Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 2, 2016, Prudential Bancorp, Inc., a Pennsylvania corporation (the “Company”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with Polonia Bancorp, Inc., a Maryland corporation (“Polonia”). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Polonia will merge with and into the Company (the “Merger”) and Polonia’s wholly owned subsidiary, Polonia Bank, a federally chartered savings bank, will merge with and into Prudential Savings Bank, a Pennsylvania-chartered savings bank and the wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. The transaction provides for total consideration valued at approximately $38.1 million, including the cash payments to be made upon cancellation of outstanding stock options.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger, each outstanding share of Polonia common stock will be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the Polonia shareholder (subject to certain conditions, including conditions relating to pro-ration): (i) 0.7591 of a share of Company common stock (the “Exchange Ratio”) or (ii) $11.28 in cash (the “Per Share Cash Consideration” and collectively with the Exchange Ratio, the “Merger Consideration”). The election of shares of Company stock or cash will be subject to pro-ration such that 50% of the issued and outstanding shares of Polonia common stock will be exchanged for Company common stock and 50% will be exchanged for cash. Options to purchase Polonia common stock outstanding at the effective time of the Merger will fully vest and be exchanged for a cash payment equal to the difference, if positive, between the Per Share Cash Consideration under the Merger Agreement and the corresponding exercise price of such option.

The Merger Consideration is subject to adjustment in certain limited situations. In the event that Polonia Consolidated Stockholders’ Equity, as calculated in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, is less than $37.4 million as of the Final Statement Date, as defined in the Merger Agreement, then the Exchange Ratio and the Per Share Cash Consideration will be adjusted downward to reflect the amount of the difference between $37.4 million and the Polonia Consolidated Stockholders’ Equity. The Merger Consideration is subject to potential upward adjustment to reflect the after-tax impact of certain recoveries experienced by Polonia, if any, achieved prior to the Final Statement Date as specified in the Merger Agreement. In such situation, the Exchange Ratio and the Per Share Cash Consideration, as they may have been adjusted downward as noted above, will be correspondingly adjusted to reflect the amount of such after-tax recoveries.

The Merger has been approved by the board of directors of each of the Company and Polonia.

The Merger Agreement includes customary representations, warranties and covenants of the parties. The covenants of Polonia include, among other things, (i) to conduct its business in the ordinary course until the Merger is completed, (ii) to hold a shareholders’ meeting for the purpose of voting on the approval of the Merger Agreement,

(iii) subject to its fiduciary duties, to recommend to its shareholders the approval of the Merger Agreement, (iv) not to solicit proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions and (v) subject to certain exceptions, not to enter into discussions concerning, or provide confidential information in connection with, any proposals for alternative business combination transactions. The covenants of the Company include, among other things, to use reasonable efforts to preserve intact its business organization and assets and maintain its rights and franchises.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to customary closing conditions, including, without limitation, (i) the approval of the Polonia shareholders by the requisite shareholder vote, (ii) the making of certain governmental filings, receipt of regulatory approvals and the expiration of any applicable waiting periods, (iii) the accuracy of specified representations and warranties, (iv) the effectiveness of the Form S-4 Registration Statement to be filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), (v) the absence of a material adverse effect and (vi) the receipt of favorable tax opinions that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Additionally, consummation of the Merger is conditioned upon holders of no more than fifteen percent (15%) of the issued and outstanding shares of Polonia having exercised their statutory appraisal or dissenters' rights.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both the Company and Polonia, including, without limitation, (i) if the Merger has not been completed by February 28, 2017 and (ii) if Polonia's shareholders fail to approve the transaction by the requisite vote. In addition, Polonia may terminate the Merger Agreement if (x) the average closing price of the Company's common stock during a specified period prior to closing is less than the product of 0.800 and $14.86 and (y) the Company's common stock underperforms the NASDAQ Bank Index by more than 20%, unless the Company elects to make a compensating adjustment to the Exchange Ratio. The Merger Agreement further provides that Polonia will be required to pay the Company a termination fee of $1,515,000 if the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain specified circumstances.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement and the Merger is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement filed herewith as Exhibit 2.1 and incorporated herein by reference. The representations, warranties and covenants of the Company and Polonia in the Merger Agreement were made or given by the parties only for purposes of the Merger Agreement and as of specific dates. The representations, warranties and covenants were and are solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement, may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by the parties, including qualifications and limitations agreed to for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement rather than establishing matters as facts. Moreover, some of those representations and warranties may not be accurate or complete as of any specified date and may be subject to contractual standards of materiality different from those generally applicable to investors. Information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, and any such subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the parties' public disclosures. Accordingly, the Merger Agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding the Company or Polonia, their respective affiliates or their respective businesses. The Merger Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding the Company or Polonia, their respective affiliates or their respective businesses that will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the Registration Statement on Form S-4 that will include a proxy statement of Polonia and a prospectus of the Company, as well as in the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q and other filings that the Company makes with the SEC.

In connection with the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement, the directors and certain executive officers of Polonia have entered into voting agreements (each, a "Voting Agreement") pursuant to which those persons have agreed to vote their shares of Polonia common stock in favor of approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, subject to the terms and conditions of the Voting Agreement. Under the terms of the Voting Agreements, the directors and certain executive officers have also agreed, with certain exceptions, not to transfer any their shares of common stock of Polonia. The form of Voting Agreement is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 8.01 Other Events.
