INFORMATION REQUIRED IN THE REGISTRATION STATEMENT

Item 3. Incorporation of Documents by Reference.

The following documents are incorporated herein by reference:

(a) Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2004 of the registrant, filed pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act").

(b) All reports filed by the Company pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act since December 31, 2004, the date of the latest audited financial statements of the Company contained in the Form 20-F Annual Report referred to in (a), above.

(c) The description of the Company's Ordinary Shares of $0.25 each, and American Depositary Receipts evidencing American Depositary Shares, each American Depositary Share representing one Ordinary Share of the Company from Item 1 of the Form 8A/A registration statement of the Company filed under the Exchange Act (File No. 1-11960) (incorporated herein by reference).

In addition, all documents subsequently filed by the Company, and all documents subsequently filed by the Plan, pursuant to Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 and 15(d) of the Exchange Act, prior to the filing of a post-effective amendment to this registration statement which indicates that all securities offered have been sold or which deregisters all securities then remaining unsold, shall be deemed to be incorporated by reference in the registration statement and to be a part hereof from the date of the filing of such documents.

Item 4. Description of Securities.

The securities being registered under this registration statement consist of obligations (the "Obligations") of the Company to pay compensation deferred by eligible employees under the terms of the AstraZeneca PLC Executive Deferred Compensation Plan (the "Plan"). Subject to the provisions of the Plan, an eligible employee may enter into an agreement with the Company providing for the deferral of the payment of a specified portion or amount of compensation payable by the Company to the eligible employee. The amount ultimately payable to the eligible employee in respect of such a deferral election will be adjusted to reflect the investment experience of one or more of the benchmarks designated under the Plan and selected by the eligible employee. An employee's rights to and under the Obligations cannot be assigned, alienated, sold, garnished, transferred, pledged or encumbered, except by way of transfer to the employee's beneficiaries or estate upon the employee's death, pursuant to the terms of the Plan.

The Obligations are unsecured general obligations of the Company which rank pari passu with other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness of the Company that may be outstanding from time to time. No sinking fund has or will be established with respect to the Obligations. The Obligations are not subject to redemption, in whole or in part, prior to the payment dates applicable under the Plan and the Obligations are not convertible into another security of the Company. The Company reserves the right to amend or terminate the Plan at any time.

Except as stated above, the Obligations do not enjoy the benefit of any affirmative or negative pledges or covenants by the Company. Although the Company may at its discretion establish a grantor trust to fund the payment of the Obligations, the Company retains discretion to determine the amount and timing of its contributions to any such trust and the assets of the trust will be subject to the claims of the Company's creditors. The trustee of any such trust will be required to administer the trust in accordance with its terms, but the trustee's obligations and authority will be limited to the amounts which may be held in the trust from time to time and the trustee will be subject to the direction of the Company with respect to the payment Obligations. Accordingly, the trustee will not have any independent obligation or authority to act on behalf of any employee and each employee will be responsible for acting on his or her own behalf with respect to, among other things, the giving of notices, responding to requests for consents, waivers or amendments, enforcing covenants and taking action upon default.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Ann Booth-Barbarin, Esq. has given her legal opinion about certain legal matters affecting the Deferred Compensation Obligations registered under this Registration Statement. Ms. Booth-Barbarin does not own Deferred Compensation Obligations under the AstraZeneca PLC Executive Deferred Compensation Plan.

(1) Subsections (2) and (3) impose disclosure requirements in relation to a directors' report under section 234 in respect of a financial year.

(2) If

(a) at the time when the report is approved under section 234A, any qualifying third party indemnity provision (whether made by the company or otherwise) is in force for the benefit of one or more directors of the company, or

(3) If the company has made a qualifying third party indemnity provision and

(a) at the time when the report is approved under section 234A, any qualifying third party indemnity provision made by the company is in force for the benefit of one or more directors of an associated company, or

(1) If in any proceedings for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust against an officer of a company or a person employed by a company as auditor (whether he is or is not an officer of the company) it appears to the court hearing the case that that officer or person is or may be liable in respect of the negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust, but that he has acted honestly and reasonably, and that having regard to all the circumstances of the case (including those connected with his appointment) he ought fairly to be excused for the negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust, that court may relieve him, either wholly or partly, from his liability on such terms as it thinks fit.

(2) If any such officer or person as above-mentioned has reason to apprehend that any claim will or might be made against him in respect of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust, he may apply to the court for relief; and the court on the application has the same power to relieve him under this section as it would have had if it had been a court before which proceedings against that person for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust had been brought.

(3) Where a case to which subsection (1) applies is being tried by a judge with a jury, the judge, after hearing the evidence, may, if he is satisfied that the defendant or defender ought in pursuance of that subsection to be relieved either in whole or in part from the liability sought to be enforced against him, withdraw the case in whole or in part from the jury and forthwith direct judgment to be entered for the defendant or defender on such terms as to costs or otherwise as the judge may think proper.□

- (a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:
 - (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:
 - (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 (□1933 Act□);

- (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement;

- (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the 1933 Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the 1933 Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the 1933 Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the 1933 Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the 1933 Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
