Item 1.03 Bankruptcy or Receivership.

On August 14, 2009, Community Bank of Nevada, the principal operating subsidiary of Community Bancorp Inc. (the Company), was closed by the State of Nevada Financial Institutions Division, and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) was appointed as receiver of the bank.

In addition on August 14, 2009, Community Bank of Arizona, a subsidiary of the Company, was closed by the Arizona Department of Financial Institutions, and the FDIC was appointed as receiver of the bank.

The Company intends to file a voluntary petition in the United States Bankruptcy Court in Las Vegas in the near future, seeking relief under Chapter 7 of Title 11 of the United States Code. The Chapter 7 bankruptcy filing is a result of the regulatory actions described above.

As a result of the FDIC being appointed receiver of Community Bank of Nevada and Community Bank of Arizona (jointly the Banks) on August 14, 2009 and the planned Chapter 7 bankruptcy filing, the Company has ceased all business activity and operations since the Banks were the Company's only source of revenue. Upon filing of the petition, the court will appoint a bankruptcy trustee who will be responsible for liquidating the Company.

Item 2.04 Triggering Events that Accelerate or Increase a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement.

The planned Chapter 7 bankruptcy filing will cause an event of default under the terms of the indentures governing trust preferred securities issued by the Company's unconsolidated special purpose business trusts.

Subject to certain notice and waiting requirements particular to the documentation of each trust, upon the occurrence of this event of default, the trustee or holders of not less than 25% in principal of the outstanding debentures of each trust may declare the entire principal, premium and any accrued unpaid interest immediately due and payable.

The bankruptcy filing will also constitute an additional event of default pursuant to an outstanding $4.8 million installment loan. The Company previously announced that it was in payment default on such note.

Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing

On August 17, 2009, the Company received a NASDAQ Staff Determination letter (the Letter) confirming that NASDAQ was concerned about the Company's ability to sustain compliance with all of the requirements for continued listing on NASDAQ principally due to the closure of Community Bank of Nevada and Community Bank of Arizona. As a result, NASDAQ Staff had made a determination to delist the Company's common stock from The Nasdaq Stock Market. The Company does not intend to appeal the delisting decision. As a result, trading will be suspended on August 26, 2009. A Form 25-NSE will then be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which will remove the Company's common stock from listing and registration on The Nasdaq Stock Market.

The Letter advised us that the Company's common stock would not be immediately eligible to trade on the OTC Bulletin Board or in the Pink Sheets.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

As of August 17, 2009: (i) the Company's primary assets, excluding its investment in the Banks and its investments in the two special purpose business trusts (the Trusts) which issued the trust preferred securities, which investments are expected to be written off completely, consisted primarily of cash and cash equivalents of approximately $746,000; (ii) the Company's principal liabilities are $70.0 million of junior subordinated debentures (the Debentures) issued to the Trusts and $2.4 million in accrued and unpaid interest on the Debentures; and (iii) $4.8 million in an installment loan.
