PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR or N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Children's Place Retail Stores, Inc. (the "Company") was unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended May 5, 2007 (the "First Quarter Fiscal 2007 Form 10-Q") on June 14, 2007 because Company management needs additional time to complete its analysis of the correct accounting treatment for the Company's past stock option grants and to determine the extent of the changes that are required to the Company's previously reported financial results, as well as the effect of these corrections and changes on the Company's financial results for its fiscal year ended February 3, 2007 and for its first quarter ended May 5, 2007 ("First Quarter Fiscal 2007"). This delay could not be eliminated by the Company without unreasonable effort and expense.

As previously announced, an internal investigation into the Company's stock option practices was conducted by outside counsel under the supervision of a Special Committee of the Company's Board of Directors. Based on the results of this investigation and Company management's own review, the Company concluded that incorrect measurement dates had been used for financial reporting purposes with respect to various stock option grants since the time of the Company's initial public offering in 1997. The Company has not completed its analysis to determine the correct measurement dates to use for these option grants for financial reporting purposes. In connection with its analysis, the Company has requested guidance regarding the correct measurement dates from the Office of the Chief Accountant of the Securities and Exchange Commission. As a result of its previous use of incorrect measurement dates, the Company announced that it is restating its previously issued financial statements for the fiscal years 2003, 2004, 2005 as well as its previously released financial information for the first and second quarters of fiscal 2006.

The Company will complete the restatement of its previous financial statements and the preparation of its First Quarter Fiscal 2007 Form 10-Q as soon as practicable.
