(Attach Extra Sheets if Needed)

The Registrant was unable to file its Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended September 30, 2010 (the "Report") on November 9, 2010 without unreasonable effort or expense due to an internal investigation of certain of the Registrant's past accounting practices and certain improper payments being conducted by a Special Committee of the Registrant's Board of Directors. This internal investigation was commenced following the September 29, 2010 announcement by the Registrant that its former President, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of its Board of Directors informed the Registrant that certain improper payments were allegedly made in connection with the Registrant's licensing of software to one customer. The Registrant is fully cooperating with law enforcement authorities with respect to ongoing investigations into the matter and anticipates that the Special Committee will have made sufficient progress with respect to its internal investigation for the Registrant to file the Report within the applicable Rule 12b-25 extension period. However, it is possible that the Registrant will not be able to meet the extended filing deadline.
