REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED
PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders

ClickFind, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of ClickFind, Inc. as of December 31, 2005 and 2004, and the related statements of operations, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended. In connection with our audits of the financial statements, we also have audited the financial statement schedule, Valuation and Qualifying Accounts. These financial statements and the financial statement schedule are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of ClickFind, Inc. as of December 31, 2005 and 2004, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Also in our opinion, the related financial statement schedule, when considered in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole, presents fairly, in all material respects, the information set forth therein.

As discussed in Note 11 to the financial statements, certain errors resulting in an understatement of previously reported deferred revenues as of December 31, 2005, were discovered subsequent to issuance of the financial statements. Accordingly, the 2005 financial statements have been restated to correct this error.

ClickFind, Inc.
Notes to Financial Statements

1. Background and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies:

Background

ClickFind, Inc, a Texas corporation, was founded in 2000 to deliver web-based enterprise solutions using proprietary Java technologies. We focus on deploying custom applications to private desktops using collaborative workgroup networks.

Our base Electronic Data Collection (EDC)/Clinical Data Management System (CDMS) product offered in an integrated eClinical platform provides the core components necessary to eliminate the need for Contract Research Organization (CRO) intermediaries and vertical sector technology providers (IVRS, CTMS, etc.).

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financials statements and the reported revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenues

Our license revenues consist of perpetual license sales generally applicable to specific clinical trials. Our services revenue consists of project management services, development services, hosting, maintenance and support and electrocardiogram (ECG) processing services.

We recognize software revenues in accordance with Statement of Position 97-2, Software Revenue Recognition, as amended by Statement of Position 98-9. Accordingly, we recognize up-front license fee revenues under the residual method when a formal agreement exists, delivery of the software and related documentation has occurred, collectability is probable and the license fee is fixed or determinable. We recognize monthly data point fee revenue over the term of the arrangement. Project management service revenues are billed monthly over the term of service. Development service revenues are recognized based upon the labor hours to date as a percent of total estimated labor hours. Hosting, maintenance and support revenues are recognized as the services are performed over the term of the agreement. ECG processing services are recognized as the services are performed.

We have recorded reimbursements received for out-of-pocket expenses incurred as revenue in the accompanying financial statements in accordance with Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) Issue No. 01-14, Income Statement Characterization of Reimbursements Received for Out-of-Pocket Expenses .

Cash and cash equivalents

We consider cash on deposit with financial institutions and all highly liquid investments with a purchased maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. At the balance sheet dates, cash equivalents consisted primarily of cash on deposit with financial institutions.

Accounts Receivable

The Company's accounts receivable are due from a variety of customers. Credit is extended based on an evaluation of a customer's financial condition. Accounts receivable are generally due within 30 days and are stated at amounts due from customers, net of an allowance for doubtful accounts. Accounts outstanding longer than the contractual payment terms are considered past due. The Company determines its allowance by considering a number of factors, including the length of time trade accounts are past due, the Company's previous loss history, the customer's current ability to pay its obligations to the Company, and the condition of the general economy and industry as a whole. The Company writes off accounts receivable when they become uncollectible, and payments subsequently received on such receivables are credited to the allowance for doubtful accounts.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation is provided using the declining balance method over the estimated useful lives of the assets ranging from two to five years. Repair and maintenance costs are expensed as incurred. Improvements and betterments are capitalized. Gains or losses on the disposition of property and equipment are included in operations. Depreciation expense was $17,478, and $17,236 for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2005, respectively.

Software Development Costs

Research and development expenditures are charged to operations as incurred. SFAS No. 86, Accounting for the Costs of Computer Software to be Sold, Leased or Otherwise Marketed, requires the capitalization of certain software development costs subsequent to the establishment of technological feasibility. Since software development costs have not been significant after the establishment of technological feasibility, all such costs have been charged to expense as incurred.

Advertising Costs

We expense advertising costs as incurred. Advertising expense for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2005 was $13,352 and $9,524, respectively.

Stock-Based Compensation

In December 2002, SFAS No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure, was issued. SFAS No. 148 amended SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, to provide alternative methods of transition for a voluntary change to the fair value based method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation. In addition, SFAS No. 148 amended the disclosure requirements of SFAS No. 123 related to the disclosures about the method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation and the effect of the method used on reported results.

SFAS No. 123, as amended by SFAS No. 148, permits companies to (i) recognize as expense the fair value of stock-based awards or (ii) continue to apply the provisions of APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees and the related interpretations, and provide pro forma net income and earnings per share disclosures for employee stock option grants as if the fair value based method defined in SFAS No. 123 had been applied. We continue to apply the provisions of APB Opinion No. 25 and provide the pro forma disclosures in accordance with the provisions of SFAS Nos. 123 and 148. Under APB Opinion No. 25, we have not recorded any stock-based employee compensation cost associated with our stock option plans, as all options granted under any stock-based employee compensation cost associated with our stock option plans as all options granted under the plans had an exercise price equal to the market value of the underlying common stock on the date of grant.

The following table illustrates the effect on net income and earnings per share if we had applied the fair value recognition provisions of SFAS No. 123 to our stock option plans:

	Year Ended December 31,
	2004	2005
Net income (loss), as reported	$ (207,571)	$ 231,870
Deduct: Net stock-based employee compensation expense determined under fair value based method, net of related tax effects	(4,782)	(3,304)
Pro forma net income	$ (212,353)	$ 228,566
Earnings (loss) per share:
Basic as reported	$ (.04)	$.04
Basic pro forma	$ (.04)	$.04
Diluted as reported	$ (.04)	$.04
Diluted pro forma	$ (.04)	$.04

The weighted average fair value per share of our options granted during 2004 and 2005 was estimated at $.018 and $.020, respectively. The fair value of each option grant is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following weighted average assumptions:

	2004	2005
Risk free interest rate	4.00%	4.50%
Expected dividend yield	0.00%	0.00%
Expected life	5 years	5 years
Expected volatility	0.00%	0.00%

The effects of applying SFAS No. 123 in the pro forma disclosure may not be representative of future disclosures since the estimated fair value of stock options is amortized to expense over the vesting period and additional options may be granted in future years.

Income Taxes

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to the tax effects of operating loss and credit carryforwards and differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date.

Supplemental Cash Flow Information

During the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2005, we acquired $0 and $3,127, respectively, of property and equipment through the execution of capital leases. Interest paid during the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2005 totaled $17,059 and $20,572, respectively.

Concentration of Credit Risk and Significant Clients

Financial instruments that potentially subject us to concentration of credit risk consist primarily of trade accounts receivable from companies operating in the pharmaceutical, biotechnology and medical device industries. As of December 31, 2005, one client accounted for 38% of total accounts receivable. For the year ended December 31, 2004, two clients accounted for 69% and 14% of net revenues, respectively. For the year ended December 31, 2005, two clients accounted for 44% and 14% of net revenues, respectively. The loss of any such client could have a material adverse effect on our operations. We maintain reserves for potential credit losses and such losses, in the aggregate, have not historically exceeded management's expectations.

Concentration of credit risk also exists within our cash and cash equivalents, as deposits at December 31, 2005 exceed Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation coverage of $100,000.

Net Income per Common Share

Basic net income per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the year. Diluted net income per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the year, adjusted for the dilutive effect of common stock equivalents, which consist of stock options. The dilutive effect of stock options is computed using the treasury stock method. The common stock equivalents are anti-dilutive for 2004 due to the net loss for the year. Accordingly, they are not included in the calculation of diluted net loss per share for 2004. The table below sets forth the reconciliation of the numerators and denominators of the basic and diluted net income per share computation:

Year Ended December 31,	Net		Per
2004	Income	Shares	Share Amount
Basic net income (loss)	$ (207,571)	5,197,831	$ (.04)
Effect of dilutive shares
Diluted net income (loss)	$ (207,571)	5,197,831	$ (.04)
2005
Basic net income	$ 231,870	5,307,550	$.04
Effect of dilutive shares		374,681	(.00)
Diluted net income	$ 288,370	5,682,231	$.04

Recent Pronouncements

In December 2004, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued SFAS No. 123R, Share-Based Payment. SFAS No. 123R is a revision of SFAS No. 123. SFAS No. 123R establishes standards for the accounting for transactions in which an entity exchanges its equity instruments for goods or services. SFAS No. 123R requires companies to recognize in the statement of operations the grant date fair value of stock options and other equity-based compensation issued to employees, but expresses no preference for a type of valuation model. We currently use the intrinsic value method to measure compensation expense related to stock option grants that we issue under our stock option plans. Under the new rules, we will be required to adopt a fair value-based method for measuring the expense and this may materially impact our future reported results of operations. SFAS No. 123R is effective for most public companies' annual periods beginning after June 15, 2005. We are evaluating the impact on our results from adopting SFAS No. 123R, but we expect it to be comparable to the pro forma effects of applying the original SFAS No. 123 (see Stock-Based Compensation elsewhere in Note 1 for further details).

In December 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 153, Exchanges of Nonmonetary Assets, which eliminates an exception in APB Opinion No. 29 for nonmonetary exchanges of similar productive assets and replaces it with a general exception for exchanges of nonmonetary assets that do not have commercial substance, SFAS No. 153 will be effective for us for nonmonetary asset exchanges occurring in fiscal periods beginning after June 15, 2005. We are evaluating the impact from adopting SFAS No. 153, which is not expected to have a material impact on our financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

5. Income Taxes

The income tax provision consists of the following:

Tax at federal statutory rate	$ (70,579)	$ 71,730
Increase (decrease) in valuation allowance	70,579	(71,730)
	$	$

The components of our deferred taxes are as follows:

	December 31,
	2004	2005
Net operating loss carryforwards	$ 165,993	$ 94,009
Gross deferred tax assets	165,993	94,009
Depreciation	(3,495)	(10,667)
Gross deferred tax liabilities	(3,495)	(10,667)
Deferred tax assets valuation allowance	(162,498)	(83,342)
Net deferred tax assets	$	$

At December 31, 2005, we had net operating loss carry forwards for federal income tax purposes of approximately $276,500, which will begin to expire in 2022. The $71,730 decrease in the valuation allowance in 2005 was primarily related to the utilization of net operating loss carryforwards.

6. Stock Option Plan

In July 2000, the stockholders approved a stock option plan (the 2000 Plan) that authorized the grant of both incentive and non-qualified options to acquire up to 2,000,000 shares of our common stock. This plan was amended in August 2003 to increase by 500,000 the maximum number of shares that may be issued over the term of the Plan, resulting in a total of 2,500,000 shares of Common Stock available and reserved for issuance. The Chairman of the Board determines the recipients of option grants, the exercise price and other terms of the options under the 2000 Plan. The exercise price of incentive stock options will not be below fair value on the grant date. Incentive stock options under the 2000 Plan expire 10 years from the grant date, or at the end of such shorter period as may be designated by the Board, and are exercisable in accordance with vesting provisions set by the Board, generally over three years. Information with respect to outstanding options under our plans is as follows:

	Outstanding	Option Price	Weighted Average Exercise Price
	Shares	Per Share
Balance, December 31, 2003	1,834,841	$.01 - .10	$.08

The following table summarizes information about stock options outstanding at December 31, 2005:

7. Commitments and Contingencies

Leases

We lease office space and certain equipment. While the majority of the leases are operating leases, certain computer equipment is leased under capital leases. Rent expense, for all operating leases for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2005 was $53,500 and $59,500, respectively.

We lease approximately 9,000 square feet of office space in Bryan, Texas. Our lease expires January 31, 2006 and will continue on a month-to-month basis until a new lease is negotiated. Future minimum lease payments total $5,000 for 2006.

Amortization of assets acquired under capital leases is included in depreciation expense. At December 31, 2005, the asset cost was $3,127 and accumulated depreciation was $156. Future minimum lease payments for this capital lease as of December 31, 2005 are as follows:

2006	$ 1,980
2007	1,650
	3,630
Less imputed interest	711
Net present value of capital lease obligations	2,919
Less current installments	1,436
Long-term capital lease obligations, excluding current installments	$ 1,483

Indemnification

We license software to our customers under written agreements. Each agreement contains the relevant terms of the contractual arrangement with the customers, and generally includes provisions for indemnifying the customers against losses, expenses, and liabilities from damages that may be awarded against the customer in the event the software is found to infringe upon certain intellectual property rights of a third party. The agreement generally limits the scope of remedies for such indemnification obligations in a variety of industry-standard respects. We have not identified any losses that are probable under these provisions and, accordingly, no liability related to these indemnification provisions has been recorded.

8. Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Our financial instruments, including cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable, notes payable and capital leases are carried at cost, which approximates fair value due to the relatively short maturity of those instruments.

9. Stock Restrictions

Stocks issued under the Company's 2000 Stock Option Plan are subject to certain transfer restrictions. Unvested shares of common stock may not be transferred. Vested shares are subject to certain repurchase rights and rights of first refusal granted to the Company and accordingly may not be sold, assigned, transferred, encumbered, or in any manner disposed of except in conformity with the terms of a written purchase agreement between the Company and the registered holder of the shares.

11. Correction of Error

Subsequent to the issuance of the Company's financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2005, it was discovered that deferred revenues as of December 31, 2005 were understated for services invoiced in April 2005 but not yet provided as of December 31, 2005. Accordingly, the 2005 financial statements have been restated to correct the error.
