Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 3, 2007, the stockholders of Sourcefire, Inc. (the Company), upon the recommendation of the Board of Directors of the Company (the Board), approved the 2007 Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the 2007 ESPP). The Board approved the 2007 ESPP to provide a means by which the Company's employees (and employees of any parent or subsidiary of the Company as may be designated by the Board) will be given an opportunity to purchase shares of the Company's common stock through payroll deductions, to secure and retain the services of current and new employees and to provide incentives for such persons to exert maximum efforts for the success of the Company. The 2007 ESPP will be administered by the Board or an authorized committee of the Board. The Board has delegated administration of the 2007 ESPP to the Compensation Committee of the Board. Subject to the terms of the 2007 ESPP, the Compensation Committee will determine when and how rights to purchase common stock shall be granted to employees and will also determine the particular provisions of each individual offering.

An aggregate of one million (1,000,000) shares of the Company's common stock have been reserved for issuance under the 2007 ESPP. If rights granted under the 2007 ESPP expire, lapse or otherwise terminate without being exercised, the shares of common stock not purchased under such rights will again become available for issuance under the 2007 ESPP.

All of the Company's employees in the United States are eligible to participate in the 2007 ESPP, but employees outside of the United States will not be eligible to participate in the plan. However, no employee is eligible to participate in the 2007 ESPP if, immediately after the grant of purchase rights, the employee would own, directly or indirectly, 5% or more of the total combined voting power or value of all classes of stock of the Company (including any stock which such employee may purchase under all outstanding rights and options). In addition, no employee may purchase more than $25,000 worth of the Company's common stock (determined at the fair market value of the shares at the time such rights are granted) under all employee stock purchase plans of the Company in any calendar year. In addition to the preceding limitation, under the current offering no employee may purchase more than 500 shares of the Company's common stock during the offering.

The 2007 ESPP is implemented by offerings of rights to all eligible employees from time to time by the Board. Generally, all regular employees of the Company, including executive officers, who are employed at least 20 hours per week and five months per calendar year may participate in the 2007 ESPP and may authorize payroll deductions of up to 10% of their earnings for the purchase of the Company's common stock under the 2007 ESPP.

The maximum length for an offering under the 2007 ESPP is 27 months, and currently, each offering lasts for six months and each purchase period is six months long. Unless otherwise determined by the Board, common stock is purchased for accounts of employees participating in the 2007 ESPP at a price per share equal to the lower of (i) 85% of the fair market value of a share of the Company's common stock on the first day the offering or (ii) 85% of the fair market value of a share of the Company's common stock on the last trading day of the purchase period.

The foregoing description of the 2007 ESPP is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the 2007 ESPP and the form of Subscription Agreement thereunder, which are filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and are incorporated herein by reference.
