RISKMETRICS SUPPORTS VALIDUS CALL FOR SPECIAL MEETING OF IPC SHAREHOLDERS

Requisitions Will Allow IPC Shareholders to Show Support for the Validus Offer Validus Shareholders Approve Issuance of Shares in Connection with Proposed Acquisition of IPC

Hamilton, Bermuda June 25, 2009 Validus Holdings, Ltd. (Validus) (NYSE: VR) today announced that RiskMetrics Group, the leading independent proxy voting and corporate governance advisory firm, has supported Validus call to hold a special meeting of shareholders of IPC Holdings, Ltd. (IPC) (NASDAQ: IPCR) by recommending that IPC shareholders execute Validus GREEN requisition card. By executing the GREEN requisition card, IPC shareholders can show their support for the Validus offer. At the special meeting, among other proposals to be considered, Validus would seek to replace the IPC Board.

Ed Noonan, Validus Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, said, We are pleased that RiskMetrics supports our efforts to call a special meeting of IPC shareholders, which we believe will facilitate Validus ability to provide its offer to IPC shareholders. By calling the special meeting, shareholders will send another strong message to IPC s Board that they want to receive the attractive economics of the Validus offer. We urge IPC shareholders to follow RiskMetrics recommendation and execute their GREEN requisition card today.

In addition to seeking the replacement of the IPC Board with three highly qualified candidates at the special meeting, Validus would seek to eliminate or amend certain provisions in IPC s bye-laws and to bind IPC to its previously announced Scheme of Arrangement, if appropriate. Validus is required to obtain requisitions from shareholders representing at least 10% of the issued and outstanding common shares of IPC in order to call the special meeting. Validus intends to file a new application with the Supreme Court of Bermuda to seek its approval to convene a court-ordered meeting of IPC s shareholders in connection with the Scheme of Arrangement following Validus receipt of these requisitions.

Validus also announced that, at a Special General Meeting of Shareholders held today, Validus shareholders overwhelmingly approved the issuance of Validus common shares in connection with its proposed acquisition of the outstanding common shares of IPC. Validus shareholders approved the issuance of shares with support of 98% of the shares voted at the meeting.

Mr. Noonan continued, The approval to issue Validus shares is an important step in positioning us to move forward with the proposed acquisition of IPC. We are pleased that Validus shareholders have evidenced their strong support for the acquisition of IPC, which would create a leading Bermuda carrier in the short-tail reinsurance and insurance market.

While Validus believes that reaching a consensual amalgamation transaction would be in the best interests of IPC and its shareholders, Validus remains strongly committed to acquiring IPC and will continue to pursue alternative paths to complete a transaction, including its Exchange Offer and previously announced Scheme of Arrangement. In addition, Validus is seeking to replace the IPC Board at a special meeting of IPC shareholders in order to facilitate delivering the attractive economics of Validus' offer to IPC's shareholders.

Under the terms of the Validus offer, IPC shareholders would receive $3.75 in cash and 1.1234 Validus voting common shares for each IPC common share for a total consideration of $28.25 per share based on Validus' closing stock price on June 24, 2009. The Validus offer provides a 24.9% premium based on IPC's and Validus' closing prices on March 30, 2009, the last trading day before the announcement of Validus' initial offer. Validus continues to believe that this offer provides full and fair value for IPC shares.

Validus urges IPC shareholders to follow RiskMetrics' recommendation and execute their GREEN requisition card today. Georgeson Inc. is assisting Validus with its efforts to solicit requisitions to call the special meeting. If you have any questions about executing or delivering your GREEN requisition card or require assistance, please call Georgeson Inc. toll-free at (888) 274-5119 (banks and brokerage firms should call (212) 440-9800), or email validusIPC@georgeson.com.

Executing and returning the GREEN requisition card does not commit an IPC shareholder to cast any vote for or against the proposals to be presented at the special meeting. Once the special meeting has been called, Validus will send proxy materials enabling IPC shareholders to vote on Validus' Board candidates and on the other proposals to be considered at the special meeting.
