Item 8.01 Other Events.

On December 11, 2009, General Cable Corporation (the “Company”) issued a press release announcing the determination of the initial conversion price and initial conversion rate for the Subordinated Convertible Notes due 2029 (the “2029 Notes”) offered in its exchange offer (the “Exchange Offer”) for its outstanding 1.00% Senior Convertible Notes due 2012. The 2029 Notes will have an initial conversion price of $36.75, which is equal to the minimum initial conversion price set forth in the preliminary prospectus with respect to the Exchange Offer. The initial conversion rate for the 2029 Notes will be 27.2109 per $1,000 principal amount of 2029 Notes, or 1,000 divided by the initial conversion price. Because the initial conversion price has been set at the minimum initial conversion price, the Company also announced in such press release that it has extended the expiration date of the Exchange Offer pursuant to the terms thereof to midnight, New York City time, on December 15, 2009, unless further extended or earlier terminated by the Company. The Exchange Offer had been scheduled to expire at midnight, New York City time, on December 11, 2009. Any changes in the market price of the Company’s common stock during these additional days of the Exchange Offer will not affect the initial conversion price or the initial conversion rate.

A copy of the press release announcing the extension of the Exchange Offer is attached as Exhibit 99 to this Form 8-K and incorporated into this Item 8.01 by reference.
