Item 2. Acquisition or Disposition of Assets

On April 16, 2002, the stockholders of Beazer Homes USA, Inc. ("Beazer") and Crossmann Communities, Inc. ("Crossmann") approved the merger of Crossmann with and into a wholly-owned subsidiary of Beazer, and on April 17, 2002, the merger became effective. Under the terms of the merger agreement, based on the average closing price of Beazer common stock of $78.56 for the 15 consecutive trading days ended on, and including, April 11, 2002, Crossmann stockholders who did not elect to receive the merger consideration in all cash or all stock will receive the base merger consideration consisting of a combination of $17.60 in cash and 0.3544 shares of Beazer common stock for each share of Crossmann common stock. Crossmann stockholders who elected to receive the merger consideration in all cash will receive $45.44 in exchange for each share of Crossmann common stock. Because both the total amount of cash and the total number of shares of Beazer common stock were fixed, the merger consideration payable to Crossmann stockholders who elected to receive all stock was prorated. As a result of proration, such Crossmann stockholders who elected to receive the merger consideration in all stock will receive a combination of $15.90 in cash and 0.3760 shares of Beazer common stock in exchange for each share of Crossmann common stock.

The aggregate merger consideration paid by Beazer consisted of approximately 3.9 million shares of Beazer common stock and $191.6 million in cash. In addition, Beazer repaid approximately $125 million of Crossmann debt in the merger. The cash portion of the merger consideration and the repayment of Crossmann debt upon the merger were funded through borrowings under Beazer's $350 million 8³/₈% Senior Notes due 2012 issued in a Rule 144A private placement which closed April 17, 2002.

Neither Beazer nor any of its affiliates had, and to the knowledge of Beazer no director or officer of Beazer and its affiliates had, any material relationship with Crossmann prior to the acquisition.

Edgar Filing: BEAZER HOMES USA INC - Form 8-K

Other information concerning the merger has been previously reported in, and is described in, the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus dated March 14, 2002, which is part of Beazer's Registration Statement on Form S-4 (Registration No. 333-83304) and Beazer's Current Report on Form 8-K, dated April 12, 2002.
