PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As disclosed in the Risk Factors section of Assurant, Inc.'s (the Company) Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004, one of the Company's reinsurers thinks the Company should have been accounting for premiums ceded to them as a loan instead of as an expense. Based on the Company's investigation to date into this matter, the Company has concluded that there was a verbal side agreement with respect to one of the Company's reinsurers under its catastrophic reinsurance program, which has accounting implications that may impact previously reported financial statements. While management believes that the difference resulting from any alternative accounting treatment would be immaterial to the Company's financial position or results of operations, regulators may reach a different conclusion. In 2004, 2003 and 2002, premiums ceded to this reinsurer were $2.6 million, $1.5 million and $0.5 million, respectively, and losses ceded were $10 million, $0, and $0, respectively. This contract expired in December of 2004 and was not renewed.

As part of ongoing, industry-wide investigations, the Company has previously received subpoenas for information from the United States Securities and Exchange Commission and the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York. The areas of inquiry addressed to the Company include certain loss mitigation products and documents relating to the use of finite risk insurance. The Company has conducted an evaluation of the transactions that could potentially fall within the scope of the subpoenas, as defined by the authorities, and has provided information as requested. As previously reported, the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors is conducting an investigation of the matters raised by the subpoenas and has retained independent counsel to assist them.

The Audit Committee's continuing investigation has raised the question of whether certain current and former employees acted properly in connection with the above mentioned reinsurance arrangement. The Company is reassessing its controls and the appropriateness of its conclusion regarding their effectiveness. The Company has enhanced its internal controls regarding reinsurance and will continue to further evaluate its internal controls. As a result of the continuing investigation, the Company was unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2005 (the 10-Q) within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense. The 10-Q which was due to be filed on August 15, 2005, is expected to be filed prior to or on August 22, 2005; however, there can be no assurance that the 10-Q will be filed on or prior to such date. The Company is filing this report for a five day extension, from August 15, 2005 to August 22, 2005, for filing its 10-Q.
