Management of Federal Trust Corporation (the "Registrant") has determined that the Registrant is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008 ("2008 Annual Report") by the due date of March 31, 2009 and it is not expected that the Registrant will be able to make that filing within the 15-day extension permitted by the rules of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC").

As disclosed in prior filings with the SEC, the Registrant is subject to restrictions on its operations imposed by the Office of Thrift Supervision (the "OTS") under federal banking regulatory laws and regulations. Under these restrictions, the Registrant is unable to engage an independent registered public accounting firm to audit the Registrant's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2008 without the prior approval of the OTS. In addition, the Registrant is unable to engage an accounting firm or consultant to assist with the preparation of the financial information required to prepare the audited financial statements and other financial information required for the preparation of the 2008 Annual Report without the prior approval of the OTS. As of the date hereof, the Registrant has not received such approvals. As a result, the Registrant is not able to file its 2008 Annual Report on a timely basis. Until such time as the Registrant receives such approvals, the Registrant is not able to determine when it will be able to file its 2008 Annual Report with the SEC.
