Item 2. Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On April 4, 2002, through its wholly owned subsidiary, Stonepath Logistics International Services, Inc., Stonepath Group, Inc. (the "Company") acquired 100 percent of the outstanding stock of Global Transportation Services, Inc., a Seattle-based privately held company that provides a full range of international air and ocean logistics services ("Global"). The stock was acquired from a shareholder group consisting of Jason F. Totah, Edgar B. Kelly, W. Guy Fox and Richard G. Jellison. The stock was acquired in an arm's-length transaction with no material relationship existing between the selling stockholders or the Company prior to the transaction. The purchase price was $5 million in cash paid at closing, plus up to an additional $7 million in purchase consideration payable over a five year earn-out arrangement based upon the future financial performance of Global. The cash component of the transaction was financed through existing funds of the Company.

Founded in 1985, Global provides international transportation and logistics solutions and serves a customer base of manufacturers and national retail chains through their operating locations in key U.S. cities. Global provides ocean forwarding, NVOCC (non-vessel owner common carrier) services through its own highly regarded "Global Container Line" division, consolidation and deconsolidation services, air import and export, customs brokerage, duty drawback, insurance, truck brokerage and warehousing and distribution. For the year ended 2001, Global had revenues of $45 million USD.

On April 5, 2002, the Company issued a Press Release announcing the transaction. A copy of the Press Release is attached to this Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1.
