Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On August 25, 2005, The Liberty Corporation, a South Carolina corporation (Liberty), Raycom Media, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Raycom), and RL123, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Raycom (Merger Subsidiary) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Merger Subsidiary will merge with and into Liberty (the Merger), with Liberty continuing as the surviving corporation. In connection with the Merger Agreement, certain shareholders of Liberty holding approximately 20% of Liberty's outstanding common stock have entered into voting agreements with Raycom and Merger Subsidiary pursuant to which such shareholders have agreed to vote in favor of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Immediately prior to the execution of the Merger Agreement, Liberty and American Stock Transfer & Trust Company entered into an amendment (the Rights Agreement Amendment) to the Rights Agreement dated as of August 7, 1990 (as amended as of June 1, 1999, May 2, 2000 and June 20, 2000, the Rights Agreement).

The Merger Agreement

At the effective time and as a result of the Merger, (i) Liberty will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Raycom and (ii) each share of Liberty common stock that is outstanding at the effective time of the Merger will be converted into the right to receive $47.35 in cash (the Merger Consideration). Each outstanding share of restricted stock granted under Liberty's Incentive Compensation Program will become fully vested and converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, and each outstanding option to purchase Liberty's common stock will be converted into the right to receive a cash amount equal to the Merger Consideration less the exercise price for such option.

Liberty has made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, including, among others, covenants (i) to conduct its business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice between the execution of the Merger Agreement and consummation of the Merger, (ii) not to engage in certain kinds of transactions during such period, (iii) to cause its shareholder meeting to be held to consider approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger and (iv) subject to certain exceptions, for its board of directors to recommend approval and adoption by its stockholders of the Merger Agreement and the Merger. In addition, Liberty made certain additional customary covenants, including among others, covenants not to: (i) solicit proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions or (ii) subject to certain exceptions, enter into discussions or negotiations concerning or provide confidential information in connection with alternative business combination transactions.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including (i) approval of Liberty's shareholders, (ii) approval of the Federal Communications Commission, (iii) expiration or termination of the applicable Hart-Scott-Rodino waiting period, (iv) absence of any law or order prohibiting the closing, (v) subject to certain specified exceptions, the absence of any material adverse effect with respect to Liberty's business and (vi) receipt of consents from certain third parties.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both Liberty and Raycom and further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, Liberty may be required to pay Raycom a termination fee of $29.35 million.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto, and is incorporated into this report by reference.

The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties of Liberty, Raycom and Merger Subsidiary that they have made to each other as of specific dates. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made solely for purposes of the contract among Liberty, Raycom and Merger Subsidiary and may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed by and among them in connection with negotiating the terms of the Merger Agreement. Moreover, certain representations and warranties may not be accurate or complete as of any specified date, because, among other reasons, they are subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to stockholders or were used for the purpose of allocating risk among the parties thereto rather than establishing matters as facts. For the foregoing reasons, no person should rely on these representations and warranties as statements of factual information in the Merger Agreement.

The Rights Agreement

Prior to execution of the Merger Agreement, Liberty amended its Rights Agreement on August 25, 2005 to permit execution of the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and the voting agreements referred to above, without triggering the separation or exercise of the stockholder rights or any adverse event under the Rights Agreement. In particular, neither Raycom, Merger Subsidiary nor any of their affiliates or associates shall be deemed to be an Acquiring Person (as defined in the Rights Agreement) solely by virtue of the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement or the voting agreements or the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby.

The foregoing description of the Rights Agreement Amendment does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Rights Agreement Amendment, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto, and is incorporated into this report by reference.
