This press release contains forward-looking statements , as the phrase is defined in Section 27A of the Securities Act and Section 21E of the Exchange Act. These statements relate, in part, to the consummation of the mergers and related transactions which are subject to regulatory and certain other approvals, and will require the subsequent transfer of all of Extel, Sotovaya Company, StavTeleSot, Vostok-Zapad Telecom, Orensot, Beeline-Samara and Dal Telecom International s licenses, frequencies and permissions to VimpelCom. If any of the approvals are not obtained or any condition precedent is not met, the mergers will not be consummated. The forward-looking statements relate to the Company s development and are based on management s best assessment of the Company s ability to consummate the mergers and related transactions, its strategic and financial position and future market conditions and trends. These discussions involve risks and uncertainties. The actual outcome may differ materially from these statements as a result of unforeseen developments from regulatory authorities, competition, governmental regulations of the wireless telecommunications industry, general political uncertainties in Russia and general economic developments in Russia and other factors. As a result of such risks and uncertainties, there can be no assurance that the mergers will be consummated. Certain factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those discussed in any forward-looking statements include the risks described in the Company s Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2004 and other public filings made by the Company with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, which risk factors are incorporated herein by reference. VimpelCom disclaims any obligation to update developments of these risk factors or to announce publicly any revision to any of the forward-looking statements contained in this release, or to make corrections to reflect future events or developments.
