AEterna Zentaris Consolidated Annual 2004 Results

Consolidated revenues for the 12-month period ended December 31, 2004 increased by 40.4% to $233 million, compared with $166.4 million for the same period in 2003. Consolidated R&D expenses net of tax credits amounted to $30.4 million in 2004, compared with $44.1 million in 2003. The Company reported a 2004 consolidated operating income of $17.2 million, compared with an operating loss of $14.3 million for the comparable period in 2003. This increase in operating income is mainly due to non-recurrent milestone payments related to cetrorelix Phase II positive results, the realignment of the clinical development program initiated in December 2003, as well as to Atrium's acquisition of Pure Encapsulations in March 2004, combined with the achieved internal growth. Consolidated net loss for 2004 was $5.8 million, or $0.13 per share, compared with a net loss of $28.1 million, or $0.65 per share, in 2003.

AEterna Zentaris' financial performance for the year 2004 reflects continued revenue growth from its development and marketing partners related to the advancement of its extensive pharmaceutical product pipeline and from sales of marketed compounds. It also reflects growth generated by its 61.1%-owned subsidiary, Atrium Biotechnologies, through its proprietary product portfolio and accretive acquisitions.

ATRIUM BIOTECHNOLOGIES FOURTH QUARTER 2004 RESULTS

During the fourth quarter of 2004, consolidated sales for Atrium were $43.5 million, an increase of 16% compared with $37.5 million in sales for the comparable period in 2003. EBIT was $6.1 million during the quarter compared with $3.8 million for the same period in 2003, representing a 61% increase. Net earnings increased 50% to $2.7 million compared with net earnings of $1.8 million for the same period in 2003. These increases are mainly due to the acquisition of Pure Encapsulations by Atrium, in March 2004, and growth in Atrium's proprietary product portfolio.

ATRIUM CONSOLIDATED ANNUAL 2004 RESULTS

For the 12 months ended December 31, 2004, Atrium's sales reached $177.3 million compared with $120.3 million for 2003, representing a 47% increase. EBIT increased 81% to $26.1 million in 2004 from $14.4 million in 2003. Atrium recorded net earnings of $13.2 million in 2004 compared with net earnings of $7.1 million in 2003, representing an increase of 86%. These increases came mainly from the acquisitions of Chimiray, Interchemical, Siricie and Pure Encapsulations and from growth in Atrium's proprietary product portfolio.

"The year 2004 was marked by sustained growth and development," said Gilles Gagnon, AEterna Zentaris' President and Chief Executive Officer. "We moved our products through the pipeline as illustrated by the successful completion of our seven Phase II trial program with cetrorelix. In 2005, we expect to expand by advancing clinical development of cetrorelix in collaboration with our partners Solvay and Shionogi/Nippon Kayaku, by furthering the development of other compounds in oncology and endocrinology, and by continuing our in-licensing and acquisition program. Finally, our subsidiary, Atrium, has again demonstrated its ability to yield excellent year-over-year growth in all of its activity sectors and we also look forward to see its continued growth in 2005," concluded Mr. Gagnon.

Dennis Turpin, Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of AEterna Zentaris, added: "With the contribution of all of our operating segments, we achieved our financial goal of becoming cash flow positive, on a consolidated basis, in 2004. Our consolidated cash and short-term position remains strong at $58 million as of December 31, 2004. In 2005, while maintaining a solid financial position, we expect our R&D investment to increase, reflecting our commitment to expand and advance our clinical-stage pipeline, in particular, the oncology proprietary products. The Company is now well positioned to carry on its business plan."

APPOINTMENT TO AETERNA ZENTARIS BOARD

Eric Dupont, Chairman of AEterna Zentaris, is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Jurgen Ernst to AEterna Zentaris' Board. Mr. Ernst, a seasoned executive, has recently retired from his position of worldwide General Manager, Pharmaceutical Sector of Solvay S.A. "We are pleased to welcome Mr. Ernst who will bring to AEterna Zentaris more than 20 years of pharmaceutical industry expertise mainly in the field of corporate development and pharmaceutical product marketing," said Dr. Dupont.
