Announcement of a material fact

Ultrapar announces the signing of a new Shareholders' Agreement between the shareholders of Ultra S.A., its parent company

ULTRAPAR PARTICIPAÇÕES S.A. ("Ultrapar") hereby informs its shareholders and investors in general that the shareholders of Ultra S.A., its parent company, have signed a shareholders' agreement primarily aimed at maintaining the controlling shareholder block in Ultrapar ("2004 Shareholders' Agreement").

Currently 66.7% of the voting capital of Ultrapar is held by Ultra S.A., whose largest shareholders are (i) Igel Participações S.A. ("Igel"), a holding company that encompasses the shareholdings of certain members of Ultrapar's founding family, and (ii) Avaré Participações S.A. ("Avaré"), a holding company of which 69% belongs to members of the senior management of Ultrapar.

As a consequence of previous statutory provisions, Igel and Avaré shall be dissolved on December 16, 2004, and their shareholders shall receive shares in Ultra S.A. in reimbursement of their shares in the respective paid-up capital, in the same proportion and of the same share class as previously held by Igel and Avaré.

In view of the new controlling structure, the shareholders of Igel and Avaré and the other shareholders of Ultra S.A. have resolved to add to, and improve on, the existing agreement, dated May 22, 1997, establishing among other items, (i) principles for decision making; (ii) rules and conduct of the representatives of Ultra S.A. on the Board of Directors of Ultrapar; and (iii) liquidity mechanisms for the shares of Ultra S.A.

The key objectives of this move are (i) to maintain a defined and stable controlling shareholder block in Ultrapar, (ii) to ensure it continues to be driven by professional management and (iii) to improve its principles of corporate governance.

The 2004 Shareholders' Agreement has an initial validity of five years, counting from the date of the dissolution of Igel and Avaré, on December 16, 2004.

Copies of the 2004 Shareholders' Agreement are available at Ultrapar's head office and have been filed with São Paulo stock exchange (Bovespa), the Brazilian securities exchange commission (CVM – Comissão de Valores Mobiliários) and the US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC).

- 13.1 If any of the Agreeing Parties wishes to sell the control of his or her holding company, the sale of which involves the indirect transfer of shares and rights subject to the Agreement, the said Agreeing Party will be obliged to spin off the said holding company, with the aim of transferring that part of the company's assets corresponding to these shares and rights to another Brazilian holding company, in which the Agreeing Party, his or her parents in direct line of ascent and descendants, will exclusively participate, the holding company having the specific purpose of holding a stake in the capital of The Company.

- 13.2 The shares or quotas of the special-purpose holding company resulting from the spin-off will be subject to the same restrictions of sale, transfer, and encumbrance as the shares and rights subject to the Agreement, established above.

XIV - LIQUIDITY MECHANISM □ EXCHANGE OF SHARES

- 14.1 The Agreeing Party may request the executive board of The Company to entire or partially exchange his or her shareholding in The Company, be they represented by common or preferred shares, for preferred shares in Ultrapar.
- 14.2 The Agreeing Party will receive, in exchange, the amount of preferred shares issued by Ultrapar needed to secure directly the same stake in the capital of this latter company, in terms of common and preferred shares that he or she indirectly held in the capital of Ultrapar through The Company , in the same proportion as the shares subject to exchange. Thus, as an example, if the exchanging party's holding of common and preferred shares in the capital of The Company were to be equivalent of an indirect stake in Ultrapar of 10% (ten percent), and the whole of his or her shareholding were to be exchanged, the exchanging party would receive preferred shares, issued by Ultrapar which would secure a direct stake of 10% (ten percent) in the capital of the latter company.

- 14.3 To request this, the Agreeing Party must send the executive board of The Company a request for the exchange of his or her shares, either by registered mail or by the hand delivery requiring the signature of the recipient, stating the number and class of shares to be exchanged.

- 14.4. The executive board has up to 5 (five) days from receiving the share exchange request defined in Clause 14.3 above, to send correspondence informing the requesting party and all the Agreeing Parties, if the proposed exchange could result in: (i) a loss by The Company of majority control (51%) of the voting capital of Ultrapar; or (ii) violation of the percentage limit of preferred shares allowed as a percentage of all the shares issued by The Company or by Ultrapar (2/3), according to the terms of the prevailing legislation. In both hypothetical cases, the exchange of shares would obligatorily be refused by the executive board.
- 14.5 If implementing the exchange is feasible, The Company, upon due deliberation by its board of directors, must establish the most convenient method for acquiring the preferred shares of Ultrapar, they being able to opt between: (a) converting The Company's common shares issued by Ultrapar into preferred shares issued by Ultrapar; or (b) give Ultrapar preferred shares resulting from a capital increase based on reserves or profits to Ultrapar shareholders.
- 14.6 The Agreeing Parties are obliged to take action to make Ultrapar adopt the statutory and administrative measures necessary to fulfill the terms contained in the clauses above, in the most rapid manner possible, observing the legal minimum time limits and the respective terms of the respective company bylaws.
- 14.7 Having acquired the preferred shares issued by Ultrapar, The Company will exchange all the shares issued by it that are held by the Agreeing Party carrying out the exchange.
- 14.8 The shares issued by The Company that are the subject of the exchange will be held in treasury, observing the legal limits, or cancelled or sold off, at the criteria of the board of directors of The Company.

XV □ VALIDITY AND SUCCESSION

- 15.1 The current Shareholders' Agreement is valid from the date of signing, and becomes effective at the moment that the Agreeing Parties acquire direct ownership of the shares issued by The Company, as a result of the winding up of Igel Participações S/A and Avaré Participações S/A.
- 15.2 This Agreement will be in force for 5 (five) years from the initial term stipulated in Clause 15.1 above, being renewable, by unanimous agreement, within The Company itself, or in the event of the deliberate winding up of the same, in its most recent version, also by the unanimous agreement of the Agreeing Parties, within Ultrapar.

- 15.3 The current Agreement applies, in all its terms and conditions, to the heirs and successors of the Agreeing Parties.

XVI □ SPECIFIC EXECUTION

- 16.1 Any non-fulfillment by the Agreeing Parties, their heirs and successors, of any of the obligations stipulated in this Agreement, will result in the specific execution of the obligation to do so, declaring their willingness to do so through the procedure of self-regulation set out in paragraphs 8 and 9 of article 118 of Law 6,404, 1976, as well as the judicial execution set out in paragraph 3 of the same article 118 of Law 6,404, 1976, and in articles 639 and 641, of the Code of Civil Procedure.

- 16.2 For the implementation of article 118 of Law 6,404, 1976, a copy of the current Agreement will, on the initiative of any of the Agreeing Parties, be filed at the head offices of The Company and Ultrapar, which must rigorously observe all its terms.
- 16.3 The obligations resulting from this Agreement will be annotated in the books of The Company and Ultrapar by the financial institution charged with the task, these annotations constituting an impediment to the carrying out of any corporate acts or business in violation of that agreed upon in this instrument, The Company and Ultrapar thus being legitimately authorized, in such an event, to refuse to register such acts or business, and as a consequence, to refuse the transfer of ownership or title of any rights over the shares and rights encompassed in this

XVII □ GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 17.1 The current Agreement replaces and supplants, any other previous agreement signed by the Agreeing Parties in The Company. However, the terms of the shareholders' agreement signed at Ultrapar by the Agreeing Parties, on 22 March 2000, which covers direct and indirect controlling shareholders, remaining wholly and fully in force.
- 17.2 The Agreeing Parties, from this date, may not sign any other shareholders' agreement, either between themselves or with any future shareholders of The Company or Ultrapar.
- 17.3 Any invalidation, annulment or inefficacy of any of the clauses in the current Agreement will not imply, ipso facto, invalidation, annulment or inefficacy of the others.
- 17.4 The tolerance of any of the Agreeing Parties in regard to possible delays, on the part of the others, in fulfilling the obligations herein assumed will not imply any new adjustment to the terms contained in this legal instrument, or renouncement of the rights empowered by them and thus attributed.
- 17.5 The current Agreement may only be altered through a written instrument, signed by all the Agreeing Parties; such change thus becoming an integral part of the current Agreement, in the form of an annex.

- 17.6 The Agreeing Parties hereby commit themselves to ensuring that the resulting necessary changes are made to the bylaws of The Company and Ultrapar, as a result of the consummation of this Agreement and its execution, throughout the period that it remains in force.
- 17.7 In the case of omissions, doubts, questions or conflicts between Agreeing Parties, these must be submitted to a single arbitrator, unanimously designated by the Agreeing Parties, who will commit themselves to respecting, without restriction or reservation, the decision handed down by the arbitrator.

- 17.8 If the necessary unanimous agreement is not reached on the appointment of a single arbitrator, the issues arising will be determined by arbitration procedure carried out by the Brazil-Canada Chamber of Commerce, according to the rules of that entity and the terms of Law 9,307, 1996.

Being thus duly in agreement, the Agreeing Parties hereby sign the 15 (fifteen) counterparts, of identical content and form, of this agreement, in the presence of two undersigned witnesses.
