ITEM 3. BANKRUPTCY OR RECEIVERSHIP.

On April 22, 2003, Fleming Companies, Inc. (the "Company") issued a press release announcing that the Company has received the Bankruptcy Court's interim approval of its motion for $150 million secured debtor-in-possession ("DIP") financing package, which is subject to final documentation and budgetary approval by the Company's DIP lenders. Until the final conditions are met, the Company will operate with its $50 million interim bridge funding commitment that the Company received on April 3, 2003. The motion also approved the creation of a junior trade lien on Company assets for use in restoring trade terms from vendors who participate in the Company's vendor support program.

Edgar Filing: FLEMING COMPANIES INC /OK/ - Form 8-K

The lead lenders in the DIP financing package are Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas and JP Morgan Chase Bank. When finalized, the DIP facility will provide the Company with a revolving working capital facility that will be based on a borrowing base and other borrowing conditions. In accordance with U.S. Bankruptcy Law, interim approval is required prior to a 15-day waiting period for final approval at a hearing scheduled for May 6, 2003.

Under the Company's trade lien program, when finalized, trade vendors who meet certain requirements, such as agreeing to ship to the Company and restoring trade terms, will be eligible to participate in a lien on the Company's assets that is junior to the Company's DIP lenders and pre-petition secured lenders. The trade lien will cover post-petition credit advanced by the vendor and pre-petition reclamation claims up to the amount of credit advanced. This program has been agreed upon in principle with the Company's unsecured creditors committee and the Company's DIP lenders and pre-petition bank group and is subject to final documentation.

As previously announced, the Company and its operating subsidiaries filed voluntary petitions for reorganization under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code on April 1, 2003.

The filings were made in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court in Wilmington, Delaware. The case has been assigned to the Honorable Judge Mary F. Walrath under case number 03-10945 (MFW) (Jointly Administered). Fleming's court filings are available via the court's website, at <http://www.deb.uscourts.gov>.
