Employment Agreements with Named Executive Officers

In 2016, we entered into an employment agreement with Maoji (Michael) Wang, who became our Chief Executive Officer effective December 22, 2016 (the “Wang Employment Agreement”). We have also previously entered into employment agreements with (i) James Kirsch, our Co-Chairman of the Board, who served as our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer through March 30, 2016 and (ii) Star Jones, our President (each such agreement, a “2014 Employment Agreement,” collectively, the “2014 Employment Agreements.”

2014 Employment Agreements

The employment agreement with Mr. Kirsch provides that he will serve as the Company’s Chief Executive Officer and may be designated to serve as Executive Chairman of the Board and receive an annual base salary of $275,000. Ms. Jones’s Employment Agreement provides that she will serve as the Company’s President and receive an annual base salary of $300,000. Effective January 1, 2015, upon the approval of the Board, Mr. Kirsch’s annual base salary was increased from $275,000 to $325,000. Mr. Kirsch’s Employment Agreement provides that his base salary will be automatically increased annually by the greater of 3% of his then current base salary or the annual percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index.

Each of the 2014 Employment Agreements provides for an initial term of three years that automatically renews for successive one-year terms unless either party provides advance written notice of its intention to terminate the employment agreement. In March 2016, Mr. Kirsch became our Executive Chairman. As a result, the term of Mr. Kirsch’s Employment Agreement was automatically renewed for another three years, and his base salary in effect immediately prior to his change in role cannot be reduced.

The 2014 Employment Agreements provide that each of Mr. Kirsch and Ms. Star Jones will be eligible to receive an annual bonus and have his or her salary reviewed each year by the Board. In addition, Mr. Kirsch and Ms. Jones will be reimbursed for all reasonable business expenses incurred in the ordinary course of business and taking into consideration each such executive officer’s unique responsibilities within the Company. The 2014 Employment Agreements also generally allow each of the executives to participate in all benefit plans and programs offered by the Company.

Under the terms of the 2014 Employment Agreements, each of Mr. Kirsch and Ms. Jones is subject to non-competition, non-interference and non-raiding restrictive covenants during their employment and 18 months following the named executive officer’s last day of employment with the Company. In the event that employment is terminated without “cause” or Mr. Kirsch and Ms. Jones resign for “good reason” (as those terms are defined by the 2014 Employment Agreements), the post-employment restrictive covenant period may not extend past the severance period (as described below). The 2014 Employment Agreements also contain customary confidentiality, work product and return of Company property covenants.

The 2014 Employment Agreements provide each of Mr. Kirsch and Ms. Jones with severance pay in the event they are terminated without “cause” or resign for “good reason.” Upon such a termination of employment, they are entitled to continue to receive their monthly salary at the then current rate for the greater of six months or the number of remaining whole months in their term (whether the initial term or an extension), as well as a pro rata bonus based on the Company’s actual performance for the year in which such termination occurs. Finally, Ms. Jones’ Employment Agreement also provides that she will become immediately fully vested in any unvested shares of restricted stock granted to her in connection with the merger with NAPW, Inc. upon her termination without “cause” or her resignation for “good reason.”

Wang Employment Agreement

The Wang Employment Agreement with Mr. Wang was executed on March 9, 2017 (the “Wang Effective Date”) with a retroactive effective date for purposes of base compensation of December 22, 2016. The Wang Employment Agreement continues until terminated in writing by either party or earlier terminated pursuant to the provisions of the Wang Employment Agreement. Under the Wang Employment Agreement, Mr. Wang will receive an annual base salary of $320,000, subject to adjustment in the sole discretion of the Board or the Compensation Committee of the Board; provided however, that such annual base salary may not be decreased until the first anniversary of the Wang Effective Date. Mr. Wang will be eligible to receive an annual incentive bonus, at a target amount of not less than his base salary, based upon the achievement of one or more performance goals, targets, measurements and other factors, established for such year by the Board or the Compensation Committee. Mr. Wang will also participate in all benefit plans and programs, subject to certain conditions and exceptions, as are generally provided by the Company to its other senior executive employees.

Under the terms of the Wang Employment Agreement, Mr. Wang is subject to non-solicitation, non-competition and non-interference restrictive covenants during his employment and for the 12-month period following his last day of employment with the Company. The Wang Employment Agreement also contains customary confidentiality, work product and return of Company property covenants.

In addition, Mr. Wang is entitled to severance pay if he is terminated without “cause” or resigns for “good reason,” each as defined in the Wang Employment Agreement. Upon such termination, provided that he executes a release and waiver agreement, Mr. Wang will be entitled to receive an amount equal to the sum of his base salary, any earned but unpaid bonus for the year prior to the year of termination, and the pro rata portion of any bonus earned for the year in which termination occurs, as well as continuation of applicable benefits for a period of 12 months following his termination.

In connection with the approval of the Wang Employment Agreement, the Board also granted to Mr. Wang a non-qualified stock option to purchase 210,000 shares of the Company’s common stock. The option will vest in accordance with the following schedule: (i) 1/3 of the shares underlying the option vested immediately upon award, (ii) 1/3 of the shares underlying the option will vest on the first anniversary of the Wang Effective Date, and (iii) 1/3 of the shares underlying the option will vest on the second anniversary of the Wang Effective Date.

Additionally, on March 9, 2017 (the “Xiao Effective Date”), the Company entered into an employment agreement (the “Xiao Employment Agreement”) with Jiangping Xiao, the Company’s Chief Financial Officer. The Xiao Employment Agreement continues until terminated in writing by either party or earlier terminated pursuant to the provisions of the Xiao Employment Agreement. Under the Xiao Employment Agreement, Mr. Xiao will receive an annual base salary of $200,000, subject to adjustment in the sole discretion of the Board or the Compensation Committee of the Board; provided, however, that such annual base salary may not be decreased. Mr. Xiao will be eligible to receive an annual incentive bonus in an amount equal to up to fifty percent (50%) of his base salary, based upon the achievement of one or more performance goals, targets, measurements and other factors, established for such year by the Compensation Committee. Mr. Xiao will also participate in all benefit plans and programs, subject to certain conditions and exceptions, as are generally provided by the Company to its other senior executive employees. Under the terms of Xiao Employment Agreement, Mr. Xiao is subject to non-solicitation, non-competition and non-interference restrictive covenants during his employment and for the 18-month period following his last day of employment with the Company. The Xiao Employment Agreement also contains customary confidentiality, work product and return of Company property covenants. In addition, Mr. Xiao is entitled to severance pay if he is terminated without “cause” or resigns for “good reason,” each as defined in the Xiao Employment Agreement. Upon such termination, provided that he executes a release and waiver agreement, Mr. Xiao will be entitled to receive an amount equal to six months of his base salary, any earned but unpaid bonus for the year prior to the year of termination, and the pro rata portion of any bonus earned for the year in which termination occurs, as well as continuation of applicable benefits for a period of six months following his termination. In connection with the approval of the Xiao Employment Agreement, Mr. Xiao also received a non-qualified stock option to purchase 30,000 shares of the Company’s common stock. The option will vest in accordance with the following schedule: (i) 1/3 of the shares underlying the option vested immediately upon award, (ii) 1/3 of the shares underlying the option vested on the first anniversary of the Xiao Effective Date, and (iii) 1/3 of the shares underlying the option will vest on the second anniversary of the Xiao Effective Date.

Item 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS, AND DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE

Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions

The following is a summary of transactions, since January 1, 2017, to which we have been a party in which the amount involved exceeded the lesser of $120,000 or 1% of the average of our total assets at December 31, 2016 and December 31, 2017, and in which any of our directors, executive officers, beneficial holders of more than 5% of our capital stock or certain other related persons had or will have a direct or indirect material interest, other than compensation arrangements that are described under the section entitled “Executive Compensation.”

Transactions with CFL

Stockholders’ Agreement. As previously disclosed, in November 2016, we concluded a transaction with CFL pursuant to a stock purchase agreement, the result of which was that CFL became our majority stockholder. At time of the closing of such transaction with CFL, we also entered into a stockholders’ agreement (as amended, the “Stockholders’ Agreement”) with CFL and each of its shareholders: Maoji (Michael) Wang, Jingbo Song, Yong Xiong Zheng and Nan Nan Kou (collectively, the “CFL Shareholders”). The Stockholders’ Agreement sets forth the agreement of the Company, CFL and the CFL Shareholders relating to board representation rights, transfer restrictions, standstill provisions, voting, registration rights and other matters following the closing of the November transaction between CFL and the Company.

Under the Stockholders’ Agreement, the CFL Shareholders and their respective controlled affiliates (collectively, the “CFL Group”) are prohibited from directly or indirectly acquiring, agreeing to acquire or publicly proposing or offering to acquire any shares of Common Stock directly from PDN or commencing any tender offer or exchange offer for any shares of common stock, in each case which would cause the aggregate beneficial ownership of members of the CFL Group to exceed 54.64% of the then outstanding shares of Common Stock, on a fully-diluted basis. In addition, members of the CFL Group are prohibited from directly or indirectly acquiring, agreeing to acquire or publicly proposing or offering to acquire directly or indirectly, or commencing any tender offer or exchange offer for, any other capital stock or debt securities of the Company. Any common stock or rights to acquire common stock granted to an affiliate of CFL or a CFL Shareholder in his or her capacity as an employee, director or officer of the Company pursuant to a board-approved compensation or equity plan are excluded from this beneficial ownership cap and are to be excluded from the calculation of the beneficial ownership of members of the CFL Group.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, members of the CFL Group have the right to make open market purchases or privately-negotiated purchases from the Company’s stockholders of additional shares of common stock up to any amount, provided that, as a result of such purchases, the Company does not have fewer than 350 stockholders, thus preventing the CFL Group from causing the Company to fall below the number of stockholders required to maintain a listing on the NASDAQ Capital Market.

For so long as members of the CFL Group beneficially own at least 25% of our outstanding shares of common stock, CFL and the CFL Shareholders have a participation right with respect to any future issuances of our common stock, such that CFL and the CFL Shareholders may purchase an amount of shares necessary to maintain its then-current beneficial ownership interest, up to a maximum of 54.64% of our then-outstanding Common Stock, on a fully-diluted basis, subject to certain exceptions. This participation right does not apply to any issuance by the Company:

as consideration in any merger, acquisition or similar strategic transaction approved by the Board;

to directors, officers or employees, advisors or consultants pursuant to a compensation, incentive or similar plan approved by the Board;

as a result of the conversion of convertible securities or the exercise of any warrants, options or other rights to acquire PDN's capital stock; or in an "at the market offering" or other continuous offering of equity securities by PDN.

This participation right also does not apply to the extent that, as a result of the exercise thereof, CFL and the CFL Shareholders would beneficially own greater than 54.64% of PDN's then outstanding Common Stock, on a fully-diluted basis.

The Stockholders' Agreement contains standstill provisions that, among other things and subject to certain exceptions, prohibit members of the CFL Group from, directly or indirectly:

facilitating, knowingly encouraging, inducing, supporting or becoming a "participant" in, or a member of certain "groups" (as defined in Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act")) formed for the purposes of acting with respect to, any solicitation of proxies or consents with respect to any proposal submitted to the holders of our voting securities for their consideration, vote or consent, other than any such proposal included in the Company's definitive proxy statement including the affirmative recommendation of the Board or any committee thereof;

submitting, inducing, facilitating or knowingly encouraging the making or submission by any person or entity to the Board, management or any of our security holders, any proposal or offer providing for or contemplating any merger, acquisition, sale, lease, mortgage, encumbrance or pledge or other transfer of all or a material portion of the assets of, business combination, amalgamation, share exchange, tender or exchange offer, recapitalization, reorganization, spin-off, issuance or sale or purchase of shares of any class of capital stock, dissolution, liquidation or winding up, or any similar transaction, in each case, involving the Company's or any of its subsidiaries' securities, assets or businesses, except for an acquisition proposal for all of the outstanding common stock satisfying the conditions described below; or taking any action, directly or indirectly, to change the composition of the Board or its committees such that they no longer satisfy NASDAQ Listing Rule 5605 regarding board and committee independence.

These restrictions generally do not prohibit members of the CFL Group from:

making a bona fide acquisition proposal or offer to the Company to acquire all outstanding shares of Common Stock not then beneficially owned by members of the CFL Group, provided such proposal contemplates the acquisition of all shares of Common Stock for 100% cash consideration and is expressly and irrevocably conditioned at the time the proposal is made on the approval of both a committee (a "Special Committee") of the Board comprised solely of independent directors, a majority of which are not CFL Board Designees (as defined below; currently Mr. Hillman and Mr. Schramm) and the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock not then beneficially owned by the CFL Group; or transferring their shares of Common Stock in connection with a third-party tender offer or a third-party business combination proposal, provided that:

such third-party tender offer or proposal was not commenced or conducted as a result of a breach of the standstill provisions of the Stockholders' Agreement; and no such transfer shall be permitted during the one-year period following the closing of the Share Issuance (the "Lock-Up Period") unless the third-party tender offer or proposal has been approved and recommended by a Special Committee or by the Board (including the affirmative vote of a majority of the independent directors, which majority includes at least one independent director that is not a CFL Board Designee).

The Stockholders' Agreement provides for certain restrictions on the ability of members of the CFL Group to transfer their shares of Common Stock during the Lock-Up Period. However, members of the CFL Group are permitted to transfer shares of Common Stock to:

CFL, one or more CFL Shareholders, any of their respective controlled affiliates, or, in the case of the CFL Shareholders, certain of its family members;

certain third-parties as discussed above;

to PDN or any of its subsidiaries; or in any transaction approved in advance by the Special Committee or the Board (including the affirmative vote of a majority of the independent directors, which majority includes at least one independent director that is not a CFL Board Designee).

Notwithstanding these restrictions, during the Lock-Up Period, members of the CFL Group may transfer shares of Common Stock at any time, in a single transaction or in multiple transactions, provided the aggregate number of shares transferred may not exceed 10% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock. In addition, as noted above, members of the CFL Group may transfer their shares of Common Stock during the Lock-Up Period in connection with a third-party tender offer or third-party business combination proposal.

Following the expiration of the Lock-Up Period, members of the CFL Group may transfer their shares of Common Stock without restriction under the Stockholders' Agreement, provided that, as a result of such transfers, no single transferee acquires beneficial ownership of more than 14.9% of the then-outstanding outstanding shares of Common Stock.

CFL and the CFL Shareholders may transfer or issue capital stock of CFL to any party, as long as the CFL Shareholders continue to own a majority of the outstanding capital stock and voting power of CFL.

Under the Stockholders' Agreement, CFL and the CFL Shareholders have the right to nominate individuals reasonably acceptable to the Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board for election as directors of PDN (the "CFL Board Designees"), for so long as the CFL Group beneficially owns at least 9.9% of PDN's total voting power. For purposes of the Stockholders' Agreement, "total voting power" means the total number of votes represented by and entitled to be cast by holders of PDN's outstanding voting securities.

CFL has the right to nominate one director nominee for every 9.9% of total voting power that the CFL Group beneficially owns, provided that, under the Stockholders' Agreement, CFL will not have the right to nominate more than six directors regardless of how many shares of Common Stock it beneficially owns. CFL and the CFL Shareholders may assign the right to designate a director to any third party to whom CFL or a CFL Shareholder sells 9.9% of the total voting power.

For so long as the Stockholders' Agreement is in effect, the size of the Board will be fixed at nine directors.

In addition, unless otherwise approved by the Board (including the affirmative vote of a majority of the independent directors then on the Board, which majority includes at least one independent director that is not a CFL Board Designee), PDN will not utilize any controlled company exceptions to the corporate governance requirements under NASDAQ rules. As CFL's board designation rights decrease, so do the number of CFL Board Designees that must be independent. Specifically, if CFL has the right to designate:

Five or six CFL Board Designees, then three must be independent;

four CFL Board Designees, then two must be independent;

three CFL Board Designees, then one must be independent; and fewer than three CFL Board Designees, then CFL will not be required to designate any independent directors.

At least one CFL Board Designee will serve on each committee of the Board. Consistent with the Stockholders' Agreement and as described in Item 5.02 below, at the closing of the Share Issuance, the Board appointed Jim Kirsch and Jingbo Song as co-Chairmen of the Board. If Mr. Kirsch is no longer serving on the Board, then there will be no co-Chairmanship, and Mr. Song or another CFL Board Designee will be the sole Chairman of the Board. Board Chairmanship will be designated by CFL for so long as CFL has board designation rights under the Stockholders' Agreement.

PDN will maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance for the benefit of each CFL Board Designee on substantially similar terms, conditions and amounts as its current insurance policy, and shall provide the CFL Board Designees with all benefits as currently provided to other directors performing similar roles.

CFL and the CFL Shareholders must cause all of the shares of Common Stock held by the CFL Group to be present for quorum purposes at every meeting of PDN's stockholders. In addition, CFL and the CFL Shareholders will cause all of the shares of Common Stock held by the CFL Group to be voted (i) "for" the election of all director nominees approved and recommended by the Board, for so long as PDN is in material compliance with the Stockholders' Agreement and (ii) "against" any proposal that would have the effect of circumventing the Stockholders' Agreement.

Pursuant to the Stockholders' Agreement, following the expiration of the Lock-Up Period, CFL and the CFL Shareholders have unlimited demand, shelf and piggyback registration rights to require PDN to effect a registration under the Securities Act of a resale of the shares of Common Stock acquired by CFL at the closing of the Share Issuance and any other shares of Common Stock acquired by CFL or the CFL Shareholders following the closing.

CFL and the CFL Shareholders have the right to require PDN to file a registration statement every 120 days, and PDN has the right, once per twelve-month period, to delay such filing up to 120 days. PDN is required to use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the registration statement to become effective. PDN is precluded from granting any registration rights to any party in the future that would adversely impact CFL's registration rights.

PDN, on the one hand, and CFL and the CFL Shareholders, on the other hand, agreed to indemnify each other for any material misstatements or omissions in any registration statement filed pursuant to the registration rights provisions of the Stockholders' Agreement, provided that the indemnity obligations of CFL and the CFL Shareholders will cover only information provided by them expressly for inclusion in the registration statement and is limited to the amount of net proceeds received by CFL and the CFL Shareholders in the offering to which the registration statement relates.

The registration rights of CFL and the CFL Shareholders under the Stockholders' Agreement terminate when CFL or the CFL Shareholder, as applicable, no longer holds "registrable securities." For purposes of the Stockholders' Agreement, "registrable securities" means:

any shares of Common Stock issued to, purchased or acquired by CFL or a CFL Shareholder (other than in violation of the Stockholders' Agreement); and any of PDN's securities issued or issuable to CFL or a CFL Shareholder with respect to any shares of Common Stock (including, by way of stock dividend, stock split, distribution, exchange, combination, merger, recapitalization, reorganization or otherwise).

Any particular registrable securities once issued shall cease to be "registrable securities" upon the earliest to occur of:

the date on which such securities are disposed of pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act;

the date on which such securities are disposed of pursuant to Rule 144 (or any successor provision) promulgated under Securities Act;

the date on which such securities may be sold without volume limitations or manner of sale restrictions pursuant to Rule 144 (or any successor provision) promulgated under the Securities Act (without the requirement that we be in compliance with the current public information requirement of such rule);

the date on which CFL (or a CFL Shareholder, if applicable) ceases to hold, together with its affiliates, at least 10% of the then outstanding Common Stock; and the date on which such securities cease to be outstanding.

The Stockholders' Agreement will automatically terminate on the 181st day following the date on which the CFL Group beneficially owns less than 9.9% of the total voting power of the Common Stock, provided that the registration rights provided under the Stockholders' Agreement will not terminate until CFL and the CFL Shareholders no longer hold any registrable securities as described above. In addition, the Stockholders' Agreement will terminate with respect to a CFL Shareholder if it no longer holds any registrable securities and ceases to control CFL, either jointly or solely. The Stockholders' Agreement may also be terminated by the mutual written consent of the parties or if PDN dissolves.

Additional Equity Purchase by CFL. On January 13, 2017, the Company entered into a stock purchase agreement dated as of January 13, 2017 (the "Additional Purchase Agreement"), with CFL. Pursuant to the Additional Purchase Agreement, the Company agreed to issue and sell to CFL (the "Additional Share Issuance"), and CFL agreed to purchase, at a price of $9.60 per share (the "Per Share Price"), upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Additional Purchase Agreement, 312,500 shares of the Company's common stock. The Per Share Price represented an approximately 3.1% premium to the $9.31 closing consolidated bid price of our common stock on January 12, 2017.

On January 18, 2017, PDN consummated the Additional Share Issuance. As a result of the completion of the Additional Share Issuance, as of January 18, 2017, CFL beneficially owned 54.64% of our outstanding shares of Common Stock, on a fully diluted basis. We received total gross proceeds of $3.0 million from the Additional Share Issuance and approximately $2.8 million in net proceeds from the Additional Share Issuance, after payment of transaction-related expenses.

Policy Regarding Review, Approval or Ratification of Related Party Transactions

The charter of the Company's Audit Committee sets forth the Company's policies and procedures for the review, approval or ratification of transactions in which the Company is a participant and the amount exceeds $120,000, and in which any related person had or will have a direct or indirect material interest. The Audit Committee charter expressly states that the review and approval of such transactions is among the responsibilities of the Audit Committee, unless otherwise delegated to another committee of the Board consisting solely of independent directors. The Audit Committee is authorized to engage independent counsel and other advisers as it determines is necessary to carry out its duties, including with respect to its review of related party transactions. There are no additional policies stating the standards required to be met for such transactions to be approved; accordingly, the Audit Committee will act within its discretion, subject to its fiduciary and other duties, in deciding whether to approve any related party transaction.

Director Independence

Our Board has reviewed the materiality of any relationship that each of our directors has with us, either directly or indirectly. Based on this review, our board has determined that Messrs. He, Belsky, Liu and Zhang are "independent directors" as defined by Rule 5605(a)(2) of the Marketplace Rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market. Under the terms of a stockholders' agreement entered into between the Company and CFL, our majority stockholder, CFL has right to designate one director nominee for every 9.9% of the total voting power of our common stock that CFL beneficially owns, up to a maximum of six directors.

Pre-Approval Policy and Independence

The Audit Committee has a policy requiring the pre-approval of all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the Company's independent auditors. Under the policy, the Audit Committee is to specifically pre-approve any recurring audit and audit-related services to be provided during the following fiscal year. The Audit Committee also may generally pre-approve, up to a specified maximum amount, any nonrecurring audit and audit-related services for the following fiscal year. All pre-approved matters must be detailed as to the particular service or category of services to be provided, whether recurring or non-recurring, and reported to the audit committee at its next scheduled meeting. Permissible non-audit services are to be pre-approved on a case-by-case basis. The Audit Committee may delegate its pre-approval authority to any of its members, provided that such member reports all pre-approval decisions to the Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting. The Company's independent auditors and members of management are required to report periodically to the Audit Committee the extent of all services provided in accordance with the pre-approval policy, including the amount of fees attributable to such services.

In accordance with Section 10A of the Exchange Act, the Company is required to disclose the approval by the Audit Committee of non-audit services performed by the Company's independent auditors. Non-audit services are services other than those provided in connection with an audit review of the financial statements. During the period covered by this filing, all audit-related fees, tax fees and all other fees, and the services rendered in connection with those fees, as reported in the table shown above, were approved by the Company's Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee considered the fact that Marcum LLP has not provided non-audit services to us, which the committee determined was compatible with maintaining auditor independence.
