This Amendment No. 1 (the "Amendment") amends and supplements the Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO, filed initially on July 24, 2003, by Fintech Mobile Inc. ("Fintech Mobile"), a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Fintech Advisory Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Fintech") (the "Schedule TO"). The Schedule TO relates to the offer by Fintech Mobile to purchase for cash all of the outstanding Series V Shares (the "Series V Shares") and American Depositary Shares ("ADSs" and collectively with the Series V Shares, the "Securities") of Grupo Iusacell, S.A. de C.V., a sociedad anónima de capital variable organized and existing under the laws of the United Mexican States ("Iusacell"), upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Offer to Purchase, dated July 24, 2003, as amended (the "Offer to Purchase"), and in the related ADS Letter of Transmittal (which, together with any amendments or supplements thereto, collectively constitute the "U.S. Offer"), which were annexed to and filed with the Schedule TO as Exhibits (a)(1)(A) and (a)(1)(B), respectively. Each ADS represents one hundred Series V Shares. Simultaneously with the U.S. Offer, Fintech Mobile is offering in Mexico (the "Mexican Offer" and collectively with the U.S. Offer, the "Offers") to purchase for cash all of the outstanding Series A Shares ("Series A Shares") and Series V Shares of Iusacell for Ps. 0.2284872 for each Series A Share and Series V Share on substantially the same terms as the Series V Shares and ADSs in the U.S. Offer. The Schedule TO was filed on behalf of Fintech Mobile.

This Amendment is being filed in connection with the announcement made on July 25, 2003 by Fintech and Fintech Mobile that Fintech Mobile is (i) increasing the price offered per Series V Share in the U.S. from the U.S. dollar equivalent of Ps. 0.1142436 to the U.S. dollar equivalent of Ps. 0.2284872, (ii) increasing the price offered per ADS in the U.S. Offer from the U.S. dollar equivalent of Ps. 11.42436 to the U.S. dollar equivalent of Ps. 22.84872, and (iii) extending the expiration date of the U.S. Offer to 5:00 p.m., New York City time (4:00 p.m., Mexico City time) on Thursday, August 28, 2003, unless extended. Corresponding changes are being made to the Mexican Offer.

All references in the ADS Letter of Transmittal, the Letter to Brokers, Dealers, Commercial Banks, Trust Companies and other Nominees, and the Letter to Clients for Use by Brokers, Dealers, Commercial Banks, Trust Companies and other Nominees, to the price offered per (i) Series V Share in the U.S. of the U.S. dollar equivalent of Ps. 0.1142436 are hereby amended and restated to refer to the U.S. dollar equivalent of Ps. 0.2284872 and (ii) ADS in the U.S. Offer of the U.S. dollar equivalent of Ps. 11.42436 are hereby amended and restated to refer to the U.S. dollar equivalent of Ps. 22.84872. Upon receipt of such letter from the Verizon Selling Shareholders and Vodafone, on July 25, 2003, Fintech sent the following letter to the board of directors and the audit committee of the board of directors of Iusacell:

Board of Directors
Audit Committee

Grupo Iusacell, S.A. de C.V.
Prolongación Paseo de la Reforma 1236
Colonia Santa Fe
Delegación Cuajimalpa

Ladies and Gentlemen,

As you are aware, on July 23rd we sent a letter to the Verizon and Vodafone shareholders offering to increase the price of our offer to acquire 100% of the issued and outstanding equity of Grupo Iusacell, S.A. de C.V. (the Company) if Verizon and Vodafone would meet with us. Yesterday we received a response to our letter, a copy of which is attached, rejecting our offer once again. As you know, we officially commenced tender offers in both the U.S. and Mexico yesterday, offering $20 million for 100% of the Company's shares.

There is no doubt that the offer we made in our letter dated July 17th and commenced yesterday is superior to the offer made by the Salinas group, and it is in the best interest of the Company's shareholders and other stakeholders that the Board of Directors recommend that the shareholders of the Company participate in our offer. We think that it is particularly important that the Board of Directors takes this position to protect the interests of minority shareholders who, unlike the managers of Verizon and Vodafone, do not have the luxury of walking away from millions of dollars. To further evidence our commitment to buying the Company, we are now increasing our aggregate offer consideration to $40 million in cash, which is four times the offer made by the Salinas group. Later this morning we are filing amendments to our tender offers in both the U.S. and Mexico to increase our aggregate price to $40 million.

We hope that when you, as members of the Board of Directors, evaluate our offer, that you focus on the benefits of our offer to the shareholders of the Company that you represent, many of whom are small retail holders. Any evaluation of our offer that takes into account the amount of debt of the Company outstanding would be improper and disingenuous. The shareholders of the Company do not owe any portion of that debt to creditors, and there has been no commitment by Verizon, Vodafone or the Salinas group to pay any of the indebtedness of the Company. In fact, the only party that has made a commitment to improve the financial situation of the Company is Fintech, in our offer to capitalize a significant portion of the debt that we hold.

As members of the Board of Directors, we expect you to evaluate our offer in accordance with your fiduciary duties. We believe that an offer that is on the same terms, but provides four times the consideration of the Salinas group offer, is as a matter of law and fact superior, and the Board should treat it as such. In addition, we fully expect that members of the Board of Directors that are interested (i.e., members appointed by Verizon and Vodafone and any new directors appointed by the Salinas group) will recuse themselves and not participate in the decision regarding our offer. Finally, we expect the Board of Directors to conduct their evaluation in accordance with all aspects of Mexican law. We think that a decision not to recommend our offer would be a violation of the legal obligations of the members of the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors does not recommend our clearly superior offer, we will be contacting the CNBV and other Mexican governmental authorities to make sure that they are fully satisfied that all procedural requirements have been followed and that the decision of the Board of Directors is consistent with applicable law.

We hope that the Board of Directors will speak clearly, speak soon and speak in a way that will not leave corporate governance in Mexico with another black eye.

Sincerely,

/s/ Julio Herrera

Dear Sirs,

Attached please find a letter that we sent earlier today to the Board of Directors and Audit Committee of Grupo Iusacell, S.A. de C.V. (the Company), following receipt of your letter yesterday rejecting our offer. We continue to find it difficult to understand how Verizon and Vodafone can repeatedly disregard an offer for double the consideration offered by the Salinas group.

None of your correspondence to date has ever stated that Verizon and Vodafone cannot accept our superior proposal, only that Verizon and Vodafone will not consider it. We can only assume that your position is that you are able to consider our superior proposal, but are unwilling to do so for reasons that have never been made clear.

As you will see by our attached letter, we are now offering aggregate consideration of $40 million, which is four times the price being offered by the Salinas group. At a time when Verizon and Vodafone are asking their shareholders and employees to accept billions of dollars in losses from failed investments in Latin America, and Verizon is squeezing its labor union for every penny, we would think that quadrupling your consideration in this sale would merit a change in your position.

Sincerely,

/s/ Julio Herrera
