Exchange Act of 1934.

On March 23, 2007, it was brought to the attention of the Company's chief legal officer that on October 17, 2006, the Company had signed an agreement to obtain marketing services from an entity affiliated with Ms. Harriet Mouchly-Weiss, a member of the Company's Board of Directors and Audit Committee. On the same date, the Company's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee convened to, among other things, analyze the agreement and relationship. The Nominating and Governance Committee concluded that, despite the immaterial nature of the agreement from a financial point of view (to date, approximately $35,000 has been paid by the Company to the third party entity), due to the agreement (i) Ms. Mouchly-Weiss did not satisfy the requirements of Rule 10A-3(b)(1)(i) and (ii) of the Exchange Act of 1934, respecting the independence standards for audit committee members; and (ii) the Company was unintentionally not, and had inadvertently not been since October 17, 2006, in compliance with Section 303A.06 of the Listed Company Manual. Immediately following this determination, and during the course of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee meeting, Ms. Mouchly-Weiss voluntarily resigned, effective immediately, from the Company's Audit Committee in order to remediate the Company's wholly-inadvertent noncompliance with Section 303A.06 of the Listed Company Manual. As a result of Ms Mouchly-Weiss's resignation from the Audit Committee, the Company is now in full compliance with Section 303A.06 of the NYSE Listed Company Manual and all of the NYSE listing standards.

On March 30, 2007, the NYSE informed the Company that the NYSE had reviewed and accepted the Company's Interim Written Affirmation dated March 28, 2007, and that based on the Company's disclosures set forth therein, no further action by the NYSE was necessary.
