CIRCUIT CITY SENDS LETTER TO WATTLES CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

Richmond, Va., April 4, 2008 Circuit City Stores, Inc. (NYSE: CC) today announced that its lead director has sent a letter to Mark Wattles of Wattles Capital Management, LLC in response to his letter dated April 2, 2008.

The text of the letter is as follows:

April 4, 2008

Mark J. Wattles
Wattles Capital Management, LLC
7945 W. Sahara Avenue, Suite 205
Las Vegas, NV 89117

Dear Mark:

We have received your letter of April 2, 2008, in which you indicate that you would like to meet with the Circuit City Board of Directors or with its lead director to discuss your views regarding Circuit City. I will contact you to set a mutually agreeable time.

It appears to me from your letter and certain other statements that you may not have a full understanding of the Company's current strategy and challenges, and I think a conversation will help provide a better picture of those efforts and possibly facilitate a more productive dialogue between the Company and your firm. I also want to note that the company had previously reached out to you to set up a meeting following the year-end management quiet period or to listen to your concerns prior to our reporting date.

It was a surprise to read that you would not permit the individuals you have proposed as nominees to the Company's Board of Directors to meet with the Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board without imposing an unusual and unreasonable condition for such a meeting. Our practice is for the Committee to evaluate director nominees proposed by shareholders in the same manner it evaluates other prospective nominees. We believe this is a very standard and appropriate process. The Board strives to select for its membership highly qualified individuals who are dedicated to advancing the interests of the Company's shareholders and actively seeks nominees who will bring diverse talents, experiences and perspectives to the Board's deliberations. Certainly you would agree the Board has an obligation to its shareholders to thoroughly research and personally interview potential members. This is even more true given that your proposal to remove the entire Circuit City Board would, if adopted, give your nominees absolute control of the entire Board.

Edgar Filing: CIRCUIT CITY STORES INC - Form DEFA14A

I trust that we can resolve this point in a personal conversation, so that the Nominating and Governance Committee can meet the individuals you have nominated to the board, and separately look forward to the opportunity to meet with you.

Sincerely,

/s/ Mikael Salovaara
