ABOUT THIS PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT

This document is in two parts. The first part is this prospectus supplement, which describes our common shares which may be issued upon conversion of the convertible debentures and the specific terms of the market-making transactions in the convertible debentures. This prospectus supplement also adds to or updates information contained in the accompanying prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference therein. The second part is the accompanying prospectus, which gives more general information, some of which does not apply to our common shares. If the information in this prospectus supplement differs from the information in the accompanying prospectus, you should rely on the information in this prospectus supplement.

You should rely only on the information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus. We have not authorized anyone to provide you with additional or different information. If anyone provides you with additional, different or inconsistent information, you should not rely on it. You should not assume that the information contained in this prospectus supplement or the accompanying prospectus is accurate as of any date other than the dates indicated in these documents or that any information we have incorporated by reference is accurate as of any date other than the date of the incorporated document. Our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may have changed since those dates.

Statements contained or deemed to be incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement or any accompanying prospectus as to the contents of any contract or other document are not necessarily complete, and in each instance we refer you to the copy of the contract or other document filed as an exhibit to a document incorporated or deemed to be incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement or the accompanying prospectus, each such statement being qualified in all respects by such reference.

This prospectus supplement only relates to the Leucadia common shares which may be issued upon conversion of the convertible debentures and not the convertible debentures. We are not making an offer to sell or soliciting an offer to buy these securities in any jurisdiction where it is unlawful.

Unless the context otherwise requires, references in this prospectus supplement to the following terms will have the meanings below:

- “convertible debentures” refers to Jefferies’ 3.875% Convertible Senior Debentures due 2029;
- “Jefferies” refers to Jefferies Group LLC, a Delaware limited liability company;
- “Leucadia,” “we,” “us” and “our” refer to Leucadia National Corporation, a New York corporation; and
- “Leucadia common shares” and “our common shares” refer to Leucadia’s common shares, par value $1.00 per share.

RISK FACTORS

Please carefully consider the risk factors described in our periodic reports filed with the SEC, which are incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus. Before making an investment decision, you should also carefully consider the following risk factors as well as other information we include or incorporate by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus.

Upon conversion of the convertible debentures, a converting holder may receive less valuable consideration than expected because the value of the Leucadia common shares may decline after exercise of such holder's conversion right.

Jefferies may elect to settle a holder's conversion solely in Leucadia common shares or a combination of cash and Leucadia common shares. Except to the extent of the cash portion to be paid if Jefferies elects to settle in a combination of cash and Leucadia common shares, a converting holder will be exposed to fluctuations in the value of Leucadia common shares during the period from the date such holder surrenders convertible debentures for conversion until the date Jefferies settles its conversion obligation. The amount of consideration that such holder will receive upon conversion of convertible debentures, if Jefferies elects to settle in a combination of cash and Leucadia common shares, will in part be determined by reference to the volume weighted average prices of Leucadia common shares for each trading day in a 20 trading-day observation period. Accordingly, if the price of Leucadia common shares decreases during this period, the amount and/or value of consideration such holder receives will be adversely affected. In addition, if the market price of Leucadia common shares at the end of such period is below the average of the volume weighted average price of Leucadia common shares during such period, the value of any shares of Leucadia common shares that such holder will receive in satisfaction of Jefferies' conversion obligation will be less than the value used to determine the number of shares such holder will receive.

There may be future sales or other dilution of our equity, which may adversely affect the market price of Leucadia common shares and the value of the convertible debentures.

We are not restricted from issuing additional Leucadia common shares, including securities that are convertible into or exchangeable for, or that represent the right to receive, Leucadia common shares. The issuance of additional Leucadia common shares may dilute the ownership interest of our common shareholders adversely and affect the value of the convertible debentures. Sales of a substantial number of shares of Leucadia common shares or other equity-related securities in the public market could depress the market price of the convertible debentures, Leucadia common shares, or both, and impair our ability to raise capital through the sale of additional equity securities. We cannot predict the effect that future sales of Leucadia common shares or other equity-related securities would have on the market price of Leucadia common shares or the value of the convertible debentures.

USE OF PROCEEDS

This prospectus supplement relates to Leucadia common shares issuable upon conversion of the convertible debentures. There will be no cash proceeds to Leucadia from such conversions.

We do not expect to receive any proceeds from market-making transactions. We do not expect that any affiliate of ours that engages in these market-making transactions will pay any proceeds from its market-making resales to us.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Reference is made to the “Plan of Distribution” in the accompanying prospectus. In addition, we provide the following supplemental information.

Upon Conversion of the Convertible Debentures

The Leucadia common shares covered by this prospectus supplement will be issued from time to time by Leucadia upon conversion of the convertible debentures to the holders thereof.

Market-Making Resales by Affiliates

Jefferies LLC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Jefferies, may make offers and sales of the convertible debentures in market-making transactions (and offers and sales of underlying Leucadia common shares incidental to such market-making activity). In a market-making transaction, Jefferies LLC may resell a security it acquires from other holders, after the original offering and sale of the security. Resales of this kind may occur in the open market or may be privately negotiated at prevailing market prices at the time of resale or at related prices or negotiated prices. In these transactions, Jefferies LLC may act as principal or agent, including as agent for the counterparty in a transaction in which it acts as principal, or as agent for both counterparties in a transaction in which it does not act as principal. Jefferies LLC may receive compensation in the form of discounts and commissions, including from both counterparties in some cases. Other of our affiliates may also engage in transactions of this kind and may use this prospectus for this purpose.

We do not expect to receive any proceeds from market-making transactions. We do not expect that Jefferies LLC or any other affiliate that engages in these transactions will pay any proceeds from its market-making resales to us.

Information about the trade and settlement dates, as well as the purchase price, for a market-making transaction will be provided to the purchaser in a separate confirmation of sale.

Unless you are advised otherwise, you may assume that you are purchasing your security in a market-making transaction.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC is the transfer agent and registrar for Leucadia common shares.

Transfer Restrictions

General. In order to protect our significant NOLs and other tax attributes, our common shares are subject to certain transfer restrictions contained in Leucadia's certificate of incorporation. The transfer restrictions generally impose restrictions on the transfer of our common shares to designated persons and the issuance of our common shares to certain target shareholders in connection with acquisition transactions.

Tax Law Limitations. The benefit of a company's existing tax loss and credit carryovers, as well as the benefit of built-in losses, can be reduced or eliminated under Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code). Section 382 limits the use of losses and other tax benefits by a company that has undergone an ownership change, as defined in Section 382 of the Code. Generally, an ownership change occurs if one or more shareholders, each of whom owns 5% or more in value of a company's capital stock, increase their aggregate percentage ownership by more than 50 percentage points over the lowest percentage of stock owned by such shareholders over the preceding three-year period. For this purpose, all holders who each own less than 5% of a company's capital stock are generally treated together as one 5% shareholder. In addition, certain attribution rules, which generally attribute ownership of stock to the ultimate beneficial owner thereof without regard to ownership by nominees, trusts, corporations, partnerships or other entities and also attribute ownership between and among certain family members, are applied in determining the level of stock ownership of a particular shareholder. Options (including warrants and other rights) to acquire capital stock may be treated as if they had been exercised, on an option-by-option basis, if the issuance, transfer or structuring of the option meets certain tests. All percentage determinations are based on the fair market value of a company's capital stock, including any preferred shares that are voting or convertible (or that otherwise participate in corporate growth).

If an ownership change were to occur in respect of the company or any of its subsidiaries or subsidiary groups, the amount of taxable income in any year (or portion of a year) subsequent to the ownership change that could be offset by NOLs or other tax attributes existing (or built-in) prior to such ownership change could not exceed an amount equal to the product obtained by multiplying (1) the aggregate value of the company, the subsidiary or the subsidiary group that underwent the ownership change by (2) the federal long-term tax exempt rate. Because the aggregate value of the company or any of its subsidiaries, as well as the federal long-term tax-exempt rate, fluctuate, it is impossible to predict with any accuracy the annual limitation upon the amount of taxable income that could be offset by such NOLs or other tax attributes (and built-in losses) were an ownership change to occur in the future. However, if such limitation were to exceed the taxable income against which it otherwise would be applied for any year following an ownership change, the limitation for the ensuing year would be increased by the amount of such excess.

Description of Transfer Restrictions. Leucadia's certificate of incorporation generally restricts until December 31, 2024 (or earlier, in certain events) any (1) attempted transfer of our common shares or any other securities that would be treated as our stock under the applicable tax regulations (referred to as Leucadia Shares) or (2) issuance of Leucadia Shares by us to a target shareholder in connection with an acquisition transaction (referred to as an acquisition issuance) if any person or group of persons would become a 5% shareholder under the tax regulations or would be treated as owning 5% or more of our common shares as a result of such transfer or issuance. The transfer restrictions also restrict any attempted transfer or acquisition issuance of Leucadia Shares if such attempted transfer or acquisition issuance would increase the ownership percentage, as determined under applicable tax regulations, of any person or group of persons who is a 5% shareholder or is otherwise treated as owning 5% or more of our common shares. This would include, among other things, an attempted acquisition of Leucadia Shares from an existing 5% shareholder. For these purposes, numerous rules of attribution, aggregation and calculation prescribed under the Code will be applied in determining whether the 5% thresholds have been met and whether a group exists. The transfer restrictions may also apply to proscribe the creation or transfer of certain options, which are broadly defined, in respect of the Leucadia Shares.

The transfer restrictions will restrict a shareholder's ability to acquire additional Leucadia Shares in excess of the specified limitations. Furthermore, in the case of certain large shareholders, the ability to dispose of Leucadia Shares currently held, or any other Leucadia Shares which the shareholder may acquire, may be restricted as a result of the transfer restrictions.

Generally, the restriction is imposed only with respect to the number of Leucadia Shares, or options with respect to Leucadia Shares (referred to as Excess Shares), purportedly transferred or otherwise deliverable in an acquisition issuance in excess of the thresholds established in the transfer restrictions. In any event, the restriction does not prevent a valid transfer if either the transferor or the purported transferee, in the case of a transfer, or the company or the applicable target shareholder, in the case of an acquisition issuance, obtains the approval of Leucadia's board of directors.

Except for acquisition issuances, acquisitions of Leucadia Shares directly from us, whether by way of option exercise or otherwise, are not subject to the transfer restrictions. Consequently, persons or entities that are able to acquire Leucadia Shares directly from us, other than in an acquisition issuance, including our employees, officers and directors, may do so without application of the transfer restrictions, irrespective of the number of Leucadia Shares they are acquiring. As a result, those persons or entities dealing directly with us may be seen to receive an advantage over persons or entities that are not able to acquire Leucadia Shares directly from us and, therefore, are restricted by the terms of the transfer restrictions. It should be noted, however, that any direct acquisitions of Leucadia Shares from us first requires board approval and, in granting such approval, the board will review the implications of any such issuance for our NOLs and other tax attributes.

Leucadia's board of directors has the discretion to approve a transfer or acquisition issuance of Leucadia Shares that would otherwise violate the transfer restrictions. Nonetheless, if the board of directors decides to permit a transfer or acquisition issuance that would otherwise violate the transfer restrictions, that transfer or acquisition issuance could, under the tax rules, be aggregated with other transfers or acquisition issuances and could result in an ownership change that would limit the use of our tax attributes. The board of directors intends to consider any attempted transfer or acquisition issuance individually and determine at the time whether it is in the best interest of our company, after consideration of any factors that the board deems relevant, to permit the transfer or acquisition issuance notwithstanding that an ownership change may occur.

Leucadia's certificate of incorporation further provides that all certificates representing Leucadia Shares bear the following legend:

THE TRANSFER OF THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED HEREBY IS SUBJECT TO RESTRICTIONS PURSUANT TO PART III OF ARTICLE FOURTH OF THE CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION OF LEUCADIA NATIONAL CORPORATION REPRINTED IN ITS ENTIRETY ON THE BACK OF THIS CERTIFICATE.

In accordance with the transfer restrictions, we will not permit any of our employees or agents, including the transfer agent, to record any transfer or acquisition issuance of Excess Shares. As a result, requested transfers of Leucadia Shares may be delayed or refused.

Leucadia's certificate of incorporation provides that any transfer or acquisition issuance attempted in violation of the restrictions shall be void ab initio, even if the transfer or acquisition issuance has been recorded by the transfer agent and new certificates issued. The purported transferee or purported holder of the Leucadia Shares is not entitled to any rights of a shareholder with respect to the Excess Shares, including the right to vote the Excess Shares, or to receive dividends or distributions in liquidation in respect thereof, if any.

If an acquisition issuance would result in the delivery of Excess Shares to a target shareholder, the company is required to deliver the Excess Shares to an agent designated by Leucadia's board of directors instead of the target shareholder who would otherwise receive the Excess Shares in connection with the acquisition issuance. Similarly, if Leucadia's board of directors determines that a purported transfer or acquisition issuance has violated the transfer restrictions, we will require the purported transferee or purported holder to surrender the Excess Shares, and any dividends the purported transferee or purported holder has received on the Excess Shares, to an agent designated by Leucadia's board of directors. In each case, the agent will then sell the Excess Shares in one or more arm's-length transactions, executed on the NYSE, if possible, to a buyer or buyers, which may include us; provided that nothing will require the agent to sell the Excess Shares within any specific time frame if, in the agent's discretion, the sale would disrupt the market for the Leucadia Shares or have an adverse effect on the value of the Leucadia Shares. If the purported transferee or purported holder has sold the Excess Shares before receiving our demand to surrender the Excess Shares, the purported transferee or purported holder generally will be required to transfer to the agent the proceeds of the sale and any distributions the purported transferee or purported holder has received on the Excess Shares. From any net sales proceeds or amounts received from a purported transferee or purported holder, which in certain circumstances may be reduced by the agent's expenses, the agent will reimburse the purported transferee or purported holder for the price paid for the Excess Shares or the fair market value of the Excess Shares as of the close of the day prior to the acquisition issuance or the attempted transfer to the purported transferee by gift, inheritance or similar transfer. Any remaining proceeds will then be paid to one or more charities selected by Leucadia's board of directors.

The transfer restrictions and related provisions contained in Leucadia's amended and restated bylaws may be deemed to have an anti-takeover effect because they restrict the ability of a person or entity, or group of persons or entities, to accumulate in the aggregate 5% or more of the total value of the Leucadia Shares or 5% or more of our common shares and the ability of persons, entities or groups whose ownership of Leucadia Shares meets either of these thresholds to acquire additional Leucadia Shares. The transfer restrictions discourage or prohibit accumulations of substantial blocks of shares for which shareholders might receive a premium above market value.

Notwithstanding the restrictions, however, there remains a risk that certain changes in relationships among shareholders or other events will cause a change of ownership to occur under Section 382 of the Code. Further, there can be no assurance, in the event transfers or acquisition issuances in violation of the transfer restrictions are attempted, that the Internal Revenue Service will not assert that those transfers or acquisition issuances have federal income tax significance notwithstanding the transfer restrictions. As a result, the transfer restrictions serve to reduce, but not necessarily eliminate, the risk that Section 382 of the Code will cause the limitations described above on the use of our tax attributes.

We have been advised by our counsel that absent a court determination, (1) there can be no assurance that the transfer restriction will be enforceable against all of our shareholders and (2) the transfer restriction may be subject to challenge on equitable grounds.

However, it should be noted that we have had transfer restrictions of this nature in place since 1992 and they have not been challenged to date.

The determination of 5% shareholder status is based upon a holder's percentage ownership, taking into account certain rules of attribution, of the total value of the aggregate outstanding Leucadia Shares or our common shares. Future changes in the capitalization of Leucadia may affect who will be deemed a 5% shareholder, thereby affecting the applicability of the transfer restrictions to future transfers or acquisition issuances of Leucadia Shares.

Holders are advised to carefully monitor their ownership of our common shares (and any securities of Leucadia that may constitute Leucadia Shares for purposes of the transfer restrictions) and should consult their own legal advisors and/or Leucadia to determine whether their ownership approaches the prohibited level.

DESCRIPTION OF OTHER SECURITIES

We will set forth in the applicable prospectus supplement a description of any debt securities, warrants, purchase contracts or units that may be offered pursuant to this prospectus.

If you purchase any of the securities described in this prospectus, any prospectus supplement or any free writing prospectus in a market-making transaction, you will receive information about the price you pay and your trade and settlement dates in a separate confirmation of sale. A market-making transaction is one in which Jefferies LLC or one of our other affiliates resells a security that it has previously acquired from another holder. A market-making transaction in a particular security occurs after the original issuance and sale of the security.

SELLING SECURITYHOLDERS

Information about selling securityholders, where applicable, will be set forth in a prospectus supplement, in a post-effective amendment to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part, or in filings we make with the SEC under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The securities being offered by this prospectus may be sold by us or by a selling securityholder:

through
agents;

to or through underwriters;

through
broker-dealers (acting as agent or principal);

directly by us
or a selling securityholder
to purchasers, through a specific bidding or auction process or otherwise;

through a combination of any such methods of sale; or through any other methods described in a

supplement.

The distribution of securities may be effected from time to time in one or more transactions, including block transactions and transactions on the New York Stock Exchange or any other organized market where the securities may be traded. The securities may be sold at a fixed price or prices, which may be changed, or at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices relating to the prevailing market prices or at negotiated prices. The consideration may be cash or another form negotiated by the parties. Agents, underwriters or broker-dealers may be paid compensation for offering and selling the securities. That compensation may be in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions to be received from us or from the purchasers of the securities. Dealers and agents participating in the distribution of the securities may be deemed to be underwriters, and compensation received by them on resale of the securities may be deemed to be underwriting discounts. If such dealers or agents were deemed to be underwriters, they may be subject to statutory liabilities under the Securities Act.

Agents may from time to time solicit offers to purchase the securities. If required, we will name in the applicable prospectus supplement any agent involved in the offer or sale of the securities. Unless otherwise indicated in the prospectus supplement, any agent will be acting on a best efforts basis for the period of its appointment. Any agent selling the securities covered by this prospectus may be deemed to be an underwriter, as that term is defined in the Securities Act, of the securities.

If underwriters are used in a sale, securities will be acquired by the underwriters for their own account and may be resold from time to time in one or more transactions, including negotiated transactions, at a fixed public offering price or at varying prices determined at the time of sale, or under delayed delivery contracts or other contractual commitments. Securities may be offered to the public either through underwriting syndicates represented by one or more managing underwriters or directly by one or more firms acting as underwriters. If an underwriter or underwriters are used in the sale of securities, an underwriting agreement will be executed with the underwriter or underwriters at the time an agreement for the sale is reached. The applicable prospectus supplement will set forth the managing underwriter or underwriters, as well as any other underwriter or underwriters, with respect to a particular underwritten offering of securities, and will set forth the terms of the transactions, including compensation of the underwriters and dealers and the public offering price, if applicable. The prospectus and the applicable prospectus supplement will be used by the underwriters to resell the securities.

If a dealer is used in the sale of the securities, we, a selling securityholder, or an underwriter will sell the securities to the dealer, as principal. The dealer may then resell the securities to the public at varying prices to be determined by the dealer at the time of resale. To the extent required, we will set forth in the prospectus supplement the name of the dealer and the terms of the transactions.

We or a selling securityholder may directly solicit offers to purchase the securities and we or a selling securityholder may make sales of securities directly to institutional investors or others. These persons may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act with respect to any resale of the securities. To the extent required, the prospectus supplement will describe the terms of any such sales, including the terms of any bidding or auction process, if used.

Agents, underwriters and dealers may be entitled under agreements which may be entered into with us to indemnification by us against specified liabilities, including liabilities incurred under the Securities Act, or to contribution by us to payments they may be required to make in respect of such liabilities. If required, the prospectus supplement will describe the terms and conditions of such indemnification or contribution. Some of the agents, underwriters or dealers, or their affiliates may be customers of, engage in transactions with or perform services for us or our subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business.

Under the securities laws of some states, the securities offered by this prospectus may be sold in those states only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers.

Any person participating in the distribution of common stock registered under the registration statement that includes this prospectus will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act, and the applicable SEC rules and regulations, including, among others, Regulation M, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of any of our common stock by any such person. Furthermore, Regulation M may restrict the ability of any person engaged in the distribution of our common stock to engage in market-making activities with respect to our common stock. These restrictions may affect the marketability of our common stock and the ability of any person or entity to engage in market-making activities with respect to our common stock.

Certain persons participating in an offering may engage in over-allotment, stabilizing transactions, short-covering transactions and penalty bids in accordance with Regulation M under the Exchange Act that stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the price of the offered securities. If any such activities will occur, they will be described in the applicable prospectus supplement.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Jefferies LLC, our broker-dealer subsidiary, is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. (FINRA) and may participate in distributions of the offered securities. Accordingly, offerings of securities in which Jefferies LLC participates will conform to the requirements set forth in FINRA Rule 5121. Furthermore, any underwriters offering the securities will not confirm sales to any accounts over which they exercise discretionary authority without the prior approval of the customer.

MARKET-MAKING REALES BY AFFILIATES

This prospectus may be used by Jefferies LLC in connection with offers and sales of the securities in market-making transactions (and offers and sales of any other securities covered by this prospectus, including securities issued under previous registration statements, and underlying such securities that are incidental to such market-making activity). In a market-making transaction, Jefferies LLC may resell a security it acquires from other holders, after the original offering and sale of the security. Resales of this kind may occur in the open market or may be privately negotiated at prevailing market prices at the time of resale or at related or negotiated prices. In these transactions, Jefferies LLC may act as principal or agent, including as agent for the counterparty in a transaction in which Jefferies LLC acts as principal, or as agent for both counterparties in a transaction in which Jefferies LLC does not act as principal. Jefferies LLC may receive compensation in the form of discounts and commissions, including from both counterparties in some cases. Other affiliates of Jefferies Group LLC may also engage in transactions of this kind and may use this prospectus for this purpose.

Leucadia National Corporation does not expect to receive any proceeds from market-making transactions. Leucadia National Corporation does not expect that Jefferies LLC or any other affiliate that engages in these transactions will pay any proceeds from its market-making resales to Leucadia National Corporation.

Information about the trade and settlement dates, as well as the purchase price, for a market-making transaction will be provided to the purchaser in a separate confirmation of sale.

Unless you are advised otherwise, this prospectus is being used in a market-making transaction.
