ANNUAL MEETING MATTERS

This Proxy Statement is being furnished to holders of common stock, Class B common stock and Series A preferred stock of Expedia, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Expedia or the Company), in connection with the solicitation of proxies by Expedia's Board of Directors for use at its 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders or any adjournment or postponement thereof (the Annual Meeting). The Annual Meeting is the first annual meeting of the stockholders of Expedia as a stand-alone company since the completion of Expedia's spin-off from IAC/InterActiveCorp (IAC) on August 9, 2005.

Expedia's principal offices are located at 3150 139th Avenue S.E., Bellevue, Washington 98005. This Proxy Statement and the accompanying proxy card are being mailed to Expedia stockholders on or about May 1, 2006.

Date, Time and Place of Meeting

The Annual Meeting will be held on Wednesday, May 24, 2006 at 8:00 a.m. local time at 8800 West Sunset Boulevard, West Hollywood, California 90069. If a quorum is not obtained, it is expected that the Annual Meeting will be adjourned or postponed in order to permit additional time for soliciting and obtaining additional proxies or votes, and, at any subsequent reconvening of the Annual Meeting, all proxies will be voted in the same manner as such proxies would have been voted at the original convening of the Annual Meeting, except for any proxies that have been effectively revoked or withdrawn.

Only stockholders and persons holding proxies from stockholders may attend the Annual Meeting. Seating is limited, however, and admission to the Annual Meeting will be on a first-come, first-served basis. If your shares are registered in your name, you should bring a form of identification to the Annual Meeting. If your shares are held in the name of a broker, trust, bank or other nominee, otherwise known as holding in street name, you will need to bring a proxy or letter from that broker, trust, bank or other stockholder nominee that confirms you are the beneficial owner of those shares. Cameras, recording devices and other electronic devices will not be permitted at the Annual Meeting.

Record Date and Voting Rights

General. The Board of Directors established the close of business on April 12, 2006 as the record date for determining the holders of Expedia stock entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. On the record date, 323,929,156 shares of common stock, 25,599,998 shares of Class B common stock and 846 shares of Series A preferred stock were outstanding and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Expedia stockholders are entitled to one vote for each share of common stock, 10 votes for each share of Class B common stock and two votes for each share of Series A preferred stock held as of the record date, voting together as a single voting group, in the election of six of the nine director nominees and in the ratification of Expedia's independent accountants. Expedia stockholders are entitled to one vote for each share of common stock held as of the record date in the election of the three director nominees that the holders of Expedia common stock are entitled to elect as a separate class.

As of the record date, Barry Diller, the Chairman and Senior Executive of Expedia, held an irrevocable proxy over all Expedia securities owned by Liberty Media Corporation and its subsidiaries (Liberty Media). This irrevocable proxy includes authority to vote on each of the proposals presented for approval at the Annual Meeting. Mr. Diller, through shares that he owns as well as those subject to the Liberty Media proxy, generally controls the vote of approximately 18% of the outstanding common stock and 100% of the outstanding Class B common stock and, consequently, approximately 53% of the combined voting power of the outstanding Expedia capital stock as of the record date. As a result, regardless of the vote of any other Expedia stockholder, Mr. Diller has control over the vote relating to the election of six of the nine director nominees and the ratification of Expedia's independent registered accounting firm.

Voting of Stock Held in 401(k) Plan. The trustee of Expedia's 401(k) plan for employees, Fidelity Management Trust Company, will vote Expedia stock credited to employee accounts in accordance with the voting instructions such employees give to it. The trustee will vote the 401(k) plan stock for which it does not receive voting instructions in the same proportion as the shares for which it receives voting instructions.

Quorum

Transaction of business at the Annual Meeting may occur if a quorum is present. The presence at the Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the total votes entitled to be cast constitutes a quorum. In the election of six of the nine director nominees and the ratification of Expedia's independent accountants, the presence at the Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the total votes entitled to be cast constitutes a quorum. In the election of the three directors that the holders of Expedia common stock are entitled to elect as a separate class, the presence at the Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of votes of the common stock constitutes a quorum. If a share is represented for any purpose at the meeting, it is deemed to be present for quorum purposes and for all other matters as well. Shares of Expedia stock represented by a properly executed proxy will be treated as present at the Annual Meeting for purposes of determining a quorum, without regard to whether the proxy is marked as casting a vote or abstaining.

Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining a quorum. A broker non-vote occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote the shares on a proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power for a particular item and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner regarding voting.

For the election of the directors, abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect since approval by a certain percentage of voting stock present or outstanding is not required. For the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as Expedia's independent registered accounting firm for 2006, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting stock represented at the Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote thereon is required. Abstentions will be counted toward the tabulations of votes cast on the ratification of independent registered accounting firm proposal and will have the same effect as votes against the proposal, whereas brokers have discretion to vote on the ratification of independent registered accounting firm proposal and therefore, there will be no broker non-votes.

Election of Expedia Directors

At the Annual Meeting, stockholders will be asked to elect nine members of the Board of Directors, each to hold office for a one-year term ending on the date of the next annual meeting of stockholders or until each such director's successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

Election of each of Barry Diller, Dara Khosrowshahi, Victor A. Kaufman, Jonathan Dolgen, William R. Fitzgerald and John C. Malone, as Expedia directors requires the affirmative vote of a plurality of the total number of votes cast by the holders of shares of Expedia capital stock, present in person or represented by proxy, voting together as a single class.

Election of each of A. George Skip Battle, David Goldhill and Peter Kern as Expedia common stock directors requires the affirmative vote of a plurality of the total number of votes cast by the holders of shares of Expedia common stock, present in person or represented by proxy, voting together as a separate class.

Independent Accountants Ratification

At the Annual Meeting, stockholders will also be asked to ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as Expedia's independent registered accounting firm for 2006. This ratification requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting power of the shares of Expedia capital stock, present in person or represented by proxy, voting together as a single class.

Solicitation of Proxies

Expedia will bear the cost of the solicitation of proxies from its stockholders. In addition to solicitation by mail, the directors, officers and employees of Expedia may solicit proxies from stockholders by telephone, letter, facsimile, in person or otherwise. Following the original mailing of the proxies and other soliciting materials, Expedia will request brokers, trusts, banks or other stockholder nominees to forward copies of the proxy and other soliciting materials to persons for whom they hold shares of Expedia capital stock and to request authority for the exercise of proxies. In such cases, Expedia, upon the request of the brokers, trusts, banks or other stockholder nominees, will reimburse such holders for their reasonable expenses.

Expedia has retained Mackenzie Partners, Inc. to distribute proxy solicitation materials to brokers, trusts, banks and other stockholder nominees and to assist in the solicitation of proxies from Expedia stockholders. The fee for such firm's services is estimated not to exceed $15,000 plus reimbursement for reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses.

Voting Proxies

The proxy conferred by the proxy card accompanying this Proxy Statement is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors for use at the Annual Meeting. Stockholders of record may vote their shares in any of four ways:

Submitting a Proxy by Internet: You may submit your proxy by the internet. The website for internet proxy voting is on your proxy card. Internet proxy voting is available 24 hours a day.

Submitting a Proxy by Telephone: Submit your proxy by telephone by using the toll-free telephone number provided on your proxy card. Telephone voting is available 24 hours a day.

Submitting a Proxy by Mail: Submit your proxy by mail simply by marking, dating and signing and returning it in the postage-paid envelope provided.

Voting in Person: Vote by appearing and voting in person at the Annual Meeting. Votes in person will replace any previous votes you have made by mail, telephone or the internet.

If you submit a proxy by telephone or the internet, you should not return your proxy card.

All proxies properly submitted and not revoked will be voted at the Annual Meeting in accordance with the instructions indicated thereon. If no instructions are provided, such proxies will be voted FOR each of the proposals described in this Proxy Statement.

If your shares are held in street name, follow the directions on the voting instructions card you receive from your broker, trust, bank or other stockholder nominee to submit your proxy.

Your vote is important. We encourage you to submit your proxy by telephone, internet or by signing and returning the accompanying proxy card, or by following the directions on your proxy card, whether or not you plan to attend the Annual Meeting.

Revocation of Proxies

A stockholder who has given a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is exercised at the Annual Meeting by (1) delivering written notice, bearing a date later than the proxy, stating that the proxy is revoked, (2) submitting a later-dated proxy relating to the same stock by mail, telephone or the internet prior to the vote at the Annual Meeting, or (3) attending the Annual Meeting and giving notice of revocation to the inspector of elections or voting in person. Registered holders may send any written notice or request of a new proxy card to Expedia, Inc., c/o The Bank of New York Shareholder Services, P.O. Box 11258, New York, New York 10286, or follow the instructions provided on your proxy card to submit a new proxy by telephone or the internet. You may also request a new proxy card by calling

Edgar Filing: Expedia, Inc. - Form DEF 14A

Expedia's proxy solicitor, Mackenzie Partners, Inc., at 1-800-322-2885.

If your shares are held in street name, you may revoke the proxy or change your vote only by following the separate instructions provided by your broker, trust, bank or other stockholder nominee.

Other Business

The Board of Directors does not presently intend to bring any business before the Annual Meeting other than the proposals discussed in this Proxy Statement and specified in the Notice of Annual Meeting. The Board has no knowledge of any other matters to be presented at the Annual Meeting other than those described in this Proxy Statement. If any other matters should properly come before the Annual Meeting, it is the intention of the persons designated in the proxy to vote on them according to their best judgment.

In order to vote in person at the Annual Meeting, stockholders of record must attend the meeting and cast their votes in accordance with the voting procedures established for the Annual Meeting. Attendance at the Annual Meeting without voting or revoking a previous proxy in accordance with the voting procedures will not in and of itself revoke a proxy. If your shares are held in street name, and you want to attend the Annual Meeting, please bring to the Annual Meeting a letter from your broker, trust, bank or other stockholder nominee identifying you as the beneficial owner of the shares and authorizing you to vote.

Board of Directors

Expedia is subject to the Nasdaq Marketplace Rules (the Marketplace Rules). The Marketplace Rules exempt controlled companies, or companies of which more than 50% of the voting power is held by an individual, group or another company, from certain requirements.

Pursuant to a Stockholders Agreement between Mr. Diller and Liberty Media, Mr. Diller, through shares owned by him as well as those owned by Liberty Media and its subsidiaries, generally controls the vote of approximately 18% of the outstanding common stock and 100% of the outstanding Class B common stock, and consequently, approximately 53% of the combined voting power of the outstanding Expedia capital stock. Mr. Diller, Liberty Media and certain of their affiliates have filed a Statement of Beneficial Ownership on Schedule 13D (and related amendments) with respect to their Expedia holdings and related voting arrangements with the SEC. On this basis, Expedia is relying on the exemption for controlled companies to certain Nasdaq requirements, including, among others, exemptions relating to a majority-independent Board and nominating committee member requirements. Expedia currently has, but is not required to maintain, a fully independent Compensation/Benefits Committee.

The Board of Directors met twice in 2005 after the date of the spin-off. During such period, all the incumbent directors attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board and the Board committees on which they served. Directors are not required to attend annual meetings of Expedia stockholders.

Board Committees

The Board of Directors has the following standing committees: the Audit Committee, the Compensation/Benefits Committee, the Section 16 Committee and the Executive Committee.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors currently consists of, and since the completion of the spin-off has consisted of, three directors, Messrs. Battle, Goldhill and Kern. Each Audit Committee member satisfies the independence requirements under the current standards imposed by the rules of the SEC and the Marketplace Rules. The Board has determined that each Audit Committee member is an audit committee financial expert, as such term is defined in the regulations promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act).

The Audit Committee functions pursuant to a written charter adopted by the Board, pursuant to which the Audit Committee is granted the responsibilities and authority necessary to comply with Rule 10A-3 of the Exchange Act. A copy of the Expedia, Inc. Audit Committee Charter is attached to this Proxy Statement as Annex A. The Audit Committee is appointed by the Board to assist the Board with a variety of matters, including monitoring (1) the integrity of the financial statements of Expedia, (2) the independent registered accounting firm's qualifications and independence, (3) the performance of Expedia's internal audit function and independent registered accounting firm and (4) the compliance with legal and regulatory requirements.

Table of Contents

Mr. Battle is the Chairman of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee met five times and acted by written consent twice in 2005 after the date of the spin-off. The formal report of the Audit Committee with respect to the year ended December 31, 2005 is set forth under the heading "Audit Committee Report" below.

Compensation/Benefits Committee. The Compensation/Benefits Committee consists of Messrs. Dolgen and Kern. Prior to his resignation from the Board in November 2005, Robert Bennett also served as a member of the Compensation/Benefits Committee.

The Compensation/Benefits Committee is authorized to exercise all of the powers of the Board with respect to matters pertaining to compensation and benefits, including, but not limited to, salary matters, incentive/bonus plans, stock compensation plans, investment programs and insurance plans, except that the Section 16 Committee (see below) exercises such powers with respect to matters governed by Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act. Neither member of the Compensation/Benefits Committee is an employee of Expedia.

Mr. Dolgen is the Chairman of the Compensation/Benefits Committee. The Compensation/Benefits Committee met once and acted by written consent twice in 2005 after the date of the spin-off.

Section 16 Committee. The Section 16 Committee consists of Messrs. Dolgen and Kern. Each member satisfies the definition of "non-employee director" for purposes of Section 16 of the Exchange Act. The Section 16 Committee is authorized to exercise all powers of the Board with respect to matters governed by Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act, including approving grants of equity awards to Expedia's executive officers. Mr. Dolgen is the Chairman of the Committee. The Section 16 Committee met once and acted by written consent once in 2005 after the date of the spin-off.

Executive Committee. The Executive Committee consists of Messrs. Diller, Kaufman and Khosrowshahi. The Executive Committee has all the power and authority of the Board, except those powers specifically reserved to the Board by Delaware law. Mr. Diller is the Chairman of the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee acted once by written consent in 2005 after the date of the spin-off.

Other Committees. In addition to the foregoing committees, the Board of Directors may from time to time establish other committees of the Board consisting of one or more of its directors.

Director Nominations

The Board of Directors does not have a nominating committee or other committee performing similar functions or any formal policy on director nominations. Liberty Media, an affiliate of Expedia, has the right to nominate two directors for election to the Board so long as certain stock ownership requirements are satisfied. At the completion of the spin-off, the two directors designated by Liberty Media were Robert Bennett and Dr. Malone. Effective November 30, 2005, Gregory B. Maffei replaced Mr. Bennett as a Liberty Media nominee. Mr. Maffei resigned from the Board effective February 27, 2006. Effective March 7, 2006, Mr. Fitzgerald was elected to the Board to serve as a Liberty Media nominee. Dr. Malone has continued to serve on the Board since the spin-off. Liberty Media has nominated Mr. Fitzgerald and Dr. Malone as nominees for 2006. The other nominees to the Board have been recommended by the Chairman, upon consultation with other members of the Board, and then were considered by the entire Board. The Board does not have specific requirements for eligibility to serve as a director of Expedia. However, in evaluating candidates, regardless of how recommended, the Board considers whether the professional and personal ethics and values of the candidate are consistent with those of Expedia, whether the candidate's experience and expertise would be beneficial to the Board in rendering service to Expedia, whether the candidate is willing and able to devote the necessary time and energy to the work of the Board and whether the candidate is prepared and qualified to represent the best interests of Expedia's stockholders. Given the controlled status of Expedia, the Board believes the process described above is appropriate.

The Board does not have a formal policy regarding the consideration of director candidates recommended by stockholders. However, the Board would consider such recommendations if made in the future. Stockholders who wish to make such a recommendation should send the recommendation to Expedia, Inc., 3150 139th Avenue S.E., Bellevue, Washington 98005, Attention: Corporate Secretary. The envelope must contain a clear notation that the enclosed letter is a Director Nominee Recommendation. The letter must identify the author as a stockholder, provide a brief summary of the candidate's qualifications and history and be accompanied by evidence of the sender's stock ownership, as well as consent by the candidate to serve as a director if elected. Any director candidate recommendations will be reviewed by the Corporate Secretary and, if deemed appropriate, forwarded to the Chairman for further review. If the Chairman believes that the candidate fits the profile of a director nominee as described above, the recommendation will be shared with the entire Board.

Communications With the Board

Stockholders who wish to communicate with the Board of Directors or a particular director may send such communication to Expedia, Inc., 3150 139th Avenue S.E., Bellevue, Washington 98005, Attention: Corporate Secretary. The mailing envelope must contain a clear notation indicating that the enclosed letter is a Stockholder-Board Communication or Stockholder-Director Communication. All such letters must identify the author as a stockholder, provide evidence of the sender's stock ownership and clearly state whether the intended recipients are all members of the Board or just certain specified directors. The Corporate Secretary will then review such correspondence and forward it to the Board, or to the specified directors, if appropriate. Communications that are primarily commercial in nature, are not relevant to stockholders or other interested constituents or relate to improper or irrelevant topics will generally not be forwarded to the Board or to specified directors.

Compensation of Directors

Each director of Expedia who is not an employee of Expedia or any of its businesses or affiliates or a Liberty Media nominee receives an annual retainer of $30,000. Expedia pays such qualifying directors $1,000 for each Board and each Committee meeting attended. In addition, each qualifying director receives a grant of 7,500 restricted stock units (or such lesser number of restricted stock units with a dollar value of $250,000) upon such director's initial election to office and annually thereafter on the date of Expedia's annual meeting of stockholders at which the director is re-elected. These restricted stock units vest in three equal annual installments commencing on the first anniversary of the grant date. The Chairmen of the Audit and Compensation/Benefits Committees and each member of the Audit Committee receive an additional annual retainer of $10,000, and each member of the Compensation/Benefits Committee receives an additional annual retainer of $5,000. Expedia also reimburses directors for all reasonable expenses incurred by directors as a result of attendance at meetings.

Under Expedia's Non-Employee Director Deferred Compensation Plan, non-employee directors may defer all or a portion of their annual retainer and all of their meeting attendance fees. Eligible directors who defer their directors fees can elect to have such deferred fees (i) applied to the purchase of share units, representing the number of shares of Expedia common stock that could have been purchased on the relevant date, or (ii) credited to a cash fund. If any dividends are paid on Expedia common stock, dividend equivalents will be credited on the share units. The cash fund will be credited with deemed interest at an annual rate equal to the weighted-average prime or base lending rate of The Chase Manhattan Bank (or successor thereto). Upon termination, a director will receive (1) with respect to share units, such number of shares of Expedia common stock as the share units represent and (2) with respect to the cash fund, a cash payment. Payments upon termination will be made in either one lump sum or up to five installments, as elected by the eligible director at the time of the deferral election.

Mr. Kaufman serves as Vice Chairman of our Board of Directors. Mr. Kaufman also serves as the Vice Chairman of IAC. Pursuant to an agreement entered into with IAC on February 5, 2004 and amended June 7, 2005, prior to the spin-off, Mr. Kaufman agreed that for so long as he is Vice Chairman of Expedia, he will devote at least 80% of his business time to IAC and Expedia, with IAC as his first priority. Mr. Kaufman did not receive any compensation from Expedia, directly or indirectly, for services provided to Expedia prior to the spin-off. On February 28, 2006, Mr. Kaufman was awarded 25,627 Restricted Stock Units under the Expedia 2005 Stock and Annual Incentive Plan, valued at $486,144 based on Expedia's closing price of $18.97 on the grant date. The restricted stock units vest in equal installments on the first and second anniversary of the date of grant based on Mr. Kaufman continuing to provide service to Expedia. Mr. Kaufman is considered an executive officer of Expedia, and is not entitled to receive compensation paid to non-employee directors.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Pursuant to Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act, Expedia officers and directors and persons who beneficially own more than 10% of a registered class of Expedia's equity securities are required to file initial statements of beneficial ownership (Form 3) and statements of changes in beneficial ownership (Forms 4 and 5) with the SEC. Such persons are required by the rules of the SEC to furnish Expedia with copies of all such forms they file. Based solely on a review of the copies of such forms furnished to Expedia and/or written representations that no additional forms were required, Expedia believes that its officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners complied with these filing requirements for 2005, except Mr. Maffei, who did not file a Form 3.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Board of Directors currently has a Compensation/Benefits Committee and a Section 16 Committee, both consisting of Messrs. Dolgen and Kern. Mr. Bennett served as a member of the Compensation/Benefits Committee until his resignation from the Board in November 2005. None of Messrs. Dolgen, Kern or Bennett was an executive officer of an entity for which an executive officer of Expedia served as a member of the compensation committee or as a director during the period from the spin-off until December 31, 2005.

Treatment of IAC Equity-Based Compensation Awards in Connection With the Spin-Off

The following describes the treatment of outstanding IAC equity-based compensation awards which converted into Expedia equity-based awards on the effectiveness of the spin-off. The number of shares and the option exercise price, in the case of options, underlying each of the outstanding IAC equity-based compensation awards was adjusted based on the relative market capitalizations of IAC and Expedia following the spin-off and giving effect to a one-for-two reverse stock split.

Vested Options. Each vested option to purchase shares of IAC common stock converted into an option to purchase shares of IAC common stock and an option to purchase shares of Expedia common stock. Except to the extent provided above or as otherwise provided under local law, the converted options have the same terms and conditions, including the same exercise periods, as the vested options to purchase IAC common stock had immediately prior to the spin-off. Solely for purposes of determining the expiration of options with respect to shares of common stock of one company held by employees of the other company, employees are deemed employed by both IAC and Expedia for so long as they continue to be employed by the company that employed them immediately following the spin-off.

Unvested Options. Each unvested option to purchase shares of IAC common stock held by an employee continuing with Expedia after the spin-off (other than those unvested options held by Mr. Diller) converted into an unvested option to purchase shares of Expedia common stock. Each unvested option to purchase shares of IAC common stock held by Mr. Diller converted into an unvested option to purchase shares of IAC common stock and an unvested option to purchase shares of Expedia common stock. Except to the extent provided above or as otherwise provided under local law, the unvested options to purchase shares of common stock have the same terms and conditions, including the same vesting provisions and exercise periods, as the unvested IAC options had immediately prior to the spin-off.

Restricted Stock Units. Each IAC restricted stock unit held by an employee continuing with Expedia after the spin-off converted into an Expedia restricted stock unit. Except to the extent otherwise provided under local law, the restricted stock units have the same terms and conditions, including the same vesting provisions, as the IAC restricted stock units had immediately prior to the spin-off.

Summary Compensation Table

The following table sets forth the compensation paid by Expedia for services rendered in all capacities during the last fiscal year by Expedia's Chief Executive Officer and four other most highly compensated executive officers (the Named Executive Officers). Prior to August 9, 2005, Expedia operated as a division of IAC. This table includes all compensation received from IAC for services performed in 2005 for those officers who devoted substantially all their efforts to Expedia's businesses prior to August 9, 2005. Prior to the spin-off, Mr. Diller devoted substantial time and effort to other IAC businesses and the IAC organization in general, and not exclusively to Expedia's businesses; accordingly, the following table excludes compensation received by Mr. Diller for services rendered to IAC prior to August 9, 2005.

to continued employment. Upon a termination of Mr. Diller's employment for death, disability, by IAC without Cause (as defined in the IAC 2005 Stock and Annual Incentive Plan), or by Mr. Diller for Good Reason (as defined generally in the IAC 2005 Stock and Annual Incentive Plan), the options will vest pro rata at 20% per year of completed service from the date of grant to the date of termination. Upon a termination of employment (other than for Cause), Mr. Diller will have one year to exercise vested options (up to the end of the 10-year term). Upon a Change in Control (as defined in Mr. Diller's grant agreement), a minimum of 20% of the options will vest, with an additional 20% vesting for each completed year of service following the grant date. Upon any termination of Mr. Diller for Cause, the options will be forfeited and any profits from the exercise of either option within the year immediately prior to the termination will be returned to IAC.

On completion of the spin-off, each unvested option to purchase shares of IAC common stock held by Mr. Diller converted into an unvested option to purchase shares of IAC common stock and an unvested option to purchase shares of Expedia common stock with adjustments to the number of shares subject to each option and the option exercise prices based on the relative market capitalizations of IAC and Expedia following the spin-off and giving effect to the one-for-two reverse stock split. Following completion of the spin-off, the satisfaction of conditions to vesting of Mr. Diller's options to purchase shares of Expedia common stock is determined based on Mr. Diller's employment with Expedia.

- (2) Represents the percent of options granted to Expedia employees during fiscal year 2005.
- (3) The dollar amounts under these columns result from calculations at the 5% and 10% rates in accordance with regulations of the SEC. These dollar amounts are not intended to forecast possible future appreciation, if any, of the common stock price. The information in these columns assumes that all options are exercised at the end of each of their terms. Each option has a ten-year term. Actual gains, if any, on stock option exercises will depend on factors such as the future performance of the Company and overall stock market conditions. Accordingly, the amount of any such gains cannot be predicted.

Spin-off. Prior to the spin-off, outstanding equity awards held by Mr. Khosrowshahi, Expedia's Chief Executive Officer, were amended to provide that in the event of his termination of employment without cause, all restricted stock units held by Mr. Khosrowshahi on the date of the spin-off will vest all options that are vested on the date of termination will remain exercisable for a period of 24 months from the date of termination or until the stated expiration date of the option, whichever is shorter. Immediately following the spin-off, Mr. Khosrowshahi held unvested restricted stock units under three awards, covering a total of 263,185 shares of Expedia common stock and options to purchase 1,018,339 shares of Expedia common stock, of which 955,839 were vested.

Termination of employment without cause includes the resignation by Mr. Khosrowshahi for good reason, which is defined as an adverse change in Mr. Khosrowshahi's powers and duties, such that new powers and duties are inconsistent with Mr. Khosrowshahi's position and status.

March 2006. On March 7, 2006, both the Compensation/Benefits Committee and the Section 16 Committee (the Committees) of the Board of Directors approved certain compensation arrangements with Mr. Khosrowshahi, including the grant of 800,000 restricted stock units that vest as described below.

Upon Expedia's achievement of (i) certain operating income before amortization (OIBA) targets approved by the Committees and (ii) either achievement of a target increase in the price of the Company's common stock or the achievement of certain EBITA targets approved by the Committees (the Performance Goals), 75% of the restricted stock unit grant will vest (the Initial Vesting). If Mr. Khosrowshahi has not voluntarily terminated his employment with Expedia or has not been terminated for cause on the first anniversary of the Initial Vesting, the remaining portion of the restricted stock units will vest.

If Expedia terminates Mr. Khosrowshahi without cause in any year in which OIBA reaches the targets approved by the Committees for that year, then 75% of the restricted stock units will vest upon such termination of employment, subject to Expedia's achievement of one of the Performance Goals, and the remaining restricted stock units will be forfeited.

If there is a Change in Control of Expedia, then 50% of the outstanding restricted stock units vest immediately, without regard to the OIBA targets or Performance Goals. If within one year of the Change in Control, Mr. Khosrowshahi is terminated without cause or Mr. Khosrowshahi terminates employment following a modification of his duties and responsibilities, then the remaining restricted stock units will vest, without regard to the OIBA targets or Performance Goals. For the purposes of the restricted stock unit grant, a Change in Control is as defined in Expedia's 2005 Stock and Annual Incentive Plan, provided that such definition also includes termination of the irrevocable proxy held by Mr. Diller to vote shares of Expedia held by Liberty Media or its affiliates, or the acquisition by Liberty Media or its affiliates, of beneficial ownership of equity securities of Expedia, whereby Liberty Media acquires or assumes more than 35% of the voting power of the then outstanding equity securities of Expedia entitled to vote generally on the election of Expedia's directors.

In connection with the foregoing arrangements, Mr. Khosrowshahi has agreed not to compete with Expedia's businesses during the term of his employment with Expedia and for a period of two years from his date of departure.

Change in Control provisions of Expedia's 2005 Stock and Annual Incentive Plan

Unless otherwise provided by the Compensation/Benefits Committee of the Board of Directors (the Committee) in an award agreement (and with respect to such adjusted awards only if provided in an applicable award agreement or in the IAC Long Term Incentive Plan under which the award was granted), in the event of a Change in Control (as defined in Expedia's 2005 Stock and Annual Incentive Plan) of Expedia, in the case of officers of Expedia who are Senior Vice Presidents and above as of the time of the Change in Control and, in the case of other employees of Expedia if provided by the Committee in an award agreement (i) any stock appreciation rights and stock options outstanding as of the date of the Change in Control which are not then exercisable and vested will become fully exercisable and vested, (ii) the restrictions and deferral limitations applicable to restricted stock will lapse and such restricted stock will become free of all restrictions and fully vested, (iii) all restricted stock units will be considered to be earned and payable in full and any deferral or other restrictions will lapse and such restricted stock units will be settled in cash or shares of Expedia common stock as promptly as practicable, and (iv) bonus awards may be paid out in whole or in part, in the discretion of the Committee, notwithstanding whether performance goals have been achieved. In addition, in the event that, during the two-year period following a Change in Control, a participant's employment is terminated other than for cause or disability or a participant resigns for good reason, (i) any stock appreciation rights and stock options outstanding as of the date of the Change in Control will become fully exercisable and vested and will remain exercisable for the greater of (a) the period that they would remain exercisable absent the Change in Control provision and (b) the lesser of the expiration of the term of such stock appreciation right or stock option or one year following such termination of employment, (ii) the restrictions and deferral limitations applicable to restricted stock will lapse and such restricted stock will become free of all restrictions and fully vested, and (iii) all restricted stock units will be considered to be earned and payable in full and any deferral or other restrictions will lapse and such restricted stock units will be settled in cash or shares of Expedia common stock as promptly as practicable.

PROPOSAL 2:

RATIFICATION OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED ACCOUNTING FIRM

Ernst & Young LLP currently serves as Expedia's independent registered accounting firm and conducted the audit of Expedia's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has appointed Ernst & Young LLP as Expedia's independent registered accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2006.

Selection of Expedia's independent accountants is not required to be submitted to a vote of the stockholders for ratification. The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 requires that the Audit Committee be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the audit work of the independent registered accounting firm. However, the Board is submitting this matter to the stockholders as a matter of good corporate practice. If the stockholders fail to vote on an advisory basis in favor of the appointment, the Audit Committee will reconsider whether to retain Ernst & Young LLP, and may retain that firm or another without resubmitting the matter to Expedia stockholders. Even if stockholders vote on an advisory basis in favor of the appointment, the Audit Committee may, at its discretion, direct the appointment of different independent registered accounting firm at any time during the year if it determines that such a change would be in the best interests of Expedia and its stockholders.

A representative of Ernst & Young LLP is expected to be present at the Annual Meeting and will be given an opportunity to make a statement if he or she so chooses and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

The Board of Directors recommends that the stockholders vote FOR ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as Expedia's independent accountants for 2006.

COMPENSATION/BENEFITS COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation/Benefits Committee of the Board of Directors and the Section 16 Committee (collectively, the Committee) are composed of independent non-employee directors. The Committee is responsible for administering and overseeing Expedia's executive compensation program. The Committee, as constituted as of December 31, 2005, furnished the following joint report that provides an overview of Expedia's compensation philosophy and executive compensation programs for the 2005 fiscal year.

Compensation Philosophy

The 2005 compensation programs described in this proxy statement were primarily established by the Compensation Committee of the IAC board of directors (the IAC Compensation Committee) while Expedia was a controlled group within IAC. IAC programs in effect prior to the spin-off are governed by the Employee Matters Agreement entered into between IAC and Expedia. Following the spin-off, Expedia's executive compensation program is designed to reward performance and to align the financial interests of Expedia's executive officers with those of the equity owners of Expedia. To achieve this end, the Committee reviewed the existing elements of compensation for executive officers (which in most cases were determined by IAC prior to the spin-off) and approved a compensation program consisting primarily of base salaries, bonuses and equity compensation designed to attract, retain and motivate highly skilled executives with the business experience and acumen it believes necessary for achievement of Expedia's long-term business objectives.

The compensation of Expedia's Chief Executive Officer and the four other most highly compensated executive officers is governed in part by the terms of certain agreements, which are described under Agreements with Certain Executive Officers herein.

Base Salary

In determining base salaries paid to Expedia's executive officers, the Committee takes into account a variety of factors, including (i) recommendations of the Chief Executive Officer and materials and information provided by the Expedia human resources department, (ii) competitive factors, (iii) individual performance and an assessment of the value of the individual's services to Expedia, (iv) the fairness of individual executive officers' salaries relative to their responsibilities and individual compensation history, (v) the salaries of other executive officers, and (vi) Expedia's financial performance. The Committee does not apply a formulaic approach, and gives these criteria varying degrees of weight depending on the specific circumstances.

Annual Bonus

Under the 2005 Stock and Annual Incentive Plan, Expedia's executive officers are eligible for annual bonuses based on the achievement of performance factors. Prior to the spin-off, in early 2005, the IAC Compensation Committee established performance goals under the plan relating to stock price appreciation and growth in Earnings Before Interest, Taxes and Amortization (EBITA) required to be met in order for bonuses to become payable, as well as maximum bonus amounts for each executive officer. Prior to the spin-off, in August 2005, the IAC Compensation Committee certified that the performance goals had been met. In March 2006, bonuses were approved for the executive officers with respect to the 2005 calendar year based upon satisfaction of these performance goals. The Expedia Compensation Committee exercised its discretion to reduce the bonuses payable to certain executive officers under the plan after taking into account a number of considerations, including the recommendation of the Chief Executive Officer and materials and information provided by the human resources department, other Expedia performance measures, the Committee's view of the individual's performance and contribution to Expedia during the year and competitive factors, in order to determine the final amount payable.

Stock-Based Compensation

In determining overall equity grant levels throughout Expedia and its businesses, the Committee evaluates a number of considerations, including dilution rates, the practices of peer companies, the recommendations of management and materials and information provided by the human resources department, and the cost to Expedia of such equity compensation. Once aggregate equity pools are established for Expedia and its businesses, the Committee approves equity grants to each executive officer other than the CEO. The Committee reviews and approves each grant to the executive officers based on a variety of factors, including the individual performance of the executive officer, an assessment of the value of the individual's services to Expedia, the awards given to other executives, the recommendation of the CEO and the desire to keep Expedia's overall compensation competitive. These grants typically vest in equal installments on the first five anniversaries of the grant date, with certain additional grants vesting in their entirety on the fifth anniversary of the grant date. It is the current intention that all grants to executive officers will be subject to the satisfaction of certain specified performance goals generally tied to stock price performance and growth in EBITA.

Compensation of Chief Executive Officer for the Fiscal Year

Mr. Khosrowshahi was CFO of IAC and became Chief Executive Officer of Expedia in connection with the spin-off. Effective January 15, 2002, IAC authorized the payment to Mr. Khosrowshahi of an annual base salary of $550,000, which was his base salary as of the spin-off. In February 2005, Mr. Khosrowshahi was granted IAC restricted stock units that converted at the time of the spin-off into 94,174 Expedia restricted stock units. In March 2006, the Committee approved an annual bonus of $550,000 for Mr. Khosrowshahi with respect to the 2005 calendar year. Mr. Khosrowshahi did not receive any equity based awards from Expedia in 2005. The Committee believes that Mr. Khosrowshahi's total compensation received from Expedia with respect to 2005 was fair and reasonable in light of the compensation philosophy referenced above.

Tax Matters

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally permits a tax deduction to public corporations for compensation over $1,000,000 paid in any fiscal year to a corporation's chief executive officer and four other most highly compensated executive officers only if the compensation qualifies as being performance-based. Expedia has endeavored to structure its compensation policies to qualify as performance-based under Section 162(m).

Nonetheless, from time to time certain non-deductible compensation may be paid and the Board, the Compensation/Benefits Committee and the Section 16 Committee reserve the authority to award non-deductible compensation in appropriate circumstances. In addition, it is possible that some compensation paid pursuant to certain equity awards that have already been granted may be nondeductible as a result of Section 162(m).

Summary

The Committee believes that Expedia's executive compensation program must continually provide executives with a strong incentive to focus on and achieve Expedia's business objectives. By ensuring that executives are appropriately compensated with an appropriate mix of salary and short- and long-term incentive compensation, the Committee believes the long-term interests of stockholders will be best served. The actions taken by the Committee with respect to 2005 compensation were consistent with this focus and the principles outlined above.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

From the time of the spin-off, the Audit Committee has consisted of three independent directors and has operated under a written charter, which was adopted by the Board of Directors. The Audit Committee charter governs the operations of the Audit Committee and sets forth its responsibilities, which include providing assistance to the Board with the monitoring of (1) the integrity of Expedia's financial statements, (2) the qualifications and independence of Expedia's independent registered accounting firm, (3) the performance of Expedia's internal audit function and independent registered accounting firm and (4) the compliance by Expedia with legal and regulatory requirements. It is not the duty of the Audit Committee to plan or conduct audits or to determine that Expedia's financial statements and disclosures are complete, accurate and in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and applicable rules and regulations. These are the responsibilities of management and the independent registered accounting firm.

In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited consolidated financial statements of Expedia for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 with Expedia's management and Ernst & Young LLP, Expedia's independent registered accounting firm.

In this context, the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited consolidated financial statements with management and the independent accountants. The Audit Committee has discussed with Ernst & Young LLP the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees. In addition, the Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from Ernst & Young LLP required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees and has discussed with Ernst & Young LLP its independence from Expedia and its management. Finally, the Audit Committee has considered whether the independent registered accounting firm's provision of non-audit services to the Company is compatible with the independent registered accounting firm's independence.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, among other things, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board that the audited consolidated financial statements for Expedia for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 be included in Expedia's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 for filing with the SEC.

Audit Committee Review and Pre-Approval of Independent Accountants Fees

The Audit Committee has considered the non-audit services provided by Ernst & Young LLP as described above and believes that they are compatible with maintaining Ernst & Young LLP's independence as Expedia's principal independent accountants.

During 2005, the Audit Committee adopted a policy governing the pre-approval of all audit and permitted non-audit services performed by Expedia's independent accountants to ensure that the provision of such services does not impair the accountants' independence from Expedia and its management. Unless a type of service to be provided by Expedia's independent registered accounting firm has received general pre-approval from the Audit Committee, it requires specific pre-approval by the Audit Committee. The payment of any proposed services in excess of pre-approved cost levels requires specific pre-approval by the Audit Committee.

Pursuant to its pre-approval policy, the Audit Committee may delegate its authority to pre-approve services to one or more of its members, and has currently delegated this authority to its Chairman, subject to a limit of $250,000 per approval. The decisions of the Chairman (or any other member(s) to whom such authority may be delegated) to grant pre-approvals must be presented to the full Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting. The Audit Committee may not delegate its responsibilities to pre-approve services to management.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Relationships with Officers and Directors

Subject to the terms of a Stockholders Agreement between Mr. Diller and Liberty Media, Mr. Diller holds an irrevocable proxy to vote shares of Expedia common stock and Class B common stock beneficially owned by Liberty Media. By virtue of the proxy, as well as through shares owned by Mr. Diller directly, Mr. Diller is effectively able to control the outcome of all matters submitted to a vote or for the consent of Expedia's stockholders (other than with respect to the election by the holders of Expedia common stock of 25% of the members of Expedia's Board of Directors and matters as to which Delaware law requires a separate class vote).

Mr. Diller is also the chairman and CEO of IAC, and through similar arrangements among Mr. Diller, Dr. Malone and Liberty, Mr. Diller is effectively able to control the outcome of all matters submitted to a vote or for the consent of IAC's stockholders (other than with respect to the election by the holders of IAC common stock of 25% of the members of IAC's Board of Directors and matters as to which Delaware law requires a separate class vote).

Relationships between Expedia and IAC

In connection with the spin-off, Expedia and IAC entered into various agreements, including, among others, a separation agreement, a tax sharing agreement, an employee matters agreement and a transition services agreement. Copies of each of these agreements were filed as exhibits to Expedia's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended September 30, 2005.

Under the transition services agreement, IAC agreed to provide certain assistance and services to Expedia on an interim, transitional basis, which during the period from August 9, 2005 through December 31, 2005 consisted primarily of assistance with governmental affairs and the leasing of certain office space by IAC to Expedia, among other assistance and services. Charges for assistance and services provided pursuant to this agreement are on a cost plus fixed percentage or hourly basis, as applicable. Expedia paid IAC approximately $140,000 for assistance and services provided by IAC pursuant to this agreement for the period from August 9, 2005 to December 31, 2005.

In connection with the Spin-Off, Expedia and IAC also entered into certain other arrangements, including arrangements regarding the sharing of certain costs and the use and ownership of certain aircraft and various commercial agreements, including distribution and services agreements and an agreement regarding the provision and use of certain advertising time, which are described below.

Cost-Sharing Arrangements. In connection with the spin-off, Expedia and IAC agreed, in light of Mr. Diller's senior role at both companies and his anticipated use of certain resources to the benefit of both companies, that certain expenses associated with such usage would be shared equally. These expenses include certain of Mr. Diller's business expenses, costs for equipment dedicated to Mr. Diller's use and expenses relating to Mr. Diller's support staff, as well as certain other costs. In addition, Expedia and IAC agreed that costs incurred by IAC in connection with the provision of certain personal benefits to Mr. Diller would also be shared equally. Payments by Expedia to IAC pursuant to these arrangements were approximately $250,000 for the period from August 9, 2005 through December 31, 2005, which amount does not include Expedia's share of costs attributable to Mr. Diller's personal use of Company aircraft, which are discussed below.

Aircraft Agreements. In connection with the spin-off, Expedia and a subsidiary of IAC entered into a time-sharing agreement, pursuant to which Expedia may use the aircraft jointly owned by a subsidiary of IAC and an affiliate of Mr. Diller. Pursuant to the time sharing arrangement, Expedia will pay IAC the maximum amount permitted under applicable Federal Aviation Association regulations for use of the aircraft, or roughly two times the actual fuel cost incurred in such usage, plus certain enumerated out-of-pocket expenses. Payments made by Expedia for use of this aircraft for Expedia business and its share of costs attributable to Mr. Diller's personal use of this aircraft for the period from August 9, 2005 through December 31, 2005 were approximately $340,000.

Each of Expedia and IAC has a 50% ownership interest in an aircraft that may be used by both companies. Expedia and IAC entered into an operating agreement that allocates the cost of operating and maintaining the aircraft between the parties based on the actual usage by each company. This aircraft is not yet operational and is currently being refurbished. In accordance with the operating agreement, each company is responsible for 50% of all costs relating to the refurbishment, which costs are generally paid directly by each company to third parties. On the fifth anniversary of the spin-off and annually thereafter, or at any time when Mr. Diller ceases to serve as Chairman of either Expedia or IAC, IAC will have a call right and Expedia will have a put right with respect to Expedia's interest in the aircraft, in each case at fair market value. IAC has the right to sell the aircraft on behalf of both parties.

Commercial Agreements. In connection with the spin-off, Expedia entered into distribution and/or services agreements with certain IAC subsidiaries.

Pursuant to distribution agreements, certain IAC businesses make available inventory and promotional offers from various Expedia travel suppliers, as well as travel content and commerce links from an Expedia business. Certain Expedia businesses make commerce links, select ticketing and resort inventory and discount programs offered by various IAC businesses available to their customers. Distribution agreements typically involve the payment of fees (usually on a fixed, per transaction, revenue share or commission basis) from the party seeking distribution of the product or service to the party that is providing the distribution. Services agreements primarily involve call center support and advertising sales services provided by IAC businesses, as well as private-label travel services provided by Expedia businesses.

For the period from August 9, 2005 through December 31, 2005, aggregate amounts paid by Expedia to IAC businesses pursuant to commercial agreements, primarily for call center services and, to a lesser extent, advertising services, were approximately $10.0 million. Aggregate payments received by Expedia from IAC businesses during this period pursuant to commercial agreements, primarily for advertising services and in connection with the participation by Expedia businesses in certain discount programs, were approximately $810,000.

Advertising Agreement. Prior to the spin-off, IAC provided certain Expedia subsidiaries with advertising time, primarily on the USA and Sci Fi cable channels, without any cash cost, pursuant to existing agreements with these subsidiaries.

In connection with the spin-off, IAC agreed that Expedia was entitled to approximately $17.1 million from the remaining advertising time available to IAC from Universal through its 2001 media agreement. This advertising time, which expires in 2007, may be used by Expedia subject to maximum annual dollar thresholds. Expedia used approximately $7.5 million of this advertising time during the period from August 9, 2005 through December 31, 2005 and in addition, used approximately $8.0 million of this advertising time during the period from January 1, 2006 through February 28, 2006.

Relationships between Expedia and Liberty Media Corporation

In connection with the spin-off, Liberty Media, Expedia and Mr. Diller entered into a Governance Agreement pursuant to which Liberty Media has the right to nominate up to two individuals for election to the Board, and certain other rights regarding committee participation, so long as certain stock ownership requirements applicable to Liberty Media are satisfied. The Governance Agreement also provides Liberty Media preemptive rights that generally entitle it to purchase a number of Expedia common shares so that, if Expedia issues or proposes to issue shares of Expedia common stock or Expedia Class B common stock, Liberty Media will maintain the same percentage ownership interest in Expedia that Liberty Media held immediately prior to such issuance or proposed issuance. In 2005, Liberty Media paid approximately $75,000 to Expedia for corporate travel services.

Relationship between Expedia and Microsoft

The Microsoft Corporation beneficially owns more than 5% of Expedia common stock. Expedia has entered into a series of commercial agreements with Microsoft, which generally relate to the adoption of Microsoft technology, software and functionality, branding and advertising, including an agreement that maintains Expedia's presence as the provider of travel shopping services on MSN.com and several international MSN websites. Expedia believes that the terms of these agreements are commercially appropriate. Total fees paid to Microsoft by Expedia with respect to these arrangements in 2005 were approximately $20.0 million. In the ordinary course of business, and otherwise from time to time, Expedia may determine to enter into other commercial arrangements with Microsoft and its affiliates.

Prior to November 1999, Microsoft owned 100% of Expedia's outstanding common stock. Concurrent with Expedia's separation from Microsoft, Expedia entered into a number of agreements with Microsoft to facilitate the separation.

Currently, Expedia has a tax allocation agreement where Expedia must pay Microsoft for a portion of the tax savings resulting from the exercise of certain stock options. Expedia has recorded $36.3 million in other long-term liabilities on Expedia's consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2005, related to this agreement. Expedia will pay Microsoft under this agreement when Expedia realizes the tax savings on Expedia's tax return. As of December 31, 2005, Expedia has not realized the tax savings related to the exercise of these stock options and has made no payments.
