PROXY STATEMENT
2003 ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

This Proxy Statement is furnished to the shareholders of Entrx Corporation (hereinafter referred to as "Entrx"), in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of Entrx of proxies to be voted at the annual meeting of Entrx shareholders (the "Meeting"), to be held at 10:00 a.m. on June 18, 2003 at the Hyatt Regency Hotel, 1300 Nicollet Mall, Minneapolis, Minnesota. This Proxy Statement and the accompanying form of Proxy (the "Proxy") were first mailed on approximately May 15, 2003 to the shareholders of record of Entrx as of the close of business on May 7, 2003.

VOTING INFORMATION

Who is entitled to vote?

The holders of common stock of Entrx who are shareholders of record on May 7, 2003, may vote at the Meeting. As of May 7, 2003, there were 7,244,215 shares of Entrx's common stock outstanding.

What are you voting on?

At the Meeting, the following matters will be voted on:

The election of four members of the Board of Directors of Entrx.

Other matters incident to the conduct of the Meeting.

How does the Board recommend you vote on the proposals?

The Board recommends you vote your shares FOR the election of each of Entrx's nominees for director.

Who will be soliciting your vote?

The Board of Directors is soliciting your vote by mail through this Proxy Statement. However, your vote may also be solicited in person or by telephone by directors, officers or employees of Entrx. Brokers/dealers, nominees, fiduciaries and other custodians will be requested to forward soliciting materials to beneficial owners of Entrx's common stock, and will be reimbursed for their expenses in connection with that activity. The cost of all of this solicitation is being paid for by Entrx.

Table of Contents

How can you vote?

If you hold your shares as a shareholder of record, you can vote in person at the Meeting or you can vote by mail. You are a shareholder of record if you hold your shares directly in your own name. If you hold your shares indirectly in the name of a bank, broker or other nominee, you are a street name shareholder. If you are a street name shareholder, you will receive instructions from your bank, broker or other nominee describing how to vote your shares.

How do you vote by Mail?

You can vote by mail by following the instructions on the accompanying form of Proxy, signing the Proxy, and mailing it to the address noted on the Proxy or by using the accompanying envelope provided for that purpose. The persons named as proxies on the Proxy will vote your shares in accordance with your instructions. If you sign and submit your Proxy without giving instructions, the proxies named on the Proxy will vote your shares as recommended by the Board of Directors.

How can you revoke your Proxy?

If you are a shareholder of record, you can revoke your Proxy by:

Submitting a new Proxy;

Giving written notice before the meeting to Entrx's Secretary, at 800 Nicollet Mall, Suite 2690, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55402, stating that you are revoking your Proxy; or

Attending the Meeting and voting your shares in person.

Merely attending the meeting without voting will not revoke your Proxy.

If you are a street name shareholder, you may revoke your Proxy only as instructed by the bank, broker or other nominee holding your shares.

How do you sign the Proxy?

Sign your name exactly as it appears on the Proxy. If you are signing in a representative capacity (for example, as a guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, attorney or the officer or agent of a company), include your name and title or capacity. If the shares are held in custody (for example, under the Uniform Transfer to Minors Act), the custodian should sign, not the minor or other beneficiary. If the shares are held in joint ownership, both owners must sign.

Table of Contents

What does it mean if you receive more than one proxy or voting instruction card?

It means your shares are registered differently or are in more than one account. Please provide voting instructions for each Proxy you receive to ensure all your shares are voted.

What constitutes a quorum?

A quorum of shareholders is necessary to hold a valid meeting of shareholders. A majority of the outstanding shares, present in person or represented by proxy, constitutes a quorum for the Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes (as described below) are counted as present for establishing a quorum.

How can you cast your vote for directors?

You may cast your vote for any nominee as a member of the Board of Directors two ways. You may cast one vote for each share you own for each nominee, or you may cumulate your votes. In order to cumulate your votes, you would multiply the number of directors to be elected (four in this case) by the number of shares you own. This is the total (or cumulative) number of votes you can exercise. You may then cast this cumulative number of votes for one nominee, or distribute those votes among two or more nominees in any proportion you desire. In an uncontested election there is normally no need to cumulate votes.

How many votes are needed for approval of each proposal?

Persons nominated to be a member of the Board of Directors are elected by a plurality. That is, since there are four directorships established by the Board of Directors, those four nominees who receive the greatest number of votes will be elected as members of the Board of Directors, regardless of whether they receive the affirmative vote of the shareholders owning a majority of the shares of common stock present in person or by proxy. In an uncontested election, the plurality requirement is not a factor.

What is a broker non-vote?

A broker non-vote occurs when a broker submits a Proxy that does not indicate a vote for some of the proposals because the broker did not receive instructions from the beneficial owner on how to vote on those proposals and does not have discretionary authority to vote in the absence of instructions.

How can you attend the Meeting?

If you are a shareholder of record on May 7, 2003, you can attend the meeting by presenting acceptable identification at the Meeting. If you are a street name shareholder you may attend the meeting by presenting acceptable identification along with evidence of your beneficial ownership of Entrx common stock.

Compensation Committee Report

As the Compensation Committee of Entrx Corporation (Entrx), it is our duty to review and recommend the compensation levels for members of Entrx's management, evaluate the performance of management and the administration of Entrx's various incentive plans.

The policies and underlying philosophy governing Entrx's compensation program are to maintain a comprehensive program that is competitive in the marketplace, provide opportunities integrating salary and stock rights to compensate short and long term performance of management, recognize and reward individual accomplishments and allow Entrx to retain seasoned executives who are essential to Entrx's success.

In determining management's compensation, this Committee evaluates the compensation paid to management based on their performance, their experience, and the stage of development of Entrx. The Committee also takes into account such relevant external factors as general economic conditions, stock price performance, and stock market prices generally.

Management compensation is composed of salary, bonuses, and options to purchase shares of Entrx's common stock.

Bonuses may be discretionary, or based upon an established plan. No bonuses were paid to the current executive officers in 2002.

The base salaries for executive officers are determined by evaluating the responsibilities of the positions held, the individual experience, the competitive marketplace, the individual's performance of responsibilities and the individual's overall contribution to Entrx.

The Committee considers and recommends stock option grants to executive officers under Entrx's stock option plans. The Committee believes that stock options provide strong incentive to increase the value of stockholders' interests. Stock option grants are believed by the Committee to help focus management on the long-term success of Entrx. The amount of any stock option grant is based primarily on an individual's responsibilities and position with Entrx. Individual awards of options are affected by the Committee's subjective evaluation of factors it deems appropriate such as the assumption of responsibilities, competitive factors and achievements. Our recommendations for stock options are provided to Entrx's Stock Option Committee which has the authority to grant such options. During 2002 options were granted to Messrs. Mills, Niebur and Rizzo for the purchase of 150,000, 50,000 and 25,000 shares, respectively, at an exercise price of $2.50 per share for Messrs. Mills and Niebur, and $1.20 per share for Mr. Rizzo.

In March 2002, the Committee recommended that Entrx's President, Wayne W. Mills, and Entrx's Treasurer, Brian D. Niebur, be paid annual salaries at the rate of $200,000 and $60,000, respectively. Mr. Niebur's salary was increased to an annual rate of $75,000 in July, 2002, by the Board of Directors. In addition, the committee recommended that Mr. Mills be paid a bonus based upon the performance of the market price of Entrx's common stock. Under the bonus plan, no bonus was earned for 2002. The Committee has not yet recommended a bonus plan for 2003, but has recommended that salaries of executive officers in 2003 remain the same as 2002, and may recommend the adoption of a new bonus plan for 2003. The Committee also recommended the granting of stock options to Entrx's executive officers in 2002. The Board of Directors and Stock Option Committee followed our recommendations in each case.

Significant to the Committee's recommendations concerning executive compensation and option grants are significant events which have occurred over time as well as objectives set for the coming year. With regard to the year ended December 31, 2002, the Committee took into account the efforts of management in negotiating a merger of Entrx's 90% owned subsidiary, Chiral Quest, Inc. (formerly Surg II, Inc.) with Chiral Quest, LLC, which took place in February of this year, as well as the disappointing operating results and performance of the market value of Entrx's common stock.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

Transactions with Executive Officers

Effective January 1, 2002, Entrx entered into Amended and Restated Employment Agreements (the Amended Agreements) between the then president and chief executive officer of Entrx, Grant S. Kesler, and the then treasurer and chief financial officer of Entrx, Anthony C. Dabbene. The Amended Agreements increased the salaries of Messrs. Kesler and Dabbene from $250,000 and $180,000, to $300,000 and $216,000, respectively, changed the definition of a change in control of Entrx to include a change in the composition of the Board of Directors, and provided for an increase in the amount of severance payments and benefits which would be payable to each in the event they resigned after a change of control.

As a result of the resignations of Messrs. Kesler and Dabbene, as set forth under Change in Control below, and in lieu of compensation which would otherwise be due under change of control provisions contained in their Amended Agreements, Entrx issued Mr. Kesler 140,000 shares of Entrx's common stock, forgave a loan due from Mr. Kesler in the amount of $543,000 in exchange for future consulting services and paid Mr. Kesler $832,000 in cash, and issued Mr. Dabbene 86,000 shares of Entrx's common stock and paid Mr. Dabbene $637,000 in cash. In addition, all outstanding unvested stock options held by Messrs. Kesler and Dabbene were immediately vested and became exercisable. Messrs. Kesler and Dabbene each agreed to act as a consultant to Entrx under two-year and three-month consulting agreements, respectively. In addition to the payment discussed above, Mr. Dabbene's compensation for consulting was $5,000 per month. A portion of the cash payments due to Mr. Kesler and Mr. Dabbene ($482,000 and $425,000, respectively) was deposited by Entrx as income and payroll tax withholding on the total compensation paid to each of them.

Change in Control

Wayne W. Mills commenced an acquisition of Entrx shares in November 2000 for investment purposes, with the then understanding and encouragement of Entrx's management. In January 2001, Mr. Mills filed with Entrx and the Securities and Exchange Commission a report on form Schedule 13D reporting the acquisition of more than ten percent of the outstanding shares of the corporation by Mr. Mills, his wife and a company (Blake Capital Partners, LLC) controlled by Mr. Mills. Mr. Mills stated the shares were acquired for investment purposes and not with an intent to obtain control of Entrx.

Table of Contents

In December 2001, Mr. Mills amended his Schedule 13D to report a determination by Mr. Mills to undertake efforts to change the management of Entrx. Mr. Mills indicated he would seek the cooperation of the then current members of Entrx's management and, if those efforts were not successful, would solicit the shareholders of Entrx to elect replacement members to the Entrx Board of Directors.

In February 2002, as a result of negotiations among Mr. Mills and members of the Entrx management, and in order to avoid the cost and disruption to Entrx's business that would likely result from shareholder solicitations, (i) Grant S. Kesler, Anthony C. Dabbene and Bruce H. Haglund resigned as members of the corporation's Board of Directors; (ii) Mr. Mills, Gary W. Copperud, Kenneth W. Brimmer and Joseph M. Senser were elected to the corporation's Board of Directors; and (iii) Mr. Mills and Brian D. Niebur were, respectively, appointed as Entrx's chief executive officer and chief financial officer.

Mr. Mills reported that he, his spouse, and Blake Capital Partners, LLC used personal funds to acquire their Entrx shares. He further reported that the purchases were made as open market acquisitions.

In connection with the change in management of Entrx, employment agreements with Mr. Kesler and Mr. Dabbene were amended, consulting agreements were made with them and a debt owed to Entrx by Mr. Kesler was forgiven. The terms of such amendments, consulting agreements and debt forgiveness are described under "Transactions with Executive Officers" above.

Reimbursement of Expenses

In connection with his efforts in effecting the change of control as discussed above, Mr. Mills expended in excess of $100,000 in legal fees and other expense. By action of the Board of Directors, Mr. Mills was reimbursed for such expenses, not to exceed $100,000.

Vesting of Directors' Options

As a result of the change in control discussed above, options granted to four non-executive officers of Entrx who served as members of the Board of Directors became fully vested in February, 2002.

Loan to Affiliate of Wayne Mills

On December 10, 2001, Entrx loaned Blake Capital Partners, LLC ( "Blake Capital" ) a Minnesota limited liability company, $1,250,000 under a non-recourse secured note (the "Note" ) which Blake Capital used to acquire an equity interest in an entity unrelated to Entrx. Blake Capital is wholly owned by Wayne W. Mills who later became a director and the President of Entrx on February 13, 2002. The Note with interest at the rate of 6% per annum, was due June 10, 2002. Blake Capital had the right to extend the due date of the Note for up to 90 days, and on June 10, 2002, exercised that right. During the 90-day extension period and beyond, the rate of interest increased to 12% per annum. The Note was not repaid on the extended due date of September 8, 2002.

As security for the loan, Mr. Mills pledged 500,000 shares of Entrx's common stock, under the terms of a pledge agreement (the Pledge Agreement) dated as of December 10, 2001. In October, 2002, Entrx spun off shares of Chiral Quest, Inc. common stock as a dividend to its shareholders, on the basis of one share of Chiral Quest, Inc. common stock for each two shares of Entrx common stock held as of October 11, 2002. Prior to the dividend, Chiral Quest, Inc. (then Surg II, Inc.) was a 90% owned subsidiary of Entrx. As a result of the dividend, Mr. Mills received 250,000 shares of the common stock of Chiral Quest, Inc., which were added to the 500,000 shares of Entrx's common stock held as collateral for the loan. The Pledge Agreement provides that Mr. Mills will retain voting power over the collateralized shares until such shares are either cancelled or sold to satisfy the loan under the terms of the Note and Pledge Agreement. To satisfy its obligations under the Note, all or a portion of the 500,000 shares of Entrx common stock, or 250,000 shares of Chiral Quest, Inc. common stock, can be sold at the direction of Blake Capital, in which case the proceeds of such sale will be applied against the principal and interest due under the Note. The terms of the Note also provide that Blake Capital can request that the Entrx shares be cancelled, in which case they will carry a value of $2.50 per share which may be applied against the amount due under the Note. If the Note is in default, Entrx can cancel the shares at a value of $2.50 per share, and apply the amount cancelled against the principal and interest due under the Note. Entrx is taking the position that the $2.50 value now relates to one share of Entrx common stock and one-half share of Chiral Quest, Inc. common stock.

Since the Note is non-recourse to Blake Capital, neither Blake Capital nor Mr. Mills has any personal liability under the Note, except for the interest on the Note, and Entrx's only recourse for repayment of the Note is the 500,000 shares of Entrx common stock, and 250,000 shares of Chiral Quest, Inc. common stock, pledged as security. As of December 31, 2002, the market value of the collateral was $387,000 less than the balance due under the loan. The Board of Directors has determined not to foreclose on the collateral at this time.

Mr. Mills began acquiring Entrx common stock in the open market as an investment in November, 2000, and by August 31, 2001, had acquired 15% of Entrx's outstanding common stock. Under certain provisions of the Delaware Corporation Law (the Delaware Law), if a shareholder acquires 15% of the outstanding common stock of a corporation incorporated under the Delaware Law without prior approval of the Board of Directors of that corporation, Entrx is precluded from entering into certain transactions without the affirmative vote of holders of at least two-thirds of the shares of Entrx's outstanding common stock, excluding the shares owned by the 15% or greater shareholder. The precluded transactions include any merger or consolidation of Entrx and certain of its subsidiaries with any other corporation in which Mr. Mills had an interest, certain mergers or consolidations which might be considered as caused by Mr. Mills under the statute, and the receipt by Mr. Mills of any loan, advance, guarantee, pledge or other financial benefit. (See CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS Change in Control). The loan was made to Mr. Mills when he owned more than 15% of the outstanding common stock of Entrx. Although members of the Board of Directors of Entrx were aware of Mr. Mills purchases of Entrx common stock, no official prior approval for such purchases was given by the Board of Directors. As a result, the loan was likely in violation of Section 203 of the Delaware Corporation Law. Neither Mr. Mills nor the management of Entrx was aware of the provisions of said Section 203 at the time the loan was made.

STOCK PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The graph below provides an indication of the cumulative return on Entrx's common stock as compared to the NASDAQ stock index and to eight specialty trade contractors (including Entrx) whose common stock is traded in the NASDAQ market for the period January 1, 1998 through December 31, 2002. The graph is presented on the assumption that $100 was invested at the close of the market on December 31, 1997, in shares of Entrx common stock, in the NASDAQ stock market index, and in the eight specialty trade contractors, weighted on the basis of the closing market price as of December 31, 1997, with all dividends reinvested.

Reporting Under Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires executive officers and directors of Entrx, and persons who beneficially own more than 10 percent of Entrx's outstanding shares of Common Stock, to file initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of securities of Entrx with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and the NASDAQ Stock Market. Officers, directors and persons owning more than 10 percent of Entrx's outstanding Common Stock are required by SEC regulation to furnish Entrx with copies of all Section 16(a) forms filed. Based solely on a review of the copies of such reports and amendments thereto furnished to or obtained by Entrx or written representations that no other reports were required, Entrx believes that during the year ended December 31, 2002, all filing requirements applicable to its directors, officers or beneficial owners of more than 10 percent of Entrx's outstanding shares of Common Stock were complied with.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The following Audit Committee report shall not be deemed to be soliciting material or to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 nor incorporated by reference into any document so filed.

The purpose of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in its oversight of management's conduct of the Company's financial reporting process. The Audit Committee reviewed and discussed with management of the Company and Virchow, Krause & Company, LLP the audited consolidated financial statements of the Company contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002. Management is responsible for the Company's internal controls and the financial reporting process. Virchow, Krause & Company, LLP is responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and issuing a report thereon. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes.

The Audit Committee discussed with Virchow, Krause & Company, LLP the matters required by Codification of Statements on Auditing Standards No. 61. The Audit Committee also received and reviewed the written disclosures and the letter from Virchow, Krause & Company, LLP required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, and discussed with that firm its independence from the Company. The Audit Committee discussed with management of the Company and Virchow, Krause & Company, LLP such other matters and received such assurances as the Audit Committee deemed appropriate.

The Audit Committee considered the effect that provision of all other non-audit related fees may have on the independence of Virchow, Krause & Company, LLP. The Audit Committee has determined that provision of those services is compatible with maintaining the independence of Virchow, Krause & Company, LLP as the Company's principal accountants.

Based on the foregoing review and discussions and a review of the report of Virchow, Krause & Company, LLP, and relying thereon, the Audit Committee recommended the inclusion of the audited consolidated financial statements in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002.

Auditors

The Board of Directors of Entrx selected Moss Adams, LLP ( Moss Adams ), certified public accountants, to audit the accounts of Entrx for the year ended December 31, 2001, and to perform other appropriate accounting services for Entrx as needed.

On April 4, 2002, Moss Adams, LLP ( Moss Adams ), resigned as Entrx's auditors. The report of Moss Adams on the consolidated financial statements of Entrx for the years 2000 and 2001 did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. The resignation of Moss Adams was not sought, recommended or approved by the Audit Committee or Board of Directors of Entrx. There were no disagreements between the management of Entrx and Moss Adams with respect to the consolidated financial statements of Entrx for the years 2000 and 2001, or any interim period, or any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which were not resolved to the satisfaction of Moss Adams or which would have caused Moss Adams to make reference to the subject matter or any such disagreement in connection with rendering its report on those consolidated financial statements. Moss Adams had audited the accounts of Entrx since 1998.

On April 16, 2002, upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee, Entrx engaged Virchow Krause & Company, LLP ( Virchow Krause ), certified public accountants with offices in Minneapolis, Minnesota, to audit Entrx's consolidated financial statements for 2002 and to perform other appropriate accounting services for Entrx as needed. Entrx had not previously engaged Virchow Krause on any matter. A representative of Virchow Krause will be present at the Annual Meeting of the shareholders to be held on June 18, 2003.
