Attunity and One Software Technologies Enter into Outsourcing Agreement

Monday November 8, 3:05 pm ET

WAKEFIELD, Mass.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Nov. 8, 2004--Attunity, Ltd. (NASDAQ: ATTU - News), a leading provider of enterprise data integration software, today announced that it has entered into a two year renewable outsourcing agreement whereby One Software Technologies (TASE:ONE) will provide support, consulting and maintenance services to customers that use Attunity's Mancal 2000, a financial and logistics software application package.

The move to outsource the support and maintenance of this product line will enable Attunity to continue to focus on the growth of its core business of real-time data integration.

Attunity does not expect the agreement to have a material effect on its financial results.

About Attunity Ltd.

Attunity is a leading provider of enterprise data integration software. Using Attunity's products, companies can seamlessly connect to data sources, stream data changes across the enterprise, and federate heterogeneous information to achieve a single view of their business. Employing a unique distributed architecture, Attunity software runs natively on enterprise data servers, turning locked data silos into an efficient Information Grid. The result is significantly enhanced performance and reduced cost of ownership.

More than 1000 customers are using Attunity software world-wide for data integration initiatives such as service-oriented integration to the mainframe as part of EAI projects, legacy data access for business intelligence and reporting, real-time and efficient ETL based on change data capture, and single customer views from disparate information sources. Also, Attunity is a trusted partner for industry leaders like Oracle and HP who embed Attunity software into their products and solution offerings.
