Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

(b) Departure of Principal Officer

Home Federal Bancorp, Inc. (“Company”) and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Home Federal Bank (“Bank”) announced that Robert A. Schoelkoph, the Company’s and the Bank’s Senior Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary and Chief Financial Officer will be retiring on October 4, 2008. Until that time, Mr. Schoelkoph will continue to work with the Company’s and the Bank’s new Executive Vice President, Treasurer, Corporate Secretary and Chief Financial Officer, Eric S. Nadeau, to ensure a smooth transition. For further information, reference is made to the press release dated May 19, 2008 which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

(c) Appointment of Certain Officers

On May 15, 2008, the Company and the Bank announced that they had agreed on an offer of employment with Eric S. Nadeau, age 37, to serve as the Executive Vice President, Treasurer, Corporate Secretary and Chief Financial Officer of the Company and the Bank.

Mr. Nadeau is currently the Chief Financial Officer, Senior Vice President and Treasurer of Camco Financial Corporation, Cambridge, Ohio and its subsidiary, Advantage Bank, where he has been employed since February 2006. From January 2003 until February 2006 he was the Chief Financial Officer, Senior Vice President and Treasurer of Ohio Legacy Corp, and its subsidiary, Ohio Legacy Bank, N.A. For further information concerning Mr. Nadeau’s background, reference is made to the press release dated May 19, 2008 which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

In connection with his employment, the Bank entered into an agreement with Mr. Nadeau that sets forth certain understandings and arrangements with respect to the employment relationship of Mr. Nadeau with the Company and the Bank. The agreement provides for an initial base salary of $160,000. Under the agreement, Mr. Nadeau also is eligible to participate in the Bank’s year-end cash incentive plan, beginning June 1, 2008. The Bank’s cash incentive plan provides for a percentage of base pay to be earned based upon the Bank’s financial performance.

The agreement provides that the Bank and Mr. Nadeau will enter into a one year severance agreement within 60 days of the commencement of his employment. The agreement will provide that, in the event of Mr. Nadeau’s involuntary termination of employment without cause during the first year of employment, Mr. Nadeau will be paid severance equal to one year’s annual base pay. Following the successful completion of the first year of service, the Bank will provide Mr. Nadeau with a two-year severance agreement, including a change of control agreement. Following the successful completion of two years of service the Bank will provide Mr. Nadeau with a three year severance agreement that will also include a change in control agreement. The agreement provides that the Bank will either pay for the Mr. Nadeau’s moving expenses to relocate to Nampa, Idaho, or will pay him a one-time signing bonus of $30,000, which shall be paid upon the start of his employment.

Under terms of the agreement, Mr. Nadeau also will receive an award of approximately 5,000 shares of the Company’s restricted stock. Restricted stock awards vest over a five-year period with the first vesting date approximately one year from the date of employment. Mr. Nadeau will also be granted approximately 25,000 non-qualified options to purchase the Company’s common stock. The stock options vest over a five-year period with the first vesting date approximately one year from the date of employment and expire 10 years from the date of grant.

Mr. Nadeau is also entitled to participate in the Bank's non-qualified deferred compensation plan. He is also entitled to participate in all of the Company's benefit plans that are generally available to all employees, including vacation, 401(k) profit sharing, Employee Stock Ownership Plan, medical and health, life, accident and disability.

There are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Nadeau and any other persons pursuant to which he was selected as an officer. Mr. Nadeau is not a party to any transaction with the Company and the Bank that would require disclosure under Item 404(a) of Securities and Exchange Commission's Regulation S-K.

A news release announcing these events is attached as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated by reference herein and a copy of the Offer of Employment is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.19 and incorporated herein by reference.

Nampa, Idaho – (May 20, 2008) – Home Federal Bancorp, Inc. (the “Company”) (NASDAQ GSM: HOME), the holding company for Home Federal Bank (“Bank”), announced today that Eric S. Nadeau has accepted a position with the Bank as Executive Vice President, Treasurer, Corporate Secretary and Chief Financial Officer effective June 5, 2008. Mr. Nadeau, a certified public accountant, brings nearly 15 years of financial institution experience to the Company. He has been employed by Camco Financial Corporation, Cambridge, Ohio and its subsidiary, Advantage Bank, since February 2006 and currently serves as Chief Financial Officer, Senior Vice President and Treasurer. From January 2003 until February 2006 he was the Chief Financial Officer, Senior Vice President and Treasurer of Ohio Legacy Corp, and its subsidiary, Ohio Legacy Bank, N.A. Mr. Nadeau received his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from the Richard T. Farmer School of Business of Miami University, Oxford, Ohio. Mr. Nadeau’s professional affiliations include the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Ohio Society of Certified Public Accountants and the Financial Managers Society.

“Eric’s financial institution experience, and particularly his strong background in financial and regulatory reporting, shareholder relations, strategic forecasting and the development and implementation of accounting policies and procedures, will be a great benefit to the Company and the Bank and we are delighted to have him join our senior management team,” said Len E. Williams, President and Chief Executive Officer.

“Home Federal Bancorp and Home Federal Bank have exciting opportunities ahead and I look forward to applying my experience to support the Company’s overall goals and operations,” said Mr. Nadeau.

The Company also announced that Robert A. Schoelkoph, the Company’s and the Bank’s Senior Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary and Chief Financial Officer will be retiring on October 4, 2008. Until that time, Mr. Schoelkoph will continue to work with Mr. Nadeau to ensure a smooth transition. Mr. Williams stated, “On behalf of myself and the Board of Directors of Home Federal Bancorp, we want to thank Bob for his outstanding service as Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer, and Corporate Secretary and for the significant contributions he has made during his 28 years at Home Federal Bank. Bob was instrumental in Home Federal Bank’s transition from a mutual savings and loan association to a publicly held company and we appreciate his efforts.”

Home Federal Bancorp, Inc. is a Maryland corporation headquartered in Nampa, Idaho, and is the savings and loan holding company of Home Federal Bank, a federal savings bank that was originally organized as a building and loan association in 1920.
