Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On July 20, 2010, MACC Private Equities Inc. (the “Company”) received a delisting determination letter from the staff of the Nasdaq Stock Market (“Nasdaq”), due to the Company's failure to maintain compliance with the Nasdaq Capital Market's Nasdaq Listing Rule 5550(a)(5) (the “Rule”) requiring the Company to maintain a minimum Market Value of Publicly Held Shares (“MVPHS”) of $1,000,000. Nasdaq Listing Rule 5810(c)(3)(A) provides the Company with 180 calendar days (the “Grace Period”), or until January 18, 2011, to regain compliance with the required minimum MVPHS. If at any time during the Grace Period the Company’s MVPHS closes at $1,000,000 or more for ten (10) consecutive days, Nasdaq will deliver written confirmation that the Company is in compliance with the Rule and the matter will be closed.

In the event that the Company does not regain compliance with the Rule prior to the expiration of the Grace Period, it will receive written notification that its securities are subject to delisting.

In a press release dated July 16, 2010, MACC reviewed a number of actions to be brought before shareholders at the upcoming annual meeting to address the Company's capital growth.

No assurances can currently be given that the Company will be able to satisfy the above described deficiency and that its common stock will not be delisted. Additionally, no assurances can currently be given that the Company will qualify for any additional grace periods offered by the Nasdaq Stock Market. The deficiency notification described above will have no immediate effect on the listing of the Company's common stock at this time, pending the expiration of the relevant grace periods stated above.

The Company is also working to retain listing of its shares on the Nasdaq Capital Market due to its share price trading at a closing bid price of less than $1.00, as reported previously on May 17, 2010.
