ITEM 8.01 Other Events

DST Systems, Inc. (“DST”) announced today that it is discussing a potential transaction with dsicmm Group Limited (“dsicmm”), a private company based in the UK that provides integrated print and communication solutions. Under the contemplated transaction, DST would contribute its debt-free UK print / mail operations and cash and dsicmm shareholders would contribute their stock into a newly formed company in which DST would own approximately 60% to 65% and shareholders of dsicmm would own approximately 35% to 40% of the equity of the new company. dsicmm has approximately 1,200 employees and annual revenues of approximately $160 million. On a pro-forma basis, the transaction is not expected to have a material impact on DST’s net income or earnings per share for 2010.

The parties believe that discussions between DST and dsicmm have reached an appropriate stage to disclose the contemplated transaction, but caution that no final definitive agreement has been reached. DST anticipates the definitive agreement will be signed within 30 days and the transaction would be consummated within approximately 20-45 days after signing of the definitive agreement. The transaction is subject to due diligence and negotiation of a final definitive agreement as well as customary closing conditions. There can be no assurance that DST will enter into a definitive agreement for the contemplated transaction, or that the contemplated transaction will be consummated, on the proposed timeline or at all.
