Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(b) On August 10, 2010, Gardner Denver, Inc. (the Company) announced that Helen W. Cornell, Executive Vice President, Finance and Chief Financial Officer of the Company, intends to retire from the Company in order to increase her involvement in family business matters. The Company has commenced an executive search to identify Mrs. Cornell s successor. Mrs. Cornell plans to remain in her role to ensure an orderly transition to her successor, which the Company expects to occur before the end of the year. The Company s press release relating to Mrs. Cornell s retirement is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements that are made in reliance upon the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. As a general matter, forward-looking statements are those focused upon anticipated events or trends, expectations, and beliefs relating to matters that are not historical in nature. Such forward-looking statements are subject to known and unknown uncertainties and other factors relating to the Company s operations and business environment, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond the control of the Company. These known and unknown uncertainties and other factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those matters expressed in, anticipated by, or implied by such forward-looking statements. The Company does not undertake, and hereby disclaims, any duty to update these forward-looking statements, although its situation and circumstances may change in the future.
