At the 2003 annual meeting of stockholders, El Paso's stockholders will be entitled to vote for nominees to fill each seat on El Paso's board. The non-employee directors receive compensation from El Paso for their services as directors as described in the proxy statement relating to El Paso's 2002 annual meeting of stockholders. For his service as lead director, Mr. Kuehn receives a $12,500 monthly retainer fee and received a one-time grant of 100,000 options, which vest 50% a year over the next two years so long as Mr. Kuehn continues to be lead director. The compensation and benefits of certain El Paso executive officers are set out in the company's 2002 proxy statement. In addition to the "change in control" provisions applicable to executive officers described in the 2002 proxy statement, El Paso maintains severance and other benefit plans which provide benefits to certain officers and employees or accelerated vesting of equity compensation awards upon, or in certain circumstances following, a "change in control" or upon an individual's termination of employment. The election of Selim K. Zilkha's proposed nominees would constitute a "change of control" for purposes of the foregoing.
