acquisition Proposal or any agreement, agreement in principle or letter of intent relating to an Acquisition Proposal. Any violation of the foregoing restrictions by RBPI, any RBPI Subsidiary or any Representative, whether or not such Representative is so authorized and whether or not such Representative is purporting to act on behalf of RBPI or otherwise, shall be deemed to be a breach of this Agreement by RBPI. RBPI and its Subsidiaries shall, and shall cause each of Representative to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated any and all existing discussions, negotiations, and communications with any Persons with respect to any existing or potential Acquisition Proposal.

For purposes of this Agreement, “Acquisition Proposal” shall mean any inquiry, offer or proposal (other than an inquiry, offer or proposal from BMBC), whether or not in writing, contemplating, relating to, or that could reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Transaction. For purposes of this Agreement, “Acquisition Transaction” shall mean (a) any transaction or series of transactions involving any merger, consolidation, recapitalization, share exchange, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries; (b) any transaction pursuant to which any third party or group acquires or would acquire (whether through sale, lease or other disposition), directly or indirectly, any assets of RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries representing, in the aggregate, fifteen percent (15%) or more of the assets of RBPI and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis; (c) any issuance, sale or other disposition of (including by way of merger, consolidation, share exchange or any similar transaction) securities (or options, rights or warrants to purchase or securities convertible into, such securities) representing fifteen percent (15%) or more of the votes attached to the outstanding securities of RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries; (d) any tender offer or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in any third party or group beneficially owning fifteen percent (15%) or more of any class of equity securities of RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries; or (e) any transaction which is similar in form, substance or purpose to any of the foregoing transactions, or any combination of the foregoing.

6.10.2. Notwithstanding Section 6.10.1, at any time prior to obtaining the Requisite RBPI Shareholder Approval, RBPI may take any of the actions described in clause (b) of the first paragraph of Section 6.10.1 if, but only if, (a) RBPI has received a bona fide unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal that did not result from a breach of this Section 6.10; (b) the Board of Directors of RBPI determines in good faith, after consultation with and having considered the advice of its outside legal counsel and its independent financial advisor, that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal; (c) RBPI has provided BMBC with at least three (3) Business Days prior notice of such determination to take any of the actions described in clause (b) of the first paragraph of Section 6.10.1; (d) prior to furnishing or affording access to any information or data with respect to RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries or otherwise relating to an Acquisition Proposal, RBPI receives from such Person a confidentiality agreement with terms no less favorable to RBPI than those contained in the Confidentiality Agreement; and (e) the Board of Directors of RBPI determines in good faith, after consultation with and having considered the advice of its outside legal counsel, that the failure to take any such actions would be reasonably likely to violate its fiduciary duties under applicable Law. RBPI shall promptly provide to BMBC any non-public information regarding RBPI or its Subsidiaries provided to any other Person that was not previously provided to BMBC, such additional information to be provided no later than the date of provision of such information to such other party.

For purposes of this Agreement, “Superior Proposal” shall mean any unsolicited bona fide written proposal (on its most recently amended or modified terms, if amended or modified) made by a third party to enter into an Acquisition Transaction on terms that the Board of Directors of RBPI reasonably determines in its good faith judgment, after consultation with and having considered the advice of outside legal counsel and its financial advisor, (a) would, if consummated, result in the acquisition of all, but not less than all, of the issued and outstanding shares of RBPI Common Stock or all, or substantially all, of the assets of RBPI and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis; (b) would result in a transaction that (i) involves consideration to the holders of the shares of RBPI Common Stock that is more favorable than the Merger Consideration to be paid to RBPI’s shareholders pursuant to this Agreement, considering, among other things, the nature of the consideration being offered, any regulatory approvals or other risks associated with the timing of the proposed transaction beyond the identity of such Person making such proposal or other factors and risks in addition to those specifically contemplated hereby, and which proposal is not conditioned upon obtaining additional financing; and (ii) is, in light of the other terms of such proposal, more favorable to RBPI than the Merger and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and (c) is reasonably likely to be completed on the terms proposed, in each case taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal.

6.10.3. RBPI shall promptly (and in any event within twenty-four (24) hours) notify BMBC in writing if any proposals or offers are received by, any information is requested from, or any negotiations or discussions are sought to be initiated or continued with, RBPI or any RBPI Representatives, in each case in connection with any Acquisition Proposal, and such notice shall indicate the name of the Person initiating such discussions or negotiations or making such proposal, offer or information request and the terms and conditions of any proposals or offers (and, in the case of written materials relating to such proposal, offer, information request, negotiations or discussion, providing copies of such materials (including e-mails or other electronic communications) unless (a) such materials constitute confidential information of the party making such offer or proposal under an effective confidentiality agreement, (b) disclosure of such materials jeopardizes the attorney-client privilege or (c) disclosure of such materials contravenes any law, rule, regulation, order, judgment or decree). RBPI agrees that it shall keep BMBC informed, on a current basis, of the status and terms of any such proposal, offer, information request, negotiations or discussions (including any amendments or modifications to such proposal, offer or request).

6.10.4. Neither the Board of Directors of RBPI nor any committee thereof shall (a) withhold, withdraw, qualify or modify, or propose to withhold, withdraw, qualify or modify, in a manner adverse in any respect to BMBC in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the Merger), the RBPI Recommendation (as defined in Section 8.1), or take any action or make any statement, filing or release, in connection with the RBPI Shareholders Meeting or otherwise, inconsistent with the RBPI Recommendation (it being understood that taking a neutral position or no position with respect to an Acquisition Proposal shall be considered an adverse modification of the RBPI Recommendation); (b) approve or recommend, or publicly propose to approve or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal; (c) resolve to take, or publicly announce an intention to take, any of the foregoing actions (each of (a), (b) and (c), an “RBPI Subsequent Determination”); or (d) enter into (or cause RBPI or any of its Subsidiaries to enter into) any letter of intent, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement or other agreement (i) related to any Acquisition Transaction (other than a confidentiality agreement entered into in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.10.2) or (ii) requiring RBPI to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the Merger or any other transaction contemplated by this Agreement.

6.10.5. Notwithstanding Section 6.10.4, prior to the date of RBPI Shareholders Meeting, the Board of Directors of RBPI may make an RBPI Subsequent Determination after the third (3rd) Business Day following BMBC's receipt of a notice (the "Notice of Superior Proposal") from RBPI advising BMBC that the Board of Directors of RBPI has decided that a bona fide unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal that it received (that did not result from a breach of this Section 6.10) constitutes a Superior Proposal (it being understood that RBPI shall be required to deliver a new Notice of Superior Proposal in respect of any revised Superior Proposal from such third party or its affiliates that RBPI proposes to accept and the subsequent notice period shall be two (2) Business Days) if, but only if, (a) the Board of Directors of RBPI has reasonably determined in good faith, after consultation with and having considered the advice of outside legal counsel and a financial advisor, that the failure to take such actions would be reasonably likely to violate its fiduciary duties under applicable Law, and (b) at the end of such three (3) Business Day period or the two (2) Business Day period (as the case may be), after taking into account any such adjusted, modified or amended terms as may have been committed to in writing by BMBC since its receipt of such Notice of Superior Proposal (provided, however, that BMBC shall not have any obligation to propose any adjustments, modifications or amendments to the terms and conditions of this Agreement), the Board of Directors of RBPI has again in good faith made the determination (i) in clause (a) of this Section 6.10.5 and (ii) that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the changing, qualifying or modifying of the RBPI Recommendation or the making of a RBPI Subsequent Determination by the Board of Directors of RBPI shall not change the approval of the Board of Directors of RBPI for purposes of causing any applicable federal or state anti-takeover laws or regulations to be inapplicable to this Agreement and the RBPI Voting Agreements and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, including the Merger.

6.10.6. Nothing contained in Section 6.10 shall prohibit RBPI or the Board of Directors of RBPI from complying with RBPI's obligations under Rules 14d-9 (as if such rule were applicable to RBPI) and 14e-2(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act; provided, however, that any such disclosure relating to an Acquisition Proposal shall be deemed a change in the RBPI Recommendation unless the Board of Directors of RBPI reaffirms the RBPI Recommendation in such disclosure, in which case, for the avoidance of doubt, such disclosure will not be considered a RBPI Subsequent Determination.

6.11. Reserves and Merger-Related Costs.

RBPI agrees to consult with BMBC with respect to its loan, litigation and real estate valuation policies and practices (including loan classifications and levels of reserves). BMBC and RBPI shall also consult with respect to the character, amount and timing of restructuring charges to be taken by each of them in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby and shall take such charges as BMBC shall reasonably request and which are not inconsistent with GAAP; provided that no such actions need be effected until BMBC shall have irrevocably certified to RBPI that all conditions set forth in Article IX to the obligation of BMBC to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby have been satisfied or, where legally permissible, waived.

6.12. RBPI/RBA Board of Directors and Committee Meetings.

RBPI shall distribute by overnight mail with an electronic copy by email, a copy of any RBPI or RBA board or board committee package, including the agenda and any draft minutes, to BMBC at the same time in which it distributes a copy of such package to the board of directors of RBPI, RBA, or any committee thereof, as the case may be, and RBPI and RBA shall permit representatives of BMBC to attend any meeting of the Board of Directors of RBPI and/or RBA or any committees thereof as an observer; provided that neither RBPI nor RBA shall be required to copy BMBC on any documents with respect to, or permit the BMBC representative to remain present during, any confidential discussion of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby or any third party proposal to acquire control of RBPI or RBA or during any other matter that the respective Board of Directors has been advised of by counsel that such distribution to, or participation by BMBC would violate a confidentiality obligation or fiduciary duty or any Law, or may result in a waiver of RBPI's or RBA's attorney-client privilege.

6.13. RBPI/RBA Director and Employee Agreements.

6.13.1. Concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, each individual who is a director of RBPI or RBA on the date of this Agreement shall have executed a non-solicitation agreement with a two (2) year term and otherwise in a form acceptable to BMBC and BMT.

6.13.2. RBPI shall cause the employees listed on RBPI Disclosure Schedule 6.13.2 to execute and deliver, in the manner prescribed by RBPI Disclosure Schedule 6.13.2, legally binding non-solicitation agreements, in the form set forth as Exhibit D hereto ("Employee Non-Solicitation Agreements"), and, until the Effective Time, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to enforce or cause to be enforced each such Non-Solicitation Agreement; notwithstanding the foregoing, should RBPI learn that a party to an Employee Non-Solicitation Agreement is in violation of any of the terms or conditions thereof, RBPI shall notify BMBC in writing immediately, and shall take such steps as BMBC reasonably requests in order to enforce such agreement.

6.13.3. RBPI shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause each and every employment, consulting, change in control or severance agreement or contract providing severance payments to any employee or consultant whose employment or services are terminated on or after the date hereof to be subject to a legally binding amendment or provision that (i) requires the execution of a release in a form satisfactory to RBPI or its successor as a precondition to the payment of severance (or similar) benefits thereunder and (ii) imposes non-solicitation and non-competition restrictions on the applicable counterparty(ies) satisfactory to BMBC and RBPI.

6.14. Anti-takeover Provisions.

To the extent legally permitted, RBPI and its Subsidiaries shall take all steps required by any applicable Law or under any relevant agreement or other document to exempt or continue to exempt BMBC, BMT, the Merger, the Bank Merger, the Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby from any provisions of an anti-takeover nature contained in RBPI's or its Subsidiaries' organizational documents, and the provisions of any applicable federal or state anti-takeover Laws.

6.15. 2016 Tax Returns.

RBPI shall file or cause to be filed all Tax Returns required to be filed by or with respect to RBPI and every RBPI Subsidiary, either separately or as a member of a group of corporations, with respect to the taxable year ended December 31, 2016. RBPI shall provide a draft copy of the federal return to BMBC for its review and approval not later than June 15, 2017. BMBC agrees to provide its approval and any comments on said draft no later than July 31, 2017 so as to enable timely filing of the extended RBPI and Subsidiary federal return on or before September 15, 2017. RBPI shall not, and shall not allow any RBPI Subsidiary, to file such Tax Returns without the prior written approval of BMBC. Notwithstanding the foregoing, RBPI and each RBPI Subsidiary agree that they shall not file such Tax Returns in any manner materially different from their past customs or practices to the extent permitted by applicable Law.

6.16. RBPI Warrants.

RBPI shall diligently attempt to repurchase and retire the RBPI Warrants prior to the Closing Date for an amount mutually acceptable to RBPI and BMBC after consultation with each other.

6.17. Divestment of Non-Volcker Compliant Securities.

RBPI shall divest from its investment portfolio prior to July 1, 2017, any securities that, were they to remain in RBA's investment portfolio through July 1 2017, would fail to comply with the Volcker Rule (§ 619 (12 U.S.C. § 1851)).

ARTICLE VII

COVENANTS OF BMBC

7.1. Conduct of Business.

During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, except with the prior written consent of RBPI (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld conditioned or delayed), BMBC will, and it will cause each BMBC Subsidiary to use commercially reasonable efforts consistent with past practices to preserve intact its business organization and assets; and voluntarily take no action that would, or would be reasonably likely to: (a) adversely affect the ability of the parties to obtain any Regulatory Approval, or increase the period of time necessary to obtain any such approval; (b) adversely affect its ability to perform its covenants and agreements under this Agreement; or (c) result in the representations and warranties contained in Article V of this Agreement not being true and correct on the date of this Agreement or at any future date on or prior to the Closing Date or in any of the conditions set forth in Article IX hereof not being satisfied.

7.2. Current Information.

During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, BMBC will cause one or more of its representatives to confer with representatives of RBPI and report the general status of its ongoing operations at such times and in such manner as RBPI may reasonably request. BMBC will promptly notify RBPI, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, of any governmental complaints, investigations or hearings (or communications indicating that the same may be contemplated), which might adversely affect the ability of the parties to obtain the Regulatory Approvals or increase the period of time necessary to obtain such approvals; or the institution of material litigation involving BMBC and any BMBC Subsidiary.

7.3. Financial and Other Statements.

From and after the date hereof until the Effective Time, BMBC will make available to RBPI the Securities Documents filed by it with the SEC under the Securities Laws and will furnish to RBPI copies of all documents, statements and reports that it or BMT intends to file with any Bank Regulator with respect to the Merger.

7.4. Consents and Approvals of Third Parties.

BMBC shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to obtain as soon as practicable all consents and approvals, necessary or desirable for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, BMBC's obligations with respect to obtaining Regulatory Approvals shall be governed by Section 8.3.

7.5. Commercially Reasonable Efforts.

Subject to the terms and conditions herein provided, BMBC agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all action and to do, or cause to be done, and to assist and cooperate with RBPI in doing, all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective, in the most expeditious manner practicable, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including, without limitation, any actions necessary, proper or advisable under applicable Law and any actions, assistance or cooperation in preparation for the conversion and integration of RBA's operations into BMT's operations.

7.6. Failure to Fulfill Conditions.

In the event that BMBC determines that a condition to its obligation to complete the Merger cannot be fulfilled and that it will not waive that condition, it will promptly notify RBPI.

7.7. Employee Benefits.

7.7.1. Prior to the Effective Time, BMBC shall take all reasonable action so that employees of RBPI and its Subsidiaries who become employees of BMBC or a BMBC Subsidiary (“Continuing Employees”) shall be entitled to participate, effective as soon as administratively practicable following the Effective Time, in each of the BMBC Compensation and Benefit Plans to the same extent as similarly-situated employees of BMBC and its Subsidiaries (it being understood that inclusion of the employees of RBPI and its Subsidiaries in the BMBC Compensation and Benefit Plans may occur at different times with respect to different plans and that any grants to any Continuing Employee under any BMBC Stock Benefit Plan shall be at the discretion of BMBC). Notwithstanding the foregoing, BMBC may determine to continue any of the employee benefit plans, programs or arrangements of RBPI or any its Subsidiaries for Continuing Employees in lieu of offering participation in the BMBC Compensation and Benefit Plans providing similar benefits (e.g., medical and hospitalization benefits), to terminate any of such benefit plans, or to merge any such benefit plans with the corresponding BMBC Compensation and Benefit Plans, provided the result is the provision of benefits to Continuing Employees that are substantially similar to the benefits provided to the employees of BMBC and its Subsidiaries generally. Should BMBC notify RBPI in advance of the Effective Time that it wishes RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary to terminate any RBPI Compensation and Benefit Plan prior to the Effective Time, RBPI shall take all steps necessary to comply with such request prior to the Effective Time; provided that RBPI shall have no obligation to terminate any such plan unless and until BMBC shall have irrevocably certified to RBPI that all conditions set forth in Article IX to the obligation of BMBC to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby have been satisfied or, where legally permissible, waived. BMBC shall cause each BMBC Compensation and Benefit Plan in which Continuing Employees are eligible to participate to recognize, for purposes of determining eligibility to participate in, the vesting of benefits and for all other purposes (but not for the accrual of benefits, except as specifically set forth herein) under the BMBC Compensation and Benefit Plans the service of such Continuing Employees with RBPI and its Subsidiaries or any predecessor thereto prior to the Effective Time; provided, however, that credit for benefit accrual purposes shall be given for purposes of BMBC vacation and other leave policies or programs and for purposes of the calculation of severance benefits under any severance compensation plan or practice of BMBC and its Subsidiaries as set forth in BMBC Disclosure Schedule 7.7.1. This Agreement shall not be construed to limit the ability of BMBC or BMT to terminate the employment of any employee or to review employee benefits programs from time to time and to make such changes (including terminating any program) as they deem appropriate.

7.7.2. BMT agrees to honor, or cause one of the BMT Subsidiaries to honor, in accordance with their terms, all employment and change of control agreements listed on RBPI Disclosure Schedule 4.8.1, each as amended pursuant to Section 6.13.3, as applicable, subject to any limitations imposed under applicable Law or by any Regulatory Authority; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not prevent BMT or any of the BMT Subsidiaries from amending or terminating any such agreement in accordance with its terms and applicable Law.

7.7.3. Subject to the execution of a standard release in form acceptable to BMBC, any employee of RBPI or any RBPI Subsidiary who is not a party to an employment, consulting, change in control or severance agreement or contract providing severance payments and whose employment is terminated on or after the date hereof and at or before the Effective Time or within twelve (12) months after the Effective Time, shall receive severance pay at the time of termination of employment in an amount equal to two (2) weeks of such employee's regular pay for each year that such employee was employed by RBPI, any RBPI Subsidiary or any successor thereto, up to a maximum of twenty six (26) weeks.

7.7.4. In the event of any termination of any medical, dental, health or disability plan (collectively, “Health Plans”) of RBPI and its Subsidiaries or the consolidation of any such Health Plans with a corresponding Health Plan of BMBC and its Subsidiaries, BMBC shall make available to Continuing Employees and their dependents employer-provided coverage under the corresponding Health Plans of BMBC and its Subsidiaries on the same basis as it provides coverage to employees of BMBC and its Subsidiaries, provided that BMBC shall cause each such plan to (a) waive any pre-existing condition limitations to the extent such conditions are covered under the applicable Health Plans of RBPI and its Subsidiaries, (b) honor under such plans any deductible, co-payment and out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the employees and their dependents under the Health Plans of RBPI and its Subsidiaries during the portion of the plan year prior to participation in the corresponding Health Plan of BMBC and its Subsidiaries, and (c) waive any waiting period limitation or evidence of insurability requirement which would otherwise be applicable to the Continuing Employees and their dependents on or after the Effective Time, in each case to the extent such employee or dependent had satisfied any similar limitation or requirement under an analogous Health Plan of RBPI or its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time. Unless a Continuing Employee affirmatively terminates coverage under a Health Plan of RBPI and its Subsidiaries prior to the time that such Continuing Employee becomes eligible to participate in the corresponding Health Plan of BMBC and its Subsidiaries, no coverage of any of the Continuing Employees or their dependents shall terminate under any Health Plan of RBPI and its Subsidiaries prior to the time such Continuing Employees and their dependents become eligible to participate in the Health Plans, programs and benefits common to all employees of BMBC and its Subsidiaries and their dependents. In the event of a termination or consolidation of any Health Plan of RBPI and its Subsidiaries, terminated employees of RBPI and its Subsidiaries and qualified beneficiaries will have the right to continued coverage under group Health Plans of BMBC and its Subsidiaries in accordance with COBRA.

7.8. Directors and Officers Indemnification and Insurance.

7.8.1. For a period of six (6) years after the Effective Time, BMBC shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each person who is now, or who has been at any time before the date hereof or who becomes before the Effective Time, an officer or director of RBPI or a RBPI Subsidiary (the “Indemnified Parties”) against all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses (including attorney’s fees), liabilities or judgments or amounts that are paid in settlement (which settlement shall require the prior written consent of BMBC, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) of or in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, or administrative (each a “Claim”), in which an Indemnified Party is, or is threatened to be made, a party or witness in whole or in part or arising in whole or in part out of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of RBPI or a RBPI Subsidiary if such Claim pertains to any matter of fact arising, existing or occurring at or before the Effective Time (including, without limitation, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby), regardless of whether such Claim is asserted or claimed before, or after, the Effective Time, to the fullest extent as would have been permitted by RBPI under the PBCL and under RBPI’s articles of incorporation and bylaws or equivalent governing documents of any RBPI Subsidiary, as applicable, in each case as in effect on the date hereof. BMBC shall pay expenses in advance of the final disposition of any such action or proceeding to each Indemnified Party to the fullest extent as would have been permitted by RBPI under the PBCL and under RBPI’s articles of incorporation upon receipt of an undertaking to repay such advance payments if such Indemnified Party shall be adjudicated or determined to be not entitled to indemnification in the manner set forth below. Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under this Section 7.8.1 upon learning of any Claim, shall notify BMBC (but the failure so to notify BMBC shall not relieve it from any liability which it may have under this Section 7.8.1, except to the extent such failure prejudices BMBC) and shall deliver to BMBC the undertaking referred to in the previous sentence.

7.8.2. In the event that either BMBC or any of its successors or assigns (a) consolidates with or merges into any other person and shall not be the continuing or surviving bank or entity of such consolidation or merger or (b) transfers all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any person, then, and in each such case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of BMBC shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 7.8.

7.8.3. BMBC shall maintain, or shall cause BMT to maintain, in effect for six (6) years following the Effective Time, the current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies covering the officers and directors of RBPI (provided, that BMBC may substitute therefore policies of at least the same coverage containing terms and conditions which are not materially less favorable) with respect to matters occurring at or prior to the Effective Time; provided, however, that in no event shall BMBC be required to expend per year pursuant to this Section 7.8.3 more than one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the annual cost currently expended by RBPI with respect to such insurance (the "Maximum Amount"); provided, further, that if the amount of the annual premium necessary to maintain or procure such insurance coverage exceeds the Maximum Amount, BMBC shall maintain the most advantageous policies of directors' and officers' insurance obtainable for a premium equal to the Maximum Amount. In connection with the foregoing, RBPI agrees in order for BMBC to fulfill its agreement to provide directors' and officers' liability insurance policies for six (6) years to provide such insurer or substitute insurer with such reasonable and customary representations as such insurer may request with respect to the reporting of any prior claims.

7.8.4. The obligations of BMBC provided under this Section 7.8 are intended to be enforceable against BMBC directly by the Indemnified Parties and their respective heirs and representatives and shall be binding on all respective successors and permitted assigns of BMBC.

7.9. Stock Listing.

Prior to the Effective Time, BMBC will take all steps necessary to list on NASDAQ (or such other national securities exchange on which the shares of the BMBC Common Stock shall be listed as of the date of consummation of the Merger), subject to official notice of issuance, the shares of BMBC Common Stock to be issued in the Merger. At all times from the date of this Agreement until the Merger Consideration has been paid in full, BMBC will reserve a sufficient number of shares of BMBC Common Stock to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement.

7.10. BMT Advisory Board.

Upon the Effective Time, BMT shall form an advisory board (the “Advisory Board”), comprised of certain members of RBPI’s and/or RBA’s Boards of Directors immediately prior to the Effective Time who do not become directors of BMBC and BMT pursuant to Section 7.11 hereof and who agree in writing, at or prior to the Effective Time, to serve on such Advisory Board immediately following the Effective Time.

7.11. BMBC/BMT Board of Directors.

Following the date of this Agreement, BMBC and BMT shall take all action necessary to (a) cause each of their boards of directors to be increased by one member, effective immediately following the Effective Time, and (b) elect one current director of RBPI selected by BMBC, in its sole discretion, as a director to each of BMBC and BMT in the class of directors whose terms expire at the 2018 annual meeting of shareholders of BMBC. At the end of the initial term of such director, he or she will be re-nominated for an additional term, subject to the fiduciary duties of the board of directors of BMBC and any applicable eligibility requirements set forth in BMBC’s articles of incorporation, bylaws, or nominating and corporate governance committee guidelines, or any applicable Law, such that the director will have the opportunity to serve at least four years on the boards of directors of BMBC and BMT. In the event such director of RBPI resigns or is unable to serve as a director of BMBC and BMT for any reason, BMBC will consider the election of another former director of RBPI (who meets the criteria set forth in the preceding sentence) selected by BMBC, in its sole discretion, to fill the unexpired term of the director of RBPI originally elected by BMBC and BMT to their respective boards of directors.

7.12. Rule 16b-3.

BMBC shall take all steps, as may be necessary or appropriate, to cause the transactions contemplated by Article III and any other dispositions of equity securities of RBPI (including derivative securities) or acquisitions of equity securities of BMBC in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act.

ARTICLE VIII

8.1. RBPI Shareholder Meeting.

8.1.1. Following the execution of this Agreement, RBPI shall take, in accordance with applicable Law and the articles of incorporation and bylaws of Company, all action necessary to convene a special meeting of its shareholders as promptly as practicable (and in any event within 45 days following the date when the Merger Registration Statement becomes effective, subject to extension with the consent of BMBC (not to be unreasonably withheld or conditioned)) to consider and vote upon the approval of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby (including the Merger) and any other matters required to be approved by RBPI's shareholders in order to permit consummation of the Merger and the transactions contemplated hereby (including any adjournment or postponement of such meeting, the "RBPI Shareholders Meeting"), and shall, subject to Section 6.10, use commercially reasonable efforts to solicit and obtain the Requisite RBPI Shareholder Approval to consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby. Except with the prior approval of BMBC, no other matters shall be submitted for the approval of RBPI shareholders at the RBPI Shareholders Meeting.

8.1.2. Except to the extent provided otherwise in Section 6.10, the Board of Directors of RBPI shall at all times prior to and during the RBPI Shareholders Meeting recommend approval of this Agreement by the shareholders of RBPI and the transactions contemplated hereby (including the Merger) and any other matters required to be approved by RBPI's shareholders for consummation of the Merger and the transactions contemplated hereby (the "RBPI Recommendation") and the Proxy Statement-Prospectus shall include the RBPI Recommendation. In the event that there is present at such meeting, in Person or by proxy, sufficient favorable voting power to secure the Requisite RBPI Shareholder Approval, RBPI will not adjourn or postpone the RBPI Shareholders Meeting unless the Board of Directors of RBPI reasonably determines in good faith, after consultation with and having considered the advice of counsel that failure to do so would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable Law. RBPI shall keep BMBC updated with respect to the proxy solicitation results in connection with the RBPI Shareholders Meeting as reasonably requested by BMBC.

8.1.3. Except to the extent provided otherwise in Section 6.10, RBPI shall adjourn or postpone the RBPI Shareholders Meeting, if, as of the time for which such meeting is originally scheduled there are insufficient shares of RBPI Common Stock represented (either in Person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of such meeting, or if on the date of such meeting RBPI has not received proxies representing a sufficient number of shares necessary to obtain the Requisite RBPI Shareholder Approval. RBPI shall only be required to adjourn or postpone the RBPI Shareholders Meeting two times pursuant to the first sentence of this Section 8.1.3.

8.2. Proxy Statement-Prospectus.

8.2.1. For the purposes (x) of registering BMBC Common Stock to be offered to holders of RBPI Common Stock in connection with the Merger with the SEC under the Securities Act and (y) of holding the RBPI Shareholders Meeting, BMBC shall draft and prepare, and RBPI shall cooperate in the preparation of, the Merger Registration Statement, including a proxy statement and prospectus satisfying all applicable requirements of applicable state securities and banking laws, and of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations thereunder (such proxy statement/prospectus in the form mailed to the RBPI shareholders, together with any and all amendments or supplements thereto, being herein referred to as the "Proxy Statement-Prospectus"). BMBC shall file the Merger Registration Statement, including the Proxy Statement-Prospectus, with the SEC as soon as practicable after the date of this Agreement. Each of BMBC and RBPI shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to have the Merger Registration Statement declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after such filing, and RBPI shall thereafter promptly mail the Proxy Statement-Prospectus to the RBPI shareholders.

8.2.2. RBPI shall provide BMBC with any information concerning itself that BMBC may reasonably request in connection with the drafting and preparation of the Proxy Statement-Prospectus, and BMBC shall notify RBPI promptly of the receipt of any comments of the SEC with respect to the Proxy Statement-Prospectus and of any requests by the SEC for any amendment or supplement thereto or for additional information and shall provide to RBPI promptly copies of all correspondence between BMBC or any of their representatives and the SEC. BMBC shall give RBPI and its counsel reasonable opportunity to review and comment on the Proxy Statement-Prospectus prior to its being filed with the SEC and shall give RBPI and its counsel the reasonable opportunity to review and comment on all amendments and supplements to the Proxy Statement-Prospectus and all responses to requests for additional information and replies to comments prior to their being filed with, or sent to, the SEC. Each of BMBC and RBPI agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts, after consultation with the other party hereto, to respond promptly to all such comments of and requests by the SEC and to cause the Proxy Statement-Prospectus and all required amendments and supplements thereto to be mailed to the holders of RBPI Common Stock entitled to vote at the RBPI Shareholders Meeting at the earliest practicable time. BMBC will advise RBPI promptly after BMBC receives notice of the time when the Merger Registration Statement has become effective or any supplement or amendment thereto has been filed, the issuance of any stop order, or the suspension of the qualifications of shares of BMBC Common Stock issuable pursuant to the Merger Registration Statement, or the initiation of any proceeding for any such purpose.

8.2.3. RBPI and BMBC shall promptly notify the other party if at any time it becomes aware that the Proxy Statement-Prospectus or the Merger Registration Statement contains any untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements contained therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. In such event, RBPI shall cooperate with BMBC in the preparation of a supplement or amendment to such Proxy Statement-Prospectus that corrects such misstatement or omission, and BMBC shall file an amended Merger Registration Statement with the SEC, and RBPI shall mail an amended Proxy Statement-Prospectus to its shareholders.

8.3. Regulatory Approvals.

Each of RBPI and BMBC will cooperate with the other and use all reasonable efforts to promptly prepare all necessary documentation, to effect all necessary filings as soon as practicable after the date of this Agreement and to obtain all necessary permits, consents, waivers, approvals and authorizations of the SEC, the Bank Regulators and any other third parties and governmental bodies necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. RBPI and BMBC will furnish each other and each other's counsel with all information concerning themselves, their subsidiaries, directors, officers and shareholders and such other matters as may be necessary or advisable in connection with the Proxy Statement-Prospectus and any application, petition or any other statement or application made by or on behalf of RBPI or BMBC to any Bank Regulator or Governmental Entity in connection with the Merger, and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Each party shall have the right to review and approve in advance all characterizations of the information relating to such party and any of its Subsidiaries, which appear in any filing made in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement with any governmental body. Each party shall give the other party and its counsel reasonable opportunity to review and comment on each filing prior to its being filed with a Bank Regulator and shall give the other party and its counsel reasonable opportunity to review and comment on all regulatory filings, amendments and supplements to such filings and all responses to requests for additional information and replies to comments prior to their being filed with, or sent to, a Bank Regulator.

ARTICLE IX

CLOSING CONDITIONS

9.1. Conditions to Each Party's Obligations under this Agreement.

The respective obligations of each party under this Agreement shall be subject to the fulfillment or, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, written waiver by RBPI and BMBC at or prior to the Closing Date of the following conditions:

9.1.1. Shareholder Approval. This Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby shall have received the Requisite RBPI Shareholder Approval.

9.1.2. Orders and Prohibitions. None of RBPI, BMBC or any of their respective Subsidiaries shall be subject to any order, decree or injunction of a court or agency of competent jurisdiction that enjoins or prohibits the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and no statute, rule or regulation shall have been enacted, entered, promulgated, applied or enforced by any Governmental Entity or Bank Regulator, that prohibits or makes illegal the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

9.1.3. Regulatory Approvals. All Regulatory Approvals shall have been obtained and shall remain in full force and effect and all waiting periods relating to such approvals shall have expired; and no Regulatory Approval shall include any condition or requirement that would, in the good faith reasonable judgment of the Board of Directors of BMBC, materially and adversely affect the business, operations, financial condition, property or assets of the combined enterprise of RBPI and BMBC or materially impair the value of RBPI or RBA to BMBC.

9.1.4. Effectiveness of Merger Registration Statement. The Merger Registration Statement shall have become effective under the Securities Act and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Merger Registration Statement shall have been issued, and no proceedings for that purpose shall have been initiated by the SEC or any other Governmental Entity and not withdrawn.

9.1.5. NASDAQ Listing. The shares of BMBC Common Stock to be issued in the Merger shall have been authorized for listing on NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance.

9.1.6. Tax Opinions. On the basis of facts, representations and assumptions which shall be consistent with the state of facts existing at the Closing Date, BMBC shall have received an opinion of Reed Smith LLP, and RBPI shall have received an opinion of Stevens & Lee, P.C., each reasonably acceptable in form and substance to BMBC and RBPI, dated as of the Closing Date, substantially to the effect that for federal income tax purposes, the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. In rendering the tax opinion described in this Section 9.1.6, Reed Smith LLP and Stevens & Lee, P.C. may require and rely upon customary representations contained in certificates of officers of BMBC and RBPI and their respective subsidiaries, in form and substance reasonably acceptable to such counsel.

9.2. Conditions to the Obligations of BMBC under this Agreement.

The obligations of BMBC under this Agreement shall be further subject to the satisfaction (or written waiver by BMBC) of the conditions set forth in this Section 9.2 at or prior to the Closing Date:

9.2.1. Representations and Warranties. Each of the representations and warranties of RBPI set forth in this Agreement shall be true and correct as of the date of this Agreement and as of all times up to and including the Effective Time as though made on and as of the Effective Time (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of a specified date); provided, however, that none of the RBPI MAE Reps shall be deemed untrue or incorrect for purposes of this Section 9.2.1, and RBPI shall not be deemed to have breached any RBPI MAE Rep, in any case, as a consequence of the existence of any fact, event or circumstance except to the extent such fact, circumstance or event, individually or in the aggregate with all other facts, events or circumstances inconsistent with any representation or warranty set forth herein, has had or would be reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect (without giving effect to any materiality or Material Adverse Effect qualifier in such representation or warranty). RBPI shall have delivered to BMBC a certificate to such effect signed by the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of RBPI as of the Effective Time.

9.2.2. Agreements and Covenants. RBPI shall have performed in all material respects all obligations and complied in all material respects with all agreements or covenants to be performed or complied with by it at or prior to the Effective Time, and BMBC shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of RBPI by the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer of RBPI to such effect dated as of the Effective Time.

9.2.3. Permits, Authorizations, Etc. RBPI shall have obtained any and all material permits, authorizations, consents, waivers, clearances or approvals required for the lawful consummation of the Merger and the Bank Merger including, but not limited to, those listed on BMBC Disclosure Schedule 9.2.3.

9.2.4. RBPI Delinquencies.

- (A) The average of the RBPI Delinquencies at the month end of each of the two months immediately preceding the Closing Date shall not exceed $19 million;

- (B) RBPI's OREO shall not exceed $6.5 million at the month end of the month immediately preceding the Closing Date; and

- (C) Total RBPI Loans that are on non-accrual or non-performing status shall not exceed $8.5 million at the month end of the month immediately preceding the Closing Date.

9.2.5. Dissenters' Rights. Holders of no more than eight and one half percent (8.5%) of the issued and outstanding shares of RBPI Class B Stock shall have exercised their statutory appraisal or dissenters' rights pursuant to Section 3.2.13 hereof prior to the Closing Date.

9.2.6. Divestment of Non-Volcker Compliant Securities. Prior to July 1, 2017, RBA shall have divested from its investment portfolio any securities that, were they to remain in RBA's investment portfolio through July 2017, would fail to comply with the Volcker Rule (§ 619 (12 U.S.C. § 1851)).

9.2.7. Litigation Matters. Accrual of reserves in amount satisfactory to BMBC for, or settlement of, the litigation matters set forth on BMBC Disclosure Schedule 9.2.7.

9.2.8. Subsidiaries. RBPI shall have completed the actions related to Subsidiaries and investments described on BMBC Disclosure Schedule 9.2.8.

9.2.9. Delivery of Evidence of Amendments Requiring Release. RBPI shall have delivered to BMBC evidence that each and every employment, consulting, change in control or severance agreement or contract providing severance payments to any employee or consultant whose employment or services are terminated on or after the date hereof is subject to a legally binding amendment or provision that (i) requires the execution of a release in a form satisfactory to RBPI or its successor as a precondition to the payment of severance (or similar) benefits thereunder and (ii) imposes non-solicitation and non-competition restrictions on the applicable counterparty(ies) satisfactory to BMBC and RBPI.

9.2.10. Delivery of Audit Opinion. RBPI's outside auditors shall have issued an unqualified audit opinion with respect to RBPI's 2016 audited financial statements.

9.2.11. Delivery of Legal Opinion. Stevens & Lee, P.C. shall have delivered to BMBC a legal opinion, dated as of the Closing Date, in substantially the form and substance of the legal opinion delivered to BMBC by Stevens & Lee, P.C. as of the date of this Agreement.

9.2.12. Regulatory Actions. To the extent that either RBPI or RBA is currently subject to any outstanding supervisory action (including but not limited to a consent order, formal agreement, or memorandum of understanding) involving a Bank Regulator, the appropriate Bank Regulator has terminated or lifted such outstanding supervisory action, or provided assurance acceptable to BMBC, such that it will not be binding upon BMBC or BMT following the Merger, and no obligations arising under such outstanding supervisory action will be transferred to BMBC or BMT.

RBPI will furnish BMBC with such certificates of its officers or others and such other documents to evidence fulfillment of the conditions set forth in this Section 9.2 as BMBC may reasonably request.

9.3. Conditions to the Obligations of RBPI under this Agreement.

The obligations of RBPI under this Agreement shall be further subject to the satisfaction (or written waiver by RBPI) of the conditions set forth in Sections 9.3.1 through 9.3.4 at or prior to the Closing Date:

9.3.1. Representations and Warranties. Each of the representations and warranties of BMBC set forth in this Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the date of this Agreement and as of all times up to and including the Effective Time as though made on and as of the Effective Time (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of a specified date); provided, however, that none of the BMBC MAE Reps shall be deemed untrue or incorrect for purposes of this Section 9.3.1, and BMBC shall not be deemed to have breached any BMBC MAE Rep, in any case, as a consequence of the existence of any fact, event or circumstance except to the extent such fact, circumstance or event, individually or in the aggregate with all other facts, events or circumstances inconsistent with any representation or warranty set forth herein, has had or would be reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect (without giving effect to any materiality or Material Adverse Effect qualifier in such representation or warranty). BMBC shall have delivered to RBPI a certificate to such effect signed by the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of BMBC as of the Effective Time.

9.3.2. Agreements and Covenants. BMBC shall have performed in all material respects all obligations and complied in all material respects with all agreements or covenants to be performed or complied with by it at or prior to the Effective Time, and RBPI shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of BMBC by the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer to such effect dated as of the Effective Time.

9.3.3. Permits, Authorizations, Etc. BMBC shall have obtained any and all material permits, authorizations, consents, waivers, clearances or approvals required for the lawful consummation of the Merger and the Bank Merger.

9.3.4. Payment of Merger Consideration. BMBC shall have delivered the Exchange Fund to the Exchange Agent on or before the Closing Date and the Exchange Agent shall provide RBPI with a certificate evidencing such delivery.

9.3.5. Delivery of Audit Opinion. BMBC's outside auditors shall have issued an unqualified audit opinion with respect to BMBC's 2016 audited financial statements.

BMBC will furnish RBPI with such certificates of its officers or others and such other documents to evidence fulfillment of the conditions set forth in this Section 9.3 as RBPI may reasonably request.

9.4. Frustration of Closing Conditions.

Neither BMBC nor RBPI may rely on the failure of any condition set forth in Section 9.1, Section 9.2 or Section 9.3, as the case may be, to be satisfied if such failure was caused by such party's failure to comply with its obligations hereunder.

ARTICLE X

THE CLOSING

10.1. Time and Place.

Subject to the provisions of Articles IX and XI hereof, the Closing shall take place at the offices of Reed Smith LLP, Three Logan Square, 1717 Arch Street, Suite 3100, Philadelphia, PA at 10:00 a.m. on the Closing Date, or at such other place or time upon which BMBC and RBPI mutually agree. A pre-closing of the transactions contemplated hereby (the “Pre-Closing”) shall take place at the offices of Reed Smith LLP, Three Logan Square 1717 Arch Street, Suite 3100, Philadelphia, PA at 10:00 a.m. on the Business Day prior to the Closing Date.

10.2. Deliveries at the Pre-Closing and the Closing.

At the Pre-Closing there shall be delivered to BMBC and RBPI the opinions, certificates, and other documents and instruments required to be delivered under Article IX hereof. At or prior to the Closing, BMBC shall have delivered the Merger Consideration as set forth under Section 9.3.4 hereof.

ARTICLE XI

TERMINATION, AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

11.1. Termination.

This Agreement may be terminated, and the transactions contemplated hereby may be abandoned:

11.1.1. At any time prior to the Effective Time, by the mutual consent, in writing, of BMBC and RBPI;

11.1.2. By BMBC or RBPI in the event any Regulatory Approval required for consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall have been denied by final, non-appealable action by such Governmental Entity or an Application therefor shall have been withdrawn at the request of a Governmental Entity; provided, however, that no party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 11.1.2 if such denial shall be due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate this Agreement to perform or observe the covenants of such party set forth in this Agreement;

11.1.3. By either BMBC or RBPI (provided, in the case of RBPI, that it shall not be in breach of any of its obligations under Section 8.1), if the Requisite RBPI Shareholder Approval shall not have been obtained by reason of the failure to obtain the required vote at a duly held meeting of such shareholders and at any adjournment or postponement thereof required by this Agreement;

11.1.4. By either BMBC or RBPI (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein in a manner that would entitle the other party to not consummate this Agreement) if there shall have been a breach of any of such representations or warranties by the other party which breach of any of such representations or warranties by the other party, either individually or in the aggregate with other breaches by such other party, would result in, if occurring or continuing on the Closing Date, the failure of the condition set forth in Section 9.2.1 or Section 9.3.1, as the case may be, to be satisfied, which breach is not cured within thirty (30) days after receipt by such party of written notice specifying the nature of such breach and requesting that it be remedied provided, that, if such breach cannot reasonably be cured within such 30-day period but may reasonably be cured within sixty (60) days, and such cure is being diligently pursued, no such termination shall occur prior to the expiration of such sixty (60)-day period;

11.1.5. By either BMBC or RBPI (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein in a manner that would entitle the other party not to consummate the agreement) if there shall have been a breach of any of the covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement on the part of the other party, which breach of any of the covenants or agreements either individually or in the aggregate with other breaches by such party, would result in, if not cured by the Closing Date, the failure of the condition set forth in Section 9.2.2 or Section 9.3.2, as the case may be, to be satisfied, which breach is not cured within thirty (30) days after receipt by such party of written notice specifying the nature of such breach and requesting that it be remedied provided, that, if such breach cannot reasonably be cured within such 30-day period but may reasonably be cured within sixty (60) days, and such cure is being diligently pursued, no such termination shall occur prior to the expiration of such sixty (60)-day period;

11.1.6. By either BMBC or RBPI if the Merger shall not have been consummated on or before the Termination Date, unless the failure of the Closing to occur by such date shall be due to a material breach of this Agreement by the party seeking to terminate this Agreement; provided, however, if additional time is necessary in order to obtain any required Regulatory Approvals, the Termination Date shall be automatically extended for one additional three-month period;

11.1.7. In addition to and not in limitation of BMBC's termination rights under Section 11.1.5, by BMBC prior to the Requisite RBPI Shareholder Approval being obtained if (i) there shall have been a material breach of Section 6.10 and such breach shall not have been cured on or before the expiration of the fifth (5th) Business Day after the occurrence of such breach; or (ii) the Board of Directors of RBPI makes a RBPI Subsequent Determination;

11.1.8. By RBPI, at any time prior to the Requisite RBPI Shareholder Approval being obtained, in the event that RBPI shall conclude, in good faith after consultation with its legal and financial advisors, that it must agree to endorse a Superior Proposal and terminate this Agreement in order to comply with its fiduciary duties, provided that RBPI has complied with all of its obligations under Section 6.10 of this Agreement.

11.1.9. By BMBC, if any Phase IIs, considered together or separately, confirm the existence at or from the assessed property or properties of a Release or Releases which (a) either violate an applicable Environmental Law or are present in concentrations exceeding applicable standards under applicable Environmental Laws and (b) are estimated by the environmental consultant preparing the Phase II to cost more than the Environmental Threshold to remediate in accordance with, and to ensure compliance with, applicable Environmental Law; provided, that to the extent any such Release or Releases exist at or from any RBPI OREO, then BMBC shall, to the extent requested by RBPI, engage in good faith negotiations regarding the mitigating factors related to such Release and costs for a period of at least fifteen (15) days prior to exercising BMBC's rights under this Section 11.1.9.

11.1.10. By RBPI, if the RPBI board of directors so determines by a majority vote of its members, at any time during the five (5) Business Day period commencing with the Determination Date, if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

(A) the BMBC Determination Date Market Value shall be less than the Initial BMBC Market Value multiplied by .80; and

(B) (A) the BMBC Ratio shall be less than (B) the Index Ratio, minus 0.20; subject, however, to the following: if RBPI elects to exercise its termination right pursuant to this Section 11.1.10, it shall give prompt written notice thereof to BMBC and BMBC shall, for a period of five (5) Business Days after its receipt of such notice, have the option of increasing the Exchange Ratio (the "Additional Consideration"), by adjusting the Exchange Ratio to an amount which, when multiplied by the BMBC Determination Date Market Value equals the lesser of (x) $3.35 or (y) the product of the Index Ratio and the Initial BMBC Market Value multiplied by the Exchange Ratio. If within such five (5) Business Day period, BMBC delivers written notice to RBPI that it intends to proceed by paying the Additional Consideration, as contemplated by the preceding sentence, then no termination shall occur pursuant to this Section 11.1.10 and this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms (except that the Merger Consideration shall have been so modified).

For purposes of this Section 11.1.10, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated below:

"BMBC Determination Date Market Value" shall be the average of the daily closing sales prices of a share of BMBC Common Stock as reported on NASDAQ for the twenty (20) consecutive trading days immediately preceding the Determination Date.

“BMBC Ratio” means the quotient obtained by dividing BMBC Determination Date Market Value by the Initial BMBC Market Value.

“Determination Date” shall mean the later of (i) the date on which the last required approval of a Regulatory Authority is obtained with respect to the transactions contemplated by the Agreement without regard to any requisite waiting period (ii) the date of the RBPI Shareholders Meeting.

“Index” means the ABA NASDAQ Community Bank Index.

“Index Ratio” means the quotient obtained by dividing the Final Index Price by the Initial Index Price.

“Initial Index Price” means the closing price of the ABA NASDAQ Community Bank Index as of the Starting Date.

“Initial BMBC Market Value” means the closing price of BMBC Common Stock on the Starting Date, adjusted as indicated in the last sentence of this Section 11.1.10.

“Starting Date” means the last trading day before the date of this Agreement.

If BMBC declares or effects a stock dividend, reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or similar transaction between the date of this Agreement and the Determination Date, the prices for BMBC Common Stock shall be appropriately adjusted for the purposes of applying this Section 11.1.10.

11.2. Termination Fee; Liquidated Damages

11.2.1. In recognition of the efforts, expenses and other opportunities foregone by BMBC while structuring and pursuing the Merger, RBPI shall pay to BMBC a termination fee equal to $5,000,000 (“Termination Fee”), by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account specified by BMBC in the event of any of the following: (a) in the event BMBC terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 11.1.7 or RBPI terminates pursuant to Section 11.1.8, RBPI shall pay BMBC the Termination Fee within two (2) Business Days after receipt of BMBC’s notification of such termination; or (b) in the event that after the date of this Agreement and prior to the termination of this Agreement, an Acquisition Proposal shall have been made known to the Board of Directors of RBPI or has been made directly to RBPI shareholders generally (and not withdrawn) and (i) thereafter this Agreement is terminated by either BMBC or RBPI pursuant to Section 11.1.3 or Section 11.1.6 (without the Requisite RBPI Shareholder Approval having been obtained) or if this Agreement is terminated by BMBC pursuant to Section 11.1.4 or Section 11.1.5, and (ii) prior to the date that is twelve (12) months after the date of such termination, RBPI enters into any agreement to consummate, or consummates an Acquisition Transaction (and such Acquisition Transaction relates to the Acquisition Proposal referred to above), then RBPI shall, on the earlier of the date it enters into such agreement and the date of consummation of such transaction, pay BMBC the Termination Fee.

11.2.2. The parties hereto agree and acknowledge that if BMBC terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 11.1.4 or Section 11.1.5 by reason of RBPI's breach of the provisions of this Agreement contemplated by Section 11.1.4 or Section 11.1.5 that is not timely cured as provided in such sections, the actual damages sustained by BMBC, including the expenses incurred by BMBC preparatory to entering into this Agreement and in connection with the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, would be significant and difficult to ascertain, gauged by the circumstances existing at the time this Agreement is executed, and that in lieu of BMBC being required to pursue its damage claims in costly litigation proceedings in such event, the parties agree that RBPI shall pay a reasonable estimate of the amount of such damages, which the parties agree is the sum of $1,800,000 (the "Liquidated Damages Amount"), as liquidated damages to BMBC, which payment is not intended as a penalty, within two (2) Business Days after BMBC's notification of such termination. Any payment made under this Section 11.2.2 shall reduce on a dollar-for-dollar basis any payment that may be due under Section 11.2.1.

11.2.3. The parties hereto agree and acknowledge that if RBPI terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 11.1.4 or Section 11.1.5 by reason of BMBC's breach of the provisions of this Agreement contemplated by Section 11.1.4 or Section 11.1.5 that is not timely cured as provided in such sections, the actual damages sustained by RBPI, including the expenses incurred by RBPI preparatory to entering into this Agreement and in connection with the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, would be significant and difficult to ascertain, gauged by the circumstances existing at the time this Agreement is executed, and that in lieu of RBPI being required to pursue its damage claims in costly litigation proceedings in such event, the parties agree that BMBC shall pay the Liquidated Damages Amount, as liquidated damages to RBPI, which payment is not intended as a penalty, within two (2) Business Days after RBPI's notification of such termination.

11.2.4. RBPI and BMBC each agree that the agreements contained in this Section 11.2 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and that, without these agreements, neither party would not enter into this Agreement; accordingly, if a party fails promptly to pay any amounts due under this Section 11.2, such party shall pay interest on such amounts from the date payment of such amounts were due to the date of actual payment at the rate of interest equal to the sum of (i) the rate of interest published from time to time in The Wall Street Journal, Eastern Edition (or any successor publication thereto), designated therein as the prime rate on the date such payment was due, plus (ii) 200 basis points, together with the costs and expenses of the other party (including reasonable legal fees and expenses) reasonably incurred in connection with such suit.

11.2.5. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, the parties agree that if RBPI pays or causes to be paid to BMBC the Termination Fee in accordance with Section 11.2.1, or, if applicable, the Liquidated Damages Amount in accordance with Section 11.2.2, or if BMBC pays or causes to be paid to RBPI the Liquidated Damages Amount in accordance with Section 11.2.3, neither paying party nor its subsidiary bank (nor any successor in interest, Affiliate, shareholder, director, officer, employee, agent, consultant or representative of such paying party or its subsidiary bank) will have any further obligations or liabilities to the other party or its subsidiary bank with respect to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the payment of such amounts shall be the receiving party's sole and exclusive remedy against the other party, its subsidiary bank, and their respective Affiliates, representatives or successors in interest; provided that nothing contained in this Agreement shall limit either party's rights to recover any liabilities or damages arising out of the other party's intentional misrepresentation or willful breach of any provision of this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, the parties agree that the fee payable under Section 11.2.1 shall not be required to be paid more than once.

11.3. Effect of Termination.

If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 11.1, this Agreement shall become void and of no effect without liability of any party (or any shareholder, director, officer, employee, agent, consultant or representative of such party or any of its Affiliates) to the other party hereto, except as provided in Section 11.2.5. The provisions of this Section 11.3, and Section 11.2, 12.1, 12.2, 12.4, 12.5, 12.6, 12.9, 12.10, 12.11 shall survive any termination hereof pursuant to Section 11.1.

11.4. Amendment, Extension and Waiver.

Subject to applicable Law, at any time prior to the Effective Time (whether before or after approval thereof by the shareholders of RBPI), the parties hereto by action of their respective Boards of Directors, may (a) amend this Agreement, (b) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of any other party hereto, (c) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto, or (d) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained herein; provided, however, that after any approval of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby by the shareholders of RBPI, there may not be, without further approval of such shareholders, any amendment of this Agreement which reduces the amount, value or changes the form of consideration to be delivered to RBPI's shareholders pursuant to this Agreement. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto. Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party, but such waiver or failure to insist on strict compliance with such obligation, covenant, agreement or condition shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure.

ARTICLE XII

MISCELLANEOUS

12.1. Confidentiality.

BMBC and RBPI mutually acknowledge that they are bound by the terms of the confidentiality agreement dated September 19, 2016 (the "Confidentiality Agreement"), previously executed by the parties hereto, which Confidentiality Agreement is hereby incorporated herein by reference. The parties hereto agree that the Confidentiality Agreement shall continue in accordance with its terms, notwithstanding the termination of this Agreement.

12.2. Public Announcements.

RBPI and BMBC shall reasonably cooperate with each other in the development and distribution of all news releases and other public disclosures with respect to this Agreement, and except as may be otherwise required by applicable Law, neither RBPI nor BMBC shall issue any news release, or other public announcement or communication with respect to this Agreement unless such news release, public announcement or communication has been mutually agreed upon by the parties hereto.

12.3. Survival.

All representations, warranties and covenants in this Agreement or in any statement, certificate, instrument, or other writing delivered pursuant hereto shall expire on and be terminated and extinguished at the Effective Time, except for those covenants and agreements contained herein which by their terms apply in whole or in part after the Effective Time.

12.4. Notices.

All notices and other communications required or permitted by this Agreement shall be in writing and will be effective, and any applicable time period shall commence, when (a) delivered to the following address by hand or by a nationally recognized overnight courier service (costs prepaid) addressed to the listed address, or (b) transmitted electronically to the listed e-mail addresses, in each case marked to the attention of the person (by name or title) designated below (or to such other address, e-mail address or person as a party may designate by notice to the other party); provided, however, that with respect to an electronic transmission via email, on the same day of such electronic transmission, a hard copy shall be sent to the listed address via hand delivery, nationally recognized overnight courier service (costs prepaid), or first class mail via the U.S. Postal Service:

12.5. Parties in Interest.

This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns; provided, however, that neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations hereunder shall be assigned by any party hereto without the prior written consent of the other party. Except for the provisions of Article III and Section 7.8, following the Effective Time, nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any Person, other than the parties hereto and their respective successors, any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement.

12.6. Complete Agreement.

This Agreement, including the exhibits and Schedules hereto and the documents and other writings referred to herein or therein or delivered pursuant hereto, and the Confidentiality Agreement, referred to in Section 12.1, contains the entire agreement and understanding of the parties with respect to its subject matter. There are no restrictions, agreements, promises, warranties, covenants or undertakings between the parties other than those expressly set forth herein or therein. This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements and understandings (other than the Confidentiality Agreement referred to in Section 12.1 hereof) between the parties, both written and oral, with respect to its subject matter.

12.7. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement and each of which shall be deemed an original. A facsimile copy or electronic transmission of a signature page shall be deemed to be an original signature page.

12.8. Severability.

In the event that any one or more provisions of this Agreement shall for any reason be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, by any court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other provisions of this Agreement and the parties shall use their reasonable efforts to substitute a valid, legal and enforceable provision which, insofar as practical, implements the purposes and intents of this Agreement.

12.9. Governing Law.

12.9.1. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of Pennsylvania, without giving effect to its principles of conflicts of laws.

12.9.2. EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT. Each party certifies and acknowledges that (i) no representative, agent or attorney of any other party has represented, expressly or otherwise, that such other party would not, in the event of litigation, seek to enforce the foregoing waiver, (ii) each party understands and has considered the implications of this waiver, (iii) each party makes this waiver voluntarily, and (iv) each party has been induced to enter into this Agreement by, among other things, the mutual waivers and certifications in this Section 12.9.2.

12.10. Interpretation.

When a reference is made in this Agreement to Sections or Exhibits, such reference shall be to a Section of or Exhibit to this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. The recitals hereto constitute an integral part of this Agreement. References to Sections include subsections, which are part of the related Section (e.g., a section numbered “Section 5.5.1” would be part of “Section 5.5” and references to “Section 5.5” would also refer to material contained in the subsection described as “Section 5.5.1”). The table of contents, index and headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. Whenever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.” The phrases “the date of this Agreement,” “the date hereof” and terms of similar import, unless the context otherwise requires, shall be deemed to refer to the date set forth in the Recitals to this Agreement. The parties have participated jointly in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement. In the event an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement shall be construed as if drafted jointly by the parties and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any party by virtue of the authorship of any of the provisions of this Agreement. All documents and information set forth in BMBC’s Securities Documents shall be deemed to have been “made available” or “provided” to RBPI.

12.11. Disclosure Schedules.

12.11.1. The RBPI Disclosure Schedule and the BMBC Disclosure Schedule shall be deemed part of this Agreement and are fully incorporated into this Agreement by reference. Any reference in a particular section or subsection of either the RBPI Disclosure Schedule or the BMBC Disclosure Schedule shall only be deemed a reference to, an exception to or a modification of (or, as applicable, a disclosure for purposes of) (a) the representations and warranties or covenants, as applicable, of the relevant party that are contained in the corresponding section or subsection of this Agreement, and (b) any other section or subsection of the RBPI Disclosure Schedule or the BMBC Disclosure Schedule, as applicable (and accordingly any other representations, warranties or covenants of such party contained in the corresponding section or subsection of this Agreement), but only if the relevance of that reference as an exception to or a modification of (or a disclosure for purposes of) such representations, warranties and covenants of the relevant party, whether or not an explicit cross-reference appears, to such other section or subsection is reasonably apparent on the face of such disclosure. Nothing in the RBPI Disclosure Schedule or the BMBC Disclosure Schedule shall be deemed adequate to disclose an exception to or a modification of a representation or a warranty unless such schedule identifies the exception with reasonable particularity and describes the relevant facts in reasonable detail.

12.11.2. During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, each party will promptly notify the other party in writing of any matter hereafter arising which, if existing, occurring or known at the date of this Agreement, would have been required to be set forth or described in its Disclosure Schedule to Article 4 or Article 5, as applicable, or which is necessary to correct any information in its Disclosure Schedule that has been rendered materially inaccurate thereby. Each such notice shall include, or be accompanied by, a proposed supplement or amendment to such Party's Disclosure Schedule regarding such matter (a "Schedule Supplement"). Each such Schedule Supplement shall be deemed to be incorporated into and to supplement and amend RBPI Disclosure Schedule or BMBC Disclosure Schedule, as applicable, as of the date of this Agreement and the Closing Date; provided, however, that if the matter which is the subject of the Schedule Supplement constitutes or relates to something that could provide BMBC with a right to terminate this Agreement in accordance with Section 11.1.4 and BMBC does not elect to terminate this Agreement prior to the earlier of (i) five (5) Business Days after the expiration of the applicable cure period and (ii) the Termination Date, then BMBC shall be deemed to have irrevocably waived any right to terminate this Agreement on account of such matter. No investigation by a party or its representatives shall be deemed to modify or waive any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement of the other party or its subsidiary bank set forth in this Agreement, or the conditions to the respective obligations of BMBC and RBPI to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

12.12. Specific Performance; Jurisdiction.

The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that the provisions contained in this Agreement were not performed in accordance with its specific terms or was otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions thereof in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania or in any state court located in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity. In addition, each of the parties hereto (a) consents to submit itself to the personal jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania or of any state court located in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the event any dispute arises out of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (b) agrees that it will not attempt to deny or defeat such personal jurisdiction by motion or other request for leave from any such court and (c) agrees that it will not bring any action relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement in any court other than the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania or any state court located in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

APPENDIX B

FORM OF VOTING AGREEMENT

This VOTING AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”), dated as of [•], 2017, is made and entered into between the undersigned shareholder (“Shareholder”) of Royal Bancshares of Pennsylvania, Inc., a Pennsylvania corporation (“RBPI”), and Bryn Mawr Bank Corporation, a Pennsylvania corporation (“BMBC”).

WHEREAS, concurrently with or following the execution of this Agreement, RBPI and BMBC have entered, or will enter, into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (as the same may be amended from time to time, the “Merger Agreement”), providing for, among other things, the merger of RBPI with and into BMBC (the “Merger”);

WHEREAS, as a condition to its willingness to enter into the Merger Agreement, BMBC has required that Shareholder execute and deliver this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, in order to induce BMBC and as additional consideration to BMBC to enter into the Merger Agreement, Shareholder is willing to make certain representations, warranties, covenants and agreements with respect to the shares of (i) Class A common stock, par value $2.00 per share, of RBPI (“RBPI Class A Stock”) and (ii) Class B common stock, par value $0.10 per share, of RBPI (“RBPI Class B Stock”, and together with RBPI Class A Stock, the “RBPI Common Stock”) beneficially owned by Shareholder and set forth below Shareholder’s signature on the signature page hereto (the “Original Shares” and, together with any additional shares of RBPI Common Stock pursuant to Section 8 hereof, the “Shares”).

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt, sufficiency and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto, intending to be legally bound hereby, agree as follows:

1. Definitions. For purposes of this Agreement, capitalized terms used and not defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to them in the Merger Agreement.

2. Representations of Shareholder. Shareholder represents and warrants to BMBC that:

(a) (i) Shareholder owns beneficially (as such term is defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, referred to as the “Exchange Act”) all of the Original Shares free and clear of all Liens, except for any Original Shares encumbered pursuant to pledges to secure indebtedness as set forth below Shareholder’s signature on the signature page hereto (“Pledged Shares”), (ii) except pursuant hereto, there are no options, warrants or other rights, agreements, arrangements or commitments of any character to which Shareholder is a party relating to the pledge, disposition or voting of any of the Original Shares and there are no voting trusts or voting agreements with respect to the Original Shares and (iii) there are no restrictions on Shareholder’s ability to exercise voting rights with respect to Pledged Shares in connection with the Merger.

(b) Shareholder does not beneficially own any shares of RBPI Common Stock other than (i) the Original Shares and (ii) any options, warrants or other Rights to acquire any additional shares of RBPI Common Stock or any security exercisable for or convertible into shares of RBPI Common Stock, set forth on the signature page of this Agreement (collectively, “Options”).

(c) Shareholder has full legal capacity (and, if applicable, corporate power and authority) to enter into, execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform fully Shareholder’s obligations hereunder. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by Shareholder and constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of Shareholder, enforceable against Shareholder in accordance with its terms, except in each case as enforcement may be limited by general principles of equity, whether applied in a court of law or court of equity, and by bankruptcy, insolvency and similar Laws affecting creditor’s rights and remedies generally.

(d) None of the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Shareholder, the consummation by Shareholder of the transactions contemplated hereby or compliance by Shareholder with any of the provisions hereof will conflict with or result in a breach, or constitute a default (with or without notice or lapse of time or both) under any provision of, any trust agreement, loan or credit agreement, note, bond, mortgage, indenture, lease or other agreement, instrument or Law applicable to Shareholder or to Shareholder’s property or assets.

(e) No consent, approval or authorization of, or designation, declaration or filing with, any Governmental Entity or other Person on the part of Shareholder is required in connection with the valid execution and delivery of this Agreement or Shareholder’s performance hereunder. No consent of Shareholder’s spouse is necessary under any “community property” or other Laws in order for Shareholder to enter into and perform its obligations under this Agreement.

3. Agreement to Vote Shares. Shareholder agrees during the term of this Agreement to vote the Shares, and to cause any holder of record of Shares to vote (or execute a written consent or consents if shareholders of RBPI are requested to vote their shares through the execution of an action by written consent in lieu of any such annual or special meeting of shareholders of RBPI):

(a) in favor of the Merger, the Merger Agreement and any other matter necessary for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by Merger Agreement, at every meeting (or in connection with any action by written consent) of the shareholders of RBPI at which such matters are considered, at every adjournment or postponement thereof or in any other circumstances upon which their vote or other approval is sought; and

(b) against (1) any Superior Proposal or any action which is a component of any Superior Proposal, (2) any Acquisition Proposal, (3) any action, proposal, transaction or agreement which would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of RBPI under the Merger Agreement or of Shareholder under this Agreement, (4) any action, proposal, transaction or agreement that would reasonably be expected to impede, interfere with, delay, discourage, adversely affect or inhibit the timely consummation of the Merger or the fulfillment of RBPI's conditions under the Merger Agreement and (5) change in any manner the voting rights of any class of shares of RBPI (including any amendments to the articles of incorporation or bylaws of RBPI).

4. Irrevocable Proxy. Shareholder hereby appoints BMBC and any designee of BMBC, and each of them individually, its proxies and attorneys-in-fact, with full power of substitution and resubstitution, to vote or act by written consent during the term of this Agreement with respect to the Shares in accordance with Section 3. This proxy and power of attorney is given to secure the performance of the duties of Shareholder under this Agreement. Shareholder shall take such further action or execute such other instruments as may be necessary to effectuate the intent of this proxy. This proxy and power of attorney granted by Shareholder shall be irrevocable during the term of this Agreement, shall be deemed to be coupled with an interest sufficient in Law to support an irrevocable proxy and shall revoke any and all prior proxies granted by Shareholder with respect to the Shares. The power of attorney granted by Shareholder herein is a durable power of attorney and shall survive the dissolution, bankruptcy, death or incapacity of Shareholder. The proxy and power of attorney granted hereunder shall terminate upon the termination of this Agreement.

5. No Solicitation. Shareholder will not, directly or indirectly (i) solicit, initiate or take any other action to facilitate or knowingly encourage any Acquisition Proposal, (ii) enter into, maintain, continue or participate in any discussions or negotiations with any Person or entity in furtherance of, or furnish to any Person any information, with respect to any Acquisition Proposal or (iii) agree or authorize any Person to do any of the foregoing.

6. No Voting Trusts or Other Arrangement. Shareholder agrees that Shareholder will not, and will not permit any entity under Shareholder's control to, deposit any of the Shares in a voting trust, grant any proxies with respect to the Shares or subject any of the Shares to any arrangement with respect to the voting of the Shares other than agreements entered into with BMBC.

7. Transfer and Encumbrance. Shareholder agrees that during the term of this Agreement, Shareholder will not, directly or indirectly, transfer, sell, offer, exchange, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of or encumber (“Transfer”) any of the Shares or enter into any contract, option or other agreement with respect to, or consent to, a Transfer of, any of the Shares or Shareholder’s voting or economic interest therein. Any attempted Transfer of Shares or any interest therein in violation of this Section 7 shall be null and void. This Section 7 shall not prohibit a Transfer of the Shares by Shareholder to any member of Shareholder’s immediate family, or to a trust for the benefit of Shareholder or any member of Shareholder’s immediate family, or upon the death of Shareholder; provided, that a Transfer referred to in this sentence shall be permitted only if, as a precondition to such Transfer, the transferee agrees in a writing, which shall be reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to BMBC and may take the form of an executed amendment hereto, to be bound by all of the terms of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Shareholder may Transfer any of the Shares or enter into any agreement with respect to the Transfer of Shares by obtaining the prior written consent of BMBC.

8. Additional Shares. Shareholder agrees that all shares of RBPI Common Stock that Shareholder purchases, acquires the right to vote or otherwise acquires beneficial ownership (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act) of after the execution of this Agreement, including, without limitation, any RBPI Common Stock issued upon the exercise or conversion of any RBPI Option, shall be subject to the terms of this Agreement and shall constitute Shares for all purposes of this Agreement.

9. Waiver of Appraisal and Dissenters’ Rights. Shareholder hereby waives, and agrees not to assert or perfect, any rights of appraisal or rights to dissent from the Merger that Shareholder may have by virtue of ownership of the Shares.

10. Termination. This Agreement shall terminate upon the earliest to occur of (i) the Effective Time; (ii) the date on which the Merger Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms; and (iii) the date of any mutual modification, waiver or amendment of the Merger Agreement that adversely affects the consideration payable to shareholders of RBPI pursuant to the Merger Agreement as in effect as of the date hereof.

11. No Agreement as Director or Officer or Trustee. Shareholder makes no agreement or understanding in this Agreement in Shareholder’s individual capacity as a director or officer of RBPI or any of its subsidiaries (if Shareholder holds such office) or as a trustee of a trust, as applicable, and nothing in this Agreement: (a) will limit or affect any actions or omissions taken by Shareholder in Shareholder’s capacity as such a director or officer, including in exercising rights under the Merger Agreement, and no such actions or omissions shall be deemed a breach of this Agreement or (b) will be construed to prohibit, limit or restrict Shareholder from exercising Shareholder’s fiduciary duties as an officer or director of RBPI or its subsidiaries or as a trustee of a trust.

12. No Ownership Interest. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to vest in BMBC any direct or indirect ownership or incidence of ownership of or with respect to any of the Shares. All rights, ownership and economic benefits of and relating to the Shares shall remain vested in and belong to Shareholder, and BMBC shall not have any authority to direct Shareholder in the voting of the Shares, except as otherwise set forth herein.

13. Specific Performance. Shareholder acknowledges that (i) it may be impossible to measure in money the damage to BMBC if Shareholder fails to comply with any of the obligations imposed by this Agreement, (ii) every such obligation is material and (iii) in the event of any such failure, BMBC will not have an adequate remedy at law or in damages. Accordingly, Shareholder agrees that injunctive relief or any other equitable remedy, in addition to any remedies at law or damages, is the appropriate remedy for any such failure and will not oppose the granting of any such remedy relief on the basis that BMBC has an adequate remedy at law. Shareholder agrees that Shareholder will not seek, and agrees to waive any requirement for, the securing or posting of a bond or other security in connection with BMBC's seeking or obtaining such equitable relief.

14. Entire Agreement. This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements, written or oral, between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and contains the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement may not be amended or supplemented, and no provisions hereof may be modified or waived, except by an instrument in writing signed by both of the parties hereto. No waiver of any provisions hereof by either party shall be deemed a waiver of any other provisions hereof by such party, nor shall any such waiver be deemed a continuing waiver of any provision hereof by such party.

15. Notices. All notices, requests, claims, demands, and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been given (a) when delivered by hand (with written confirmation of receipt), (b) when received by the addressee if sent by a nationally recognized overnight courier (receipt requested), (c) on the date sent by e-mail of a PDF document (with confirmation of transmission) if sent during normal business hours of the recipient, and on the next Business Day if sent after normal business hours of the recipient, or (d) on the third day after the date mailed, by United States certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid. Such communications must be sent to the respective parties at the following addresses (or at such other address for a party as shall be specified in a notice given in accordance with this Section 15):

16. Miscellaneous This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule (whether of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of Laws of any jurisdiction other than those of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

(b) Each of the parties hereto irrevocably agrees that any legal action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement and the rights and obligations arising hereunder, or for recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect of this Agreement and the rights and obligations arising hereunder brought by the other party hereto or its successors or assigns shall be brought and determined exclusively in the state or federal courts located in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Each of the parties hereto agrees that mailing of process or other papers in connection with any such action or proceeding in the manner provided in Section 15 or in such other manner as may be permitted by applicable Laws, will be valid and sufficient service thereof. Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably submits with regard to any such action or proceeding for itself and in respect of its property, generally and unconditionally, to the personal jurisdiction of the aforesaid courts and agrees that it will not bring any action relating to this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement in any court or tribunal other than the aforesaid courts. Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably waives, and agrees not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense, counterclaim or otherwise, in any action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement and the rights and obligations arising hereunder, or for recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect of this Agreement and the rights and obligations arising hereunder (i) any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of the above named courts for any reason other than the failure to serve process in accordance with this Section 16(b), (ii) any claim that it or its property is exempt or immune from jurisdiction of any such court or from any legal process commenced in such courts (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution of judgment, execution of judgment or otherwise), and (iii) to the fullest extent permitted by the applicable Law, any claim that (x) the suit, action or proceeding in such court is brought in an inconvenient forum, (y) the venue of such suit, action or proceeding is improper, or (z) this Agreement, or the subject matter hereof, may not be enforced in or by such courts. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any civil action or other legal proceeding is brought for the enforcement of this Agreement, or because of an alleged dispute, breach, default or misrepresentation in connection with any provision of this Agreement, the successful or prevailing party or parties shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs and all expenses even if not taxable as court costs (including without limitation, all such fees, taxes, costs and expenses incident to arbitration, appellate, bankruptcy and post-judgment proceedings), incurred in that proceeding, in addition to any other relief to which such party or parties may be entitled. Attorneys' fees shall include, without limitation, paralegal fees, investigative fees, administrative costs and all other charges billed by the attorney to the prevailing party (including any fees and costs associated with collecting such amounts).

(c) EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES AND, THEREFORE, EACH SUCH PARTY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LEGAL ACTION ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT. EACH PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT (A) NO REPRESENTATIVE OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER IN THE EVENT OF A LEGAL ACTION, (B) SUCH PARTY HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS WAIVER, (C) SUCH PARTY MAKES THIS WAIVER VOLUNTARILY, AND (D) SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 16(c).

(d) If any term or provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other term or provision of this Agreement or invalidate or render unenforceable such term or provision in any other jurisdiction. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated hereby be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

(e) This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

(f) Each party hereto shall execute and deliver such additional documents as may be necessary or desirable to effect the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(g) All Section headings herein are for convenience of reference only and are not part of this Agreement, and no construction or reference shall be derived therefrom.

(h) The obligations of Shareholder set forth in this Agreement shall not be effective or binding upon Shareholder until after such time as the Merger Agreement is executed and delivered by RBPI and BMBC, and the parties agree that there is not and has not been any other agreement, arrangement or understanding between the parties hereto with respect to the matters set forth herein.

(i) Neither party to this Agreement may assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Any assignment contrary to the provisions of this Section 16(i) shall be null and void.

231 Saint Asaph's Road

Bala Cynwyd, PA 19004

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Royal Bancshares of Pennsylvania, Inc. (the "RBPI") and Bryn Mawr Bank Corporation ("BMBC") are proposing to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Agreement") pursuant to which RBPI will merge with and into BMBC, with BMBC being the surviving corporation (the "Merger"). Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, at the Effective Time, (i) each share of Class A common stock, par value $2.00 per share, of RBPI ("RBPI Class A Common Stock") issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, except for certain shares of RBPI Class A Common Stock as specified in the Agreement, will be converted into the right to receive 0.1025 shares (the "Class A Exchange Ratio") of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of BMBC ("BMBC Common Stock"), and (ii) each share of Class B common stock, par value $0.10 per share, of RBPI ("RBPI Class B Common Stock") issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, except for certain shares of RBPI Class B Common Stock as specified in the Agreement, will be converted into the right to receive 0.1179 shares (the "Class B Exchange Ratio") of BMBC Common Stock. Shares of RBPI Class A Common Stock and RBPI Class B Common Stock are collectively referred to herein as "RBPI Common Stock." Capitalized terms used herein without definition have the meanings assigned to them in the Agreement. The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Agreement. You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Class A Exchange Ratio to the holders of RBPI Class A Common Stock and the Class B Exchange Ratio to the holders of RBPI Class B Common Stock.

Sandler O’Neill & Partners, L.P. (“Sandler O’Neill”, “we” or “our”), as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed and considered, among other things: (i) an execution copy of the Agreement, dated January 30, 2017; (ii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of RBPI that we deemed relevant; (iii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of BMBC that we deemed relevant; (iv) internal financial projections for RBPI for the year ending December 31, 2017 as well as estimated long-term net income and balance sheet growth rates for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of RBPI; (v) publicly available consensus median analyst earnings per share estimates for BMBC for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as well as an estimated long-term annual earnings per share growth rate for BMBC for the years thereafter, as discussed with and confirmed by the senior management of BMBC; (vi) the pro forma financial impact of the Merger on BMBC based on certain assumptions relating to purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and transaction expenses, as provided by the senior management of BMBC and its representative; (vii) the publicly reported historical price and trading activity for RBPI Common Stock and BMBC Common Stock, including a comparison of certain stock market information for RBPI Common Stock and BMBC Common Stock and certain stock indices as well as publicly available information for certain other similar companies, the securities of which are publicly traded; (viii) a comparison of certain financial information for RBPI and BMBC with similar institutions for which information is publicly available; (ix) the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the bank and thrift industry (on a regional and nationwide basis), to the extent publicly available; (x) the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and (xi) such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we considered relevant. We also discussed with certain members of the senior management of RBPI the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of RBPI and held similar discussions with certain members of the senior management of BMBC regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of BMBC.

In performing our review, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to and reviewed by us from public sources, that was provided to us by RBPI or BMBC, or their respective representatives, or that was otherwise reviewed by us, and we have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering this opinion without any independent verification or investigation. We have relied on the assurances of the respective managements of RBPI and BMBC that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. We have not been asked to and have not undertaken an independent verification of any of such information and we do not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. We did not make an independent evaluation or perform an appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of RBPI or BMBC or any of their respective subsidiaries, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. We render no opinion or evaluation on the collectability of any assets or the future performance of any loans of RBPI or BMBC or any of their respective subsidiaries. We did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of RBPI or BMBC, or of the combined entity after the Merger, and we have not reviewed any individual credit files relating to RBPI or BMBC. We have assumed, with your consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both RBPI and BMBC are adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill used internal financial projections for RBPI for the year ending December 31, 2017 as well as estimated long-term net income and balance sheet growth rates for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of RBPI. In addition, Sandler O'Neill used publicly available consensus median analyst earnings per share estimates for BMBC for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as well as an estimated long-term annual earnings per share growth rate for BMBC for the years thereafter, as discussed with and confirmed by the senior management of BMBC. Sandler O'Neill also received and used in its pro forma analyses certain assumptions relating to purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and transaction expenses, as provided by the senior management of BMBC and its representative. With respect to the foregoing information, the respective senior managements of RBPI and BMBC confirmed to us that such information reflected (or, in the case of the publicly available consensus median analyst earnings per share estimates and growth rates referred to above, were consistent with) the best currently available projections, estimates and judgments of those respective senior managements as to the future financial performance of RBPI and BMBC, respectively, and the other matters covered thereby, and we assumed that the future financial performance reflected in such information would be achieved. We express no opinion as to such information, or the assumptions on which such information is based. We have also assumed that there has been no material change in the respective assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of RBPI or BMBC since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to us. We have assumed in all respects material to our analysis that RBPI and BMBC will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to our analysis.

We have also assumed, with your consent, that (i) each of the parties to the Agreement will comply in all material respects with all material terms and conditions of the Agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements are true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to such agreements will perform in all material respects all of the covenants and other obligations required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements are not and will not be waived, (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the Merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on RBPI, BMBC or the Merger or any related transaction, (iii) the Merger and any related transactions will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements, and (iv) the Merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Finally, with your consent, we have relied upon the advice that RBPI has received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement. We express no opinion as to any such matters.

Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect this opinion. We have not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date hereof. We express no opinion as to the trading values of RBPI Common Stock or BMBC Common Stock at any time or what the value of BMBC Common Stock will be once it is actually received by the holders of RBPI Common Stock.

We have acted as RBPI's financial advisor in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for our services, which transaction fee is contingent upon consummation of the Merger. We will also receive a fee for rendering this opinion, which opinion fee will be credited in full towards the transaction fee which will become payable to Sandler O'Neill on the day of closing of the Merger. RBPI has also agreed to indemnify us against certain claims and liabilities arising out of our engagement and to reimburse us for certain of our out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with our engagement. We have not provided any other investment banking services to RBPI in the two years preceding the date of this opinion. As we have previously advised you, in the two years preceding the date of this opinion Sandler O'Neill provided certain investment banking services to BMBC for which Sandler O'Neill received customary fees and expense reimbursement. Most recently, Sandler O'Neill acted as placement agent in connection with BMBC's offer and sale of subordinated notes, which transaction closed in August 2015. In addition, in the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may purchase securities from and sell securities to RBPI, BMBC and their respective affiliates. We may also actively trade the equity and debt securities of RBPI, BMBC and their respective affiliates for our own account and for the accounts of our customers.

Our opinion is directed to the Board of Directors of RBPI in connection with its consideration of the Agreement and the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of RBPI as to how any such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the approval of the Agreement and the Merger. Our opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Class A Exchange Ratio to the holders of RBPI Class A Common Stock and the Class B Exchange Ratio to the holders of RBPI Class B Common Stock and does not address the underlying business decision of RBPI to engage in the Merger, the form or structure of the Merger or any other transactions contemplated in the Agreement, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other alternative transactions or business strategies that might exist for RBPI or the effect of any other transaction in which RBPI might engage. We also do not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the Merger by any officer, director or employee of RBPI or BMBC, or any class of such persons, if any, relative to the compensation to be received in the Merger by any other shareholder. This opinion has been approved by Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion committee. This opinion shall not be reproduced without Sandler O'Neill's prior written consent; provided, however, Sandler O'Neill will provide its consent for the opinion to be included in regulatory filings to be completed in connection with the Merger.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Class A Exchange Ratio is fair to the holders of RBPI Class A Common Stock and the Class B Exchange Ratio is fair to the holders of RBPI Class B Common Stock from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,

APPENDIX D

DISSENTERS' RIGHTS PROVISIONS

Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as Amended, Provisions For Dissenting Shareholders

Subchapter D.—Dissenters Rights.

§ 1571. Application and effect of subchapter.

(a) General rule.—Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), any shareholder (as defined in Section 1572 (relating to definitions)) of a business corporation shall have the right to dissent from, and to obtain payment of the fair value of his shares in the event of, any corporate action, or to otherwise obtain fair value for his shares, only where this part expressly provides that a shareholder shall have the rights and remedies provided in this subchapter. See:

Section 1906(c) (relating to dissenters rights upon special treatment).

Section 1931(d) (relating to dissenters rights in share exchanges).

Section 1932(c) (relating to dissenters rights in asset transfers).

Section 1952(d) (relating to dissenters rights in division).

Section 1962(c) (relating to dissenters rights in conversion).

Section 2104(b) (relating to procedure).

Section 2324 (relating to corporation option where a restriction on transfer of a security is held invalid).

Section 2325(b) (relating to minimum vote requirement).

Section 2704(c) (relating to dissenters rights upon election).

Section 2705(d) (relating to dissenters rights upon renewal of election).

Section 2904(b) (relating to procedure).

Section 2907(a) (relating to proceedings to terminate breach of qualifying conditions).

Section 7104(b)(3) (relating to procedure).

Table of Contents

(b) Exceptions.—(1) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (2), the holders of the shares of any class or series of shares shall not have the right to dissent and obtain payment of the fair value of the shares under this subchapter if, on the record date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting at which a plan specified in any of section 1930, 1931(d), 1932(c) or 1952(d) is to be voted on, or on the first public announcement that such a plan has been approved by the shareholders by consent without a meeting, the shares are either:

(i) listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.; or

(ii) held beneficially or of record by more than 2,000 persons.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to and dissenters rights shall be available without regard to the exception provided in that paragraph in the case of:

(i) (Repealed).

(ii) Shares of any preferred or special class or series unless the articles, the plan or the terms of the transaction entitle all shareholders of the class or series to vote thereon and require for the adoption of the plan or the effectuation of the transaction the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by all shareholders of the class or series.

(iii) Shares entitled to dissenters rights under section 1906(c) (relating to dissenters rights upon special treatment).

(3) The shareholders of a corporation that acquires by purchase, lease, exchange or other disposition all or substantially all of the shares, property or assets of another corporation by the issuance of shares, obligations or otherwise, with or without assuming the liabilities of the other corporation and with or without the intervention of another corporation or other person, shall not be entitled to the rights and remedies of dissenting shareholders provided in this subchapter regardless of the fact, if it be the case, that the acquisition was accomplished by the issuance of voting shares of the corporation to be outstanding immediately after the acquisition sufficient to elect a majority or more of the directors of the corporation.

(c) Grant of optional dissenters rights.—The bylaws or a resolution of the board of directors may direct that all or a part of the shareholders shall have dissenters rights in connection with any corporate action or other transaction that would otherwise not entitle such shareholder to dissenters rights.

(d) Notice of dissenters rights.—Unless otherwise provided by statute, if a proposed corporate action that would give rise to dissenters rights under this subpart is submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, there shall be included in or enclosed with the notice of meeting:

(1) a statement of the proposed action and a statement that the shareholders have a right to dissent and obtain payment of the fair value of their shares by complying with the terms of this subchapter; and

(2) a copy of this subchapter.

Table of Contents

(e) Other statutes.—The procedures of this subchapter shall also be applicable to any transaction described in any statute other than this part that makes reference to this subchapter for the purpose of granting dissenters rights.

(f) Certain provisions of articles ineffective.—This subchapter may not be relaxed by any provision of the articles.

(g) Computation of beneficial ownership.—For purposes of subsection (b)(1)(ii), shares that are held beneficially as joint tenants, tenants by the entireties, tenants in common or in trust by two or more persons, as fiduciaries or otherwise, shall be deemed to be held beneficially by one person.

(h) Cross references.—See sections 1105 (relating to restriction on equitable relief), 1904 (relating to de facto transaction doctrine abolished), 1763(c) (relating to determination of shareholders of record) and 2512 (relating to dissenters rights procedure).

§ 1572. Definitions.

The following words and phrases when used in this subchapter shall have the meanings given to them in this section unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

“Corporation.” The issuer of the shares held or owned by the dissenter before the corporate action or the successor by merger, consolidation, division, conversion or otherwise of that issuer. A plan of division may designate which one or more of the resulting corporations is the successor corporation for the purposes of this subchapter. The designated successor corporation or corporations in a division shall have sole responsibility for payments to dissenters and other liabilities under this subchapter except as otherwise provided in the plan of division.

“Dissenter.” A shareholder who is entitled to and does assert dissenters rights under this subchapter and who has performed every act required up to the time involved for the assertion of those rights.

“Fair value.” The fair value of shares immediately before the effectuation of the corporate action to which the dissenter objects, taking into account all relevant factors, but excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action.

“Interest.” Interest from the effective time of the corporate action until the date of payment at such rate as is fair and equitable under all the circumstances, taking into account all relevant factors, including the average rate currently paid by the corporation on its principal bank loans.

“Shareholder.” A shareholder as defined in section 1103 (relating to definitions), or an ultimate beneficial owner of shares, including without limitation, a holder of depository receipts, where the beneficial interest owned includes an interest in the assets of the corporation upon dissolution.

§ 1573. Record and beneficial holders and owners.

(a) Record holders of shares.—A record holder of shares of a business corporation may assert dissenters rights as to fewer than all of the shares registered in his name only if he dissents with respect to all the shares of the same class or series beneficially owned by any one person and discloses the name and address of the person or persons on whose behalf he dissents. In that event, his rights shall be determined as if the shares as to which he has dissented and his other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(b) Beneficial owners of shares.—A beneficial owner of shares of a business corporation who is not the record holder may assert dissenters rights with respect to shares held on his behalf and shall be treated as a dissenting shareholder under the terms of this subchapter if he submits to the corporation not later than the time of the assertion of dissenters rights a written consent of the record holder. A beneficial owner may not dissent with respect to some but less than all shares of the same class or series owned by the owner, whether or not the shares so owned by him are registered in his name.

§ 1574. Notice of intention to dissent.

If the proposed corporate action is submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders of a business corporation, any person who wishes to dissent and obtain payment of the fair value of his shares must file with the corporation, prior to the vote, a written notice of intention to demand that he be paid the fair value for his shares if the proposed action is effectuated, must effect no change in the beneficial ownership of his shares from the date of such filing continuously through the effective time of the proposed action and must refrain from voting his shares in approval of such action. A dissenter who fails in any respect shall not acquire any right to payment of the fair value of his shares under this subchapter. Neither a proxy nor a vote against the proposed corporate action shall constitute the written notice required by this section.

§ 1575. Notice to demand payment.

(a) General rule.—If the proposed corporate action is approved by the required vote at a meeting of shareholders of a business corporation, the corporation shall mail a further notice to all dissenters who gave due notice of intention to demand payment of the fair value of their shares and who refrained from voting in favor of the proposed action. If the proposed corporate action is approved by the shareholders by less than unanimous consent without a meeting or is taken without the need for approval by shareholders, the corporation shall send to all shareholders who are entitled to dissent and demand payment of the fair value of their shares a notice of the adoption of the plan or other corporate action. In either case, the notice shall:

- (1) State where and when a demand for payment must be sent and certificates for certificated shares must be deposited in order to obtain payment.
- (2) Inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of shares will be restricted from the time that demand for payment is received.
- (3) Supply a form for demanding payment that includes a request for certification of the date on which the shareholder, or the person on whose behalf the shareholder dissents, acquired beneficial ownership of the shares.
- (4) Be accompanied by a copy of this subchapter.

D-4

Table of Contents

(b) Time for receipt of demand for payment.—The time set for receipt of the demand and deposit of certificated shares shall be not less than 30 days from the mailing of the notice.

§ 1576. Failure to comply with notice to demand payment, etc.

(a) Effect of failure of shareholder to act.—A shareholder who fails to timely demand payment, or fails (in the case of certificated shares) to timely deposit certificates, as required by a notice pursuant to section 1575 (relating to notice to demand payment) shall not have any right under this subchapter to receive payment of the fair value of his shares.

(b) Restriction on uncertificated shares.—If the shares are not represented by certificates, the business corporation may restrict their transfer from the time of receipt of demand for payment until effectuation of the proposed corporate action or the release of restrictions under the terms of section 1577(a) (relating to failure to effectuate corporate action).

(c) Rights retained by shareholder.—The dissenter shall retain all other rights of a shareholder until those rights are modified by effectuation of the proposed corporate action.

§ 1577. Release of restrictions or payment for shares.

(a) Failure to effectuate corporate action.—Within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment and depositing certificates, if the business corporation has not effectuated the proposed corporate action, it shall return any certificates that have been deposited and release uncertificated shares from any transfer restrictions imposed by reason of the demand for payment.

(b) Renewal of notice to demand payment.—When uncertificated shares have been released from transfer restrictions and deposited certificates have been returned, the corporation may at any later time send a new notice conforming to the requirements of section 1575 (relating to notice to demand payment), with like effect.

(c) Payment of fair value of shares.—Promptly after effectuation of the proposed corporation action, or upon timely receipt of demand for payment if the corporate action has already been effectuated, the corporation shall either remit to dissenters who have made demand and (if their shares are certificated) have deposited their certificates the amount that the corporation estimates to be the fair value of the shares, or give written notice that no remittance under this section will be made. The remittance or notice shall be accompanied by:

- (1) The closing balance sheet and statement of income of the issuer of the shares held or owned by the dissenter for a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of remittance or notice together with the latest available interim financial statements.
- (2) A statement of the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares.
- (3) A notice of the right of the dissenter to demand payment or supplemental payment, as the case may be, accompanied by a copy of this subchapter.

Table of Contents

(d) Failure to make payment.—If the corporation does not remit the amount of its estimate of the fair value of the shares as provided by subsection (c), it shall return any certificates that have been deposited and release uncertificated shares from any transfer restrictions imposed by reason of the demand for payment. The corporation may make a notation on any such certificate or on the records of the corporation relating to any such uncertificated shares that such demand has been made. If shares with respect to which notation has been so made shall be transferred, each new certificate issued therefor or the records relating to any transferred uncertificated shares shall bear a similar notation, together with the name of the original dissenting holder or owner of such shares. A transferee of such shares shall not acquire by such transfer any rights in the corporation other than those that the original dissenters had after making demand for payment of their fair value.

§ 1578. Estimate by dissenter of fair value of shares.

(a) General rule.—If the business corporation gives notice of its estimate of the fair value of the shares, without remitting such amount, or remits payment of its estimate of the fair value of a dissenter's shares as permitted by section 1577(c) (relating to payment of fair value of shares) and the dissenter believes that the amount stated or remitted is less than the fair value of his shares, he may send to the corporation his own estimate of the fair value of the shares, which shall be deemed a demand for payment of the amount or the deficiency.

(b) Effect of failure to file estimate.—Where the dissenter does not file his own estimate under subsection (a) within 30 days after the mailing by the corporation of its remittance or notice, the dissenter shall be entitled to no more than the amount stated in the notice or remitted to him by the corporation.

(a) General rule.—Within 60 days after the latest of:

(1) effectuation of the proposed corporate action;

(2) timely receipt of any demands for payment under section 1575 (relating to notice to demand payment); or

(3) timely receipt of any estimates pursuant to section 1578 (relating to estimate by dissenter of fair value of shares);

if any demands for payment remain unsettled, the business corporation may file in court an application for relief requesting that the fair value of the shares be determined by the court.

(b) Mandatory joinder of dissenters.—All dissenters, wherever residing, whose demands have not been settled shall be made parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares. A copy of the application shall be served on each such dissenter. If a dissenter is a nonresident, the copy may be served on him in the manner provided or prescribed by or pursuant to 42 Pa.C.S. Ch. 53 (relating to bases of jurisdiction and interstate and international procedure).

D-6

(c) Jurisdiction of the court.—The jurisdiction of the court shall be plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint an appraiser to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the issue of fair value. The appraiser shall have such power and authority as may be specified in the order of appointment or in any amendment thereof.

(d) Measure of recovery.—Each dissenter who is made a party shall be entitled to recover the amount by which the fair value of his shares is found to exceed the amount, if any, previously remitted, plus interest.

(e) Effect of corporation's failure to file application.—If the corporation fails to file an application as provided in subsection (a), any dissenter who made a demand and who has not already settled his claim against the corporation may do so in the name of the corporation at any time within 30 days after the expiration of the 60-day period. If a dissenter does not file an application within the 30-day period, each dissenter entitled to file an application shall be paid the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares and no more, and may bring an action to recover any amount not previously remitted.

§ 1580. Costs and expenses of valuation proceedings.

(a) General rule.—The costs and expenses of any proceeding under section 1579 (relating to valuation proceedings generally), including the reasonable compensation and expenses of the appraiser appointed by the court, shall be determined by the court and assessed against the business corporation except that any part of the costs and expenses may be apportioned and assessed as the court deems appropriate against all or some of the dissenters who are parties and whose action in demanding supplemental payment under section 1578 (relating to estimate by dissenter of fair value of shares) the court finds to be dilatory, obdurate, arbitrary, vexatious or in bad faith.

(b) Assessment of counsel fees and expert fees where lack of good faith appears.—Fees and expenses of counsel and of experts for the respective parties may be assessed as the court deems appropriate against the corporation and in favor of any or all dissenters if the corporation failed to comply substantially with the requirements of this subchapter and may be assessed against either the corporation or a dissenter, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted in bad faith or in a dilatory, obdurate, arbitrary or vexatious manner in respect to the rights provided by this subchapter.

(c) Award of fees for benefits to other dissenters.—If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated and should not be assessed against the corporation, it may award to those counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded to the dissenters who were benefited.

§ 1930. Dissenters rights.

(a) General rule.—If any shareholder of a domestic business corporation that is to be a party to a merger or consolidation pursuant to a plan of merger or consolidation objects to the plan of merger or consolidation and complies with the provisions of Subchapter D of Chapter 15 (relating to dissenters rights), the shareholder shall be entitled to the rights and remedies of dissenting shareholders therein provided, if any. See also section 1906(c) (relating to dissenters rights upon special treatment).

D-7

Table of Contents

(b) Plans adopted by directors only.—Except as otherwise provided pursuant to section 1571(c) (relating to grant of optional dissenters rights), Subchapter D of Chapter 15 shall not apply to any of the shares of a corporation that is a party to a merger or consolidation pursuant to section 1924(b)(1)(i) or (4) (relating to adoption by board of directors).

(c) Cross references.—See sections 1571(b) (relating to exceptions) and 1904 (relating to de facto transaction doctrine abolished).

PART II: INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Pursuant to Sections 1741-1743 of the PBCL, BMBC has the power to indemnify its directors and officers against liabilities they may incur in such capacities provided certain standards are met, including good faith and the belief that the particular action is in, or not opposed to, the best interests of BMBC and, with respect to a criminal proceeding, that the director or officer had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. In general, this power to indemnify does not exist in the case of actions against a director or officer by or in the right of BMBC if the person entitled to indemnification shall have been adjudged to be liable to BMBC unless and to the extent that the person is adjudged to be fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity. A corporation is required to indemnify directors and officers against expenses they may incur in defending actions against them in such capacities if they are successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of such actions. Pursuant to Section 1745 of the PBCL, BMBC has the power to pay expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by a director or officer in a proceeding in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by BMBC.

Section 1746 of the PBCL provides that the foregoing provisions shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification may be entitled under, among other things, any by-law provision, provided that no indemnification may be made in any case where the act or failure to act giving rise to the claim for indemnification is determined by a court to have constituted willful misconduct or recklessness.

BMBC's amended and restated articles of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws provide for the mandatory indemnification of directors and officers in accordance with and to the full extent permitted by the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as in effect at the time of such indemnification unless the act or failure to act giving rise to the claim for indemnification is determined by a court to have constituted willful misconduct or recklessness.

BMBC's amended and restated bylaws also eliminate, to the full extent permitted by the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the personal liability of directors for monetary damages for any action taken, or any failure to take any action as a director, except in any case such elimination is not permitted by law. Liability insurance covering certain liabilities that may be incurred by BMBC and BMT's directors and officers in connection with the performance of their duties has been purchased by BMT.

Item 22. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the “Calculation of Registration Fee” table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change in such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) (1) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(2) The registrant undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (1) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(d) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(e) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(f) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
