ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS

On May 31, 2002 we announced financial results for our first quarter ended April 30, 2002. During the first quarter, we added approximately 42,000 new subscribers to the TiVo Service, bringing the total subscriber base to approximately 422,000 as of April 30, 2002. Our subscriber growth was the result of higher consumer demand and the early launch of national retail distribution of the TiVo Series2 DVR.

Revenues for the three months ended April 30, 2002 totaled $9.9 million, compared with revenues of $3.2 million for the same period last year. Revenues included approximately $8.2 million in recurring subscription revenues and $1.6 million from professional engineering services related to our recently announced agreement to develop a next generation set-top box for DIRECTV, a related party, which is due later this year. During the quarter we implemented a monthly service fee increase. Gross profit was $4.4 million, or 45% of revenues. Net loss attributable to common stockholders for the quarter was $35.1 million, or ($0.74) per share, compared to $50.2 million, or ($1.20) per share, for the three months ended April 30, 2001. The net loss attributable to common stockholders for the three months ended April 30, 2002 includes $13.1 million of nonrecurring non-cash charges and $3.9 million of nonrecurring cash interest income related to our repurchase of shares of Series A convertible preferred stock from America Online, Inc. due to the termination of the June 2000 commercial agreement with America Online. Licensing and professional engineering services generated $7.2 million in cash in the quarter.
