PROXY STATEMENT

FOR 2006 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

To Be Held on May 4, 2006

March 30, 2006

GENERAL INFORMATION

This Proxy Statement is delivered to you in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Home Properties, Inc. (the "Company") for use at the 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company (the "Annual Meeting"). The Annual Meeting will be held on Thursday, May 4, 2006 at 2:30 p.m. at the Dryden Theatre of the International Museum of Photography at George Eastman House, 900 East Avenue, Rochester, New York 14607. The approximate date on which the enclosed form of proxy and this Proxy Statement are first being sent to stockholders is March 30, 2006.

Who May Vote

Stockholders of the Company as of the Company's record date, March 8, 2006, may vote.

Outstanding Shares

On March 8, 2006, 31,334,423 shares of the Company's Common Stock were outstanding. Each share of Common Stock has one vote.

How to Vote

There are four ways to vote:

1. by completing the enclosed proxy card and returning it in the enclosed postage prepaid envelope;
2. by internet at <http://www.proxyvoting.com/hme>;
3. by toll-free telephone at (866) 540-5760; or
4. by written ballot at the Annual Meeting.

How Proxies Work

The Company's Board of Directors is asking for your proxy. By giving us your proxy, you authorize the proxy holder (Edward J. Pettinella, the Company's Chief Executive Officer) to vote your shares at the Annual Meeting in the manner you direct.

If you vote by any of the above methods but do not specify how you wish to vote your shares, your shares will be voted "for" all the enumerated matters specified in the Notice of Meeting. The proxy holder will also vote shares according to his discretion on any other matter properly brought before the meeting.

You may receive more than one proxy card depending on how you hold your shares. For example, if you hold shares through someone else, such as a stockbroker, you may get proxy material from them. In order for you to vote those shares, you must provide instructions to the record holder as provided in their instructions to you. Even though you have not provided instructions to your record holder, they may vote your shares "for" the election of the nominees for director and "for" the ratification of the independent registered public accounting firm.

Quorum

In order to carry out the business of the Annual Meeting, we must have a quorum. This means that at least a majority of the outstanding shares eligible to vote must be represented at the meeting, either by proxy or in person.

Votes Needed

The affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting is required for the election of directors. The ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for 2006 and any other matter properly brought before the meeting requires the favorable vote of a majority of the votes cast. Under Maryland law, if a stockholder abstains on a vote, the abstention does not constitute a vote "for" or "against" a matter. Thus, abstentions are disregarded in determining the "votes cast."

Changing Your Vote

You may revoke your proxy before it is voted at the meeting by entering a new vote by internet or telephone, by submitting a new proxy with a later date, by voting in person at the Annual Meeting or by notifying the Company's Secretary in writing prior to the Annual Meeting as follows: Ann M. McCormick, 850 Clinton Square, Rochester, New York 14604.

BOARD MATTERS

Board Composition

The Company is managed by its Board of Directors. If all of the Nominees are elected, the Board will have twelve members.

Board Meetings

The Board holds regular meetings on a quarterly basis. Pursuant to the Company's By-Laws, the Board Chair, President or a majority of the Board of Directors may call for a special meeting of the Board. During 2005, the Board of Directors met eight times, including regular and special meetings. Each director attended at least 75% of the Board's meetings. Ten of the twelve directors attended all of the meetings. Two directors each missed one meeting.

Board Independence

Nine of the Company's twelve Board members are not employed by the Company. The Board of Directors has determined that eight of the non-employee directors are "independent" within the meaning of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") current director independence standards. The independent directors are: William Balderston, Josh Fidler, Alan Gosule, Leonard Helbig, Roger Kober, Clifford Smith, Paul Smith and Thomas Summer. This represents more than a majority of the members of the Board of Directors.

In determining the independence of each director, the Corporate Governance/Nominating Committee of the Board considered any relationships between the Company and the individual director and the director's immediate family members as required under the applicable standards. Consistent with the standard of the NYSE with respect to ownership of common stock, the Board has determined that ownership of limited partnership units ("Units") in Home Properties, L.P. (the "Operating Partnership"), which are exchangeable on a one-for-one basis for Common Stock and have customarily received distributions equivalent to distributions on the Company's Common Stock, does not bar the Board from determining that a director is independent of management. Messrs. Balderston, Gosule, Helbig, Kober, C. Smith, P. Smith and Summer have no relationship with the Company other than their compensation and benefits as members of the Board and its Committees and ownership of the Company's Common Stock.

In evaluating the independence of Mr. Fidler, the Corporate Governance/Nominating Committee and the full Board considered the additional relationships between Mr. Fidler and the Company and determined that none of them was material and that Mr. Fidler is independent. Specifically, Mr. Fidler is a principal in a diversified real estate development business known as The Macks Group. In 1999, the Company acquired 3,297 apartment units from affiliates of The Macks Group. As partial consideration for the purchase, Mr. Fidler and members of his family acquired approximately 800,000 Units in Home Properties L.P. Pursuant to the purchase agreement, the Company agreed not to sell or refinance the apartments in a transaction which would require the sellers to recognize taxable income deferred in connection with the sale. In addition, the Company agreed to register with the SEC shares of its Common Stock for which the Units could be exchanged, to pay dividends on the Units comparable to those paid on the Company's Common Stock, and to provide the holders of the Units certain rights to protect their tax and economic interests in the event of a "going private" transaction involving the Company. The Board determined that these rights are not material to the Company and do not impair Mr. Fidler's independence from management. In addition, in 2004, the Company acquired a 240 unit apartment community for $29,496,000 in cash from an entity owned by Mr. Fidler and members of his family. Certain customary representations and warranties by both the Company and the sellers continue to survive, including related indemnity obligations for any breaches. The Board determined that since no breaches have occurred in the almost two years since the acquisition and since any breaches by either the Company or the sellers would not be material to the Company, the ongoing contractual provisions are not material to the Company and do not impair Mr. Fidler's independence from management.

In considering the relationships between Amy Tait and the Company, the Board has determined that Ms. Tait is not an independent director because of her prior employment as an officer of the Company and because Norman Leenhouts, her father, was Co-Chief Executive Officer until January 1, 2004.

Board Evaluation

In 2005, each Board member participated in a self-evaluation of their performance as a Board member as well as an evaluation of the Board as a whole. The Board and members of senior management also participated in a written evaluation of the Chief Executive Officer.

Board Committees

Audit Committee. The Company has a separately designated Audit Committee, which currently consists of Alan Gosule, Leonard Helbig, Roger Kober, Paul Smith and Thomas Summer. Paul Smith chairs this Committee. The Audit Committee assists the Board in fulfilling its responsibility for general oversight of the integrity of the Company's financial statements, the Company's compliance with applicable laws and regulations including the Company's own Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, and the Company's internal and disclosure controls and procedures. The Audit Committee also selects and oversees the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.

The Audit Committee has adopted procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of concerns and complaints about accounting, internal controls and auditing matters. The Audit Committee oversees the existence of a "hot line" (1-877-888-0002) where such concerns and complaints can be anonymously reported.

The Board of Directors has reviewed the qualifications of each member of the Audit Committee and has determined that each member is independent as required by applicable securities laws and by the listing standards of the NYSE. No Audit Committee member serves on the audit committee of more than one other public company. In the exercise of its business judgment, the Board of Directors has also determined that each member of the Audit Committee is financially literate. Finally, the Board has determined that each of Roger Kober, Paul Smith and Thomas Summer qualifies as an "audit committee financial expert" as defined by applicable SEC rules.

Edgar Filing: HOME PROPERTIES INC - Form DEF 14A

The Audit Committee operates under a written charter approved by the Committee and the Board. A copy of the charter is attached to this Proxy Statement as Exhibit A and is available on the Company's website at www.homeproperties.com under the heading "Investment Information/Corporate Governance/Highlights." In 2005, the Audit Committee conducted a self-evaluation.

The Audit Committee works closely with management and the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. It meets quarterly to review the Company's financial statements and on other occasions on an as needed basis. The Audit Committee met seven times in 2005. Each of the members of the Audit Committee attended at least 75% of the Committee's meetings.

Compensation Committee. The Company has a separately designated Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee currently consists of William Balderston, Roger Kober and Clifford Smith, each of whom is independent as required by applicable securities laws and by the listing standards of the NYSE. Clifford Smith chairs this Committee. The Compensation Committee reviews and approves, at least annually, the Company's goals and objectives relevant to compensation of the Company's executive officers, including the Chief Executive Officer, reviews on an annual basis the performance of the Chief Executive Officer in light of those goals and objectives, recommends to the other directors for approval the Chief Executive Officer's annual compensation, approves the compensation levels of the other executive officers, reviews significant employee benefit programs, and establishes and administers executive compensation programs.

The Compensation Committee operates under a written charter approved by the Committee and the Board. A copy of the charter is available on the Company's website at www.homeproperties.com under the heading "Investment Information/Corporate Governance/Highlights." In 2005, the Compensation Committee conducted a self-evaluation.

The Compensation Committee met four times in 2005. Each of the members of the Compensation Committee attended all of the Committee's meetings.

Corporate Governance/Nominating Committee. The Company has a separately designated Corporate Governance/Nominating Committee. Pursuant to its charter, this Committee at all times consists of at least three directors, all of whom are independent directors and two of whom are the Chairs of the Audit and Compensation Committees. This Committee currently consists of William Balderston, Clifford Smith and Paul Smith, each of whom is independent as required by applicable securities laws and by the listing standards of the NYSE. William Balderston chairs this Committee. The Corporate Governance/Nominating Committee identifies individuals qualified to become Board members consistent with criteria approved by the Board, evaluates the size, composition and organization of the Board, monitors implementation of specific corporate governance initiatives, reviews any stockholder proposals submitted to the Company and oversees the evaluation of the Board and management.

The Corporate Governance/Nominating Committee operates under a written charter approved by the Committee and the Board. A copy of the charter is available on the Company's website at www.homeproperties.com under the heading "Investment Information/Corporate Governance/Highlights." In 2005, the Corporate Governance/Nominating Committee conducted a self-evaluation.

The Corporate Governance Committee met four times in 2005. Each of the members of this Committee attended all of the Committee's meetings.

Real Estate Investment Committee. The Company has a separately designated Real Estate Investment Committee. Josh Fidler, Leonard Helbig, Nelson Leenhouts,

Edgar Filing: HOME PROPERTIES INC - Form DEF 14A

Edward Pettinella and Amy Tait are the current members of this Committee. Amy Tait chairs this Committee. The charter for this Committee requires that it consists of at least three directors, at least a majority of whom shall be non-employee directors. The purpose of this Committee is to review potential acquisitions and dispositions and to approve, or to recommend to the full Board for approval, acceptable transactions pursuant to the authorization parameters established by the Board.

The Real Estate Investment Committee operates under a written charter approved by the Committee and the Board. A copy of the charter is available on the Company's website at www.homeproperties.com under the heading "Investment Information//Corporate Governance/Highlights." In 2005, the Real Estate Investment Committee conducted a self-evaluation.

The Real Estate Investment Committee met six times in 2005. Each of the members of the Committee attended all of the Committee's meetings.

Board Compensation

In 2005, the Company paid its non-employee directors an annual stipend of $20,000. An additional annual stipend in the amount of $9,000 was paid to the Chair of each of the Committees. Non-employee directors were also paid $1,200 per day for attendance (in person or by telephone) at Board and Committee meetings provided the Committee meetings were held on a different day from the Board meetings. In addition, in 2005, each of the non-employee directors was issued 875 shares of restricted stock and 4,000 options pursuant to the Company's Amended and Restated 2003 Stock Benefit Plan. The options were issued at an exercise price of $41.95 per share, which was the closing price of a share of the Company's common stock on the date of the 2005 Annual Meeting.

For 2006, the annual stipend will increase to $30,000, the additional stipend paid to the Committee Chairs will increase to $10,000 and the meeting fees will remain at $1,200 per day. The Amended and Restated 2003 Stock Benefit Plan provides for the issuance of up to 1,000 shares of restricted stock to each of the non-employee directors in 2006. The Board authorized a grant of 1,000 shares to each non-employee director, which was awarded in February, 2006. The Amended and Restated 2003 Stock Benefit Plan also provides for the issuance of up to 10,000 options to each of the non-employee directors in 2006. The Board has approved the issuance of 4,000 options to each of the non-employee directors immediately following the 2006 Annual Meeting. The Board determined the 2006 compensation level for non-employee directors based on an analysis of the amount and type of consideration paid to the boards of the Company's peer group.

Under the Second Amended and Restated Director Deferred Compensation Plan approved by the stockholders at the 2005 Annual Meeting, the non-employee directors can defer up to 100% of their total annual cash compensation (including meeting fees) for three, five or ten years and their compensation in the form of restricted stock for five or ten years. The Company matches 10% of the deferred cash amount, which amount vests after three years. A "phantom" stock account is established for each of the director and the Company contribution amounts. Each deferral and the Company contribution is reflected by crediting those accounts with the phantom equivalent of the number of shares of the Company's Common Stock that could be purchased with the amounts deferred and contributed at the Common Stock's fair market value as of the day when the compensation would otherwise have been paid, or with the number of shares of restricted stock deferred. Participants' accounts are also credited with the number of shares of the Company's Common Stock that could be purchased with hypothetical dividends that would be paid with respect to shares previously allocated to the accounts on the same date and at the same price that shares are purchased for participants in the dividend reinvestment feature of the Company's Dividend Reinvestment and Direct Stock Purchase Plan (the "DRIP"). Payments out of the deferred accounts, upon vesting or otherwise, are made by issuance of Common Stock, except in the event of payment by reason of a change in control in which event payment may be made in cash or by issuance of Common Stock at the election of the Compensation Committee. The Director Deferred Compensation Plan is designed to provide substantially the same benefits to the non-employee directors as are provided to eligible employees under the Company's Deferred Bonus Plan. Under the Director Deferred Compensation Plan, five and four of the nine non-employee directors elected to defer some or all of the compensation earned by them in 2005 and 2006, respectively.

Directors of the Company who are employees of the Company do not receive any compensation for their services as directors. All directors are reimbursed for their expenses incurred in attending directors' meetings.

Director Qualifications

The Board has established certain minimum qualifications for prospective Board members. These include a present or past (retired) successful professional career as well as the potential to contribute to the effectiveness of the Board as a whole. Specific qualifications or skills that a prospective Board member must possess include candor, trustworthiness, high ethical standards, dedication and a desire to work hard. Specific expertise must include one of the following: successful financial, legal, academic, mergers and acquisitions, technology utilization or business operating experience.

Identifying and Evaluating Nominees for Directors

The Corporate Governance/Nominating Committee utilizes a variety of methods for identifying and evaluating nominees for director. The Committee develops and updates a list of potential Board candidates that meet the Board qualifications. Candidates may come to the attention of the Committee through current Board members, stockholders, management or other persons. To date, the Committee has not utilized the services of a professional service firm to identify potential candidates, but it may do so in the future. If a vacancy on the Board occurs or is anticipated, the Committee selects candidates to have personal meetings with members of the Committee, the Co-Chairs of the Board and the Chief Executive Officer. Selected candidates would then be invited to interact with other Board members and management. A candidate, if acceptable, would then be elected by the Board (in the event of a mid-term vacancy) or be nominated to stand for election at the next annual stockholders meeting.

Stockholder Nominees

The Corporate Governance/Nominating Committee will consider director candidates proposed by stockholders on the same basis as it considers other potential candidates for Board membership. Stockholders may submit nominations, which should include the name and address of the proposed candidate as well as biographical information evidencing that the proposed candidate meets the minimum qualifications and possesses the skills and expertise as required by the Board and as described above under "Director Qualifications." The submission must also include the candidate's written consent to the nomination and to serve if elected. To be considered for nomination for election at the 2007 Annual Meeting, stockholder submissions for nomination must be received at the office of the Company in care of Secretary, Home Properties, Inc., 850 Clinton Square, Rochester, New York 14604, on or prior to February 15, 2007.

Director Communications

Stockholders may communicate with the Board of Directors by sending written materials to the Board or any of the directors in care of Secretary, Home Properties, Inc., 850 Clinton Square, Rochester, New York 14604. Stockholders may also communicate confidentially or anonymously through use of the Company's hotline at 1-877-888-0002. The Company's Secretary will relay all written communications to the Board of Directors or individual members designated by the stockholder.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Code of Ethics

A very significant part of the Company's culture is the focus on "doing the right thing." The Company has adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics ("Code of Ethics") to embody the Company's commitment to continue to conduct business in accordance with the highest ethical standards. The Code of Ethics applies to all employees and directors of the Company. The Code of Ethics covers such topics as conflicts of interest, proper use of Company property, complete and accurate reporting and disclosure of its business and financial results and compliance with laws. Each employee and each member of the Board of Directors is required on an annual basis to acknowledge that they have received a copy of and reviewed the Code of Ethics.

The Company has also adopted a Code of Ethics for Senior Financial Officers ("Senior Financial Officer Code of Ethics") that applies to the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer and Controller. These individuals are also required to comply with the Code of Ethics.

The Code of Ethics and Senior Financial Officer Code of Ethics meet the definition of "Code of Ethics" under the rules and regulations of the SEC and the listing standards of the NYSE. Both Codes are available on the Company's website at www.homeproperties.com under the heading "Investment Information/Corporate Governance/Highlights." Amendments to the Code of Ethics and Senior Financial Officer Code of Ethics and any waivers granted thereunder will be posted on the Company's website under that heading. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors monitors the implementation and enforcement of both Codes.

Corporate Governance Guidelines

The Board of Directors has adopted a set of corporate governance guidelines (the "Guidelines") which meet the requirements of the listing standards of the NYSE and cover such topics as director qualifications and responsibilities, director access to management, and director orientation and continuing education. Some specific policies included in the Guidelines follow.

Retirement Age. The retirement age for directors was changed in February 2006 to 75. Previously, the retirement age of 75 was subject to exceptions if a determination was made by the other directors after confidential discussion that the over age 75 director was expected to make a significant contribution to the Company during the following year. As of the 2007 Annual Meeting, no exceptions will be permitted.

Change of Employment. Any director who changes jobs or employers or otherwise experiences a significant change in job responsibilities is to submit a letter to the Board offering to resign as a Board member.

Other Boards. Directors may not serve on the boards of more than two additional public companies.

Stock Ownership. Within five years of becoming a director of the Company, directors are required to have equity in the Company having a then current value of not less than $100,000.

Meeting Attendance. Directors are expected to attend each annual stockholders meeting, all Board meetings and meetings of the Committees on which they serve. All of the directors attended the 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Executive Sessions. The non-management directors are to meet at least quarterly in executive sessions and, at least once per year, without any directors who are not independent directors. The Chair of the Corporate Governance/ Nominating Committee presides at the executive sessions unless the Board determines otherwise.

A copy of the Guidelines is available on the Company's website at www.homeproperties.com under the heading "Investment Information/Corporate Governance/Highlights."

Stock Option Restrictions

The Amended and Restated 2003 Stock Benefit Plan approved by the Company's stockholders at the 2005 Annual Meeting includes some features that are designed to closely align the interests of management with those of the stockholders. Options may not be repriced. Options do not vest automatically upon retirement but continue to vest as scheduled. Directors and the executive officers of the Company must hold an equivalent number of shares as were issued on an option exercise for a one year period and are not permitted to receive cash on an option exercise other than the amount necessary to pay the exercise price and withholding taxes.

Employment Agreements

Edward Pettinella entered into an employment agreement with the Company for a term that commenced on January 1, 2004 and terminates on December 31, 2006. The agreement provides for the employment of Mr. Pettinella during that term as the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. Pursuant to the agreement, his base salary for 2004 was $475,000 and his base salary for 2005 and 2006 is to be determined in the discretion of the Compensation Committee, but is to be no less than $475,000. The factor to be applied to his salary for purposes of determining his bonus pool under the Company's Incentive Compensation Plan is to be a minimum of 12% for all three years. The Compensation Committee determined Mr. Pettinella's salary for 2005 and 2006 (actually March 15, 2006 to March 14, 2007) was to be $500,000 and $525,000, respectively. The Committee increased his bonus factor to 13% in 2005 where it remains for 2006. Options and restricted stock awards to be made to Mr. Pettinella during the term of the agreement are not specified but are rather to be made in the discretion of the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee recommended and the full Board approved the issuance of 55,000 and 65,000 stock options in 2004 and 2005, respectively and the issuance of 13,200 and 10,000 shares of restricted stock in 2004 and 2005, respectively. The Compensation Committee expects to make a recommendation as to the number of options and shares of restricted stock to be issued in 2006 to Mr. Pettinella at the May 2006 Board meeting. The "Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation" included later in the Proxy Statement describes the rationale for the Committee's prior recommendations relating to Mr. Pettinella's compensation.

Mr. Pettinella's employment agreement also provides that, if employment is terminated by the Company without cause or by Mr. Pettinella for good reason, Mr. Pettinella is entitled to receive an amount equal to two times his base salary and incentive compensation for the year preceding the termination plus, in the year following termination, the amount of incentive compensation that he would have earned if he had been an employee on December 31 of the year of termination. In such event, Mr. Pettinella would also be paid an amount to compensate him for the loss of future awards of stock options and restricted stock. In addition, all options previously granted to him would vest and the restrictions would lapse on all restricted stock held by Mr. Pettinella. Pursuant to the employment agreement, Mr. Pettinella is subject to a covenant not to compete until January 1, 2007 unless he is terminated by the Company for cause or if he resigns without good reason, in which event the covenant applies for two years after termination.

In the event of a change of control, Mr. Pettinella is entitled to receive the benefits provided under the Executive Retention Plan (described on page 16 of this Proxy Statement) except he would receive three times his base salary and bonus instead of two times as provided to other beneficiaries of that plan.

In October, 2003, Nelson and Norman Leenhouts entered into employment agreements with the Company providing for a three-year term expiring on December 31, 2006. Under the employment agreements, the Leenhoutses agree to serve as Senior Advisors as well as Co-Chairs of the Board (provided they continue to be elected by the stockholders as directors of the Company). These employment agreements reflect the gradual reduction of the Leenhoutses' obligations to act as Senior Advisors to the Company with the portion of their business time to be spent on those obligations reducing from a maximum of two-thirds in 2004, to one-half in 2005, to one-third in 2006. Their base salary is also proportionately reduced under the employment agreements from $225,000 in 2005 to $150,000 in 2006. They remain entitled to receive incentive compensation at their pre-retirement bonus level factor of 12% but since the Company's Incentive Bonus Plan provides that the bonus paid is calculated based on base salary, if the total bonus payout remained the same, the bonus to be paid to the Leenhoutses will be proportionately reduced as well.

Edgar Filing: HOME PROPERTIES INC - Form DEF 14A

Pursuant to their employment agreements, each of the Leenhoutses was granted 64,935 shares of restricted stock in October 2003 in consideration for both past and future services to the Company. The restrictions on those shares lapse in equal amounts over the five years following the execution of the employment agreements. The agreements also provide for minimum option and restricted stock grants to the Leenhoutses. The minimum amount of options to be granted to each of the Leenhoutses is 25,000 in 2005 and 16,665 in 2006. The minimum number of shares of restricted stock to be granted to each is 5,000 in 2005 and 3,333 in 2006. The Leenhoutses each were granted 5,000 shares of restricted stock in 2005. No determination has been made yet with respect to 2006 grants.

The employment agreements also provide that if employment is terminated by the Company without cause, or by the Leenhoutses for good reason at any time, each of the Leenhouts is entitled to receive an amount equal to twice his base salary and incentive compensation for the year preceding termination plus, in the year following termination, the amount of incentive compensation that he would have earned if he had been an employee on December 31 of the year of termination. In such event, the Leenhoutses would also receive the minimum number of restricted shares yet to be issued under the employment agreements as well as the value of the options not yet granted. In addition, all options previously granted to them would vest and the restrictions would lapse on all restricted stock held by them. Pursuant to their employment agreements, each of Norman and Nelson Leenhouts are subject to a covenant not to compete with the Company during the term of the agreements and, if either is terminated by the Company for cause or resigns without good reason, for two years thereafter.

In addition, Nelson Leenhouts recently entered into a Development Agreement with the Company whereby he agrees to perform certain additional functions related to the development activities of the Company. That agreement is described in more detail on page 27 of this Proxy Statement.

Incentive Compensation Plan

Under the Company's Incentive Compensation Plan as in effect for 2005 and 2006, eligible officers and key employees could earn a cash bonus based on two metrics: (1) year over year growth in the Company's FFO per share/unit (computed on a diluted basis); and (2) percentage of growth in the Company's same store net operating income ("NOI") from the prior year as compared to its peer group performance for the same period. Certain non-recurring items are removed from published FFO results for purposes of making the bonus calculation. In calculating the bonus units, the FFO component receives 75% weighting and the NOI component receives 25% weighting.

In the event the Company experiences financial performance in either of the metrics below the established floor or above the established ceiling, the Compensation Committee has complete discretion in determining bonus unit award levels that it will recommend for the Board's approval.

To calculate the actual bonus amount payable to each participant, the number of bonus units is multiplied by a factor that is assigned to each participant. That product is then multiplied by each participant's salary to calculate the bonus payable to them.

The entire amount of the bonus otherwise payable to the Chief Executive Officer is payable in the discretion of the Compensation Committee and 50% of the bonus otherwise payable to other participants is payable in the discretion of senior management.

Incentive Plan participants in the 1% and 2% bonus categories are limited to bonuses equal to 10% and 20%, respectively, of their salaries. There is no limit for participants in the 3% bonus category and above, except there is a deferral component if the number of bonus units awarded exceeds eight bonus units. For 2005, 5.425 bonus units were awarded. No changes to the Incentive Compensation Plan are anticipated in 2006.

Deferred Bonus Plan

Eligible employees can elect to defer up to 100% of their bonus under the Incentive Compensation Plan for three, five or ten years. The Company matches 10% of the amount deferred, which amount vests after three years. A "phantom" stock account is established for both amounts. Each deferral and Company contribution is reflected by crediting those accounts with the number of shares of the Company's Common Stock that could be purchased with the amounts deferred and contributed at the Common Stock's fair market value as of the day when the bonus would otherwise have been paid. The equivalent of dividends on those shares is also credited to the accounts at the time dividends are paid on the Company's Common Stock. Shares that could be purchased with the hypothetical dividends are credited to accounts at the same price that shares are purchased for participants under the dividend reinvestment feature of the Company's DRIP. Payments out of deferred accounts, upon vesting or otherwise, are made by issuance of Common Stock, except in the event of payment by reason of a change in control in which event payment may be made in cash or by issuance of Common Stock at the election of the Compensation Committee.

This plan was adopted in 1998 and has not been submitted to the stockholders for approval. It provides for the issuance of 100,000 shares. As of December 31, 2005, 72,320 shares have been issued or reserved for issuance under this plan.

Under the Deferred Bonus Plan, the Named Officers collectively deferred approximately $310,000 of their 2005 bonuses.

Executive Retention Plan

The Company's Executive Retention Plan provides for severance benefits and other compensation to be received by certain employees, including the executive officers, in the event of a change of control of the Company and a subsequent termination of their employment by the employer without cause or by the employee for good reason at any time following the change of control and, with respect to the executive officers, for any reason for a thirty day window following the one year anniversary of the change of control. Under this Plan, the executive officers, in the event of a termination covered by the Plan, would receive a lump sum payment equal to two times their current base salary, two times their last paid bonus under the Incentive Compensation Plan plus a "gross-up" amount necessary to pay any excise tax due on the payment. In addition, all accrued or deferred bonuses under the Incentive Compensation Plan would be paid, all stock options would vest and the restrictions on all restricted stock would lapse automatically.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation in Compensation Decisions

During the fiscal year 2005, the Compensation Committee was comprised of William Balderston, III, Roger Kober and Clifford W. Smith, Jr. None of the above individuals has ever been an officer of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee administers the Company's executive compensation program, as well as broad based compensation plans for the Company's other officers and employees. In this regard, the role of the Committee is to oversee all compensation plans and policies and to administer the Company's stock option plans (including reviewing and approving stock option grants and other awards to executive officers). On an ongoing basis, the Committee also reviews and approves the Company's goals and objectives relevant to compensation of the executive officers and considers the structure of the Company's compensation program as it applies to all employees. When appropriate, the Committee recommends to the full Board changes to the executive and the general compensation plans. In addition, on an annual basis, the Committee also makes specific annual compensation recommendations to the Board relating to the Company's Chief Executive Officer and generally approves the compensation for the other executive officers.

The Compensation Committee consists solely of independent directors. The Committee meets on at least a quarterly basis and more often as appropriate. The Committee Chair reports on Committee actions and recommendations at Board meetings. The Committee's Charter reflects the various responsibilities of the Committee and the Board periodically reviews and revises the Committee's Charter.

The Company's human resources team supports the Committee and its work and, in some cases, acts pursuant to delegated authority to fulfill various functions in administering the Company's compensation programs. In addition, the Committee has the authority to engage the services of outside advisors and experts to assist the Committee.

Compensation Philosophy. The Company's compensation philosophy is designed to support its primary goal of creating long-term value for its stockholders. The Committee continues to believe that the success of the Company in achieving that goal is, in large part, attributable to the performance and dedication of its employees and, in particular, to the leadership efforts of its executive officers. The Committee also continues to believe that it is important that the interests of its executives and other employees are aligned closely with the interests of the Company's stockholders.

Compensation Objectives. The Committee's objectives for the Company's compensation program continue to be to: (i) attract and retain highly capable employees by offering a competitive total compensation package; (ii) link compensation to the operating and financial performance of the Company; and (iii) provide appropriate incentives to motivate employees to maximize the long-term going-concern value of the Company.

Components of Compensation. The Company's executive compensation program consists of three components: base salary, annual incentive compensation in the form of a bonus under the Incentive Compensation Plan, and awards of restricted stock and stock options under the Company's stock benefit plans. It is the Committee's practice to provide a balanced mix of cash and equity based compensation that the Committee believes appropriate to align the short and long-term interests of the Company's executives with that of its stockholders and to encourage executives to act as equity owners of the Company. When the Committee considers any component of the Chief Executive Officer's and the other executive officers' compensation, the aggregate amounts and mix of all components, including salary, bonus, equity, the Company's 401-k match and accumulated option and restricted stock gains, are taken into consideration.

The Committee believes that appropriately balancing the total package and ensuring the viability of each component of the package is necessary in order to provide market-competitive compensation and benefits, and to ensure the health of the Company, which benefits employees and stockholders alike. It is the Committee's practice to make the most significant compensation decisions in a multi-step process over more than one meeting, so that Committee members have the ability to consider and discuss alternative courses of action, to ask for additional information as necessary and to raise and discuss further questions.

As part of its consideration as to the appropriateness of the executive officers' compensation, the Committee reviews market data for executives in the property sector classification of real estate companies and for executives in comparably sized companies in the services industry. The primary benchmark used by the Committee for the Chief Executive Officer's compensation is, however, its thirteen member peer group in the apartment REIT industry. This is the same peer group that is used to calculate the bonus payable pursuant to the Company's Incentive Compensation Plan. Compensation data from the peer group is taken from their most recently available proxy statements. These proxy statements typically contain compensation information that is over one year old. The Committee takes the age of this information into consideration when setting compensation levels. This benchmarking is done with respect to the key elements of the executive compensation program, as well as the compensation of individual executives where job descriptions are sufficiently similar. The Committee does not aim to achieve compensation levels within a particular range related to levels provided by industry peers, but uses these comparisons as one factor in determining the expected total value of salary, short-term incentives and long-term incentives that fairly compensate executive officers when considered in combination.

Base Salary. In general, base pay for each employee, including executive officers, is established based on the individual's job responsibilities, performance and experience, the Company's overall budget for merit increases and the competitive environment. On an annual basis, the Committee reviews and approves adjustments for the executive officers based on the recommendations of the Chief Executive Officer. With respect to Chief Executive Officer adjustments, the Committee takes a vote at an executive session and a recommendation is made to the full Board for approval.

The Committee's philosophy with respect to setting base salary is generally to compensate executive officers with reasonable current income on a competitive basis. In both 2005 and 2006, the Committee reviewed peer market data for the Chief Executive Officer and the other executive officers. Based on that peer review and the performance of the Company, the Committee increased Mr. Pettinella's salary by 5.3% and 5.0% in 2005 and 2006, respectively. The other executive officers received increases averaging 7.4% and 6.7%, respectively.

Incentive Compensation. The Incentive Compensation Plan is designed to motivate employees to maximize the Company's annual operating and financial performance. The Committee reviews the Plan on an annual basis to determine whether it continues to provide the appropriate level and type of motivation. Specifically, the Committee considers the weighting of the two metrics used in the formula - FFO and same store NOI. The plan continues to place emphasis on FFO (75%) because the Committee believes FFO to be the metric that best captures the performance of the Company. Same store NOI (25%) continues as the other metric because it is considered by the Committee to be an important driver of real estate property values and thus stockholder value.

Edgar Filing: HOME PROPERTIES INC - Form DEF 14A

It is the Committee's philosophy that the proportion of an individual's total compensation that varies with individual and Company performance should increase as the individual's business responsibilities increase. While most participants in the Incentive Compensation Plan have factors of 3% or less assigned to them, Mr. Pettinella's bonus factor for 2005 was 13% and remains 13% for 2006. The bonus factor for the other executive officers ranged from 5% to 8% in 2005 and has been increased to a range of 6% to 9% for 2006.

The Committee also determines and recommends to the Board what portion of the bonus otherwise earned should be paid to the Chief Executive Officer. In making its determination as to what portion of the 2005 bonus (payable in 2006) should be paid to Mr. Pettinella, the Committee considered a variety of factors including leadership and managerial ability, focus, business knowledge, execution of the Company's business plan and overall business strategy, adherence to the Company's values as well as a performance appraisal completed by directors and each executive officer. In addition, the Committee considered progress on several initiatives led by Mr. Pettinella. The Committee recommended and the Board approved payment to Mr. Pettinella of 100% of his 2005 bonus. The Chief Executive Officer, with input from other members of senior management, determines what portion of their bonus should be paid to the other executive officers (50% is discretionary). Consideration is given to the achievement of individual initiatives as well as to the overall performance of the Company. Each of the executive officers received 100% of their 2005 bonus.

Stock Compensation. The purpose of equity compensation grants is to provide employees an incentive to maximize their efforts to promote the Company's long-term going concern value and thereby advance the interests of the Company's stockholders. To encourage employees to seek long-term appreciation in the value of the Company's common stock, stock options granted to employees have not been immediately exercisable, but vest over five years. In addition, with respect to options issued in 2002 and later, executive officers of the Company may not receive cash upon an option exercise and must retain for a period of not less than one year ownership of no less than the same number of shares as the officer received in an option exercise.

Executive officers receive a relatively large portion of their overall targeted compensation in the form of equity in order to align interests of management and stockholders and promote a focus on long-term results. In 2005, the Compensation Committee reviewed the stock compensation of the Chief Executive Officer and the other executive officers in light of the other elements of their compensation, their overall equity interest in the Company's business and the comparison to the peer group.

As a result, in February 2005, the Committee recommended and the Board of Directors approved the issuance of 39,000 shares of restricted stock to executive officers. This number does not include the shares of restricted stock that the Company was contractually obligated to issue to Nelson and Norman Leenhouts pursuant to their employment agreements. Mr. Pettinella received 10,000 shares of restricted stock and the other executive officers received various numbers of shares of restricted stock ranging from 1,200 to 5,500 shares.

In addition, in May 2005, the Compensation Committee recommended and the Board of Directors approved the issuance of up to 448,600 additional options to purchase Common Stock to certain officers and employees of the Company at an option price equal to the closing price on the NYSE for a share of the Company's Common Stock on the date of the grant. Edward Pettinella received 65,000 additional options. The other executive officers received options granted ranging from 15,000 to 25,000 shares. These options vest 20% per year and expire in ten years.

While the Committee has traditionally made its recommendation with regard to restricted stock grants in February of each year and with regard to option grants in August of each year, for 2006 and beyond the Committee expects to make its recommendation with respect to both restricted stock and option grants at the May Board meetings. This will enable the Committee to review more recent peer group data for this component of compensation because the peer group proxy statements for the current year will be available. It will also enable the Committee to consider both of these components of equity compensation at the same time.

Perquisites. The Committee has adopted and the Board has approved a policy of providing only modest perquisites to its executives. For example, the Company does not provide for the payment or reimbursement for Company vehicles or aircraft, country club memberships, tax preparation or financial counseling services or similar benefits frequently provided by other companies.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation. The Committee considers and develops recommendations to the full Board on matters pertaining to the compensation of Edward J. Pettinella substantially in conformity with the policies described above for all other executive officers of the Company. In addition, in 2006, the Committee reviewed a compensation tally sheet detailing Mr. Pettinella's total compensation (salary, bonus, equity and the Company's 401-k match) for 2004 and 2005, an overview of his equity ownership and an overview of compensation that would be due to him under various termination scenarios. The Committee also considered internal pay equity analyses that compared Mr. Pettinella's total compensation to the total compensation paid to the members of the senior management team as well as to the average total compensation paid to employees in the Company's first level management position within property management. For 2005 and 2006, the Board also considered a written evaluation of Mr. Pettinella's performance completed by each member of the Board of Directors, as well as each of the other executive officers. The Board meets in executive session to approve compensation levels for the Chief Executive Officer.

Section 162(m). As a real estate investment trust, the Company does not pay tax at the corporate level and thus the limit on deductibility under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code and related regulations does not impact the Company. Nevertheless, it is the Committee's present intention to use the requirements of Section 162(m) as a guide in its compensation related decisions, except where the best interests of the Company and its stockholders dictate otherwise.

Summary. The Committee's review of the Company's executive compensation programs and practices includes an analysis of all elements of compensation, consisting of base salary, incentive compensation, equity grants, retirement programs, and health and welfare benefits. As a result of this review, tnd 2006 executive compensation that it believes are appropriate and reasonable.he Committee made determinations with respect to 2005 and 2006 executive compensation that it believes are appropriate and reasonable.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company is composed entirely of independent directors as required by applicable securities laws and the current listing standards of the NYSE. Its members are identified at the end of this report. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Committee and the Board. A copy of the Third Amended and Restated Audit Committee Charter is attached as Exhibit A to this Proxy Statement and is available on the Company's website at www.homeproperties.com under the heading "Investment Information/Corporate Governance/Highlights."

As described more fully in its Charter, the Audit Committee assists the Board in fulfilling its responsibility for oversight of the quality and integrity of the accounting, auditing and financial reporting practices of the Company. Among other matters, the Audit Committee is responsible for the selection and oversight of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.

The management of the Company is responsible for the preparation and integrity of the financial reporting information and related systems of internal controls. The independent registered public accounting firm is responsible for performing an integrated audit on the Company's consolidated financial statements as well as on Management's Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and for issuing a report thereon. The Committee, in carrying out its role, relies on the Company's senior management and its independent public accountants.

During 2005, the Committee met seven times. The Committee's meetings include, no less frequently than quarterly, executive sessions with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm without the presence of the Company's management and executive sessions with the Company's management without the presence of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. The Committee also meets with the Company's Vice President, Internal Audit without the presence of the Company's management.

As part of its oversight responsibility, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed with both management and the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, all annual and quarterly financial statements prior to their issuance. Management advised the Committee that each set of the Company's financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and reviewed significant accounting and disclosure issues with the Committee. In addition, the Committee continued to monitor the scope and adequacy of the Company's internal audit program.

The Committee also discussed with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication With Audit Committees). In addition, the Company's independent registered public accounting firm provided to the Committee the written disclosures and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussion With Audit Committees). The Committee discussed with the independent registered public accounting firm their independence from management and the Company.

All audit and non-audit services provided by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP and the fees paid by the Company with respect to such services have been reviewed and pre-approved by the Audit Committee, which has also considered whether the provision of any non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the independent registered public accounting firm's independence.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors, and the Board has approved, that the Company's audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires the Company's executive officers and directors, and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC and the NYSE. Officers, directors and greater than 10% stockholders are required to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

To the Company's knowledge, based solely on review of the copies of such reports furnished to the Company and written representations that no other reports were required during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its executive officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners were satisfied.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

The Company's corporate headquarters are located in a building that is owned by an entity in which Norman and Nelson Leenhouts indirectly have a 75% interest. The Operating Partnership and the building owner have entered into various leases for approximately 75,000 square feet. The base rent payable by the Operating Partnership under the leases for 2005 was approximately $884,000, which increased to approximately $895,000 for 2006. The lease also requires the Operating Partnership to pay its pro-rata portion of property improvements, real estate taxes and common area maintenance.

On a month-to-month basis, the Operating Partnership subleases 3,379 square feet of its corporate headquarters to Home Leasing, LLC a company currently owned by Nelson Leenhouts. For 2006, the gross monthly rental payment is $6,163.86.

Josh E. Fidler is a principal in a diversified real estate development business known as The Macks Group. In 1999, the Company acquired 3,297 apartment units from affiliates of The Macks Group. In connection with that transaction, Mr. Fidler and members of his family acquired approximately 800,000 Units in the Operating Partnership. In addition, in 2004, the Company acquired a 240 unit apartment community for $29,496,000 in cash from an entity owned by Mr. Fidler and members of his family. Certain rights under the acquisition agreements continue to survive as described on page 5 of this Proxy Statement.

In March, 2005, the Company, the Operating Partnership and Home Leasing entered into a settlement agreement with Genesee Valley Medical Center, L.P. and certain of its limited partners ("GVMC"), which had commenced a legal action in 2000 against the Company, the Operating Partnership and Home Leasing. The law suit related to the exclusion of a commercial property from the Company's initial public offering in 1994. Pursuant to the settlement agreement, GVMC was paid $3.5 million. The Board of Directors of the Company authorized the Company to pay the full settlement and to reimburse Home Leasing for approximately $200,000 of legal fees that it incurred in defending this action. This was in recognition of the fact that the matters alleged in the law suit against Home Leasing related directly and solely to the promotion and creation of the Company.

In March, 2006, Nelson Leenhouts entered into a Development Agreement with the Company, which is retroactive to January 1, 2006 and terminates on December 31, 2006. This is in addition to his Employment Agreement described on page 15 of this Proxy Statement. Pursuant to the Development Agreement, Nelson Leenhouts agrees to assume a leadership role in connection with the development activities of the Company as more specifically outlined in a development plan approved by the Board of Directors of the Company. In consideration for his services, Mr. Leenhouts is to be paid a base annual amount of $250,000 in monthly installments. In addition, he is entitled to earn a bonus of up to $150,000 upon the achievement of certain specified objectives.
