Section 8 – Other Events

Item 8.01. Other Events

On April 28, 2011, Occidental Petroleum Corporation announced core income of $1.6 billion ($1.96 per diluted share) for the first quarter of 2011, compared with $1.1 billion ($1.35 per diluted share) for the first quarter of 2010. Net income for the first quarter of 2011 was $1.5 billion ($1.90 per diluted share), compared with $1.1 billion ($1.31 per diluted share) for the first quarter of 2010.

QUARTERLY RESULTS

Oil and Gas

Oil and gas segment earnings were $2.5 billion for the first quarter of 2011, compared with $1.9 billion for the same period in 2010. The increase in the first quarter of 2011 results was due to higher crude oil prices and higher sales volumes in the Middle East, partially offset by higher operating costs and DD&A rates.

For the first quarter of 2011, daily oil and gas production volumes averaged 730,000 barrels of oil equivalent (BOE), compared with 701,000 BOE in the first quarter of 2010. Volumes increased over 4 percent, primarily in domestic gas and NGL production and Middle East/North Africa crude oil volumes. The domestic gas increase was from the new acquisition in South Texas, which closed in the first quarter of 2011. The Middle East/North Africa increase included new production from Iraq and higher volumes from the Mukhaizna field in Oman.

As a result of higher year-over-year average oil prices affecting production sharing and similar contracts, production was negatively impacted in the Middle East/North Africa, Long Beach and Colombia by 12,000 BOE per day. Dolphin and Elk Hills volumes were also lower from planned maintenance and production shut-downs in the first quarter of 2011.

Daily sales volumes increased over 6 percent from 685,000 BOE per day in the first quarter of 2010 to 728,000 BOE per day in the first quarter of 2011.

Oxy's realized price for worldwide crude oil was $92.14 per barrel for the first quarter of 2011, compared with $74.09 per barrel for the first quarter of 2010. Worldwide realized NGL prices rose from $47.48 per barrel in the first quarter of 2010 to $52.64 per barrel in the first quarter of 2011. Domestic realized gas prices dropped from $5.62 per Mcf in the first quarter of 2010 to $4.21 per Mcf for the first quarter of 2011.

Chemicals

Chemical segment earnings for the first quarter 2011 were $219 million, compared with $30 million for the same period in 2010. The first quarter of 2011 results reflect strong export sales, higher margins resulting from improved supply/demand balances across most products, including calcium chloride, and lower energy costs.

Midstream, Marketing and Other

Midstream segment earnings were $114 million for the first quarter of 2011, compared with $94 million for the first quarter of 2010. Earnings for the first quarter of 2011 reflect increased income from the pipeline business, higher margins in the marketing and trading business, partially offset by lower margins in the gas processing business.

SIGNIFICANT TRANSACTIONS AND EVENTS AFFECTING EARNINGS

Occidental's results of operations often include the effects of significant transactions and events affecting earnings that vary widely and unpredictably in nature, timing and amount. Therefore, management uses a measure called "core results," which excludes those items. This non-GAAP measure is not meant to disassociate those items from management's performance, but rather is meant to provide useful information to investors interested in comparing Occidental's earnings performance between periods. Reported earnings are considered representative of management's performance over the long term. Core results is not considered to be an alternative to operating income in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.
