WHAT ARE THE BOARD'S RECOMMENDATIONS?

Our Board believes that the election of the nominated directors are advisable and in the best interests of Streicher Mobile Fueling, Inc. and its shareholders and recommends that you vote FOR the nominees.

WHO IS ENTITLED TO VOTE AT THE MEETING?

WHO CAN ATTEND THE MEETING?

All shareholders as of the record date, or their duly appointed proxies, may attend the annual meeting. WHAT CONSTITUTES A QUORUM?

The presence at the annual meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of our common stock outstanding on the record date will constitute a quorum for our meeting. Signed proxies received but not voted and broker non-votes will be included in the calculation of the number of shares considered to be present at the meeting.

dating and signing the enclosed proxy card and returning it in the enclosed postage-paid envelope.

Your shares will be voted as you indicate on your proxy card. If you vote the enclosed proxy but you do not indicate your voting preferences, and with respect to any other matter that properly comes before the meeting, the individuals named on the proxy card will vote your shares FOR the matters submitted at the meeting, or if no recommendation is given, in their own discretion.

If you attend the annual meeting and prefer to vote in person, you may do so even if you have already voted your shares by proxy.

WHAT IF I VOTE AND THEN CHANGE MY MIND?

WHAT VOTE IS REQUIRED TO APPROVE THE ITEMS OF BUSINESS?

For purposes of electing directors, the nominees receiving the greatest number of votes of common stock shall be elected directors. Approval of any other matter that may properly come before the annual meeting requires the affirmative vote of the majority of our outstanding common stock represented in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at the meeting (unless such matter requires a greater vote under our Articles of Incorporation).

PROPOSAL TO ELECT SEVEN INDIVIDUALS TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

(PROPOSAL NO. 1)

NOMINEES

The Board has fixed at seven the number of directors that will constitute the Board for the ensuing year. Each director elected at the annual meeting will serve for a term expiring at the 2003 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, or until his successor has been duly elected and qualified. Wendell R. Beard, Richard E. Gathright, C. Rodney O'Connor, Robert S. Picow and W. Greg Ryberg, each of whom is an incumbent director, and Sherrill W. Hudson and Larry S. Mulkey, each of whom is a new nominee, have been nominated to be elected at the annual meeting by the holders of common stock and proxies will be voted for such persons absent contrary instructions.

Our Board has no reason to believe that any nominee will refuse to act or be unable to accept election; however, in the event that a nominee for a directorship is unable to accept election or if any other unforeseen contingencies should arise, it is intended that proxies will be voted for the remaining nominees and for such other person as may be designated by the Board, unless it is directed by a proxy to do otherwise.

Each of the nominees for election as a director, except for Messrs. Hudson and Mulkey, is a current member of our Board. Mr. O'Connor has served as a director since 1999, and Mr. Beard, Mr. Gathright, Mr. Picow and Mr. Ryberg have served as directors since 2001.

EMPLOYMENT CONTRACTS

The Company entered into a three-year employment agreement with Stanley H. Streicher on November 1, 2000, pursuant to which Mr. Streicher serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors and performs other functions requested by the Company. The agreement provides for an annual salary of $300,000 plus bonuses, if any, as determined by the Board, and further provides that 980,000 stock options held by Mr. Streicher will be forfeited to the Company, without additional consideration, upon the request of the Board. On December 21, 2000, Mr. Streicher forfeited these stock options in response to such a request. The agreement further provides that it may be terminated by the Company at any time and for any reason. If the agreement is terminated without cause, Mr. Streicher is entitled to receive his base salary until the later of eighteen months following the actual date of termination or October 31, 2002. If the agreement is terminated for cause, Mr. Streicher is not entitled to any further salary or other compensation.

By agreement dated April 1, 2002, the Company, Mr. Streicher and a company wholly owned by Mr. Streicher, Supreme Oil Company, agreed that Mr. Streicher would undertake an orderly liquidation of his and Supreme's shares of the Company's common stock, directly or indirectly, and use the net proceeds of any sales of such stock to repay approximately $680,000 which he and Supreme owed to the Company. On or about June 13, 2002, Supreme sold 613,000 shares of the stock for net proceeds of at least $680,000. Mr. Streicher subsequently paid $480,000 of those proceeds to the Company but has challenged the validity of portions of the underlying debt and has therefore declined to pay the balance of approximately $200,000 to the Company. As a result of Mr. Streicher's actions, effective July 19, 2002, the Company suspended further payments of salary to Mr. Streicher under his November 1, 2000 employment agreement. The Company believes that Mr. Streicher's retention of the $200,000 was a breach of the April 1, 2002 debt repayment agreement between him and the Company and constitutes grounds for termination of Mr. Streicher's employment agreement for cause. As of September 30, 2002, the Company has not terminated Mr. Streicher for cause under his employment agreement. If the Company does so, it will no longer be obligated to pay any salary or other compensation to him under that agreement. Any such termination would not affect the obligation of Mr. Streicher and Supreme to repay the $200,000.

The Company entered into an employment agreement with Richard E. Gathright on October 26, 2000 pursuant to which Mr. Gathright serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The agreement has a term of three years, commencing on October 26, 2000, provides for an annual base salary of $300,000, participation, with other members of management, in a bonus program, whereby up to 10% of the Company's pretax profits will be set aside for bonus payments, and the grant of 500,000 options to purchase shares of the Company's common stock at a price of $1.50 per share. The agreement further provides that it may be terminated by the Company at any time and for any reason. If the agreement is terminated by the Company without cause, Mr. Gathright will be due the greater of all base salary due through October 31, 2003 or eighteen months base salary. If the agreement is terminated for cause, as defined, Mr. Gathright will not be entitled to the severance payments specified.

The Company has also entered into employment agreements with other executive officers which automatically renew for successive periods unless notice of termination is given by the Company prior to a renewal period and which provide for severance payments of up to six months upon a termination without cause.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is established pursuant to our Bylaws and the Audit Committee Charter adopted by the Board of Directors on March 1, 2001. A copy of the Audit Committee Charter was attached to the Proxy Statement for our 2001 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

Management is responsible for our internal controls and the financial reporting process. Our independent auditors are responsible for performing the independent audit of our consolidated financial statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and for issuing a report thereon. The Audit Committee is comprised of three non-management directors and its responsibility is generally to monitor and oversee the processes described in the Audit Committee Charter.

Each member of the Audit Committee is independent in the judgment of our Board and as required by the listing standards of the Nasdaq, with the exception of Mr. O'Connor. Mr. O'Connor was not an independent director for the five-month transition period ended June 30, 2001 and the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002, as a result of the loans he made to the Company and the conversion of certain of his promissory notes during those periods. See "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions" below. However, the Board believes it is in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders for Mr. O'Connor to serve as a member of the Audit Committee based on his knowledge of our operations and financial history. He has served as a financial and public relations advisor of the Company since 1997.

With respect to the five-month transition period ended June 30, 2001 and the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002, in addition to its other work, the Audit Committee:

- o Reviewed and discussed with the Company's management and the independent auditors the transition report for the transition period from February 1, 2001 to June 30, 2001; reviewed and discussed the quarterly reports for the periods ended December 31, 2001 and March 31, 2002; and reviewed and discussed the audited consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002.
- o Discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by generally accepted auditing standards; and
- o Received from the independent auditors written affirmation of their independence required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 and discussed with the auditors the firm's independence. The independent auditors met with the Audit Committee without management being present.

In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board the selection of our independent accountants, KPMG LLP for the year ended June 30, 2002. The audit firm has discussed with the Committee, and provided written disclosures to the Committee, on KPMG's independence and other matters required to be communicated under generally accepted auditing standards.

Based upon the review and discussions referred to above, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2002 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Joseph M. Murphy, C. Rodney O'Connor, W. Greg Ryberg

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Company's executive compensation program is administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, which is composed of Messrs. Beard, Murphy and Picow. The Committee's general philosophy with respect to compensation of the Company's executive officers has been to offer competitive compensation designed to attract and retain key executives critical to the long-term success of the Company and to recognize and individual's contribution and personal performance. The principal component of executive compensation has been base salary. Executive officers may also be granted stock options and bonuses.

BASE SALARIES. Base salaries are initially determined by evaluating the responsibilities of the position held and by reference to the competitive marketplace for executive talent through review of an individual's background and overall expertise in the Company's line of business and the salaries of similarly situated executives. The Company believes that it is competitive with respect to initial base salaries. Increases to base salaries are also influenced by the performance of the Company and the individual against established goals and objectives.

STOCK OPTIONS. The Company's Stock Option Plan provides such an incentive through the award of stock options to executive officers and other key employees. The Stock Option Plans are administered by the Compensation Committee. During the five-month transition period ended June 30, 2001, a total of 240,000 options were granted to three of the Company's executive officers. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002, a total of 145,000 options were granted to three of the Company's executive officers.

ANNUAL BONUS. The Company maintains an annual incentive bonus program which provides for the payment of cash bonuses to executive officers and other key employees of the Company based upon the Company's financial performance and individual performance. While these bonus awards are based upon the Company's pre-tax earnings, the Committee strove to align the bonus plan targets with the Company's long-term goals so that strategic focus is maintained.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS. In November 2000, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Stanley H. Streicher, the Company's Chairman of the Board. In October 2000, the Company entered into an employment agreement with

Richard E. Gathright, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer. The Company has entered into employment agreements with other executive officers which automatically renew for successive periods unless notice of termination is given by the Company prior to a renewal period and which provide for severance payments of up to six months upon a termination without cause. Accordingly, the compensation paid or payable to Mr. Streicher, Mr. Gathright and the other executive officers for fiscal 2002 and subsequent years will be determined pursuant to their employment agreements. See "Executive Compensation -- Employment Contracts."

Wendell R. Beard, Joseph M. Murphy, Robert S. Picow

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

Mr. Picow, a member of the Company's Compensation Committee, purchased shares of the Company's common stock during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002. See "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions" below.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

The Company compensates each non-employee director with a director's fee of $1,500 per quarter. From January 1, 2001 through October 1, 2001, the non-employee directors received director's fees of $1,000 per month. In addition, the Company's directors are reimbursed for any out-of-pocket expense incurred by them for attendance at meetings of the Board of Directors or committees thereof.

Each non-employee who served as a member of the Company's board of directors as of the May 10, 2001 effective date of the Directors Plan, and each non-employee who is elected or otherwise appointed as one of the Company's directors thereafter, received a fully vested option to purchase 20,000 shares of stock exercisable at the closing price on the date of grant. On the last day of each fiscal quarter while the Directors Plan is in effect, each non-employee director will receive an additional grant of an option to purchase 625 shares of stock at the closing price on the last trading day in the quarter. Further, in accordance with the Directors Plan, additional options may be granted to non-employee directors from time to time.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

In January 2001, the Company issued 133,333 shares of common stock to C. Rodney O'Connor, a director of the Company, upon conversion of a July 2000 $200,000 promissory note issued to him by the Company at a conversion price of $1.50. In February 2001, the Company issued 6,666 shares of common stock to Mr. O'Connor in a private placement at $1.50 per share. Both of these transactions were part of a private offering to accredited investors conducted from January 2002 through March 2002 in which a total of 1,711,666 shares of common stock was issued to 17 individuals and institutions. The common stock sold in this offering included an aggregate of 850,000 shares issued to two private funds managed by Fundamental Management Corporation. Mr. O'Connor and Robert Picow, another director of the Company, are members of board of directors of Fundamental Management Corporation.

In July 2000 the Company issued a promissory note in the principal amount of $200,000 to Mr. O'Connor. In addition, during the period between April 2001 and October 2001, the Company issued an aggregate of $2.7 million of convertible subordinated promissory notes to five individuals and institutions, including four notes to Mr. O'Connor in principal amounts totaling $841,000 and eight notes totaling $1,575,000 to two private funds managed by an entity of which Mr. O'Connor is also a director. In January 2002, Mr. O'Connor and the two private funds converted the aforementioned notes to common stock of the Company at a conversion price of $1.24 per share. Including common stock issued in lieu of interest earned to the date of conversion, a total of 858,778 were issued to Mr. O'Connor and a total of 1,317,052 shares were issued to the two private funds managed by Fundamental Management Corporation.

Mr. O'Connor is also Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Cameron Associates, Inc., a financial consulting and investor relations public relations firm, which has provided investor relations to the Company since 1997, at a cost of $2,500 per month during the five-month transition period ended June 30, 2001 and the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002. In addition, the Company paid an additional fee of $70,000 to Cameron Associates on March 11, 2001 for financial consulting services, including but not limited to consulting services in connection with the structuring of certain of the Company's capital raising efforts.

In August 2001, the Company issued 133,333 shares of common stock to Robert Picow, a director of the Company, in a private placement at $1.50 per share. In January 2002, the Company issued 476,190 shares in the same private placement at $1.05 per share to another investor. As a result of the reduction in the offering price in January 2002 to $1.05 per share, 57,143 additional shares were issued to Mr. Picow, resulting in an effective price of $1.05 for all shares purchased.

The related party account receivable from Streicher Enterprises, Inc. ("Enterprises"), an entity wholly owned by the Company's Chairman, Stanley H. Streicher, amounted to approximately $204,000 and $583,000 at June 30, 2002 and 2001, respectively, and $540,000 and $501,000 at January 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively, bearing interest at 8.25 percent per annum. Two promissory notes to the Company, one dated January 31, 1997, in the amount of $319,043 due January 31, 2007, and the second in the amount of $94,850 dated January 31, 1998 due January 31, 2007 (the "Notes"), represented the bulk of the above referenced account. Mr. Streicher personally guaranteed the principal of, and interest on, the Notes. Such amounts represented tax benefits of the Company used by Enterprises, certain expenses of Enterprises paid by the Company prior to its initial public offering and cash advances to Enterprises prior to the Company's initial public offering. Interest income on the account included approximately $41,000 and $18,000 for the year ended June 30, 2002 and the transition period, respectively, and approximately $42,000 and $37,000 for the fiscal years ended 2001 and 2000 relating to the account receivable from Enterprises. Enterprises was required to make annual payments of interest only with a final payment of all accrued interest and unpaid principal due on January 31, 2007. The account receivable was secured by a pledge of 360,213 shares of the Company's common stock owned by Supreme Oil Company ("Supreme"), another entity wholly owned by Mr. Streicher.

The Company had leased its former corporate headquarters from Mr. Streicher (see below), from which a portion of the above referenced account receivable had arisen. Mr. Streicher and the Company entered into a Lease Cancellation and Assignment of Sublease dated February 1, 2002, whereby Mr.

Edgar Filing: STREICHER MOBILE FUELING INC - Form DEF 14A

Streicher agreed to pay to the Company the net book value of certain leasehold improvements which were paid by, and carried on the books of, the Company as of April 30, 2001, in the amount of $59,600 (the "Leasehold Improvements Debt") on or before March 31, 2002.

On April 1, 2002, Mr. Streicher, Supreme and the Company entered into an agreement with respect to the repayment by Mr. Streicher and Supreme of the Leasehold Improvements Debt and the Notes (collectively, the "Debt"). In connection therewith, Supreme delivered to the Company additional shares of the Company's stock owned by Supreme, so that an aggregate of 533,088 shares of the Company's common stock owned by Supreme (the "Certificates") were pledged as security for the Debt.

In the April 1, 2002, agreement, Mr. Streicher and Supreme agreed to accelerate the due date of the Notes to September 30, 2003, to make quarterly payments of interest on the Debt, and waived any defenses to foreclosure on the Certificates if the Debt remained unpaid on September 30, 2003. The Company agreed to defer any such foreclosure on the Certificates until that date in exchange for the pledge by Supreme of additional shares of the Company's common stock owned by Supreme and the waiver of defenses to any such foreclosure on all pledged stock if and to the extent that the Debt was not repaid prior to the expiration of such eighteen month period (the "Acceleration Period"). Supreme also agreed to pledge additional shares of the Company's common stock if the Company deemed itself insecure during the Acceleration Period. Mr. Streicher and Supreme also agreed that, in order to ensure that the Debt was repaid before the end of the Acceleration Period, Supreme would conduct an orderly liquidation of those of Supreme's shares of the Company's common stock which were not pledged to the Company and then would pay the entire net proceeds of such liquidation, if any, to the Company.

On June 12, 2002, Supreme sold 613,000 shares of the Company's common stock for aggregate gross proceeds of $711,080 and net proceeds of at least $680,000. According to the April 1, 2002, agreement, Mr. Streicher and Supreme were thereby obligated to repay the entire balance of the Debt, then approximately $680,000. On June 29, 2002, Mr. Streicher tendered $480,000 to the Company as partial repayment of the Debt but declined to tender the balance of approximately $200,000 required by the April 1, 2002 agreement. The Company informed Mr. Streicher and Supreme that it considered the failure to pay the $200,000 to be a breach of the April 1, 2002 agreement and demanded immediate payment. Mr. Streicher subsequently informed the Company that he questions the validity of certain portions of the Debt.

On July 19, 2002, after Mr. Streicher and Supreme refused the Company's demand, the Company suspended further payments of salary to Mr. Streicher under his November 1, 2000 employment agreement. The Company believes that the withholding of the $200,000 by Mr. Streicher and Supreme was also a breach of Mr. Streicher's November 1, 2000 employment agreement, constituting grounds for the Company to terminate that agreement for cause. As of September 30, 2002, the Company has not terminated Mr. Streicher for cause under his employment agreement. If the Company does so, it will no longer be obligated to pay any salary or other compensation to him under that agreement. Any such termination would not affect the obligation of Mr. Streicher and Supreme to repay the $200,000.

In April 2001, the Company relocated its corporate offices and simultaneously entered into a lease agreement for its new corporate offices. At that time the Company was obligated under a July 31, 1993 lease agreement covering the former corporate offices with the Company's Chairman, Stanley H. Streicher, the expiration of which lease was July 31, 2013. In May 2001, the Company entered into a sub-lease agreement with an unrelated third party for the lease of the Company's former corporate offices. In January 2002, Mr. Streicher canceled the lease covering the Company's former corporate offices and the Company assigned the sublease to Mr. Streicher, effective February 1, 2002.

The Company has also been obligated to Mr. Streicher under two operating leases covering property utilized for division truck yards and offices, of which one lease expired in April 2002, and the other expires in August of 2015. Rent expense paid to Mr. Streicher by the Company for the lease of its former corporate offices and the two division facilities was $30,000, $23,000, $88,000, and $88,000, for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002, the transition period ended June 30, 2001, and the fiscal years ended January 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively.
